PRESIDENT'S CORNER

by Larry "Joe" Reynolds

It's hard to believe that we are already a couple of months into 2015. I hope you all had a very good New Year and I just wanted to take a few minutes to bring you up to date on some new and exciting changes going on with the Reynolds Family Association.

As many of you know, we have now assumed the duties and responsibilities of Administrator for the Reynolds Surname DNA Project with FamilyTreDNA.com. See my article on the Project in this newsletter.

We are in the process of re-numbering and re-aligning our current RFA Lines. I would like to see our Line 25 become simply a holding Line until we can either assign the person to an existing Line or create a new one for the member. I want to look at combining the RFA Lines with the current Surname Groups in the DNA project.

Plans are underway for our 2015 Annual Reunion and we should have information on the dates and location within the month.

WELCOME NEW AND RETURNING MEMBERS!

NECROLOGY

Dr. Glen George Reynolds, M.D.

It is with a heavy heart that I report the death of Dr. Glen George Reynold, M.D. of Sun Valley, California.

Dr. Glen, Member of the Board of Directors, RFA Line Coordinator for Line-020, former RFA President (1989-1995), Life Member, Friend and Cousin passed away on Sunday, February 22, 2015.

I'm attaching his obituary, written by his wife Barbara, to this newsletter

He will be deeply missed by the Association and his many friends.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EDITOR

It has been my pleasure to publish my first edition of the RFA Newsletter. I have had experience in publishing newsletters for another organization so this was a “piece of cake” for me particularly since President Joe sent me a template from which to work.

If you have any item that you would like published in the newsletter, please email it to me at mhccannon@aol.com. I welcome any suggestions that any of you may have that would improve the newsletter.

I have spent the past several years working on the Reynolds Genealogy and have a database that contains more than 50,000 names. If you would like for me to search my database for a relative that you have been unable to locate, please email me.

85TH ANNUAL RFA REUNION

Plans are underway for our 85th Annual Reynolds Family Association Reunion to be held sometime in September or October. We are currently looking at Independence, MO as the site for this year's reunion.

The Midwest Genealogy Center in Independence was originally planned for our 2004 Annual Reunion but was called off at the last minute due to the death of the individual who was organizing the meeting. This location is near the center of the United States, which may allow more members to attend.

Please keep your calendars open for the last two weekends in September and more information will follow as soon as everything is finalized.

REYNOLDS SURNAME yDNA PROJECT

As many of you already know, effective in December 2014, with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Reynolds Family Association assumed the duties and responsibilities of Administrator of the Reynolds Surname yDNA Project.

We fill that this will be a valuable addition and we are now in the process of attempting to align the two as far as the RFA Line numbers and the Surname Project Group Numbers. To this end I'm now looking for volunteers to assist me with this project.

I feel that one of the first things that we need to do is to make sure that the Ungrouped members of the Reynolds Surname yDNA project is placed into an existing group or they should form their own group. Once that has been accomplished we can look at matching the Surname groups with our RFA Lines.

I'm looking for two volunteers who is familiar with yDNA and will be able to look at the results of one individual and match them with the results of another. If you have questions or just unsure, please let me know. We can talk about it and see if you can help.

I'm also looking for a couple of people who are willing to act as Co-Administrators to the project. This will include answering e-mails, allowing or denying individuals membership in the Surname Project and assisting the Administrator with other duties.

I honestly feel that this is a wonderful opportunity for us as an Organization to help further the research of this great family. The Reynolds Surname yDNA Project currently has some 210 members and I'm looking forward to having as many of these member as possible also become members of the Reynolds Family Association.

I have developed and uploaded a Web Site for the Project at: www.reynoldsdna.org and would like to invite you all to visit it. I'm attempting to get all of the Project Members to submit a Pedigree Chart and the more that submits, the better the chance that you may connect to another cousin.

I would especially request that all current members who are a member of the Reynolds Surname yDNA project submit their Pedigree Chart and Information Release Form.

QUERIES

Upon writer request members' queries will be published without charge and non-members' will be published at discretion of RFA, also without charge. Queries may be edited and RFA assumes no responsibility for their accuracy. [Editor's comments will be in brackets.] Please address all queries to the editor.

TX 76132, Does anyone have the parents for Larkin Reynolds, born about 1809 in KY, married first to a Rhodes, second to a Flanders, lived in Breckinridge Co KY and LaRue Co KY, probably died before 1880. Is he related to Thomas D. Reynolds, born about 1797 in Rhode Island? Larkin is living next to him in 1850 LaRue Co KY census. Or is Larkin the son of Thomas Reynolds and Mary Love of Breckinridge Co KY?

