The Reynolds Family Association

The Association was founded at Lyme, Connecticut, in 1892. Since 1899 it has published each year the Annual of from fifty to three hundred pages, recording the proceedings and speeches of the annual re-unions, short biographies and portraits of notable members, military records, membership lists, queries, and valuable collections of genealogical information concerning the Family.

The purpose of the Association is to promote the recognition of a common ancestry; to increase acquaintance and sociability among kinsmen; to collect and preserve records; to secure the preparation and publication of Reynolds genealogies; and to further such eugenic studies of family traits, tendencies and physical characteristics as may be practicable.

Any descendant, or relative by marriage, of the various American Colonial Reynolds families is eligible to membership. Application should be made to the Secretary of the Association. Blank forms and charts will then be sent for the full recording of personal and family history. The Association Annual is sent postpaid to every member in good standing. Members are entitled to use the ancient coat-of-arms and embossed stationery, pins, fobs, etc., bearing the crest, which can be obtained from the Secretary. Anyone, whether a member or not, who wishes genealogical information, will be assisted as fully as possible by the officers of the Association. The Association maintains a large collection of unpublished genealogical material, lists of births, marriages, deaths, cemetery records, etc. It is prepared to suggest or direct research on Reynolds Family history, or to aid in establishing qualifications for the D. A. R., S. A. R., Colonial Dames, etc. The Association will consider publishing any original Reynolds manuscript, whether partial or complete, if such material is carefully collected and compiled.

Back numbers of the Annuals from 1899 to date and genealogies separately published by the Association can be secured at small cost from the Secretary. Every one should own the Annuals of 1915, 1916, 1921, 1922 and 1923. That of 1916 gives the official service and battle records of almost 500 Reynoldses who served in the Revolutionary War.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

JOHN AND SARAH REYNOLDS

of Watertown, Mass., and Wethersfield, Stamford and Greenwich, Conn.

Compiled by

MRS. ANNA C. RIPPIER and MARION H. REYNOLDS

Based particularly upon previous genealogies by Marcus T. Reynolds of Albany, N. Y.; Alvah Reynolds of Altona, Ill.; and Harrah J. Reynolds of Meadville, Penna., with much added new material.

The corrections, additions, revisions and continuations of this Genealogy will appear in future Annuals of the REYNOLDS FAMILY ASSOCIATION from time to time. Henceforth such material will be edited by MRS. MARY E. LOCKWOOD SMITH who has contributed materially to the success of this difficult work. Mrs. Smith may be addressed in care of the Secretary of the REYNOLDS FAMILY ASSOCIATION.

The earlier history of the descendants of John and Sarah is identified with Stamford, Greenwich, and close-by towns of Connecticut. There they intermarried frequently with the large families of Meads, Husteds, Hobbies, Holmes and Knapps. After 1700 the first large overflow of the family went west across the state line into Westchester County, N. Y., and about 1740, into Dutchess County, N. Y. The next generations pushed up the eastern side of the Hudson River into Columbia, Rensselaer, Saratoga, Albany and Washington Counties, N. Y. After the Revolution and about 1800, they ventured far out into the wilderness of the forests and prairies of the Great West as pioneers. Today they are scattered pretty well over the United States, though the greatest number of living descendants is still to be found in New York State, lower Connecticut, and New Jersey.

Several previously published genealogies of this family have been much relied upon in this present work:

Edwin Ruthven Reynolds, 1875: Reynolds, Gale and Baker Families. 16 pages. Pub. Albion, N. Y.

Marcus T. Reynolds, 1911: Reynolds Genealogy, published in Hudson-Mohawk Valley Memoirs. Vol. IV: 1825-47. Series edited by Cuyler Reynolds.

Marcus T. Reynolds, 1914: Reynolds Genealogy, republished unchanged in Family Hist of So. New York, etc. I: 392-416. Series edited by Cuyler Reynolds.

Alvah Reynolds, 1915: Reynolds Genealogy. A second and final edition, much enlarged and improved, was published in 1916; 160 pages. Published Galesburg, Ill.

Norman A. Reynolds, 1916: My Descent from John Reynolds. Two pages. Published Owosso, Mich.

Frank I. Bennett, 1921: The Ancestry and Descendants of Hosea and Elizabeth Fuller Reynolds, 1612-1921. Chicago.

Two large unpublished manuscript volumes by Harrah J. Reynolds have also been very valuable for our work. Of these genealogists, only Edwin Ruthven Reynolds is not living to see this consolidated genealogy published. The compilers also acknowledge their thanks for the extensive help of Mrs. Caroleen B. Sheppard, Spencer P. Mead, Mrs. Mary E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Jay Reynolds, Miss Harriet Reynolds, Frank V. R. and Norman Reynolds. Among general works which the compilers have freely used are: Mead's Ye History of Greenwich, 1901, and the Mead Genealogy, 1901; Cleveland Genealogy; Hinman's Puritan Settlers of Connecticut; Hotten's Original Lists of Emigrants to American Plantations; Huntington's History of Stamford; Hurd's History of Fairfield Co., Conn.; Henry R. Stiles' Ancient Wethersfield; and Dr. Henry Bond's History of Watertown, Mass.; and several voluminous bound manuscripts by Spencer P. Mead in the genealogical room of the New York City Public Library, such as Stamford Probate Abstracts, Greenwich-Stanwich Church Records, Cemetery Records, etc. There are numerous other helpful books.

The records for the Church which was in the East Society, Greenwish (now Sound Beach), have long been missing, and the vital records of Greenwich for the early period are scattered through other books of record. They were carefully copied by Mr. Mead when compiling his History of Greenwich, and can be seen in typed form at the Recorder's Rooms, Greenwich.

The repetition of such names as David, John Jonathan, Nathaniel, Timothy, Abigail, Sarah, Mary, etc., has caused endless confusion for genealogists of this Family. Though many previous errors have been corrected in this book, a great deal of original research in the Fairfield, Greenwich, Stamford, Stanwich, Woodbury, and Westchester and Dutchess records of probate, town records, vital records, church records, etc., should yet be done. Lack of money and of leisure have forced the Editors to do what they could with the materials already gathered, some of them in inaccurate form or hastily copied by previous searchers.

We hope that this publication will stimulate Watertown descendants to digging in their respective town records for more authentic information on the early generations.

The birth-dates assigned to John and Sarah, 1612 and 1614, seem to have no authority; and a good many other early dates where only the year is given seem to be the guesswork of some early amateur genealogist. If we accept the Sarah, aged twenty, who came over in the Elizabeth, 1634—see later pages for full discussion—as John's wife, then 1614 is correct for the birth of John's wife. It seems improbable that John was only 23 when made a Freeman of Watertown (1635) and appointed a member of so important a town committee as the one mentioned in that year. John[2] who died in 1701 was the first of the family to leave a will and full account of his children and property.

Neither of the Editors of this Genealogy are of Watertown descent. The major part of the article on the first and second generation following this introduction was written by Mr. Marcus T. Reynolds of Albany, who is the foremost authority.

Nothing definite as to the English home of our Family has ever been discovered; nor do we know the names of the parents or ancestors of John or Sarah. We are sure only that they were English and that they migrated from England to America between 1630-1634. The Editors have considered futile any discussion of our English home or origin without further investigation in England. We hope that some day some such researches may be published in the Annuals of the Reynolds Family Association. The ancient coat-of-arms with the fox crest which appears on the gravestone of Joseph Reynolds (d. 1759) in Bristol, R. I., if official, probably belongs as much to the descendants of John as to those of his kinsman Robert. It has been frequently reproduced in the Association Annuals.

Though the utmost care has been taken to copy carefully and constantly to check data, the numerous conflicting records of previous workers have caused much bewilderment to the Editors, as will appear on some of the following pages. Of many genealogists formerly working upon this Family, only Marcus T. Reynolds and Spencer P. Mead have searched the original records in Greenwich for authentic data. Numerous others have copied and re-copied one another's manuscripts and dates until it is often well-nigh impossible to determine which of several assigned birth, marriage or death dates is the correct one. Most of the printers' proofs of later generations herein have been cut up and mailed out directly to the respective subjects for their own proofreading. The proofs on the whole of this Genealogy have been carefully read by the Editors and by Mrs. Smith, Marcus T. Reynolds, Harrah J. Reynolds and Alvah Reynolds, and other authorities. It is hoped that the errors and imperfections usual to genealogies have thereby been held to a minimum.

Corrections, additions and notes will appear in later Association annuals. Watch for them. Anyone who can correct or add anything to this compilation is invited to submit information to

How to Find Ancestors or Descendants

Typography and numbering are quite simple. A parent's name and his biography are set in large (ten-point) type; his children follow the biography in smaller (eight-point) type. Quotations are occasionally inserted in eight-point type among the larger-type biographies. Footnotes are in fine (six-point) type. Maiden names of wives or husbands marrying Reynolds descendants are in ten-point italics, as also are synopses of descent from the first John and Sarah.

Take, for example, in the Fourth Generation-Chapter, REUBEN[4] REYNOLDS, No. 72, who appears as a parent on page 64-65. He appears previously as No. *72 on page 46 as a child under his father's biography. On pages 64-65 Reuben's children in their turn appear in the smaller type and with heavy black numbers. Several of them are starred (Nos. *191, Reuben, Jr.; *198, David, etc.) and will be found a second time in the next, or fifth, generation—see pages 92-96—where they become heads of their families. Several of his children not so starred (Nos. 194, 196, etc.) are not carried forward, because we know no more of them, and so far as we know their genealogical history ends. The un-starred children often died in infancy, remained unmarried, removed to places unknown, etc.

Observe that on page 64 the name of Reuben's wife Elizabeth Mead, is in italics. Also that immediately after his name appears the synopsis of his descent from John[1]—(Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1])—Joseph being his father, Jonathan his grandfather, and John[1] and Sarah his great-grandparents, founders of the line.

To trace Reuben's ancestors, glance to the next line preceding his name (that would be *190, Amos, etc.), and follow those small numbers back until *72 in bold-face type is again reached (that, of course, is on page 46). There it is seen that Reuben's father is Joseph, No. 26, who may in the same manner be traced back to his father Jonathan on page 31, etc.

* * * * *

To trace Reuben's descendants, let us take on page 64, No. *191 who is Reuben, Jr., the first-born, as an example. The star indicates that he appears in the next generation as head of his own family, and so turning to that, the Fifth Generation, and, taking the large-type (none of which ever bears stars) in succession, we come to No. 191, on pages 92-93. We may take any of the children of Reuben, Jr., on that page and trace them into the Sixth Generation-Chapter in the same manner.

Occasionally children-numbers between families have been skipped to allow for last-minute discoveries.

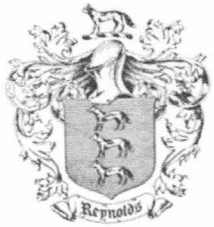
COAT-OF-ARMS OF
THE REYNOLDS FAMILY ASSOCIATION

Is copied from this original upon an ancient (1759) gravestone in the old cemetery in the center of the city of Bristol, Rhode Island. The stone marks the grave of JOSEPH[3] REYNOLDS (1676-1759), son of CAPTAIN NATHANIEL[2] REYNOLDS (1627-1708) of Boston and Bristol, and grandson of the immigrants (1630?) ROBERT and MARY REYNOLDS of Boston. Another fine picture of the stone is the frontispiece of the 1900 Annual of The Reynolds Family Association.

A more complete history of this coat will be given in the forthcoming History and Descendants of Robert and Mary Reynolds of Boston.

ROBERT of BOSTON is supposed to have been a brother or an uncle of the JOHN REYNOLDS of Watertown of whose history and descendants this Book treats. Robert and John probably came from England in the same ship, and they were associated in Watertown, Mass., 1634-35, and at Wethersfield, Conn., 1635-36. Read the third paragraph on page thirteen herein. The arms belong equally well to John's descendants.

This coat-of-arms with foxes is probably very ancient, and its origin is thought to be Norman-French. Compare the French word for fox, renard, and the French names Renaud, Reynaud with our name Reynolds. Large and attractive copies of this coat-of-arms for framing can be had of the Reynolds Family Association. They are copied by an artist and done in colors, size 10″ x 12″.



JOHN AND SARAH REYNOLDS OF WATERTOWN

The progenitor of that branch of the Reynolds Family which settled in Greenwich, Conn., was John Reynolds, born in England probably about 1612. There is no authority for this date. His wife, Sarah, was born about 1614; and their three known children were Elizabeth, Jonathan and John. It is thought that John Reynolds sailed from the Port of London or Ipswich. In America, the first recorded mention of him is in Watertown, Mass., on his being made a Freeman, May 6, 1635.

Watertown, 1634. He may have come with the several hundred colonists under Sir Richard Saltonstall and John Winthrop who crossed during April-June, 1630, in the ships Arbella, Jewell, Ambrose and Talbot. In the first few weeks after their arrival they stopped at Salem and Charlestown and then in July divided into two parties. One, under Governor John Winthrop, settled Boston in July, 1630; and in the same month, the remainder of the immigrants under Sir Richard Saltonstall founded Watertown. From the Watertown colonists came the first settlers of Wethersfield, Conn. They were Puritans or Non-Conformists; not Pilgrims, or Separatists, or Brownists. The First Church at Watertown was gathered on August 27, 1630, under the Rev. George Phillips as Pastor. In England† he had been "minister at Boxford in the County of Essex. Most of them were, probably, the people of his former charge and from the same county."

Robert Reynolds (1580?-1659) of Boston who was mentioned in connection with Watertown at this time, and who§ "from 'well-authenticated private records of long ago,' was known to have been in Boston in 1632," was probably a brother, uncle or cousin of John Reynolds. There is some tradition, indeed, supported by an occasional similarity of family names, that possibly James of North Kingstown and William of Providence might also be John's brothers. But this relationship would seem to be extremely doubtful.

"Sarah Reynolds, aged 20," believed‡ to be John's wife, was a passenger on the ship Elizabeth, sailing from Ipswich, Mr. William Andrews, Master, "bound for new EngLand the last of Aprill 1634"; but John Reynolds' name is not on the passenger list. Sarah's name appears alone between "Robert Day and his wife" and "Robert Goodall and his wife"—it is barely possible she might have accompanied either family. However, it is more interesting to note that on that very ship came John Sherman, Thurston Raynor and his wife, Isaac Mixer and his wife, and others soon after associated with our John at Watertown, Wethersfield and Stamford. And it is even more important that †Trumbull: History of Connecticut, I: 23, 26.

§Rev. M. T. Runnels: Runnels-Reynolds Family, pub. 1873, p. 253. We do not know why Runnels make this statement so positively, nor why he emphasizes known, but it seems significant.

‡John C. Hotten: Original Lists, Emigrants to America, 1600-1700, pub. 1874, pp. 280-81.

John's home-lot, mentioned below, was between Sherman and Mixer in Watertown, and so described the next year (1635). Still we must consider that there was a ¶Henry Reignoldes of Salem also with wife Sarah mentioned in Salem in 1642, just eight years later. But as Henry seems to have been considerably younger than John, we can probably accept this Sarah as the wife of our John. Accepting Sarah means that we must conclude that John came over before 1634. The Editors are of opinion he came with the Winthrop-Saltonstall colony in 1630.

John Reynolds was admitted‖ by the General Court as a Freeman of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, May 6, 1635. This is the first official record we have of him in America; otherwise, the Watertown records mention him only twice, as below. The fact that he was made a freeman only in 1635 does not mean that he may not have come as early as 1630 as Dr. Bond‖ suggests. John's neighbor, Isaac Mixer, for instance, came in 1634, as just mentioned, but he became a Freeman only in 1638, and there are numerous such instances. Robert Reynolds had been admitted Freeman‖ September 3, 1634, or eight months before John; Robert had previously, August 10, 1634, joined the Church at Boston.

The fly-leaves and first page of the earliest volume of Watertown records have been lost. It begins with page two which is dated August 23, 1634. On page three, the first entry in which the names of colonists are given, is the following:

"Nov. 14, 1635. Agreed that Daniel Patrick, Brian Pendleton, Richard Browne, Ephraim Child, Abram Browne, Charles Chaddock and John Reynolds shall devise to every man his propriety and Meadow & upland that is plowable, and the rest to be common."

The Editors caused a photograph to be taken of this entry on the original Watertown Minutes of Town Meetings. The picture is reproduced on page 23 following.

John's name does not appear in the division of land—"The Great Dividends"—made July 25, 1636. The other mention of John is in the section describing the land† grants:

"JOHN REINOLDS: An Homestall of Five acres and halfe by estimation bounded on the North with the highway, the South with Isaac Mixer, and the East with John Sherman—granted to him."

The "granted to him," meaning that he was the original and first white owner of the land would imply that he was in Watertown at its founding, 1630. This home-lot was eventually bought by Miles Nutt. John's name and the location of this house-lot appear on the early map of Watertown at page 1094 of Dr. Henry Bond's Genealogies and History of Watertown. John's five and a half acres were a short distance just south of Strawberry Hill near the center of this map, and between Sherman and Mixer. It is to be noticed in connection with this property of John that it was quite close to that occupied by Robert Reynolds' daughter Ruth, after she married John Whitney, 1642, and settled there. Mary, another daughter of Robert, married Richard Sanger, blacksmith, in Boston, 1649, and also settled permanently in that part of Watertown. From a date prior to 1636 and until 1653, Robert, living in Boston, owned some twenty-five‖ acres of meadow and grazing land in Watertown on the border of Cambridge (then Newtowne), probably about where Fresh Pond is. This is the only mention that has been found to connect Robert with Watertown. It is probable that he lived in Boston from the very first. When the original immigrant party divided at Charlestown, it is likely that Robert was among those who went with Winthrop, 1630, across to Boston; and that John went with Saltonstall and the other wing to Watertown just previously. This, of course, is upon the unprovable assumption that both of them came over in 1630 in that party, and of this we are far from certain.

Wethersfield, 1635. "In 1630 Watertown contained about sixty families, but in the next four years such numbers were constantly emigrating to New England in consequence of the persecution of the Puritans, that the people at Dorchester, Watertown and Newton began to be much crowded by the accession of new planters. From those who had been in Connecticut, particularly John Oldham, they had received intelligence of the excellent meadows upon the Connecticut River, they therefore, determined to remove and once more brave the dangers and hardships§ of making settlements in a dreary wilderness." They "complained of straitness for want of land, especially meadow."

In the summer of 1634 some of the Watertown men led by John Oldham, impatient of the delay and reluctance of the Massachusetts General Court in granting permission to settle in Connecticut, went any way to Wethersfield, then called Pyquag, where they built a few huts. A few of them stuck out the winter there. Oldham—in 1636 killed by Indians near Block Island—and three others had been there the previous year on a trading expedition among the Indians. Wethersfield was thus the first English settlement in Connecticut.

The General‡ Court of Massachusetts at its first session, April 26, 1636,†

> "ratified and confirmed a dismissal of certain members of the Watertown Church which had been granted on the 29th of March, 1635. The persons dismissed were Andrew Ward, John Sherman, John Strickland, Robert Coe, Robert Reynolds, and Jonas Weede, with intent to form a-newe in a church covenant in the River of Connecticut."

Accordingly, on May 29, 1635, the above persons and the Rev. Richard Denton began their immigration. On October 15, 1635, about sixty men, women and children, with horses, cattle and swine, commenced the journey through the wilderness to the Connecticut Valley. They were so long on the way, and so much time and pains spent on crossing the river with their cattle, that winter caught them before they were prepared. Such was the general distress that by December 2nd and 4th, 1635, a considerable part of the new settlers were obliged to abandon their rude habitations¶ and return to Watertown. What those habitations were like may be read in a footnote on page 130 of the 1922 R. F. A. Annual. Those who kept their stations on the river suffered extremely. As soon as advancing spring admitted traveling, the hardy Watertown settlers began to return from Massachusetts. Many who had not removed the last year prepared with all convenient dispatch for a journey to the new settlements on the river.

†An error made long ago in referring to the date of migration of the Watertown party to Wethersfield. It seems impossible now to ascertain whether March 29, 1635; May 29, 1635; or April 26, 1636, is the correct date. May 29, 1635, seems most acceptable.

The Wethersfield Colonists were continually exposed to danger from the Indians, especially the Pequots. In April, 1637, they waylaid the settlers as they were going into their fields and killed six men and three women. On May 26, 1637, the Wethersfield men, uniting with those from Windsor and Hartford, and with seventy friendly Mohicans under their Sachem Uncas, attacked the Pequots, burned seventy wigwams and killed five or six hundred of the enemy—the Pequot War.‖

The Rev. George Phillips, Pastor of the Church at Watertown, did not remove to Wethersfield. The Wethersfield settlers chose the Rev. Henry Smith for their minister, and he came from England in office. The first colonists called their town "Watertown in the Connecticut River," and it was not until February 21, 1637, that the settlement received the name of Wethersfield.

John Reynolds was last mentioned in Watertown Nov. 14, 1635. He, as well as Robert, are in the list of those who moved from Watertown prior to the Great Dividends of July 25, 1636. He must, therefore, have gone prior to March 25, 1636 (then New Year's Day, old style), with those former settlers who returned to Wethersfield as early as the weather permitted in the spring.

¶Some idea of a dwelling commonly prepared by the early New England settler on his arrival in a new country may be obtained from various references to such a one in this testimony. It was then called a cellar, but was in reality much like the "dug-out" of our Western prairies. A larger or smaller excavation was made, preferably in the side of a hill or bank of earth so that its entrance might be level with the ground. This was enlarged by building it out in front with timbers set in the ground and roofed over with branches covered with sods. The one here spoken of, built probably after the general pattern, had a "dore," but no windows, light coming through chinks. After serving its builder's family as a shelter till he had attended to the business of next importance, that of preparing and planting the ground to furnish food, and had had time to erect a log or framed house, it might be made to accommodate for a time, as in the present instance, a second and third family of later newcomers. In a favorable location, sheltered from the wind and with a sunny exposure, it was capable of being made more comfortable in cold weather than a hastily built house exposed on all sides to the elements, and amid the innumerable demands on the settler's time and strength for providing bare necessities, it is not unlikely that it might be a year or more before he was able to exchange it for a better habitation. The imagination of the artist usually pictures the log house as the earliest dwelling of our forefathers, but truth would in many cases rather require the perhaps less picturesque "cellar." Instances are found in early deeds where a house lot is sold with a cellar on it. It is well known that the first New Haven settlers made use in the beginning of such shelters. Prof. Leveremore, in his "Republic of New Haven," p. 32, says: "The first dwelling places were cellars or excavations in the bank of the West Creek. These rude shelters were probably protected by boards, sticks and turf, and were not unlike the sod houses of our own Western country. * * * One of these hovels was for a time the home of the Wigglesworth family," etc.

‖Trumbull: Hist. of Conn I: ch. V.

Among those emigrants† from Watertown to Wethersfield who subsequently removed to Stamford, were John Reynolds, Rev. Richard Denton, Thurston Raynor (Raynor came over in 1634 on the same ship with John's wife), the Lockwoods and the Knapps, whose descendants intermarried with the Greenwich Reynolds family.

In 1641 the official earmark‡ of John's swine and kine was registered in Wethersfield town records.

John Reynolds' house as given on the map§ of Wethersfield, 1634-44, was on High Street, the third from the meeting-house and about the centre of the town, between John Gibbs and Andrew Ward, a houselot of some 3½ acres. On "the 12th Month and 11 daie 1640" (Feby. 11, 1640-41), John received a houselot and several other pieces of land at Wethersfield. These were on "3rd mo. 20d 1644" (May 20, 1644, o. s.) recorded to Lieut. John Hollister as "bought of John Reynolds."

Stamford, 1641. Internal dissensions soon disturbed the Church at Wethersfield. The Rev. Richard Denton became the leader of the more progressive and radical party. The ministers of the other churches on the river and the Rev. John Davenport of New Haven tried to unite the factions. The latter suggested the expediency of one of the parties removing and making a new settlement, if they could not by any means be united among themselves. At length a number of men who were the most pleased with the advice of Davenport and the New Haven brethren and to whom the government of that colony was most agreeable, determined to remove and to settle in combination with New Haven. Nathaniel Turner had on July 1, 1640, on behalf of the New Haven Colony, bought of Ponus, Sagamore of Toquams, and of Wascussee, Sagamore of Shippan, a tract of land which includes the present towns of Darien and Stamford and part of Greenwich, paying about £33 for 128 square miles. This tract, called Rippowanis, Andrew Ward and Robert Coe of Wethersfield of October 30, 1640, purchased of the New Haven Colony on behalf of themselves and about twenty other planters.

It was decided that the majority of the seven voting church-members should remove with a minority of the planters and that they should take the church organization with them. Thirty men, among them John Reynolds, volunteered as pioneers of the new colony. These subscribed "100 bushels of corne" to be paid to the New Haven Colony to make good the purchase price of the land, each man giving as he was able and receiving a proportional amount of land. In this‖ subscription, Mr. Richard Denton ranks third with 4.1 bushels; John Reynolds, eighth, with 3.2 bushels.

Of these thirty, twenty eight removed to the site of Stamford in the summer of 1641. On October 19, 1641, they held their first meeting, electing five men to form a provisional government and dividing the land between them. An account of this is to be found at Stamford in the earliest town record, entitled: "1640-41, a towne book of ye free-holders of ye towne of Stamford as it was afterwards called but now Rippowan, containing the acts and conclusions of the companie of Wethersfield men." At this¶ meeting, Nov. 1641.

"The man under consideration absenting himself while his case was in hand, and so successively; and when he was called in again and demanded if so much gave him content, and so content and satisfaction was by every one of these men acknowledged, and they set down these numbers of acres of marsh and upland after the same proportion that followeth:
Mr. Denton, 14 acres * * * John Renoulds, 11 acres, etc."

The New Haven Colony had not been fully satisfied by the 100 bushels of corn so that an assessment was laid to make this good. The following is John Reynolds' account:

For rate -- now £56-10-0 and due at W. (Wethersfield?) 13/6d and to received Jo. Renoulds 17 shillings, 11 pence. - - - 4-8-3."

The next Stamford mention of John is in a list of twelve men each of whom subscribed a "pick" (peck?). Here his name appears as Jo. Renoulds. Later there is a tax list to make good the loss of the town mill and dam and for building a "captain's house":

"J. Reynoulds debtor for loss by mill, just till 9s.-6d. and dam 9s.-3d., house 12s., last charge 5s., all 38s 6d."

There was a continual dispute as to whether the settlement at Stamford was under the jurisdiction of the Hartford or New Haven Colony, and it is evident that John sided with the latter‡ party.

It may be of interest here to consider briefly the political alignment of the towns of Stamford and Greenwich. Although the Dutch had made no settlement in Connecticut previous to June 8, 1633, when Hartford was founded by the Colony of Connecticut, they had as early as 1620 explored and laid claim to all the region west of the Connecticut River. In October of that year a band of pioneers from the Plymouth Colony established themselves at Windsor. The Dutch and English, equally anxious to establish their claims, set up colonies at Wethersfield, Saybrook and elsewhere.

Greenwich was not founded until July 18, 1640, when Captain Daniel Patrick and Robert Feaks—who like John Reynolds were included in the second inventory and shared in the division of land at Watertown, Mass., in 1644, although long since removed—purchased as representatives of the New Haven Colony, Greenwich Point and the adjoining property from the Indians. These men with Angell Heusted and Robert Heusted, John Bowers, Jeffrey Ferris, Dominie Everardus Bogardus (who on June 21, 1642, married Anneke Jans and who with Director Kieft was drowned on their returning voyage, Sept. 27, 1647), Andrew Messenger, Robert Williams and John Winkelman, immediately established themselves there and called the place Greenwich, after a town in County Kent, England.

It is my recollection that I have seen this item identified with another John Reynolds who lived in New London; and I am of opinion that it does not relate to John of Stamford.—M.H.R., Editor.

Of these, Angell Heusted was the father-in-law of Jonathan[2] Reynolds, while Jeffrey Ferris and John Bowers were the second and third husbands of Judah Palmer, the mother of Judith, wife of John[2] Reynolds. Peter Ferris, son of Jeffrey, married Elizabeth[2] Reynolds, the third child of John and Sarah. So all of John's three children married inhabitants of Greenwich.

The town of Stamford, as we have seen, was founded in the spring of 1641. In the autumn of that year a dispute arose between Greenwich and Stamford as to the line which should divide the two communities. The former was represented by Daniel Patrick, and the latter by Andrew Ward, Robert Coe and Richard Gildersleeve, who on November 2, 1641, laid out the boundaries. The first two were included in the six members of the Watertown Church who had been dismissed on May 29, 1635, to form "anewe in a church covenant" at Wethersfield.

Hardly had this important matter been decided when Director Kieft, Governor of the New Netherlands, decided that he would make good the Dutch claim to all territory lying west of the Connecticut River.

The Greenwich settlement gave allegiance to the Dutch, and on April 9, 1642, at Fort Amsterdam, placed itself "under the protection of the Noble Lords States General, His Highness the Prince of Orange." Captain Daniel Patrick and Robert Feaks were created Patroons of the Manor, although they had purchased the land on behalf of the New Haven Colony. The two contiguous settlements, one under the dominion of the Dutch and the other under the English were always in altercation. It must be understood that Greenwich Old Town (now Sound Beach) was much nearer Stamford than Horse Neck (now the town of Greenwich).

On Sept. 18, 1649, a committee, consisting of Robert Heusted, Thomas Sherwood, Richard Crab and John Coe wrote to Governor Stuyvesant at New Amsterdam that "Our neyghbors of Stamford hath allways desired and endeavored to depoppolate this plase of Greenwich and to leave it without inhabitants that so the prophit may redoune to themselves."

In the following year (1650) the Dutch yielded to the New Haven Colony all lands in Connecticut to which they had laid claim and by an agreement concluded at Hartford, Greenwich passed to the control of that colony, but was considered as part of Stamford, by whose people it had largely been settled.

In 1656 representations† were made to the Connecticut General Court at New Haven that the inhabitants of Greenwich lived in a disorderly and riotous manner, sold intoxicating liquors to the Indians, received and harbored servants who had fled from their masters, and joined persons unlawfully in marriage. The Colony of New Haven thereupon resolved to assert its jurisdiction over the town to bring its citizens to a more orderly manner of living, and sent letters to the settlers in Greenwich requesting them to submit to its authority. They answered, refusing, on the ground that Greenwich was an independent state under letters-patent from the King of England; that New Haven had no right to set up such a claim; and that, unless compelled to do so by Parliament, they would never submit to its jurisdiction. The General Court, however, determined to maintain its position, and called upon the citizens of Greenwich to produce the alleged letters-patent. On their failure to do so, or to submit to the Connecticut jurisdiction, warrants for the arrest of Richard Crab and some others of the most stubborn would be issued. Richard Crab and his followers, unable to produce the alleged letters-patent and not yet ready for martyrdom, promptly yielded, and on October 6, 1656, the inhabitants of Greenwich declared their submission to the jurisdiction of the New Haven Colony by executing the following agreement:

"At Greenwich ye 16th October, 1656. Wee, the inhabitants of Greenwich, whose names are underwritten, doe from this day forward freely yeild ourselves, place and estate, to the government of Newhaven, subjecting ourselves to the order and dispose of that General Court, both in respect of relation and government, promising to yeild due subjection unto the lawful authoritie and wholesome lawes of the jurisdiction aforesaid.

"ANGELL HUSTED,	THOMAS STEEDWELL,	JONATHAN REANOLDS,
LAURANE TURNER,	HENRY ACCORLFY,	HANC PETERSON,
JOHN AUSTIN,	PETER FERRIS,	HENRY NICHOLSON,
RICHARD CRAB,	JOSEPH FERRIS,	JAN, a Dutchman, commonly called 'Varllier.'"

This was in 1656. Jonathan must then have been of age, though not John.

On May 11, 1665, Greenwich became an independent town by act of the Colonial Legislature.

On Feby. 6, 1670, title was obtained from the Indians of the Horseneck Tract, now the site of the modern city of Greenwich, and possession was taken by the "27 Proprietors of 1672" who were for the most part the children or grandchildren of the original settlers of Stamford and Greenwich Old Town, now the hamlet of Sound Beach.

† This account was prepared by Mr. Spencer P. Mead to whom thanks are due; also from Huntington: History of Stamford, pp. 80-82.

The last mention‖ of John[1] Reynolds is in a deed—Stamford Records, p. 51—bearing record March, 1651:

"The housing and lands of John Holly with the bounds and buttments, viz., a house, barn and homelot containing one and a half acres more or less bounded by ye lot which was John Renoles, etc."

Many of the early deeds of Stamford have been lost and it is impossible to learn whether he had died or sold his property. This property was located at the west end of the town and that of his sons, Jonathan and John, was located still nearer to the Greenwich line. The "Two Brothers Brooks," a stream which enters the Sound immediately to the west of the Mianus River, probably derived its name from the fact that it flowed through the lands of those two sons of John.

On page nineteen of the Stamford Town Records is the entry:

"Sarrah Reanolds (wife of John) died 31-16-1657."

‖ What became of John Reynolds[1]? From about 1650 the immigrant John seems to disappear from the Stamford and Greenwich records. His wife Sarah died in Stamford Aug. 31, 1657. Inasmuch as in the record of her death no mention of John is made, such for instance as "Sarah, wife or widow of John Reynolds, etc.," we are of opinion that he had died around 1650 when he would have been aged about 38.

In any case, it is impossible to learn the subsequent history of John. It has been suggested that after the death of his wife Sarah he returned to his old home at Wethersfield and married Naomi Latimer. The Editors and Contributors to this Genealogy think this highly improbable, as sixteen years had elapsed since John removed from there. We shall discuss this question at some length, as some genealogists have absurdly attributed the Wethersfield Family which begins to appear in the records about 1660 to this John of Watertown, and they make the far-fetched suggestion that he may have duplicated the names of his children by Sarah. This is because the John and Naomi (Latimer) Reynolds of Wethersfield around 1660 had sons John and Jonathan.

Dr. Henry Bond states that John of Watertown removed to Saybrook and died there in 1662. Several persons record a tombstone erected in Wethersfield to a John Reynolds who died in 1660.

Dr. H. A. Street of New Haven, Conn., wrote in a letter to Mr. Marcus Reynolds, November, 1891, that his "ancestor John Reynolds, returned to Wethersfield where he died in 1682, as I have it, and was buried at Wethersfield, where I copied his inscription off about sixteen years ago. I have a record of his son who was said to have married Naomi Latimer and that he died about 1673 and that his widow married again to Phillip Goffe."

The Wethersfield records give the birth of a "John Rennals, son of John Rennals and Naomi Latimer, his wife, born June 29th, 1674." Naomi Latimer was born April 4, 1648; Sarah, wife of John, we believe was born in 1614, if she was indeed the Sarah aged twenty who came in 1634 in the Elizabeth. If John returned to Wethersfield and married he would have been about thirty-six years older than his wife and sixty-two years old when the above child was born. Moreover, he named a second Wethersfield child Jonathan, while we know that John of Watertown had at Stamford a Jonathan and John who are carried forward on succeeding pages.

To add to this confusion, Jonathan[2] had sons Jonathan and John; his brother John[2] had John and Jonathan also. The repetition of these family names in the two separate families at Stamford-Greenwich and Wethersfield might imply a relationship. Perhaps the John of Wethersfield after 1660 was a cousin of the John of Watertown who had lived there 1635-41 on his way to Stamford.

At any rate, the John and Jonathan, sons of John and Naomi, both married and apparently always lived at Wethersfield. John, the husband of Naomi, was still living at Wethersfield June 29, 1678, when he recorded a deed of 25 acres given him by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ann Latimer.

The Wethersfield John could not have been identical with John[2] of Stamford, as the latter died in 1701, leaving a widow Judah (Palmer); while Naomi (Latimer) Reynolds, widowed, also had a second husband, Phillip Goffe. This because on Jany. 3, 1699-1700, there is recorded at Wethersfield an agreement between John and Jonathan Reynolds for the division of a piece of twenty-five acres "left us by our father deceased and confirmed by our father Phillip Goft and our mother Naomi Goft."

Nor could Wethersfield John have been identical with John[3] son of Jonathan[2] of Stamford for this latter John[3] was born in 1662 and could not have been a father in 1674. Also as John[3] son of John[2] of Stamford-Greenwich was born about 1670 and lived at Greenwich where he died in 1732, he could not have been identical with John, b. Wethersfield, 1674, as the latter died prior to 1699. John, Sr., of Wethersfield must not be considered as of the second or third generation of the Stamford-Greenwich Family; we are equally convinced by the fact that he named his sons the same names as those of John[1] of Watertown-Wethersfield-Stamford-Greenwich that he is not the same man as our Watertown John who had been there twenty years earlier.

Obviously the "16" should be "6," for August was then the sixth month§ of the year, old style. Anyway on the next page it appears again, and correctly, as

"Sarra Reanols died ye 31 Aug. 1657."

So that John had lost the wife who had come to America to him in 1634 in the Elizabeth. She died at the early age, it would seem, of 43.

We have no record of the births of the children of our John[1] and Sarah Reynolds either at Watertown, Wethersfield, or Stamford. John[1] left no will to name them, nor are there any other papers of probate concerning him. We know of three only, all of whom lived in Stamford or Greenwich and married there, and it is likely there were no others, or any others died young. It is not at all unlikely that Elizabeth was younger than Jonathan, but we have no perfected reason for changing the order of birth arranged by previous genealogists. The three known children, with conjectured dates of birth are:

*1. ELIZABETH, b. about 1634-35; d. before 1705; m. Peter Ferris, July 15, 1654.

*2. JONATHAN, b. perhaps about 1636 or probably 1635; d. Jan. 1673-74; m. Rebecca Heusted, about 1656.

*3. JOHN, b. perhaps 1638 d. Nov.-Dec. 1701; m. Judah Palmer 1668.