Greetings Reynolds Genealogists

I am researching and wish to locate primary sources verifying where and in what parish in England Robert Reynolds (b: about 1580-90 in England; d: 27 Apr, 1658, Boston, MA) was born (possibly Boxford, Suffolk County, England, or Aylesford, Kent Co., England), his parents' names, and his marriage date and place to wife Mary. Has anyone discovered primary source verification for this information?

Robert and his wife Mary and their five children (Ruth, Tabitha, Nathaniel, Sarah and Mary) immigrated to Boston as part of the Winthrop Fleet in about 1630. Any assistance with establishing, with verifiable evidence, Robert's place of birth and parish would be appreciated. Thank you.

Allen L. Schlamp, ALSchlamp@aol.com,
3617 Trimble Road, Nashville, TN 37215,

Isaac Calvin Reynolds (b. NJ 1831) was my GGF and according to my records, his father was Miles L (1802-77) and GF was James (1770-1830). I would like to know what ancestor line this corresponds to.

Also, Isaac Calvin's wife and my GGM was Mary Ann Wellmann and I've not been able to find any prior ancestor in that line. Would appreciate any help.

Shane Donohue,
shane.donohue@searshc.com, 2908 Elliott
Street, Baltimore, MD 21224,

I am seeking information on the REYNOLDS REYNELL De Reynell Families. Any information on this particular bloodline, in particular Robert Reynolds the third and his relationship to the Scottish royal bloodline.

I recently began tracing my lineage on Ancestry.com in the hopes of finding where in Ireland my dad's side of the family came from. My dad's last name is Donohue, his grandfather married Susie Reynolds. To my amazement, it appears I am a direct descendant of some very prestigious and fascinating bloodlines in England. It appears that particular line goes all the way back to the Normans in France, Comte A De Reynell (30th great grandfather) is as far as I can go back (990-1030). After him is Count Arnoul de Reynell, followed by another Arnoul De Reynell, then Walter Reynells, Carew Reynells, and many more, one being an archbishop of Canterbury,

Robert Reynolds the third, at least on Ancestry has a lot of stories that allude to him being a direct descendant of the Scottish Royal family. I was hoping maybe you could point me in the right direction to research. It looks like Thomas Reynolds migrated to Boston in 1590, I was also hoping to find out how this prestigious blood line ended up marrying my Irish great grandfather in West Virginia.

Diana Schwartz, laceyann@roadrunner.com,
921 Bethel New Hope Road, Bethel, OH,

I am about to submit an application to Colonial Dames on Edward Starbuck. And, I am most interested in his wife, Katherine Reynolds. I have researched Robert Reynolds and find no Catherine or Katherine. Has any more information come to light on Katherine Reynolds? If married in Dover, N. H., was Katherine already living there?

Glenn G. Reynolds, M.D., 89 of Sun Valley, California, passed away at his home on February 22, 2015. He spent the last weeks of his life surrounded by family and friends.

Born to Seventh-day Adventist missionary parents in Najibabad, India, he inherited a strong world-view marked by a lifetime of service. Glenn graduated from the Loma Linda University, School of Medicine in 1954. While engaged in his studies, he contracted polio. Courageously, he completed his medical training and though confined to a wheelchair actively practiced medicine until his retirement in 2001.

Highlighting his many accomplishments are his 1981 nomination as Physician of the Year by the American Medical Association, serving as Chair of the Division of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at Stanford University School of Medicine, as well being an appointee under the administrations of George H.W. Bush and William J. (Bill) Clinton.

Dr. Glenn will be remembered as a generous man, having funded a hospital, school and church in Nepal and India. But more importantly, he is remembered for his compassionate care of thousands of disabled citizens and veterans, contributing to the science and technology of patients suffering from head and spinal injuries, at the world-renowned Rehabilitation Program at the Santa Clara Valley Medical Center in California.

As a husband and parent, he was a lover of family. Glenn was also a connoisseur of music and food, a pilot, sailor and an avid gardener. Until the end, he was always passionately engaged in learning and teaching. He is survived by his wife, Barbara; four daughters, Shirley Karavanic, Valerie Boger, Mary Bailey, and Pamela Hogg; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Dr. Glenn Reynolds was interred on March 6 in the Riverside National Cemetery in Riverside, California.