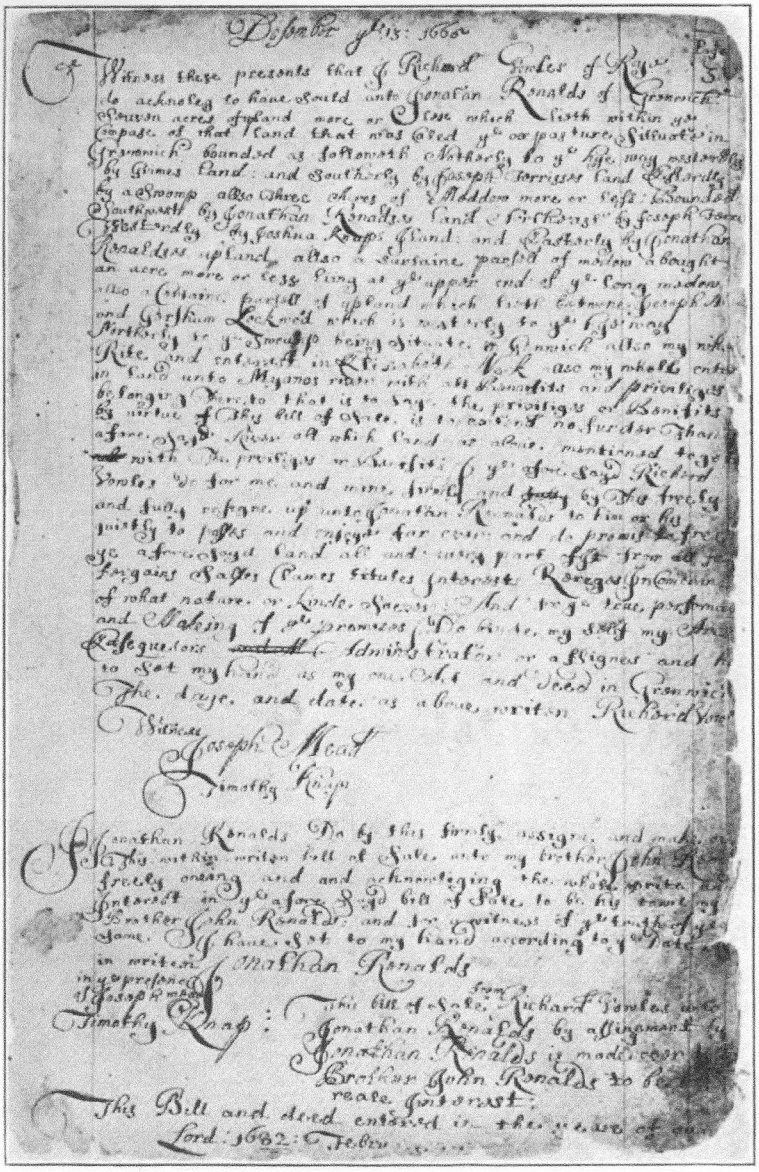
EARLIEST EXISTING MENTION OF JOHN REYNOLDS

November 14, 1635, at Watertown, Mass.

The existing Watertown records, now almost three centuries old, have so deteriorated that it has been necessary to cover each leaf with oiled silk. This has made photographic reproduction very indistinct. The top part of the above page reads:

> "Nov. 14, 1635. Agreed that Daniel Patrick, Brian Pendleton, Richard Browne, Ephraim Child, Abram Browne, Charles Chaddock and John Reynolds shall devise to every man his propriety and Meadow & upland that is plowable, and the rest to be common."

The lower two-thirds of this page three refer to other matters. John's name is near the top. Read carefully page 14 in this Book. We have slightly retouched the above.



Deed (1665), RICHARD BOWLES to JONATHAN[2] REYNOLDS, which JONATHAN transferred to JOHN[2] REYNOLDS. See page 27.

SECOND GENERATION

1. ELIZABETH REYNOLDS: only known daughter of the emigrants John and Sarah, was born about 1635 in Watertown or Wethersfield. As her mother is supposed to be the "Sarah Reynolds aged twenty," who came alone in the ship Elizabeth the last of April, 1634, and as her father was supposed to be already in Watertown at that time, it is scarcely likely that Elizabeth was born before 1635. Alvan Reynolds of Altona, Ill., suggests this daughter was christened to commemorate the above name of the ship in which her mother came over. Of her death we know only that she died after Jany. 2, 1664, and before July 25, 1705. Elizabeth may well have been younger than Jonathan and born about 1637.

She m. Peter Ferris of Stamford. "Peter Ferris and Elizabeth Rinealls joyned ye 15 July 1654." This Peter Ferris, b. Sept. 28, 1636, lived at Stamford and was one of the grand jurors who in September, 1692, tried and condemned to death Marcy Disbrough for witchcraft, a very famous case in which 200 witnesses were called. Peter was the son of Jeffrey Ferris, one of the seven original proprietors of Greenwich, who had, like John Reynolds, removed from Watertown to Wethersfield, and to Stamford in 1641. But Jeffrey settled within the bounds of Greenwich, where he died May 31, 1666. Jeffrey's third wife, Mrs. Judith Palmer, widow of Henry Palmer, was the mother of Judith Palmer, wife of John[2] Reynolds, brother of our Elizabeth.

Peter had been made Freeman of Stamford, 1662; Representative to the General Court (Colonial Legislature), 1667. After the death of Elizabeth Reynolds, Peter married, July 25, 1705, Mrs. Ruth Weed —fifty-one years had elapsed between his first and second weddings! Peter died Sept. 28, 1706. All his children, given below, were by Elizabeth Reynolds. Of the following, Mead in History of Greenwich, states that Peter was the third child and was born June 20, 1660; and that Elizabeth was the second, b. Nov. 28, 1658, and d. May 2, 1660. For a further record of the descendants of Peter and Elizabeth (Reynolds) Ferris read The Ferris Genealogy in Mead's History of Greenwich, pp. 536-45; also Stamford Records, pp. 55, 74, 76, 98.

Ferris Children:

11. JOSEPH, b. Aug. 20, 1657, Stamford m. Mary Smith. Had one child, Joseph, Jr., b. March 21, 1688, who m.: 1, Mercy Buxton, June 18, 1718; 2, Deborah Crissey, Feb. 18, 1720.

12. PETER, JR., (?) b. June 20, 1660 (or 1659?). Name is illegible on Stamford Records, p. 74, but as Peter Ferris is mentioned as "Senr." in the entry of his death, 1706, it is probable that the illegible name was Peter, Jr.

13. ELIZABETH, b. Jan. 28, 1659, Stamford; d. there April 5, 1660.

14. MARY, b. May 2, 1662, at Stamford, Conn.

15. ELIZABETH, b. January 2, 1664, Stamford.

2. JONATHAN REYNOLDS, the second known child of John and Sarah, was born about 1635-37, probably in Wethersfield, Conn.; d. in Greenwich, Conn., between January 13th and 23rd, 1673-74. As he signed the submission to the New Haven Colony, 1656, and John, his brother, did not, it is likely he was then of age and born at least by 1635. He m. Rebecca Heusted, about 1656. She was the daughter of Angell and Rebecca Heusted.§ Angell was b. in England about 1620; settled in Greenwich and d. there April, 1706; witness July, 1640, to the Indian deed of Old Town Greenwich to Robert Feaks and Daniel Patrick and was one of original patentees named in patent to Town of Greenwich, May, 1665. He was son of Robert Heusted, b. probably Co. Somerset, England, 1596; sailed for Massachusetts 1635, where he remained a few years, and then removed to Stamford, Conn. He was also witness to Indian deed just mentioned, and was granted land at Stamford, Oct., 1642, and d. there 1652, owning land in both Stamford and Greenwich. His widow, Elizabeth, survived him and d. Stamford, 1654.

From the time the father of Jonathan came from Wethersfield to Stamford, 1641, until about 1653, Jonathan seems to have lived in Stamford; and he was then probably a youth, if the above assumed date of birth is anywhere near correct. About 1653 Greenwich received large additions from Stamford, and among these earliest settlers was this Jonathan[2]. Oct. 14, 1657, he witnessed a deed in Stamford, Joshua Knapp and Wm. Hoobert. After his removal he appears but once in the Stamford town records:

"Jany. 7, 1666: Wm. Grimes for swearing veanly by ye name of God, it being fully proved by Mr. Jones and Jonathan Renolds and Jos. Knapp, ye said Grimes is fined ten shillings and to pay all charges of his being to Stamford which is four shillings to each man."

This William Grimes at that time was an "inhabitant" of Greenwich as were the witnesses, "Renolds and Knapp." Grimes, as we shall see in our account of John[2] Reynolds, brother of Jonathan, later, must have "got religion," for later on he handsomely redeemed himself by his bequest of his lands for town purposes. He actually named the Rev. Eliphalet Jones, who above complained of him, and John Reynolds, brother of his other accuser, as trustees of this philanthropic gift, which proves he bore no hard feelings. Grimes' will is printed on page 33 in this book.

In Greenwich Town Records is an account of the first town meeting, Feby. 5, 1664, at which it was proposed to divide the "common lands by a rule of proportion, according to what each man's estate shall be visable . . ." The "Seven Proprietors" are named as follows: "Jeffre Ferris, Senr.; Joshua Knapp, Senr.; Joseph Ferris; Jonathan Reynolds; Angell Heusted; John Mead, Senr.; John Hobbe."

It may be interesting to note in these old Greenwich, Stamford and Wethersfield records that the name is spelled variously as, Renols,

§ The modern spelling is Husted.

Renals, Roynills, Renolds. This would indicate the ordinary pronunciation of the name at that time, the "e" being generally soft as in wren The spelling in earlier English records is Reignoldes, Raynills, Raynels, Reinols, etc., as generally in the records mentioning Robert Reynolds (1630) of Boston. Some of Robert's descendants even spelled their name Raynolds, even up to the present time, showing a tendency to favor the long "a" sound instead of the soft "e." This, however, indicates nothing in the family history.

One of the earliest deeds in the Greenwich Town Records is a bill of sale bearing date Dec. 13, 1665, from Richard Vowles (Bowles), "formerly of Greenwich, but now of Rye," to Jonathan Reynolds of Greenwich, of†

"Seven acres of upland more or lesse which lieth within the compass of ye land that was caled ye ox pasture, situate in Greenwich, bounded as followeth: northerly by ye hye way, westerly by Grimes' land and southerly by Joseph Ferrises land, Easterly by a Swamp, also three acres of Maddow more or less bounded southwest by Jonathan Ronaldes land, North-east by Joseph Ferris, Westardly by Joshua Knapps land, and Eastardly by Jonathan Ronaldes upland also a sartaine parsoll of madow about an acre more or less * * * also a certaine parsoll of upland * * * also my whole rite and interest Elezabeth Neck also my whole interest in land unto Myanos River."

The same day Jonathan deeded this to his brother John, though it was only recorded in 1682. At the bottom of the page is the following:

"I, Jonathan Ronalds, do by this firmly assigne and make over this within bill of sale unto my Brother John Ronalds freely oneing and acknowledging the whole rite and interest in ye aforesayd bill of sale to be his, to wit, my brother John Reynolds and for a witness of ye truth of ye same I have set to my hand according to date within written, Jonathan Reynolds.

"In the presence of Joseph Mead, Timothy Knapp.
"This bill and deed entered in the year of our Lord, 1682, Februari 27."

This original document has been photographed and the picture is herewith reproduced on page 24.

It will be seen later that Jonathan's nephew, David[3], married Penelope Wright of Oyster Bay, Long Island, daughter Caleb and Elizabeth Wright. We have recently found that these early Reynoldses of Stamford-Greenwich had considerably to do with the settlers across on the Long Island side of the Sound. Dec. 6, 1668, at Oyster§ Bay, Richard Crabbe, who formerly lived in Greenwich, gave a power of attorney to a third person to collect from Jonathan[2] Reynolds of Greenwich, £16-0-0 which he owed to Crabbe.

We have remarked that the land of Jonathan[2] and John[2] lay along the Two Brothers' Brook which got its name from that circumstance.

In the Greenwich Records of Town Meetings there are the following entries concerning Jonathan[2] Reynolds:

In 1667 made a member of the Connecticut Assembly for Greenwich.
April 3, 1668, appointed one of three to lay out certain lands.

July 6, 1668, appointed one of two surveyors of highways.

March 16, 1669, appointed one of three to represent the town in matter of lands at Cos Cob.

May 6, 1669, appointed one of a committee of five "to take survey of Horseneck * * * to see if it be suitable for the settlement of a township."

June 5, 1669, appointed one of five to survey new highways.

Oct. 14, 1669, made freeman of Conn. by the Assembly of Greenwich.

Dec. 28, 1669, Jonathan Reynolds, Sarg. Lockwood, John Hobby, Joshua Knapp, John Mead and Joseph Mead, appointed to free the town of all claims by Daniel Patrick the son of Daniel Patrick, formerly Patroon of the Manor, who now appeared laying claim to his father's lands. The committee for the settlers, who held by squatter's sovereignty only, bought him off, paying a horse, saddle and bridle and £50.

Dec. 30, 1670, grant of "lowermost meadow-land south of Westchester Path," from the town with eight others.

March 31, 1671, appointed one of two to lay out lands to Wm. Rundle and John Palmer.

Jonathan Reynolds is mentioned second among the "Twenty-seven Proprietors of 1672" who purchased the Horseneck Tract.

The following is the last mention of Jonathan in the Greenwich records:

"At town meeting 1673, 12th Month (i. e. Feby., 1673-74, old style), Joshua Knapp is chosen to be a townsman in the room of Jonathan Reynolds."

No other business was considered at this meeting. The last previous meeting was January 13, 1673-74. It is therefore probable that Jonathan[2] died in mid-January 1673-74. In 1669 records referred to his ill‡ health, and he died aged only about 36.

The letters of administration on his estate now filed at Fairfield, Conn., dated Jany. 23, 1673-4, speak of him as "lately deceased." The "Widow Renolds" and the surviving children, all minors, with their ages, are mentioned in the inventory of the estate. One child, Ebenezer, was born in 1674, after Jonathan's death. There was no will, as Jonathan died intestate. The apportionment was by Angell Heusted, father of the "Widow Renolds," and Joshua Knapp. The will of Heusted, also filed at Fairfield in 1706, mentions his "son-in-law Jonathan Renalds." The total estate was large enough to place Jonathan second among the "Twenty-Seven Proprietors of 1672," for at that time the rights in the distribution of land were based upon the wealth of the colonists.

Widow Renolds makes oth that ye Invoice writen in this paper being read to her is a true Invoice to the best of her skill before meee in Stamford, March the tenth 1673

this is a true copie of the origginall transcribed by mee

Joseph Meade.

The Records of Stamford as printed by Huntington (p. 464) mention a Jonathan Reynolds from Stamford as member of the Assembly 1677-79 (?), but this is after our Jonathan's death and probably it is in error; perhaps a confusion with Jonathan Bell, who served 1680-87. Considerable further mention of Jonathan[2] will be found in the account of his brother John[2] following this.

In considering the comprehensive genealogy of the descendants of John of Watertown, they naturally fall into two large groups: the descendants of Jonathan[2] and the descendants of John[2]. We do not trace further the descendants of Elizabeth[2], their one sister, as her Ferris children are fully traced down in the Mead History of Greenwich.

The children of Jonathan and Rebecca (Heusted) Reynolds, probably all born in Greenwich, Conn. (there may have been others who died in infancy before 1673), were:

21. REBECCA, b. 1657; possibly m. Thomas† Hobby, perhaps as her second husband.

† Some time the first half of 1923 a correspondent in the genealogical section of the Boston Transcript, signing himself H. T. (No. 723), inquires, "Who was Rebecca, wife of Thomas[2], son of John[1] Hobby? Was she Rebecca, daughter of Jonathan and Rebecca (Heusted) Reynolds?" (Thomas Hobby, born about 1660; died August 6, 1742, had by wife Rebecca, a son John, born about 1693, who m. March 16, 1716.)

*22. JONATHAN, b. 1660; d. before 1728; m. Nevill Rideware, Dec. 7, 1682.

*23. JOHN, b. 1662; d. Greenwich, 1736; m. Ruth Knapp. No children.

*24. SARAH, b. Nov. 5, 1665; m. Joseph Mead, 1687, Greenwich.

*25. ELIZABETH, b. Aug. 1667; m. Joshua Knapp, March 16, 1687-88.

*26. JOSEPH, b. 1669; d. before June 1727; m. 1: Abigail Finch. 2: Abigail Rundell.

*27. EBENEZER, b. 1673-74, posthumous; d. 1749; m. Abigail Smith, 1704.

3. JOHN REYNOLDS: third known child and second son of John and Sarah, was born about 1639, probably in Wethersfield, Conn.; died, Greenwich, Conn., between Nov. 8, 1701, when he dated the last codicil to his will, and Dec. 17, 1701, when that will was filed at Fairfield, Conn., for probate. Nevertheless, two months later, on February 4, 1701-02, the Town of Greenwich allotted 18 acres to "Mr. Renalds, deceased."

He married Miss Judith Palmer about 1668 at Greenwich; daughter Henry† and Judith Palmer. Mrs. Reynolds survived her husband but died before August, 1716. Judith's mother, on the death of Henry Palmer, m. Jeffrey Ferris, who shortly died in 1666; she then m. John Bowers about 1667. Mrs. Judith Palmer-Ferris-Bowers died, and Bowers m. Mrs. Hannah Knapp, widow of Joshua Knapp, whose daughter, Ruth Knapp, m. "Deacon" John[3] Reynolds, son of Jonathan[2] Reynolds. Ruth's brother Joshua Knapp, Jr., m. Elizabeth Reynolds, † Henry Palmer, father of our Judith, was in Watertown, Mass., before 1636. He is said to have been b. in Somerset Co., England, about 1600. He was one of those who removed to Wethersfield in 1637 and finally to Greenwich about 1650. He m. first, Katharine ——— at Wethersfield, by whom he had two daus. and son Ephraim, b. April 5, 1648; d. Aug. 19, 1684. Henry then m. Judith ———, by whom he had: John, d. 1673 without issue; Judah, who m. John Reynolds; James; William and Joseph.

In the settlement of the estate of John Palmer, "died many years ago" (1673) the heirs of Judah Reynolds appear with Ephraim, William, James and Joseph Palmer. As this bears the entry "due Aug. 1716," it is obvious that Judah, wife of John[2], must have died prior to that date. An addition to the inventory was made on April 17, 1738. Mrs. Judith Palmer, after the death of Henry Palmer, became the third wife of Jeffrey Ferris, one of the two original purchasers of Greenwich Point (July 18, 1640), whose will, signed Jan'y 6, 1664, recorded in Fairfield, Conn., mentions his wife "Judy." Jeffrey Ferris d. May 31, 1666. He left £10 apiece to the four "boies" of his wife ———, evidently John, James, William and Joseph Palmer (as Ephraim Palmer was not her son, but by a previous wife of Henry Palmer). Judith receipted for her dower May 6, 1667, as "Judah Bowers, lately widow Ferris, sometime wife to Jeffrey Ferris," as she had m. John Bowers of Greenwich.

The will of John Bowers, executed March 16, 1693-94, gives property "that was her mothers to his loving daughter-in-law, Mrs. Judah Ronalds" and leaves his "daughter Judah Renolds a book entitled Christian Contentment, and to my son, Mr. John Renolds, my small silver cup." John Bowers, after the death of his wife, Mrs. Judith Palmer-Ferris-Bowers, married Mrs. Hannah Knapp, "daughter of Goodman Close" and widow of Joshua Knapp, the parents of Ruth Knapp, b. 1667, who m. John[3] Reynolds, son of Jonathan[2]. Joshua and Hannah Knapp had also had a son Joseph Knapp, who m. Elizabeth[3] Reynolds, dau. Jonathan[2] Reynolds. The Judith Betts mentioned in the inventory of Mrs. Hannah Knapp-Bowers' estate, Jan'y 7, 1695-96, was the dau. of John and Judith (Palmer) Reynolds. Though Bowers referred to "daughter-in-law" above, in both cases his connection with the Reynoldses was through his "step-daughters"—he seems to have confused the terms.

Ephraim Palmer, half-brother to Judith Palmer, wife of John[2] Reynolds, d. Aug. 19, 1684. His will is filed at Fairfield, Conn., Vol. 1675-89, p. 140. The inventory was taken by his brother-in-law John[2] Reynolds. John Bowers, his step-mother's third husband, was Administrator. The papers mention his daughter Judith Palmer, aged eleven, who must have been named for his step-mother or his half-sister.

This question has been discussed at length as the marriages and intermarriages are most confusing. In Colonial times the children by a previous marriage of the wife were considered and spoken of as sons and daughters.

sister of "Deacon" John[3] Reynolds, March 16, 1687. So that Bowers had two step-daughters and one step-son who married into the Reynolds family.

John[2] Reynolds is a grantee in the first deed recorded in Greenwich, in what is "accounted the first Legur (Ledger) and the letter A for the sign thereof," (i. e., Book A, page 1):

> "Februare 1, Anno Dom. 1663: Be it knowne unto all men by this present that I, Angell Heusted of Greenwitch, have sould and Sot over unto John Ronalds, of Greenwitch sixteen acres of land more or less lying on this side of Myanos neck bounded by ye long meddows Krick one west side, Jefory Ferris land lying one ye northeast, the Nut plane lying up the southeast, and Wiliam Grimes one ye southside. * * * *
> "Joshua Knap)
> Joseph Feris) Witnesses. Angell Heusted his mark."
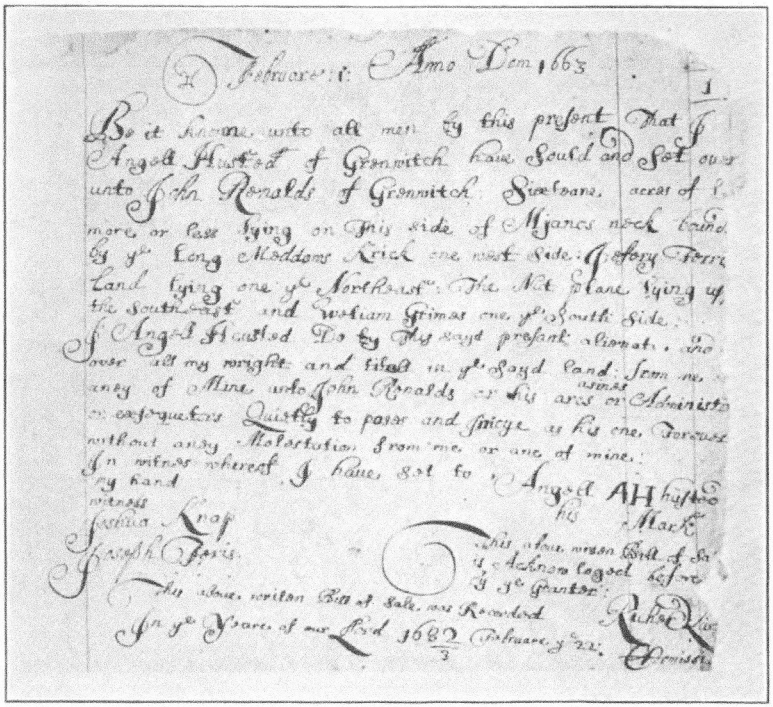
> "The above writen bill of sale was Recorded in ye Yeare of our Lord, 1682-83, Februare ye 22."



First deed recorded in Greenwich, 1663, ANGELL HUSTED to JOHN REYNOLDS. ANGELL was JONATHAN[2] REYNOLDS' father-in-law

A reproduction of this deed is on the opposite page.
Other extracts from the same book are:

Dec. 15, 1665, received a gift of land from his brother Jonathan.
1665, original patentee.
Feby. 2, 1669, John Renolds with two others appointed to lay out land.
Oct. 24, 1669, made Freeman of Conn. by the Assembly.
Dec. 28, 1669, John Renolds and two others were appointed to lay out a homelot to Richard Butler.
Dec. 16, 1670. Receives land in "lowermost meadows south of Westchester path."

We have seen that on Jany. 7, 1666, William Grimes of Greenwich, upon testimony of Jonathan Reynolds, Eliphalet Jones and Jo. Knapp, was fined for swearing. On July 18, 1670, this William Grimes signed his will, which was as follows:

"WILLIAM GRIMES, OF GREENWICH, HIS WILL

"These testifie that I, weeliam Grimes, of this towne of Greenwich, being of perfect memory and understanding, but being very sick in body, do give all my lands to ye disposal of Joseph Mead, John Renolds and (Rev.) Eliphalet Jones, to bee Disposed of by them in such a waye as they shall judge meet for ye Inlarging of ye towne of greenwich, by accommodating such inhabitant or inhabitants as shall bee admitted into ye towne in an orderly way, provided they be such men as the aforesd Mead, Renolds & Jones shall judge desirable for the promoting of church and commonwealth. This, my Deade of gift shall stand good and firme at ye time of my dessease.

"Witness my hand, this 18 July, 1670.

RUTH FERRIS }
DEBORA BARLOW }
Witness.

WILLIAM GRIMES."

See another mention of Grimes on page 26.

By April 22, 1691, Jones had removed to Long Island and Mead had died, so Joseph Ferris was appointed fellow trustee with John Reynolds. Grimes died March 7, 1694. Then John Reynolds and Joseph Ferris gave his land and meadow to the town

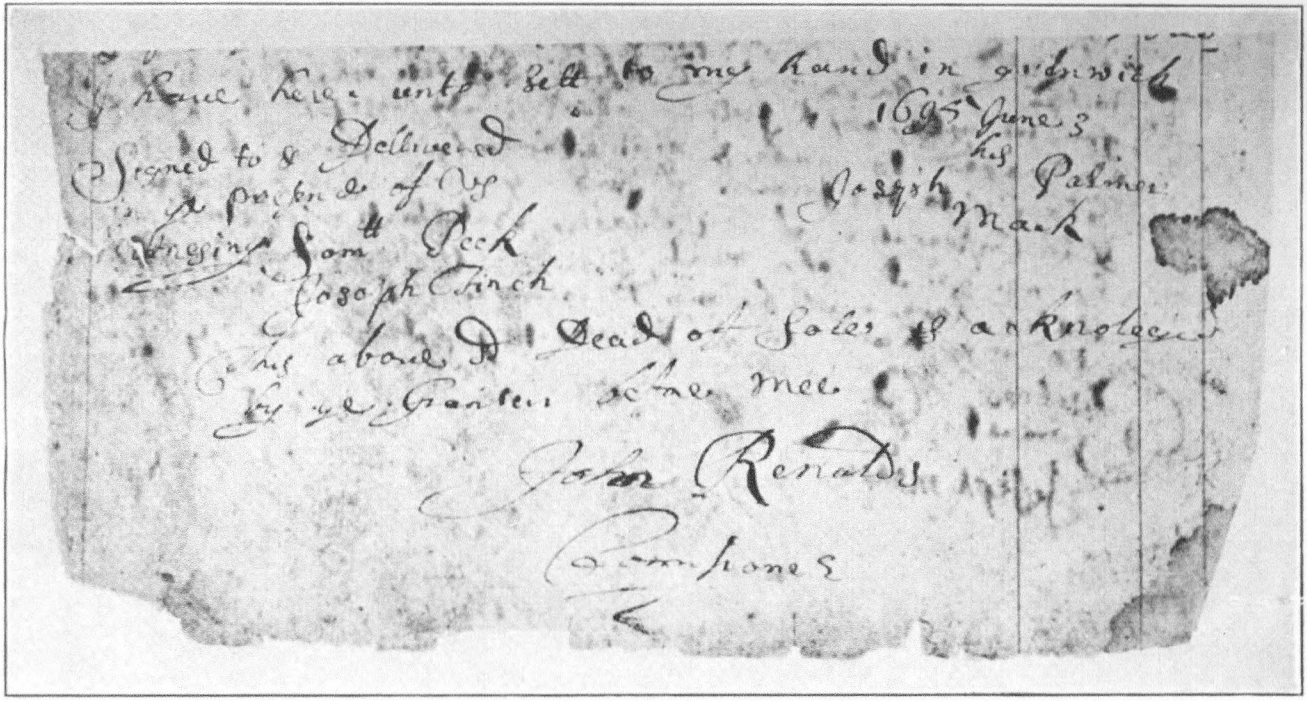
"for ye use of a minister, and if no minister Bee in ye place ye profit of ye sd land and medow shall go to helpe maintaine such as shall be Imployed in teaching children to Reade."

On Dec. 20, 1670, John was one of nine to receive land in Lower Horseneck Meadows. In 1682 land at Mianus River is described as given John by brother Jonathan, Greenwich Deeds, A-11.

On Feby. 4, 1686, he received a grant of land in Greenwich. Feby. 1, 1686, he and others bought from Indians all lands between Myanos River and Byram River and from there to the New York Line.

The Greenwich inventory of 1688 places John Reynolds as the wealthiest "inhabitant."

June 20, 1695: "I, John Renolds, an inhabitant of ye towne of Horseneck . . . give unto my loving son John Renalds of same place my homelot at Horseneck with ye house." (Greenwich Deeds, p. 25.)



The signature of our ancestor JOHN[2] REYNOLDS, 1695, as King's Commissioner.

1697, on town property list, "Mr. John Renals" was wealthiest inhabitant, with rating £102.

April, 1703. Judah Reynolds, his widow, was among those protesting against Mr. Nathaniel Bowers.

March 6, 1706. Received land "upon ye first divident of an acre to four pounds -- 16." He had been dead five years, so his share was divided among his sons, April 29, 1706; Nov. 15 and 16, 1707.

A clear reproduction of his signature as King's Commissioner, during the reign of William and Mary, is reproduced on the opposite page, date June 3, 1695.

Horseneck. The constant mention of Horseneck in connection with the lands of John and Jonathan requires some historical explanation. Horseneck derived its name from a peninsula of high ground now known as Field Point, west of Greenwich Harbor, which was at that time a horse pasture. Stamford was the original settlement of the Wethersfield men. "Greenwich Old Towne," now Sound Beach, was next settled on the east side of the Myanos River; but that latter place, by reason of additions to the inhabitants, soon became overcrowded. Horseneck was the next settlement, and that represented roughly what is now the modern city of Greenwich, Conn. At a town meeting held on May 6, 1669, the proposition was considered of purchasing Mioschassiky from the few Indians still living about the western end of the town, and Jonathan Reynolds, Sargent Lockwood, Goodman Heusted, John Hobby and John Mead were appointed as a committee to make a survey "of Horseneck and the lands thereabouts to find whether or no there can bee a suitable encouragement in point of land and other consideration for the settlement of a township."

Owing to the ill health of Jonathan Reynolds, the Committee accomplished but little, so that a new Committee consisting of Sargent Lockwood, John Hobby, Joshua Knapp, John Reynolds and Mr. Hobby were appointed in their stead. On Feby. 6, 1670, the committee reported and title was obtained from the Indians. The property was laid out "to ye number of thirty lots, four acres to the homelot." These purchasers were termed the "27 Proprietors of 1672." Jonathan[2] ranked second, John Hobby third, and John[2] Reynolds twenty-second.

The original settlers remained for the most part in the homelots at Old Greenwich, now Sound Beach; Horseneck was settled largely by their children. By 1688 the number of proprietors in Horseneck had increased to fifty and among them were John[2] Reynolds, Sr., and his nephew John[3] Reynolds, Jr., and Jonathan[3]. These three Reynoldses were of the thirty eligible voters. Of the "Proprietors" John[2] Reynolds was the wealthiest man.

On Nov. 9, 1691, he was appointed one of a committee of six to erect a church at Greenwich Old Town and in 1694 they decided to erect a meeting house, which should be thirty-two feet long and twenty-six feet wide, and John Reynolds was appointed "to supervise the building of a meeting house, which is next to his own house," Nov. 28, 1694.

Until 1703 all town meetings had been held in Greenwich, Old Towne (now Sound Beach), but in that year it was determined to hold half of them at Horseneck. On March 20, 1701-02, it was voted that "a meeting house be built at Horseneck, in all respects like the present meeting house, between John Reynolds and Angell Husted, Jr." It is strange that both meeting houses should have adjoined John Reynolds's house. I think this refers to his nephew, Deacon John Reynolds, for this was March 20, 1701-02, when according to the old-style calendar "Mr. John Renals" had already been dead for three months.

In 1705 the town was divided into two parishes, the First Society being to "Ye East Side of Sd. Myanos River," and the second on "Ye West Side of Sd. Myanos River." By 1739 only four of twenty-three taxpayers bearing the name of Reynolds still lived in the old First or East Parish.

When the older towns were crowded, many men removed across the Sound. The Rev. Richard Denton, for instance, with others of Stamford, in 1644, went permanently to Hempstead, L. I.; Richard Crab went to Oyster Bay, etc.

John Reynolds was elected the first magistrate of Greenwich, as shown by this entry:

"Feby. 24, 1687: At Town Meeting ye town taking into serious consideration ye want of civill officer amongst them in Sundry respect, it being put to vote in ye towne ye towne accordigly per vote make choise on John Renolds Senior to be presented to ye townes ord to ye Generall Court of confirmation in ye office, Place and dignite of a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate."

Between 1690-1697, he also served as King's Commissioner.

When he became a Justice of the Peace in 1687, he acquired the then dignified and privileged title of "Mr.," and was so generally referred to in deeds, town meetings, and the like. This helped thenceforth to distinguish him from his nephew John, later known as Senior, then recently of age and beginning to appear on the records.

From the settling of America until the Revolutionary War, and indeed later, town offices, civic positions, militia and other titles were held in high respect. The wearer of "Justice of the Peace," "Judge," "King's Commissioner," "Sergeant," "Ensign," "Lieutenant" or "Captain" was a man of considerable consequence in his little community. However, it would almost seem that being a representative to the colonial legislature did not then mean much. "Mr." was a privileged title; "Esquire" was reserved for Justices of the Peace later on; "Goodman" or "Goodwife" was for the commoner herd. There are instances where for certain offences the privilege of being called "Mr." was taken away from the bearer.

"It is ordered that Josias Plastowe, for stealing four baskets of corn from the Indians, shall return them eight baskets, be fined five shillings and hereafter be called by the name of Josias and not Mr. as he† formerly used to be."

† Mass. Records, vol. i: 92.

Mrs., Mistress, Dame and Madame were titles of honor and respect bestowed on unmarried women of high social standing or venerable age. The marriage of Governor Bradstreet's daughter, Dorothy, is on record as "Mrs. Dorothy Bradstreet."

Military titles§ were held in high repute among the colonists. A Corporal was on the road to distinction; a Sergeant had arrived and his title was never omitted. An Ensign or a Lieutenant was quite lifted above the heads of his fellows, and a Captain was a man of the highest standing and influence in the community. The officers of the Train Band ranked next to the Minister and Deacon when the church sittings were allotted and on all occasions they took precedence over the untitled multitude.

Upon the death of John Reynolds, his widow was appointed Administratrix. Joshua[3], then under age, chose his brother John (the cooper) as guardian, while young David chose Joseph Knapp. At his death, John[2] was the largest landowner in Greenwich. In 1706 the sons sold and interchanged various parcels of land, which they had inherited from their "honored father, Mr. John Renals, deceased." We quote his will and give the inventory of John[2] Reynolds' Estate, 1701, in full: (Recorded in Fairfield, Conn.)

Dec. 12, 1701.

Greenwich Anno 1701—December ye 17, Mrs. Judah Renalds, Relick unto Mr. John Renalds late of Greenwich gave oath to this Inventure to be ye full of her deceased husbands estate according as it perticularly mentiones, it being ye full of ye estate according to ye best of her knowledge.

Oath taken before me, SAMLL. PECK,
Justice of the Peace.

As the above figures do not add correctly, our copy may be imperfect.

The life-long home† of this John[2] and Judah (Palmer) Reynolds was in the East Society (Sound Beach) of Greenwich. This John gave it by will (1701) to his son, Lieut. David[3] Reynolds, and the land is accurately described and located in our account of this Lieut. David later on. Lieut. David gave it by will (1750) to his only daughter, Penelope (Mrs. Reuben Pennoyer), who then lived in Stamford. Penelope's dower interest was deeded to one of her sons in 1760. Then in the same year it was sold to Enos Lockwood of Greenwich. Penelope's sons Thomas and David had some sort of reversionary right in the property which compelled their inclusion in the sale in 1760. So this home of John[2] was on the east side of Greenwich Cove, on or near the road now leading from Sound Beach Station down toward Old Greenwich Inn.

The family of John[2] and Judah (Palmer) Reynolds apparently dates about ten years later than that of his brother Jonathan. All of the children of both brothers were born in Sound Beach (then Stamford) and Greenwich, Conn. The mention of the ages of the children of Jonathan[2] in the settlement of his estate in 1673 enables us to set the years of their birth. But the following children of John and Judah, and possibly others who may have died in infancy, are arranged in order of birth, but the dates of birth are not wholly reliable:

*31. JOHN, 3rd (known as "The Cooper"), b. about 1670; d. Dec. 1732; m. - - -.

*32. JUDITH, b. about 1672; d. after 1734; m. Samuel Betts of Norwalk, Conn., Dec. 10, 1692. Six children.

*33. JAMES, b. in 1674; d. Feby. 14, 1767; m. Sarah Holmes, 1697.

34. MARY, b. about 1679; m. Peter Palmer.

*35. JONATHAN, b. about 1682; d. 1709; m. Mary Mead.

*36. JOSHUA, b. about 1685; d. 1765; m. - - - - - - - -.

*37. DAVID, b. about 1687; d. autumn 1750; m. 1: Penelope Wright. 2: possibly Mrs. Mary (Mead) Reynolds, widow of Jonathan above.

† Some authorities think it is probable that both Jonathan and John lived at first in Greenwich Old Town (that is, East Society, now Sound Beach), but after buying land as John did with others in February, 1686, John may have moved over as soon as the land was developed and a house built. This is said because John in 1695 was "an inhabitant of ye towne of Horseneck." At that time he gave his home-lot and house there to his son John the Cooper. It is likely he had then built a house on the land received via Jonathan in 1682, and that he may then have moved back to the East Society to the home he described as "my Dwelling house." While he mentions much land no parcel seems to have a house thereon. The will was dated 1699. It is possible John went back to the East Society when his son John the Cooper married, as he seems to have got the home when Peter was born.

* The asterisk before any number in this Book means that the child so starred is carried forward with the same number in the next chapter and more fully written up with biographical detail, and his or her children. John No. *31 on this page is therefore to be found again as head of his own family on page 48 herein following.

THIRD GENERATION

I. DESCENDANTS OF JONATHAN[2].

22. SERGEANT JONATHAN REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1660; d. by 1728, as his "eldest son, Jonathan of Jonathan deceased" speaks of "my brother Josiah." m. Nevill Ridewere, Dec. 7, 1682, by Mr. Richer, Laws Commissioner of Greenwich.

Huntington in his Stamford Records records a Jonathan Reynolds, representative in the Connecticut Assembly for Greenwich, 1677-79. Now, Jonathan[2] who had been representative in 1667, died in 1673. If Huntington did not make an error in copying the years above given, could it have been this "Sergeant" Jonathan? Hardly, as he was then only seventeen. Huntington surely erred. Either he meant 1667-69; or he meant Lieut. Jonathan Bell (not Reynolds) who did serve in the late 1670's. Jonathan was Sergeant in the Horseneck Greenwich Trained Militia Company.

Feby. 1684, exchanged half of lands of his "deceased father Jonathan Reynolds" with his "brother John." In 1688 listed with his brother John and uncle John as eligible voter of Greenwich. May 21, 1698, entitled to land in Greenwich. 1697, on tax list at £47-5-0. 1700, gets grant of 10 acres at Poundridge, N. Y.; he, Judith Renals and Ruth Ferris protest concerning building meeting house in Horseneck instead of at Greenwich old Towne,—V:77. Aug. 23, 1700, "To sargeant Jonathan, son of Jonathan, a homelot" in Greenwich. April 4, 1699, he and brother John (or perhaps uncle John) appointed on committee to discharge preacher Morgan for dullness. Feby. 4, 1701, gets land west of Mianus River. Aug. 12, 1698, a description of land mentions Mr. John Renals, Jonathan, Sr., Joseph, John, Ebenezer, John, Jr., in Greenwich. 1701, town tax list at £22. 1702, made guardian of children of Peter Clapham of Norwalk. April, 1703, among those protesting against Mr. Nathaniel Bowers; 1705, when Greenwich divided into two churches, he was one of three signers on behalf of the east side of Mianus River or Old Town (now Sound Beach) where I think he resided. Nearly all of the other Reynoldses had moved westward to what is now modern Greenwich, then called the West Society, or Horseneck. March 18, 1708, he signs with others a protest against the clergyman operating a mill. Nov. 7, 1724, buys of brother Joseph part of father's estate. April 5, 1706, received 8 acres more in Poundridge. Feby. 12, 1725-26, Jonathan and "Nathan son of said Jonathan Roynills" are mentioned in deed.

The children are not given exactly in order of birth. Two dates have been found since this was first put in type.

*41. JONATHAN, b. 1683; d. in 1740; m. Rebecca Seaman, April 13, 1703.

*42. JOHN, b. "about 1698-9"; d. before June 14, 1764; m. Hannah Jessup or/and Hannah Sutton of Hempstead, L. I.

*43. NATHAN, b. about 1688; d. 1748; m. Ruth Reynolds.

44. PETER, b. about 1691, of whom we know no more.

*45. JOSIAH, b. Jany. 13, 1689; d. bef. May 8, 1777; m. Barbara Briggs, May 1 1735.

23. JOHN REYNOLDS, "Senior," Deacon of the West Society: (Jonathan[2]; John[1]) born in 1662 at Greenwich, Conn., we know from the papers in the settlement, 1673, of his father's estate; d. there, March, 1735-36. His will was executed Sept. 22, 1732; probated at Stamford April 6, 1736. In it he leaves all property to his widow Ruth and states that he leaves no children.

He m. Ruth Knapp before 1694, daughter Joshua and Hannah Knapp of Greenwich; she was b. 1667; d. after April 6, 1736. Her mother, after the death of Joshua Knapp, m. John Bowers, who by his previous deceased wife (who had been Mrs. Judith Palmer, wife of Henry Palmer; then wife to Jeffrey Ferris before marrying Bowers) had another step-daughter also married to a John[2] Reynolds, the uncle of this Deacon John Reynolds. That is, by two wives, Bowers had two step-daughters—Ruth Knapp (Mrs. John[3] Reynolds) and Judith Palmer (Mrs. John[2] Reynolds)—married into our Family. John Bowers' will, dated March 16, 1693-94, witnessed by a John Renalds, calls his step-daughter Ruth "sister to Joseph Knapp"; he also gives certain things to his other step-daughter, Judith. Ruth had also brothers Timothy and Joshua—the Joshua who m. Elizabeth[3] Reynolds, sister of our Deacon John, on March 16, 1687. It was quite a mix-up.

In contra-distinction to his cousin, "John[3] the cooper," usually referred to in deeds and papers as "John, Jr.," this Deacon John was mentioned as "John, Sr." Deacon John's uncle was, after becoming Justice of Peace in 1687, always referred to respectfully as "Mr. John Renals," but he d. in 1701. After our John[3] became Deacon—we know not when, but it was after the death of his uncle John—he was referred to as "Mr." as well as "Senior."

He had no children, at least who survived him. It has been erroneously stated that it was his widow who m. Ebenezer Mead at the Second Congregational Church (West Society) on July 10, 1735. This date is before Deacon John's death, as under the old style calendar (explained fully p. 48, Reynolds Family Annual of 1922) March, 1735, when he died, was the last month of 1735, while July 1735 was only the fifth month. Furthermore, the widow Ruth of Deacon John was then 68 years old, while we know that Mead had four children by the Mrs. Ruth Reynolds he did marry. Actually, the Ruth[4], "widow Reynolds," whom John married was widow of John[4], son of Joseph[3] Reynolds; she was also born Reynolds, daughter of John[3] the Cooper.

This Deacon John Reynolds was probably the John who lived next to the church or near it in the West Society (Horseneck); it was that John who gave his house as a parsonage, which gift has formerly been ascribed to his uncle John[2]. There is good reason, however, to believe it was this Deacon John and not the John, Justice of Peace.

Some of the various entries in Greenwich records of deeds and meetings which concern Deacon John are:

June 26, 1683. Greenwich granted him 9 acres in Horseneck Field and 9 acres above Horseneck Field in ye Town plot, probably upon his coming of age —he was b. 1662—or upon his marriage.

Feby. 19, 1684-85. John, returns land near Birum River to his bro. Jonathan, being property in Stamford in yc eastment of ye Two Brothers Brook. Recorded July 26, 1690.

1688. He was a legal voter of Greenwich then; also his brother Jonathan and uncle John.

Feby. 4, 1690-91. "John Reynolds, son of Jonathan, deceased, inhabitant," deeds to Timothy Knapp "his brother" (in-law).

1697. In Greenwich tax list rated at £43.

May 10, 1697. "Ye Towne having taken into Consideration ye necessitie of some of ye young men belonging to ye towne having land for their settlement * * * do hereby grant * * * homelots and field lands": mentions James[3], Ebenezer[3], John, Sr.[3] and Jr.[3]

May 21, 1698. Listed among those entitled to portions of land in Greenwich.

Nov. 14, 1699. Joseph Knapp sells to "his bro. in-law John Renals."

1701. Town list, rated at £71.

Feby. 4, 1701-02. Shared in distribution of land west of Myanos River.

1705. On a committee to divide ecclesiastical property of Greenwich (Sound) (Beach) and Horseneck (modern Greenwich). He represented Horseneck.

March 6, 1706. Received land in First Dividend—22—"at the rate of an acre to four pounds."

April 21, 1706. "John, Sr." sold to brother Timothy Knapp.

Jany. 24, 1717. Sold Greenwich land to brother Joseph Reynolds.

Nov. 6, 1725. Sold land to "John Renals, Jr., my cousin," the cooper John.

Dec. 10, 1726. "John, Sr." to "brother Joseph" and Joseph's son Benjamin[4]. Mentioned his own wife Ruth Knapp as sister to Joshua Knapp. Benjamin Reynolds agrees to keep them all their lives. However, Benjamin died next year (1727), while this Deacon John, his uncle, lived another nine years. See No. 68 herein following for text of agreement.

24. SARAH REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich Conn., Nov. 5, 1665; d. after 1708; m. Joseph[3] Mead of Greenwich, 1687, who was b. about 1657, son of Joseph and Mary (Brown) Mead; d. 1714. See Mead Genealogy by Spencer P. Mead, p. 126 et seq., for a full account of their many descendants. Their home was in Greenwich, Conn.

Mead Children:

51. Sarah, b. Nov. 3, 1695; d. May, 1774; m. Benj. Stebbins of Ridgefield, Conn. 8 ch.

52. Joseph, 3rd, b. May 3, 1698; died 1737, unmarried; his estate to brothers and sisters.

53. Theophilus, of Norwalk, b. July 3, 1700; d. 1760; m. Abigail Wescott. 8 ch.

54. Jeremiah, of Norwalk, b. Aug. 6, 1702; m. 1742; m. Hannah St. John. 5 ch.

55. Zachariah, b. March 11, 1704. Lived Fairfield, Conn.; m. Sarah --. No ch.

56. Nehemiah, of Norwalk, b. Jany. 20, 1706; d. 1784; m. Mehitable ----. 4 ch.

57. Israel, b. March 14, 1708, of Greenwich, removed to Ridgefield, Conn. 2 ch.

25. ELIZABETH REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 1667; m. Joshua Knapp, March 16, 1687. They were married by Mr. Jonathan Bell, Laws Commissioner. Her brother John also m. Joshua's sister Ruth Knapp before 1694; and there were many other intermarriages between the Reynolds and Knapp families. Besides the children below there were probably others, though they may have died in infancy.

Knapp Children:

61. ELIZABETH, b. 1688; m. John Rundell.

62. ISAAC, b. 1690; m. Rebecca[3] Reynolds, Jan. 29, 1727, and they had Isaac, b. 1729; Samuel, b. 1731. See Nos. *41 and 135.

63. JONATHAN, b. about 1702.

64. JOHN, b. March 10, 1708; m. Abigail Close, Jany. 14, 1730; who was b. June 5, 1710.

26. JOSEPH REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1669; d. before June 6, 1727, at age 58. He was the founder of a large and notable wing of this Greenwich Reynolds family. His grandchildren emigrated to the eastern upper shore of the Hudson and farther west. m. twice, as below.

On Feby. 27, 1691-92, probably upon coming of age, made an agreement with his brother Jonathan which on Jany. 11, 1726-27, they put into effect, whereby Jonathan deeded to Joseph three acres of land and Joseph traded him his right to share in land on the east side of Mianus River for Horseneck property. On May 21, 1698, among those entitled to land in Greenwich. 1697, in Greenwich town property list rated £45; 1701, listed at £52. Feby. 4, 1701, shared in distribution of land west of Mianus River. March 2, 1704-05, bought land in Cos Cob meadows of John Austin. March 6, 1708-09, received lots upon "ye first dividend of an acre to £ -- 55." March 9, 1708-09, bought 3½ acres on Gt. Ridge of Thomas Hobby.

On Sept. 27, 1716, bought 7 acres in Greenwich of Jonathan Austin for £47. Land described: A home-lot being at Horseneck, estimated at 7 acres, bounded eastwardly by Reynolds home-lot, south by ye street, westwardly by John Marshall's home-lot, north by ye common land. Witnessed by David Smith and John Rundle. Nov. 7, 1724, sells to "brother John quarter interest in land laid out to ye eastment of my honored father Jonathan of Greenwich, deceased." Sept., 1728, John, "son of Joseph deceased," sells land to "brother Joseph," mentioning "brother Benjamin deceased."

Joseph died early in 1727, leaving no will, because Judge Andrew Burr, Court of Probate, Fairfield—county seat of Fairfield County, Conn.—appointed the widow Abigail, who was his second wife, and eldest son, Joseph, Jr., then aged about 28, as Administrators of the estate. His property was distributed June 9, 1727. As Joseph, Senior's two adult sons, Samuel, aged about 24 and just married, and Benjamin, aged about 22 and unmarried, died at about the same time as the same year, it would appear that some such epidemic as smallpox, typhoid fever, etc., was sweeping over the town. Joseph, Jr., was in 1727 also appointed guardian of his minor brothers Nehemiah and Isaac. On March 26, 1728, the widow Abigail leased her share of her late husband's property to her "eldest son (probably step-son) Joseph," signing by mark.†

John (23) deeded to Joseph (26) in 1717 for £2 parcel of land taken up according to town grant of an acre to £4 estate, which is £43 14 00.

Nov. 17, 1718, Joseph bought of Saml. Banks, 25 shillings, ten acres of land in Greenwich.

In 1720, sons of Joseph Finch (Joseph, Jr., and Jonathan), executors for their father deceased deeded to Joseph Reynolds, their brother-in-law (not mentioning their sister, Mrs. Abigail Reynolds, who was perhaps already dead): bounded north by land of Joseph Finch, east by highway, south by land of Benjamin Finch, west by common land, being 10¾ acres. Finch boys had sister, Elizabeth Whitney.

Joseph's children Reuben and Elizabeth were baptized Nov. 10, 1728; and his widow joined the Second (West) Society Congregational Church of Horseneck, Greenwich. Birth dates of children below are taken from the Greenwich town records and from a small genealogy printed in 1875 by the late Hon. Edwin Ruthven Reynolds.

Joseph's first wife was Miss Abigail Finch, whom he m. in 1698, daughter of Joseph† and Elizabeth (Austin) Finch of Greenwich. Joseph Finch was granted March 23, 1664, meadow land at Mianus Neck, Greenwich; d. 1674. He m. Nov. 23, 16--, Elizabeth Austin. He was son of John Finch, who removed to Stamford 1641, where he d. Sept. 5, 1657. Inventory filed, Stamford, 1658. His wife's name not known. He was son of Abraham Finch, b. Co. York, England, 1585; probably came to New England with Governor Winthrop 1630, and first settled in Watertown, Mass; removed to Wethersfield 1634, where he d. 1638. His oldest son, Abraham, killed at Wethersfield by Indians 1637, Pequot War. Wife's name unknown. Elizabeth Austin was daughter of John Austin, who with others, 1656, submitted to jurisdiction of New Haven Colony—see account under John' Reynolds herein. May 23, 1673, was granted four acres at Clapboard Ridge, Greenwich. He d. about 1683. Mrs. Abigail (Finch) Reynolds d. between 1717-1726, and Joseph Reynolds m. again. All the children, however, are by this first wife.

Joseph's second wife was Abigail Rundell; m. between 1718-1727. Joseph had no children by her. She was a co-administrator of Joseph's estate in 1727. She was the "widow Abigail Reynolds" who joined the Second (West) Society Congregational Church, Nov. 24 (or Dec. 16?), 1728. Records of the same Church show that she married there John Benedict of Norwalk, Conn., Nov. 19, 1729.

† A reliable correspondent in California, without access to notebooks, writes that it was possible Joseph had but one wife, as she thought she had seen the name written, Mrs. Abigail (Finch) Rundell, which would make it possible to accept the March, 1728, item of her "eldest son" as correct. At the last moment we are unable to verify this, but record it for future investigation.

Estate of Joseph Reynolds, Sr., Nov. 7, 1727: Order of the Probate Court makes the following provision: To the widow, one-third of moveable estate and one-third of real estate as her dower during her natural life. To the eldest son, Joseph, Jr., a double portion with what he hath already. To the rest of the children, equal and single portions with what they have had already. This order signed by Andrew Burr, Clerk. Attached to the order is the schedule of partition: To the

Joseph Rennals, double portion.....	144	13	9
John Rennals, single portion.....	68	12	2½
Nehemiah Rennals, single portion....	68	12	2½
Isaac Rennals, single portion.....	68	12	2½
Reuben Rennals, single portion.....	68	12	2½
Abigail, eldest daughter, and now wife of David Renols	68	12	2½
Elizabeth	68	12	2½
Samuel, deceased, to his daughter....	68	12	2½

The realty divided by the settlement went to Joseph, 38 acres west side of Peeks Ridge; 1 acre town lot; 5 acres adjoining John Marshall's lot, and other to other children. It would seem that Benjamin was also dead before Nov. 7, 1727, as he is not mentioned in the settlement. Note that Samuel's daughter and not his wife is mentioned; perhaps the wife was also dead in that probable epidemic.

Joseph's home was always at Horseneck in the West Society, or what is now modern Greenwich. It was probably located on Clapboard Ridge or North Street, Greenwich. His children Abigail and John m. two of the children of his cousin John[3], the cooper. Joseph and Abigail (Finch) Reynolds had, all born in Greenwich:

65. Joseph, b. May 15, 1699; after 1749; m. 1: Ruth Ferris, 1721 2: ------.

66. Abigail, b. April 3, 1701; d. after 1751; m. David[4] Reynolds, son of John[3]; John[2]. For children, see under his record herein following, No. 87.

67. Samuel, b. July 16, 1703; d. March 6, 1727-28; m. Rebecca Palmer, Jany. 26, 1726-27, but d. a year later. Had a daughter mentioned in Joseph's distribution, Nov. 7, 1727.

68. Benjamin, b. March 26, 1705; d. 1727; aged 22; was unmarried.

69. John, b. May 23, 1708; d. about 1734; m. Ruth[4] Reynolds, dau. John[3] and sister to David[4] who m. John's sister Abigail above. See No. 90.

70. Nehemiah, b. April 8, 1709; d. after 1754; m. 1: Abigail --- 2: Mary ----.

.71. Isaac, b. June 15, 1711; removed to Crum Elbow, near Yorktown and northeast of Peekskill, N. Y. Sold land to brother Joseph Mar. 6, 1733-34.

72. Reuben, b. Dec. 4, 1713; d. about 1765; m. Elizabeth Mead, 1734.

73. Elizabeth, b. Aug. 18, 1717; d. after Dec. 1742; m. Richard Everitt of Norwalk.

27. EBENEZER REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., not long after Jany. 23, 1673-74, as he was born after his father's death; he d. between Feby. 10, 1748-49, when his will was made, and May 2, 1749, when it was probated, ten weeks later. His will further mentioned Dec. 5, 1749. It is probable he died in April, 1749. His old homestead was east of the Mianus River. His will is printed in "American Families of Historic Lineage," I:170, L. I. Division. Will mentions his wife Abigail; son Enos executor.

He m. Abigail Smith, 1704, dau. Ebenezer Smith. Greenwich gave him a town lot on Clap-Board Ridge, 4 acres, Feby. 8, 1694-95, probably upon coming of age, or at marriage. This he exchanged, Dec. 26, 1695, for property at Horseneck. Jany. 20, 1695-96, his brother Jonathan gave him land which is recorded Vol. III; 65, Greenwich Deeds. This land is mentioned March 6, 1725-26, and land which his brother Jonathan gave him "which had been granted by the town." In Greenwich tax list of 1697 he was held at £30; 1701, at £44. May 10, 1697, he is granted ten acres at Horseneck by the Town. Aug. 12, 1698, a division of land mentions: Mr. John[2] Reynolds, Jonathan[3], Sr., Joseph[3], John[3], Ebenezer[3], John[3], Jr. Feby. 4, 1701-02, shared in a distribution west of Mianus River. March 6, 1706, he received land in ye first dividend of an acre to four pounds—66." April 1714, John, Jr., his cousin, sold to him.

In the tax list of Greenwich, 1739, two Ebenezers are given, the second perhaps was his son: Ebenezer of the West Society (Horseneck) rated at £34; Ebenezer of the East Society (Sound Beach) rated at £88. We do not know which was which. One would think that the lesser amount indicated the son; and this would mean that Ebenezer, Senior, lived in Greenwich Old Town (Sound Beach) then? Ebenezer, Sr., willed land in Stanwich to Ebenezer, Jr., and Nathaniel.

Ebenezer's will, mentioned first above, was probated at Stamford in 1749. His wife survived him, as she and nine of the following children, b. Greenwich, are mentioned. Eliphalet does not appear in it. Timothy's birth seems to be so late, almost thirty years after the marriage. There was probably an intervening Timothy, Sr., son of Ebenezer[2], of whom we know nothing. The Editors do not know why Eliphalet is placed by previous searchers as a son of Ebenezer.

.75. Deborah, b. Feby. 3, 1705-06; d. Bedford, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1787, at 84; m. Robert Peck, 1731.

*76. Ebenezer, Jr., b. March 6, 1706-07; m. -----, 1729.

77. Lydia, b. March 1, 1709-10; mentioned 1749 in her father's will, as "my daughter that now lives with me."

78. Sarah, b. 1711; m. Peter Peck. In 1735 she was unmarried, and was left money by will of maternal grandfather, Ebenezer Smith, of Greenwich, Conn.

79. Abigail, b. 1713; m. William Johnson.

*80. Nathaniel, b. Jany. 27, 1715-16; d. April, 1792; m. Sarah Lockwood, 1743.

81. Enos, b. about 1717; m. Sarah Newman, dau. Nathl. and Rebecca Newman of Stamford, who in his will 1772 mentions Enos.

82. Timothy: See comment under his brother Ebenezer, who in will 1772 mentions Enos, No. 76 on later pages.

83. Rebecca, b. ; m. Samuel Burchum.

84. Eliphalet, b. about 1722; "settled at Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., near Amenia." Not mentioned in Ebenezer's will. Was also Corporal, 1762, French and Indian War. We doubt that he was a son of Ebenezer.

II. Descendants of John[2].

31. JOHN REYNOLDS, "Junior," "the cooper," (John[2]; John[1]) b. Sound Beach or Greenwich, Conn., about 1670; d. there December, 1732; his father, usually referred to as "Mr. John[2] Reynolds," because Justice of Peace, d. 1701; his cousin John[3], usually referred to as "John, Sr.," d. about 1735-36. This John the cooper was often referred to in deeds, wills, etc., as "Jr." During all their lives these three Johns were much confused because of identity of name.

We do not know the name of John's wife, as she had died before him and was not mentioned in his will of 1732. His first daughter was obviously named for his own mother who had been Judith Palmer; but his second, Lydia, may have been named for John's wife, the mother. In Stamford Probate records we find mention of "Lydia Ferris, alias Reynolds, late of Greenwich, sister of Joshua Ferris and Ruth Peck." But the supposition is weak and needs further research to support it. Probate on Joshua Ferris, March 4, 1746, mentions heirs of sister Lydia Reynolds.

On June 20, 1695, he received from his father, "Mr. John" the house and homelot at Horseneck, Greenwich—perhaps on coming of age or at marriage. In 1697 ranked with £51 on town property list. May 10, 1697, he and others received ten acres each at Horseneck, as "ye towne having taken into consideration ye necessitie of some of ye young men belonging to ye towne having land for their settlement wherefore ye towne de hereby grant * * * homelots and field lands to such as have not homelots already: John, Jr. and Sr." The "Sr." being his cousin[3] son of Jonathan[2]. May 21, 1698, our John among those entitled to portions of land in Greenwich, "son to Mr. Renalds." April 4, 1699, he and Jonathan appointed on committee to discharge preacher Morgan for dullness, Greenwich—but more likely it was his father or cousin. 1701, town tax list at £72. Feby. 4, 1701, shared in distribution of land west of Myanos River. Dec. 2, 1704, he and brother James, "sons of Mr. John Renals, decd." buy of Gershom Lockwood (Greenwich Deeds, p. 383). Dec., 1704, he and brother James appear. March 6, 1706, buys of brother Joshua; "received land in ye first dividend, 4 lbs. to an acre -- 15."; buys of brother Jonathan. April 29, 1706, sells to brother James; also bought third of father's right from brother James, and then sold James two pieces of land: half portion of father's rights in the Indian Field and third part of father's rights at Birum Neck. He is mentioned 1710 in estate of Stephen Holmes, Fairfield probate. Dec. 2, 1712, sells land to James, Clapboardtree Ridge (III: 34 Greenwich Deeds). April 20, 1725, "John Reynolds, Jr., cooper" gives land to sons Peter and David. Sells to son David 1728; sells to brother David Feb. 8, 1728-29.

John signed his will Nov. 11, 1732; it was probated March 26, 1732-33, at Stamford; it makes his brother James and son-in-law Samuel Mills executors.

"I give to my true and loving wife twenty pounds current money of the Collony of Connecticut and to Return to her what she brought to me when I maried her in the same specie or equivalent to be delivered to her by my execs. * * * and David is to pay my wife that twenty pounds I give her. * * * that my two sons, Peter and David to pay there sister Judith Thirty pounds a peese."

Mentions his sister Judith Betts.

This John, like his son David[4], always made his home in the "West or Second Society" of Greenwich, and all his life bore the tag, "John the Cooper," in contradistinction to many other related Johns. We hope that some one will discover the name of his wife, if it is not the Lydia Ferris above given.

33. CAPTAIN JAMES REYNOLDS: (John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1674; d. Feby. 14, 1767, Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; buried Smithfield Burying Ground there as "James Reynolds, Esq.," where his stone still stands. Family tradition has it that he was of Peekskill (Cortland Manor) but was visiting his son James, who is also buried there. A letter written in 1848 states that "he was large and made a fine appearance."

He m. Miss Sarah Holmes, of Greenwich, possibly as second wife. From a deed signed December 22, 1731, by Captain James Reynolds and his wife Sarah, it appears that she was the daughter of Mary† Hobby who m. Nov. 18, 1686, Stephen Holmes. The deed§ covers "part of lot or right of land that was given by John Hobby of Greenwich, deceased, unto his daughter Mary and her children, and I, Sarah Renyals, am one of the children of ye said Mary Holmes." The said land was granted to her by her honored father John Hobby. The latter was on the voters' lists of Greenwich as early as 1658, and the inventory of his estate, April 24, 1707, mentions "dau. Mary Holmes, wife of Stephen Holmes." John Hobby was the son of John Hobby, one of the seven original proprietors of Greenwich, 1664.

Stephen Holmes b. Jany. 14, 1664-65, Stamford‡, d. May 15, 1710, Greenwich¶, was the son of John Holmes, b. 1635; d. July 6, 1703¶, and Rachel Waterbury, who removed to Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., 1680. They were m. at Stamford‡, Dec. 3, 1659. Rachel was the daughter of John Waterbury, who d. Stamford‖, May 15, 1658. John Holmes receipted on behalf of his wife "Rachel[a] out of ye estate of her deceased father, John Waterbury, Feby. 10, 1668."

On May 10, 1697, together with several others of "ye young men belonging to ye towne," received an allotment of a homelot at Horseneck, 3 acres there and 10 between the Two Brothers Brooks. 1701 town rate list sets him at £46. Up to 1703 all town meetings had been held at Greenwich Old Towne, but in that year it was determined to hold half of them at Horseneck, which was rapidly outgrowing in importance the older settlement, and James was one of those who signed the petition to the General Assembly. In 1705, the town was divided into two societies, and he was appointed Selectman, Dec. 31, 1705, to the Second Society on "ye west sd. of Myanos River." April 21, 1706, received 8 acres at Clapboard Ridge. Feby. 26, 1707, received grant of 6 acres at Lynch's Ridge bounded by John[a] his brother.

In the Greenwich Common-Place Book we read: "Nov. 1, 1706. Recorded unto James Renals, his ear-mark, which is a cross upon ye top ye neer ear and two half pennies under ye side of ye same ear."

James was elected Lieutenant of the Horseneck Train Band Militia. May 14, 1719, and Captain May 9, 1728. He was the representative from Greenwich to the General Assembly, 1721-24; 1727-28. Also Justice of Peace of Fairfield County, 1733-41. Beginning with 1723, he was Moderator of the Second or West Society, 1723, 2724, 1725, 1731, 1734, 1739-40. The last record of him in the books of the West Society is dated Dec. 7, 1750, when he and Samuel Mills were a committee to collect funds for building a meeting-house for the Second Society.

That he was a very large land-holder is made apparent by the many deeds recorded in Greenwich. As early as April 21, 1706, he obtained by grant of the town eight acres at Clapboardtree Ridge, a hill lying about a mile and a half northwest of Greenwich. This was increased by purchase from his brother John "the cooper," Dec. 2, 1712, and other grants Nov., 1707, and 1712, until he owned a large tract. On March 14, 1710, he sold to Edward Avery a "piece of ground in Horseneck, my home-lot of 14 acres with present dwelling, house, barn and orchard, bounded on the east by a highway, southerly and westerly by ye highway, and northly by ye land of Ebenezer Mead and common land." Dec. 29, 1710, sold twenty acres at Lynch's Ridge to brother John "equal to half our honored father's first dividend." Dec. 13, 1745, in White Plains deed records we read, James Reynolds, Justus Bush, Jabez Mead and Isaac Holmes give up to James Delaney, Esq., and Lewis Johnston, all right under Caleb Heathcote, Esq., et al., by virtue of a patent dated 1701 called the East Patent. This was in Westchester County, N. Y.

On May 10, 1736, he deeded his "well-beloved and dutiful† son Gideon Reynolds" a very large tract of land on Clap-Board-Tree Ridge, and augmented it with another granted Feby. 21, 1743. On April 29, 1738, he deeded part of his homelot in Greenwich to his "loving and dutiful son Justus." On Sept. 24, 1748, he gave his son Jeremiah 50 acres. On Feby. 17, 1748-49, he gave his son, James, Jr., his house and orchard on Clap-Board-Tree Ridge. This house, a large gambrel structure surrounded by enormous box trees, was still standing in 1897 and was owned by the descendants of Gideon Reynolds. March 24, 1752, he deeded to son James, Jr., land called Harkencores Purchase in township of North Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y. On March 4, 1752, he deeded to James and Gideon, sons, his lands in the Indian Fields.

Marcus T. Reynolds writes (1923): "When I first went to Greenwich in 1906, I drove out to the original farm of James Reynolds on Clap-board-tree Ridge. This proved to be a one-story-and-attic structure, covered with old shingles, which had pretty well shrunken away, leaving exposed the large hand-wrought nails with which they had been secured. There was a well with a long sweep, and in front of the house were two enormous box trees which must have been fifteen or twenty feet in diameter and without a single dead branch on them. The house was unoccupied at that time and I understand has since been destroyed by fire."

James probably married twice. In that case, the first four children, all recorded in the Greenwich Common-Place Book, were by the first wife whose name we do not know. This supposition is strengthened when we remember that Sarah Holmes, his second wife, was apparently not yet twelve when James' first child (Sarah) was born.

† Greenwich Deeds, IV, 97.

Captain James Reynolds had these children, b. in Greenwich:

101. Sarah, . - - - 25, 1698; could it have been she who m. James Winans, and and had James, Jr., b. 1742—White Plains Deeds R. F. Annual, p. 22, 1910-11, says Sarah, b. 1715; d. 1802; m. about 1736, James Winans (1715-1795). This Sarah may be the dau. of Ebenezer[3]. See Nos. 27 and 78 herein. Sarah, No. 218, more likely m. Winans than this Sarah.

35. JONATHAN REYNOLDS: (John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1682; d. 1709, there; m. Miss Mary Mead before 1703, dau. Joseph[2] Mead of Greenwich. (See p. 125 Mead Genealogy.) Mary had a brother Daniel who deeded considerable personal property to her, 1707, which transfer her brother-in-law David Reynolds witnessed. 1709-10 she settled Jonathan's estate with help of her brother Daniel. Her father, Joseph Mead, d. before 1702. She had also brother Joseph who m. Jonathan's cousin, Sarah Reynolds. Jany. 20, 1702-03, Joseph Mead speaks of money due his brother-in-law "Jonathan Reynolds, Jr., from the estate of the late Joseph Mead of Greenwich, upon his wife's portion. A Mrs. Mary Reynolds d. after 1760, and because of her association with Penelope[4] (Reynolds) Pennoyer of Stamford-Greenwich, and in deeding property with her in 1760, and other interest in the grandchildren of Lieut. David[3] Reynolds, brother of this Jonathan, it is possible, though not probable, that this widowed Mary (Mead) Reynolds m. Lieut. David[3] Reynolds after the death of his first wife, Penelope Wright. Read the account of Lieut. David[3] herein, No. 37 following.

May 3, 1704, Jonathan was made an inhabitant of Greenwich, but died a few years later. Town tax list at £27 in 1701. Feby 4, 1701, shared in distribution of land west of Mianus River. April 29, 1706, sells land to his brother John, Jr., being one-third of his dead father's rights. Feby. 18, 1707-08, "layd out land of Jonathan Renals, son to Mr. John Renals, late of Greenwich, deceased, being his right as by will may appear."

As this Jonathan Reynolds was some twenty-two years younger than his cousin Jonathan, there is much less confusion between them in the old records than between their respective brothers John who were more nearly of an age. By the appointing of Administratrix, his wife, and administrator, her brother, Samuel, we are sure Jonathan died before 1710.

We know of only one child. Yet there are two later references in the Greenwich records, which if they have been correctly copied by previous workers, are very puzzling. On April 1, 1731, "Joseph Reynolds, son unto John Reynolds, deceased," gives half his property to "son Hezekiah." And again, Jany. 3, 1711, "Jonathan Reynolds buys of brother David half of my father's rights in Indian Fields, it being half right of Mr. John Reynolds in these fields." These two records should be examined on the spot in Greenwich. Our copyist may have erred. We believe Jonathan and Mary (Mead) Reynolds had only one child:

*110. Hezekiah, b. about 1707; d. 1756-57; m. 1: Ruth --- of Stamford. 2: Sarah Webb, 1734.

36. JOSHUA REYNOLDS: (John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1685; d. 1765, the same year his son Caleb died.

The name of Joshua's wife we do not know. The name of his only known daughter might suggest the mother's first name. Will of Thos. Pennoyer, Stamford, dated Nov. 13, 1724, mentions wife Lydia (Knapp) and daughter Abigail Reynolds, b. Stamford, Oct. 13, 1686, might suggest wife to fit in here. She is about Joshua's age, and children's births fit in chronologically. Her brother Reuben m. Joshua's niece Penelope Reynolds, daughter David.

March 6, 1706, he bought land from brother John, mentioning "late father John." Same date sold to his brother John. Feby. 18, 1719, relinquishes land to brother Lieut. David Reynolds. January 17, 1721-22, received land of brother Lieut. David, mentioning brother John. In 1733, he with James, Jr., and Nathaniel, petitioned Connecticut General Assembly to be taken from Parish of Stanwich and added to Greenwich. They lived in southwest part of Stanwich. In 1739 on the tax list at £126 he was the wealthiest of twenty-three taxpayers of his name in Greenwich. In 1748 deeded land to sons Daniel and John. Daniel eventually removed to Cortland Manor, Peekskill, but the other two sons apparently remained always in Greenwich. Joshua was the Greenwich representative in the Colonial Legislature, 1717-19. His children:

*118. John, b. about 1712; m. Joanna Winans, Feby. 16, 1740.

121. Mary, b. April 28, 1723.

37. LIEUT. DAVID REYNOLDS: (John[2]; John[1]) of the "East or First Society" of Greenwich, Conn., b. Greenwich about 1686-87; d. there between June 2 and November 6, 1750. The year of birth is indicated by his signing a deed with his wife Penelope in Oyster Bay, L. I., in 1708, at which time he must have been of age, and by land transactions between his guardian and himself in Greenwich in 1709-10. He was the youngest child of his parents.

David m. probably at Oyster Bay, L. I., in or before 1708, Penelope Wright, daughter of Caleb and Elizabeth Wright of Oyster Bay, as shown in Huntington's Oyster Bay Records. "David Renels of Greenwich, Conn., and Penelope, his wife, sell certain meadows given her by her father Caleb Wright, deceased," in 1708. Caleb Wright is traced in Long Island Families and Oyster Bay Records. Other printed records of that locality show her in the family of Caleb and Elizabeth Wright, but fail to give any dates. Penelope pre-deceased David, and was probably the mother of his two children for whom place and date of birth have not been found. David had a second wife Mary in 1750 whose maiden name and entire record is also lacking. Mary survived as David's widow certainly until 1760 when she sold her right in his home.

There is no doubt about the year of death of this David Reynolds, first of the name of David, because he joined with his son in a sale of land in Greenwich June 2, 1750, and his will was probated in Stamford, Conn., Nov. 6, 1750. David[4] outlived the second David[4], (his nephew and son of John[3] the Cooper), who was of the "West Society" and d. 1745.

In 1705, four years after the death of John[2], the Township of Greenwich was divided into two church societies which were then also units of local government. It was determined that the First Society was to be "Ye East side of Sd. Myanos River"; and the Second Society "Ye West Side of Sd. Myanos River."

This Lieut. David and his son David, Jr., lived in the East or First Society and are so referred to in the records. David[4], son of John[3] the Cooper, was of the West Society as clearly shown by land records. These three Davids were frequently confused until the probate and land records were carefully studied by excellent genealogists. The second David, nephew of the first, Lieut. David[3], was called "Jr.," until 1730, when the third David, son of the first one, began to appear in the land records, after which "Jr." was applied always to the son, and "of West Society" or "son of John the Cooper" to the second David, who d. in 1745.

We have seen that Jonathan[2] bought of Richard Bowles (sp. Vowles) of Rye, 1665, certain lands which he immediately transferred to his "brother John," and John—mentioning it in his 1701 will as his home—bequeathed it to his youngest, and then minor, son David[3] who would appear to have always made it his home when he willed in 1750 to his only daughter Penelope[4] wife of Reuben Penoyer. She had previously lived in Stamford, but apparently came home a few months before her father's death, and she retained the home place until 1760. Feb. 16, 1760, "Ruben Penoyer & Ponolope Ponoyor, late Ponelope Reynolds, his wife & Thomas Ponoyer, all of Greenwich, Conn., & David Ponoyor of Cortland Mannor, Westchester Co., N. Y." sold to Enos Lockwood of Greenwich "14 acres 3 rods with buildings and fruit trees which did belong to David Reynolds, late of Greenwich, Deceased, bounded East by Highway, South by Timothy Knapp's land, West partly by the cove and partly by the Parsonage land called Grimes', North partly by said Parsonage land and partly by Ferris's (heirs of Jeremiah Ferris). Witnesses, Samuel Ferris, Joseph Ferris. Recorded June 21, 1760." A few weeks previously widow Mrs. Mary Reynolds had sold her dower right in this property to David Penoyer of Cortland Manor. No further mention of her has been found, and it is not known where Reuben Penoyer took his family.

Lieut. David Reynolds evidently tried to hold his only son, David[4], in Greenwich by giving him half of his land when the son became of age or married, but the younger David finally decided to move to Peekskill, then called Cortland Manor, as did some of his relatives, in 1748, and the father joined with his son for a clear title in the sale of some of that land in Greenwich June 2, 1750. Lieut. David willed a little more land to his son which was inherited by the four sons of David, Jr., and eventually all sold by them.

John[2] in a codicil to his will, printed on preceding pages, left an "old sword" to this youngest son, David, and it appeared in the 1750 inventory of the effects of David. What became of it?

David received other of the land owned by his father John[2] as well as the home plot, and in 1710 he bought from his brother James twenty acres of land at Lynch's Ridge, Greenwich, "a half of our father's first division."

In Oct., 1720, this David of the East Society was commissioned Ensign (2nd Lieut.) of Co. E, Greenwich Militia, and May, 1729, commissioned Lieutenant (1st Lieut.) of the Connecticut Regulars.

According to the tax lists of Greenwich for 1739, there were twenty-three named Reynolds paying taxes: nineteen in the West or Second Society; and only Lieut. David, £10, his son David, £1, Ebenezer, £88, and Joshua, £44, listed in the East or First Society .

From Greenwich land records and probate files of Stamford we know of only two children, at least who survived childhood. In the West (2nd) Congregational Church of Greenwich there was baptized on Dec. 29, 1728, NATHANIEL, son of DAVID REYNOLDS, but this Nathaniel might have belonged to any one of the three adult Davids of that time: Lieut. David[3]; his son, given next below; or his nephew, David[4], son of John[3]. Remember Lieut. David was of the East (1st) Church. Lieut. David's children might have been born in Oyster Bay, L. I.:

125. Penelope, b. about 1708-09; d. after 1760; m. Reuben Pennoyer of Stamford, 1728.

FOURTH GENERATION

I. DESCENDANTS OF JONATHAN[2].

41. JONATHAN REYNOLDS: (2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1683; d. in 1740, at Greenwich; m. Rebecca Seaman, April 13, 1703. Jonathan was commissioned Ensign (2nd Lieut.) of the East Company, Trained Militia Band of Horseneck, Greenwich township, May 9, 1728. Perhaps he was the "Jonathan, son of Jonathan" who on April 5, 1706, received eight acres at Poundridge, N. Y. On April 11, 1738, he and wife sold five acres to his brother Josiah for £60, both of Greenwich, the land being in Stamford near the Greenwich line, lying south of Josiah's Stamford property. On Oct. 29, 1711, he and wife sold other land; he and Josiah sold land to John Marshall April 16, 1740. In 1739 he was on Greenwich tax lists as "Jonathan 3rd, £58" as of the West or Horseneck Society. His home was apparently always in Greenwich, Conn. The Editors are much puzzled by a land entry in the Greenwich records, Jonathan Reynolds' deed of gift to his son Hezekiah, March 30, 1741, which was supposed to refer to the other Jonathan[2], cousin to this Jonathan's father and who was supposed to have died around 1709. Perhaps Hezekiah did fit in among the children of this Jonathan[4] and Rebecca.

Another mysterious record is "Congreg. Church baptized, Dec. 7, 1728, Eli, Sarah, Abigail and Bethia, ch. of John Reynolds." It could hardly be the Sarah and Abigail below.

Jonathan and Rebecca (Seaman) Reynolds had:

135. REBECCA, b. Feby. 12, 1704-05; m. Isaac Knapp, Jany. 29, 1727-28, son of her grand-aunt Elizabeth[3] (Reynolds) Knapp. They had: Isaac Jr., b. May 27, 1729. Samuel, b. June 24, 1731. See No. 62 herein.

136. SARAH, b. 1706; m. Benjamin Holmes, Feby. 7, 1744-45. Had Enoch, b. April 20, 1746.

137. JONATHAN, 4th, b. Jany. 26, 1707-08; d. after 1747; m. Elizabeth Briggs.

138. ABIGAIL, b. 1709; m. Jany. 8 (July 17), 1731, John Martin. Had James, b. Dec. 24, 1731.

42. JOHN REYNOLDS: (2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., "about 1698-99"; d. 1764, between signing of his will at Northcastle, Westchester Co., N. Y., June 14, 1764, and the probating of it in New York City (Book 24, p. 590) Oct. 2, (25?) 1764. It mentions wife Hannah and all children given below except Jonathan and Deborah, who were probably then dead, and James. (See Early Wills of Westchester Co., 1898, W. S. Pelletreau, p. 208-09.) John's son Robert and son-in-law Andrew Purdy were executors. Feby. 20, 1732-33, John and wife assigned their right in estate under will of Edward Jessup, her father, and they were then in Greenwich. Nathaniel Reynolds witnessed. (See Jessup Genealogy.) His wife is said to have gone with her father from Greenwich farms to Stamford where she met John Reynolds. "John, son of Jonathan, and his wife Hannah" sold land to Justice Bush, Feby. 2, 1731-32. John is said to have m. Hannah Jessup, daughter Edward and Elizabeth Jessup of Stamford, Conn., but we find it more likely he m. Hannah Sutton. (N. Y. Gen. and Biog. Record, XI, 133, at St. George's Church, Hempstead, L. I., John Reynolds m. Hannah Sutton, Sept. 26, 1725.) John and Hannah lived in Greenwich until later life; they died in Northcastle, N. Y. She survived John. Descendants in Chappaqua today. John Reynolds and Jonathan Jessup moved for an appeal in the probate of the will of Edward Jessup, John's father-in-law. In his will, John mentions but one grandchild, "Richeson, son of my son Richeson," from which it might be inferred that he had no others at that time. Richeson or Richardson, Jr., was then a child. Hannah, John's wife, d. 1774.

An unfinished genealogical statement written by the Quaker Sutton[6] Reynolds in 1865 is in his handwriting upon the back pages of an old account book which he kept. It is now owned by Mr. George F. Secor who kindly permitted the Editors to make a verbatim copy of it. This Sutton, who is No. 359 in this book, is fully written-up under the Sixth Generation herein. His is the earliest authentic account of the first Westchester Reynoldses. The account book itself apparently does not go back of 1857, but many Westchester settlers of that time appear therein. Mr. Secor has collected many other interesting ancient deeds and papers relating to this family.

TOWN OF NEW CASTLE THE 15th OF 2ND MO., 1865

SUTTON REYNOLDS

"I am this day 71 years old. I thought I would rite a record of som of my family about the year 1698 or 9 my grandfather was born his name was John Reynolds his wife nam Hannah thay moved from Longisleand about the year 1740 and settled hear near this mil pond hea bough severl hundred acers of new land from the pond up Shappaqua street to the north road that lead to Sing Sing about that time their was a little laug house stanging near whear the meeting hous now is their was two old duch people by the name of Sceurman lived in that little loug hous thay hea and his wife died at the same time a bout the year 1747. Hea John Reynolds the oner of that land conclued to giv two acers of it for a baring ground and thay bayed them old people near a big rock at the southeast conner of the two acars the boundary was on the fest from the new York baring ground south on the west side of the big rock to a conner then east a little south of the rock to the road at the big chesnut tree then north a long the highway by a wite oak tree at the north end of the upper shed so to the north east conner of the lot hea requested their should bea no headstone only such as could bea pick up a bout the fields and no funeart samony practis a bout the yard hea was not a member of any society his father was a descendent from the Church of england hea was about to go away hea thought it best to deed it som way as there was no society about hear their was a fue friends held a meeting somtimes at Abel or Abslom Weekses war James Hunt now lives and hea deed it to them friends somwear about the year 1748 or 9 thay started a meeting in one part of the meeing hous now standing.

141. MARGARET, b. 1726, married 1: Andrew Purdy, co-executor of John's will 2: Jonathan Polden.

142. ROBERT, b. 1727; d. April 13, 1809, Chappaqua or Bedford, N. Y.; m Mrs. Ann (Haight) Kipp.

143. JOHN, b. 1734; d. about 1778; m. Zipporah Pierce.

144. JOSEPH, b. 1730, who lived in Northcastle, N. Y. In 1790 Census only Joseph in Westchester County was one at Yonkers, himself, wife and 4 sons under 16 years of age.

*145. RICHESON, b. 1735; died March 1765, shortly after his father. Will dated Dec. 1, 1764. Perhaps should be spelled Richardson.

146. JAMES, b. 1739. Not mentioned in his father's will, 1764. Could he have been the James 1790 in Beekman, Dutchess Co., N. Y. Census, son under 16, 2 females, no slaves.

*147. SUTTON, b. August 18, 1744; d. June 26, 1828; m. Anna Carpenter.

148. ANDREW, b. 1746.

43. NATHAN REYNOLDS: (2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., around 1688; d. there; m. Ruth Reynolds, Aug. 16, 1727. Not much is known of him; the date given 1748 for his death by previous investigators would seem to be wrong in view of the following: he took inventory of Thomas Johnson's estate, Feby. 15, 1749; estate of Geo. Woodman, March, 1753; with Joseph Reynolds witnessed will of Zacch. Marshall, May 5, 1749, Stamford Probate; wit. will of Caleb Knapp June 21, 1750; he and Reuben Pennoyer in Greenwich wit. will of Danl. Tucker May 25, 1764, also of Joseph Tucker, Dec. 7, 1763, also Nathl. Sackett, 1761. My conclusion is that someone has confused the death of Nathaniel[4], son of James, who did die in 1748, and also had a wife named Ruth. This Nathan appears so frequently on probate records that he must have been a lawyer or a notary or legal clerk. The frequent mention in later years of a "Nathan, Jr.," (estate of Jonathan Lockwood, March 24, 1780, for instance) justifies adding a second son below to previous records. On June 11, 1727, bought land of Joseph Reynolds; Jany. 31, 1731, sold to Philo Barbour; sold to John Palmer, Feby. 20, 1733. Nathan's home was in Greenwich, Conn.

*149. John, b. Aug. 16, 1727; m. Rosanna van Campen, Jany. 1746.

150. Nathan, baptized Nov. 23, 1732, 2nd Congr. Church. Given in Greenwich Census of 1790, son over 16, and two females, one of which perhaps his wife.

45. JOSIAH REYNOLDS: (2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Jan. 13, 1689; d. at Greenwich, not long before August 2, 1774; m. Barbara Briggs, dau. Daniel Briggs of Stamford, on May 1, 1735. Her sister Elizabeth m. Jonathan[5] Reynolds, Jr., May 6, 1731. Josiah sold land to Jeremiah Schofield, Dec. 21, 1727, showing that he was then 21 and certainly born before 1708, the date previously assigned to his birth. Jan. 1, 1728, bought half his father's right of bro. Jonathan; Oct. 11, 1733, sold to Benj. Bishop; tax list of 1739 Josiah lived in East Society, Greenwich, £44; April 16, 1740, sold land with brother Jonathan to Thomas and John Marshall; chosen surveyor of highways, 1754. We hear little more of him until Aug. 2, 1774, when Jabez Ferris was given letters of administration of Josiah's estate; May 8, 1777, Conn. Legislature gave Jabez Ferris, administrator for "Josiah Reynolds, late of Greenwich", authority to sell some of the estate's land. Old town records list the children below as "children of Josiah Reynolds, son to Jonathan deceased." this list being made after 1754 and probably before 1774. He lived in the East Society, Greenwich, Conn.

151. Elizabeth, b. March 23, 1737.

152. Martha, b. Dec. 29, 1739.

153. Sarah, b. May 21, 1742.

154. Barbara, b. Nov. 14, 1744.

155. Josiah, b. July 31, 1747.

156. Jonathan, b. May 6, 1750; was it he who m. Mary Brown, second Cong. Ch., May 7, 1777?

157. Obadiah, b. Jany. 21, 1753. Read the query about an Obadiah Reynolds pp. 17-18, of the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual—it was probably Nehemiah, at Jefferson, Schoharie Co., N. Y.

*158. Briggs, b. July 21, 1754; d. after Nov. 18, 1799, when he witnessed will of Jonathan Howe; m. Abigail Whelpley, bef. 1785.

65. JOSEPH REYNOLDS: (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., May 15, 1699; d. Pine Plains, Dutchess Co., N. Y., after 1749; m. 1: Ruth Ferris, March 5, 1721-22. He and she joined the Congreg. ch. of Greenwich, Feb. 28, 1733-34. She died after having Israel Jacob. Joseph then m. 2: - - - - - -, whose name we do not know, and had by her the last five children below. Joseph was active as a land-owner in Greenwich, he bought up rights of all other heirs to his father's property, especially of brother Jonathan and step-mother Abigail. With Nathan Reynolds, Joseph witnessed will of Zacch. Marshall May 5, 1739, probated Stamford.

Joseph, Sr., granted to "my loving and dutiful son Joseph Reynolds, Jr., a portion of land in Greenwich, being at a place called the west side of Peeksland, it being in quantity 30 acres."

In 1740 Joseph and his brother Nehemiah (later of Filkintown, Dutchess Co.) removed to Northeast Patent, Nine Partners, (Pine Plains) Dutchess Co., N. Y. He became very well off and owned an immense tract of land in Pine Plains district. Joseph bought from brother Nehemiah and Peter Palmer in 1743 over 4,000 acres of land there. Joseph was commissioned Ensign of the West Co., Trained Band, Horseneck, Greenwich Militia, May 9, 1728. One account says he lived at Fairfield before going to Pine Plains, but Fairfield County was probably meant. He left many descendants few of whom have been fully traced. Edwin Ruthven Reynolds is authority for the following dates from an old family Bible:

168. Ruth, b. Thursday, Dec. 13, 1722, o.s.

169. Rosanna, b. Sunday, Sept. 6, 1724.

*170. Joseph, b. Sunday, Aug. 27, 1727; d. Nov. 12, 1799; m. 1: Ruth Rich. 2: Lydia Parker.

171. Samuel, b. Friday, Aug. 8, 1729; m. Jerusha Close, who was b. April 21, 1733, dau., Joseph & Eunice (Haight) Close, Joseph Close mentions her in his will, 1759. See comments under Jeremiah[4] Reynolds.

172. Roolah, b. Nov. 8, 1731.

173. Jacob Israel, b. Wednesday, Jany. 16, 1733-34.

*174. Reuhamah, b. Monday, Feby. 2, 1735.

175. Rachel, b. Wednes., Aug. 16, 1738.

176. Joanna, b. Dec. 21, 1740.

177. Elizabeth, b. Monday, Dec. 9, 1744; m. 1: Asa Palmer. 2: Calvin Averill.

178. Phoebe, b. Monday, Feby. 15, 1749; d. Elizabethtown, N. Y., after 1820; m. John Howe.

67. SAMUEL REYNOLDS: (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. July 16, 1703, Greenwich, Conn.; d. March 6, 1726-27, one month after marriage. m. Rebecca Palmer, Jan. 26, 1726-27, dau. Ephraim Palmer. His home was in the West Society of Greenwich, Conn.

179. Rebecca, b. Nov. 4, 1727, posthumous child; m. Joseph Palmer, Jr., of Crum Elbow, N. E. of Peekskill, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; May 2, 1748, she and husband then living at Crum Elbow, sold for £43-6-8 their interest in her grandfather's estate and in that of her late uncle Benjamin[4], described as of Greenwich.

68. BENJAMIN REYNOLDS: (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. March 26, 1705, Greenwich, Conn.; d. there in 1727; did not marry. In Greenwich land records we find a transfer from "John Reynolds, Sr." to "brother Joseph and Joseph's son Benjamin Reynolds". Ruth

Knapp, wife of John, Sr., mentioned as sister of Joshua Knapp. Benjamin agreed Dec. 10, 1726, to keep his childless uncle John and aunt Ruth the rest of their lives, but Benjamin died within twenty-one months of that date, because on Sept. 27, 1728, John Reynolds, "son of Joseph, deceased", sold land to brother Joseph, referring to "our brother Benjamin, deceased". At Crum Elbow, N. Y., on May 2, 1748, Joseph Palmer, Jr., and his wife Rebecca Reynolds, "both of Crum Elbow" (between Yorktown and Peekskill) discharged Joseph Reynolds of any claim under estate of "grandfather Joseph Reynolds late of Greenwich" and on the estate of "our late uncle Benjamin Reynolds." On Dec. 10, 1726, Benjamin Reynolds of Greenwich executed a bond to his Uncle John Reynolds, Sr. (No. 23), in the sum of £300 to be paid as follows: "40 bushels of good Indian corn, etc., every year during his natural life and the life of his wife and if either he or his wife dyeth then the above Benjamin is to pay but one-half of the above grain to the other that liveth and yet said Benjamin is to have this remainder of all the neat kine, excepting one cow with her increase which to his wife and was given to her by her brother Joseph Knapp deceased and ye said Benjamin Renalls is to find the above said cattle with fodder and pasture. Witnessed: Jonathan Mead and Timothy Knapp."

69. JOHN REYNOLDS: (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. May 23, 1708, Greenwich, Conn., d. there after May 4, 1733, and probably in 1734, as his widow Ruth on July 10, 1735, m. Ebenezer Mead, at the Second Congregational Church, Greenwich, and had four children by Mead. John m. Ruth[4] Reynolds, his second cousin, at that church Nov. 19, 1729, -- the same date and church that his widowed step-mother Mrs. Abigail Reynolds is supposed to have m. John Benedict of Norwalk. John and Ruth Reynolds joined that church Dec. 24, 1732. Ruth was b. 1702, daughter of John[3] Reynolds the cooper. Our "John[4] son of Joseph deceased" on Sept. 27, 1728, sold land to brother Joseph and they mentioned "our brother Benjamin deceased". On May 4, 1733, "John, son of Joseph deceased", sold land to brother Joseph. He was of the West (Horseneck) Society, Greenwich, Conn. See Nos. 31 and 90, herein.

181. Ruth, b. Greenwich, Sept. 28, 1730. Nothing known of her.

182. John, b. Greenwich, Nov. 7, 1732. Nothing known of him.

70. NEHEMIAH REYNOLDS. (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., April 8, 1709; died after 1754, perhaps after 1774, see below; married twice. 1: Abigail - - -, about 1730, in Greenwich, Conn., but she died in 1743 in Dutchess County, N. Y. First three children by her. He m. 2: Mary - - - - in Dutchess County, Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., 1743. Perhaps this second wife's name was Palmer, as Ephraim Palmer in his will, dated Dec. 10, 1774, (proved Jan. 19, 1782) says "my brothers Nehemiah Reynolds and Edward Palmer to be executors." Ephraim was of Charlotte

Precinct, Dutchess Co., mentions wife Rachel, sons Silvanus, Uriah Ephraim, Abigail, Rachel, Gehannah, Dorcas and Rebecca. Nehemiah's family were apparently Quakers for he and his children appear on the old Quaker records of Nine Partners Meetings, pub. in Old N.W. Geneal. Quarterly, 1900. He removed in 1738 from Greenwich to Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., and his home was probably in Charlotte Precinct there in northern Dutchess Co., perhaps that shown on a map in Huntting's History of Pine Plains, as southwest of Pullers Corners and due east of Mud Pond in Pine Plains. His brother Joseph removed to the same neighborhood from Greenwich in 1740. The records of their descendants are hazy, as the Dutchess County records are meagre and in poor shape. Nehemiah's children and some of Joseph's seem to have migrated up the Hudson Valley to Chatham and Canaan, Columbia County, and some to Washington County.

On March 27, 1731, Nehemiah bought of Joseph his interest in the estate of their father; also same date sold his interest in right of his brother Benjamin to his brother Joseph, probably a trade. The removal of Nehemiah to Filkintown is seen in the famous Pepper-Corn Lease:

"Peter Palmer and Nehemiah Reynolds, both of Greenwich, yeomen," for £10 leased of Henry Filkin, Lot 25, bounded on the west by William Creed's Lot No. 12; on the north by Jarvis Marshall's Lot No. 24; on the east by Henry Filkin's Lot No. 30; and John Artsen, No. 29; on the south by William Creed's Lot No. 26. This lease was in breadth 113½ chains (7,491 ft.); in length 4 miles, containing altogether 3,626 acres,—described according to Surveyor Richard Edsall's map dated May 29, 1734. They paid therefor "the yearly rent of One Pepper Corn only on the first day of the Nativity of John the Baptist if the same shallbe lawfully demanded."

The old record indicates his home was in Filkintown, northeastern Dutchess Co., N. Y. In a deed with Peter Palmer selling land to Joseph Reynolds, the brother,—some 4,000 acres—Nehemiah, May 20, 1743, described himself as of Filkintown. Wife Abigail resigned her dower interest in that deed, "Judah Palmer" (wife of Peter Palmer) also resigning dower interest. First three children below all b. in Greenwich are by wife Abigail; David to Rebecca all b. in Filkintown, Dutchess Co., by second wife Mary:

*183. Nehemiah, b. about 1732 or 1740; d. Chatham, N. Y.; m. 1: Mary Armstrong. 2: Anstress Southworth.

184. Martha, b. Jany. 3, 1734; m. Reuben Palmer, Nine Partners Quaker Meeting, Jan. 25, 1753 (or March 31, 1750).

184a. Mary, b. Nov. 3, 1736; m. Solomon Finch, lived Chatham, N. Y. 9 ch.

*185. David, b. Nov. 24, 1745; d. July 1, 1820; Chatham, N. Y.; m. Lois Finch.

186. Abigail, b. Nov. 21, 1747; m. John Bishop, lived Granville, N. Y.

187. Rosanna, b. Aug. 2, 1750; d. June 8, 1833; m. Jabez Finch. 9 ch.

188. Anna, b. Oct. 30, 1754; m. Stephen Howland. Lived Galway, Saratoga Co., N. Y.

189. Rebecca, m. Noah Ashley. Ten children.

190. Amos, b. June 10, 1759; m. Elizabeth Mosher, 1782. Lived Chatham and Ballston, N. Y.

72. REUBEN REYNOLDS: (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Dec. 4, 1713; d. there Oct. 1765; his will executed August 1, 1765, probated at Stamford, Oct. 31, 1765, gives children in order below. He joined the Second (West) Congreg. Ch. Greenwich, Dec. 24, 1732. He m. Elizabeth Mead, dau. Elisha Mead, on March 19, 1734, Greenwich. She was b. April 5, 1709 (1715?), -- see Mead Genealogy, p. 181, No. 13. Elisha was son of Joseph[2] Mead who in 1665 was one of the original patentees of Greenwich; Jan. 10, 1664, Elisha received a deed from the estate of his father.

On Dec. 1, 1734, Reuben sold his interest in the estates of his deceased father Joseph and his deceased brother Benjamin to his brother Joseph, Jr. In 1754, Reuben was a grand juryman of Greenwich. He died eleven years later. As he died in 1765, the Reubens, Sr. and Jr., in the 1790 Census at Chatham (Canaan Township) Columbia Co., N. Y., are probably his son and grandson. A third Reuben there in 1790 I cannot locate. Note how his sons were scattered at their respective deaths. In 1790 Joel seems to have been in Chatham, N. Y. with Reuben; Titus was in North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y.; Moses was in Stephentown, Rensselaer Co.; Jonah was in Northcastle, Westchester Co.; David was probably in New Cornwall, Orange Co., N. Y., but there are too many Davids in that Census to be sure.

Extract from letter from Margaret Bloss, cousin of James van Benschoten Reynolds, No. 879: "The parents of David Reynolds and his wife lived in Westchester County. During the Revolutionary War, the British Army two miles long marched by their homes, drove off their cattle. They made his wife's mother give them all the food she had in the house. General Washington and General Lafayette often spent days with her parents. The British officers watched for her father as they wanted to kill him. He had to hide and had a board taken up from the kitchen floor. He put a large box under the floor and would get inside it and stay most of the time. The British set fire to his house three times, but somehow the family managed to put it out."

It is said that all six of Reuben's sons were in the Revolution, and the records published in the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual seem to bear this out. Reuben and Elizabeth had in Greenwich, Conn.:

191. Reuben, b. March 14, 1735; d. Aug. 3, 1819; m. Hepzibah - - - - -.

192. Titus, b. about 1737; d. Dec. 25, 1808, No. Salem; m. Sarah Husted.

193. Moses. In 1790 census there was a Moses in Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., N. Y.

194. Elizabeth, who m. Charles Howe, before August 1, 1765.

*195. Joel, (b. 1736-1743). "Removed to Albany Co."; m. Amy Hobby, b. 1737.

196. Bethany (Bethania). She was living in 1765.

*197. Jonah. In 1766 was placed under legal guardianship of his mother. Perhaps it was he who m. Deborah Husted, sister of Sarah who m. his brother Titus.

*198. David, b. June 6, 1753; d. Aug. 30, 1827, Scotchtown, Orange Co., N. Y.; m. Margaret Crissey, July 12, 1787.

199. Mary, of whom we know no more, perhaps b. 1751? Living 1766.

200. Hannah, m. Israel Wood, 1786, of So. Salem, Westch. Co., N. Y.

201. Martha, probably between 1750-60.

73. ELIZABETH REYNOLDS: (Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 1st or 18th, 1717; d. after Dec. 1742; m. Richard Everitt of Norwalk, Conn. They sold land to Joseph Reynolds, her brother, Dec., 1742, their interest in the estate of her father "Mr. Joseph Reynolds", and all claim on the estate of her "Uncle Deacon John Reynolds, late of Greenwich, deceased." She was of Norwalk because her widowed mother, upon marrying John Benedict of Norwalk in 1729, had no doubt taken her there. Elizabeth was then twelve. Everitt children?

76. EBENEZER REYNOLDS: (Ebenezer[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. March 6, 1706-07; he d. before 1761; m. ------, 1729. We know nothing of him, except recorded birth of Ebenezer below. As we have the exact birth date of Timothy, 1733, it seems to fit in under this Ebenezer[4] rather than under Ebenezer[3] to whom Captain Timothy has been ascribed. As Ebenezer, Senior's, wife had been m. about thirty years when this Timothy was born, it was hardly likely that Timothy was a child of Ebenezer[3] and Abigail (Smith). He is almost surely a grandchild of theirs, and so we place Captain Timothy below as a child of this Ebenezer[4]. This Ebenezer was mentioned in 1739, Greenwich Tax list, but whether he was the one of West Society rated at £34, or East Society rated at £88, we cannot tell. He and his father are mixed up in this. He may have had other children.

203. Ebenezer, 3rd, b. Oct. 25, 1731; d. 1761, unmarried, Greenwich. On Jan. 15, 1761, David Whelpley was given letters of administration on his estate. It is more likely this Ebenezer than his father who was in the French and Indian War, 1756, as private, especially as his brother Timothy (204) participated.

*204. Timothy, b. May 13, 1733; d. 1781; m. Amy Knapp, 1762.

80. NATHANIEL REYNOLDS: (Ebenezer[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Jany. 27, 1715-16; d. April, 1792. Will signed April 20, 1790, codicil March 29, 1792, proved April 28, 1792, Stamford. m. Sarah Lockwood, Nov. 8, 1743, Greenwich, daughter Nathan and Sarah Lockwood. She survived him, dying after 1792. "Nathaniel when a young man left Old Greenwich (now Sound Beach) with all his worldly goods, with oxen and cart, and hewed his way to what is called North Cos Cob. Everyone came to bid him good-bye. Some time after, some young people on horseback went up to find him. He was out in the woods, so Sally Lockwood stirred up a large amount of corn-meal mush in the large kettle in the fireplace. He must have liked it, as he married her after a while."

Note that four of their children m. four of the children of Capt. Caleb and Orpha (Hobby) Mead of Greenwich. By will, 1790, Nathaniel gave to his sons Nathaniel and Ezekiel the houses they were then occupying and provided that Lockwood should receive "my now dwelling-house." Each of the daughters received so much of the £50 promised as had not already been given, but it was not until they inherited from their brother Ebenezer that they had any of his land. Ebenezer is referred to generally as "Nezer," and he d. shortly before June 2, 1794. Nathaniel's son James seems to have moved to Somers Township, Westchester Co., N. Y., in 1810. Of the 500 acres mentioned below, each son was to receive one-sixth. Nathaniel's real estate was listed June 8, 1792:

Homestead about 40 acres.....	£230-00-00
House and barn.....	£41-00-00
Corn House @ bee house.....	18-00
House and barn given Nathaniel, Jr.....	£69-10-00
House and barn given Ezekiel.....	£64-00-00
25 acres called Finch lot.....	96-17- 6
23 acres called The Field.....	92-00-00
25 acres called Lamb Pasture.....	100-00-00
29 acres called the Mount Lot.....	133-00-00
29 acres north of Mount Lot.....	342-04-00
500 acres in N. Y. State, in ye place called Somers of Westchester Co..	60-00-00
	£1,229-09-06

Nathaniel sold land in 1742, 1773, 1788, 1791, in Greenwich. He was of Stanwich, near Greenwich, Conn. He could have been a soldier in the Revolution (see pp. 93-95 of the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual), but as we have no record or tradition of his service, it is improbable that he served. Children b. in Stanwich-Greenwich, Conn.

205. Nathaniel, b. Sept. 7, 1745; d. June 6, 1822; m. 1: Rebecca Mead. 2: Deborah Heusted.

206. Ezekiel, b. Oct. 13, 1747; d. Nov. 24, 1833; m. Mary Mead, 1770.

208. Sarah, b. Jan. 24, 1752; died in infancy.

209. Benjamin, b. 1754; "killed in the Revolution, 1780," unmarried. His Military Records, p. 57, No. 26, 1916 Rey. Fam. Annual, reads: "Private, Capt. Walbridge's Co., Col. Chas. Webb, later under Col. Zebulon Butler. Enlisted Jan. 25, 1778, for 3 yrs. Disch. Jan. 25, 1780. Present at Battle of Monmouth, 1776; wintered 1778-79, Redding; served on east side Hudson River, 1779; part of Regt. in storming of Stony Point with Mad Anthony Wayne, '79. Wintered 1779-80, Morristown. In this Regiment were also Simeon, Solomon and Matthew Reynolds. Also was musician, fifer, enlisted Sept. 1, 1777, same regiment to Jan. 25, 1778." Benjamin lived in So. Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y.

210. Phoebe, b. April 26, 1757; d. June 19, 1829; m. Abel Mead, see p. 280 of Mead Genealogy, for their seven children. Buried near Truesdell's on Bedford-Katonah Road.

211. James, b. May 8, 1759; d. March 2, 1833; m. Abigail Knapp.

212. Sarah, b. Feb. 8, 1762; d. Aug. 31, 1849; m. Lieut. Josiah Smith, March 29, 1784.

213. Philemon, b. Feb. 21, 1764; d. July 28, 1835; m. 1: Hannah Mead. 2: Sarah Holmes.

214. Deborah, b. May 13, 1766; d. May 15, 1857; m. Frederick Lockwood.

215. Lockwood, b. March 20, 1768; d. June 7, 1827; m. thrice.

216. Ebenezer, b. 1770; d. unmarried, "when aged 22-23 years"; inventory filed June 2, 1794, and estate distributed to brothers and sisters; brother Nathaniel was administrator. Ebenezer was "of Greenwich", administration Stamford Probate May 5, 1794, letters granted.

II. Descendants of John[2].

85. PETER REYNOLDS: (John[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1695; d. there before Feby. 5, 1743-44; m. Sarah Knapp, Jany. 14, 1718, who survived him. Before March 7, 1749, she had m. a Palmer. A Peter on April 20, 1725, bought land of his brother John; but this Peter had no brother John. Peter's wife Sarah joined the Second Congregational Church, Greenwich, Nov. 6, 1728, and was then baptized. In 1733 Peter, with Joshua, James, Jr., and Nathaniel petitioned the Connecticut Legislature to divide their district from Stanwich and annex it to Greenwich. All of them lived in the southwest part of Stanwich at that time. Peter died probably in January, 1743-44, as on Feby. 5, that year, Sarah his widow appointed administratrix; on March 6, 1743-44, children John, Lydia and Judith had their mother appointed their guardian. John was then 18 and Lydia 16, Judith 11; document confirms mother's name was Sarah; probated in Stamford.

217. Peter, b. Dec. 14, 1718; "late of Greenwich, inventory taken June 20, 1754. Nathaniel Webb, executor." Probably unmarried.

218. Sarah, b. Aug. 19, 1721; d. after March 11, 1748-49; In White Plains, N. Y., deeds: "James Winans, b. March 19, 1742, son of James and Sarah (Reynolds) Winans." This Sarah[5] or Sarah[4] b. about 1698, are available for this item. More likely this Sarah, than Sarah No. 101, married Winans.

219. Hannah, b. Sept. 6, 1723; died after March 11, 1748-49; not married at that time.

220. John, b. Aug. 14, 1725.

221. Lydia, b. March 6, 1727; m. ---- Ferris.

222. Elizabeth, b. Dec. 14, 1729.

223. Judith, b. July 29, 1732; baptized Nov. 23, 1732, Second Cong. Church

87. DAVID REYNOLDS: (John[3] the cooper; John[2]; John[1]) was of the West, or Second, Church Society of Greenwich, that is modern Greenwich as opposed to the First Society which is now Sound Beach, Conn. He was b. Horseneck, Greenwich, Conn., about 1699; d. there Oct. 12, 1745. He was the second David in Greenwich, as his Uncle Lieut. David[2], b. about 1686-87, was the first; the third David was son of Lieut. David. These three Davids have been much confused, but it is to be remembered that this David was of the West Society; the other two contemporaries were of the East Society.

He m. Abigail[4] Reynolds, Greenwich, Nov. 24, 1720, Second Society Church (Congregational); b. Greenwich, April 3, 1701; d. after May, 1751; daughter Joseph[3] and Abigail (Finch) Reynolds of Greenwich. David and Abigail were thus second cousins. After David's death Abigail is reputed by some to have m. John Martin, July 7, 1751. But I have found another record that an Abigail Reynolds and John Martin were m. July 7 or 8, 1731, or exactly twenty years earlier—as a son James Martin was b. Dec. 24, 1731, it would seem that some searcher had blundered in misreading "1751" where he should have read "1731." Abigail would have been 44 at David's death and she was still Abigail Reynolds, March 6, 1749, when she was almost 48. I believe the Abigail who m. Martin in 1731 was daughter of Jonathan, 3rd.

The tax lists of his times show that he was quite wealthy for his time and community. In the Tax List of Greenwich West Society, 1739, among nineteen Reynoldses paying taxes, he ranks third with tax of £102; next to Joseph, £107; and Joshua, £126.

Mrs. Abigail Reynolds, widow of David Reynolds, was given letters of administration at Stamford, Dec. 3, 1745. He was wealthy and there was much to be handled. On March 6, 1749, children Abraham, Deborah and Elizabeth choose their mother guardian. On March 17, 1750, Stamford Probate Records mention the widow Abigail and the same three children. May 9, 1751, on petition, the Connecticut General Assembly gave Abigail permission to sell enough of the land of David's estate to pay £598 which was the amount of David's debts. In 1758, Deborah Reynolds of Norwalk, James Mead and Jemima his wife, Abigail and Wm. Blake, Abraham Reynolds, Sarah and Jonas Weed, Jr., of Stamford, all children of Mr. David Reynolds of Greenwith, are in Greenwich Deeds.

As we have remarked under the account of Lieut. David, uncle of this David, there was much confusion of Davids at this time (1700-1750). Until about 1731 this David[4], son of John the Cooper, was known as David, Jr., in contradistinction to his uncle. After that time another David[4] came of age, son of Lieut. David, whereupon he assumed the "Jr." It is to be remembered that the Davids, father and son, lived in the East Society, and that the son David eventually in 1748 removed to Peekskill, and the father died 1750. Our David here (who m. Abigail) and d. 1745, always lived in the West or Second Society.

This David was also active in acquiring land and during his short lifetime became very well-to-do. Of his children, we have no definite record of David[5], Jr.

Mead in his History of Greenwich mentions Abigail Husted, b. around 1702, daughter Angell Heusted, Jr., who m. a David Reynolds, "as his first wife." We do not know how to fit this in, and think that someone may have assumed that Abigail, wife of our David[4], was originally a Heusted. It is possible that this David had two wives, the first of which he m. at a very early age, and who died soon; but in that case they would both have been named Abigail.

The Second Congregational Church, Greenwich, Dec. 29, 1728, records:

"Nathaniel, son of David Reynolds, was baptized."

Though this Nathaniel could have been son of No. 37, or No. 126 herein, the fact that he was baptized in the West Society Church indicates that he belonged to this David. Thomas Lyon, "late of Greenwich," on Sept. 1, 1752, left some property to "Deborah and Sarah, children of David Reynolds."

224. DAVID, b. Sept. 19, 1721; d. Oct. 12, 1742. This for his death, just three years exactly before his father, looks suspicious, and probably he did not die in 1742. However, he is not mentioned among other children in estate papers in 1758, so perhaps dead then. Probably left Greenwich, perhaps went to Little Britain, Orange Co., N. Y., where one of his sisters was. Record unsatisfactory.

225. ABIGAIL, b. March 9, 1724; d. after 1758; m. William Blake. "Abigail, dau. David Reynolds deceased, m. Wm. Blake, March 26, 1756." Had: William, b. Sept. 11, 1758. Elizabeth, b. Aug. 11, 1761. This Abigail or one of her sisters, as shown by land transfer, lived at Little Britain (in N. Y.?).

226. JEMIMA, b. July 27, 1726; d. after 1758; m. James Mead, about 1746. He was b. Sept. 26, 1720; killed in French and Indian War. See Mead Genealogy, p. 317.

227a. NATHANIEL, "son of David," baptzd. 2nd Congreg. Ch. Dec. 29, 1728. Probably belongs to this David. If so, probably died in infancy.

227. BENJAMIN, b. Nov. 27, 1728; d. 1752; m. Susanna Boliet; no children. In Greenwich deed 1753 she describes herself as "wife of late Benjamin Reynolds."

228. ABRAHAM, b. Sept. 19, 1731; lived in Greenwich 1758.

229. ELIZABETH, b. Oct. 1, 1733; died unmarried before 1758.

230. DEBORAH, b. Feb. 24, 1734-35; was "Deborah Reynolds of Norwalk" in 1758. Possibly she m. a Reynolds who lived there; or that she, then aged 23, was still single.

231. SARAH, b. Aug. 7, 1740; d. after 1758 and before 1774; m. before 1758, Jonas Weed, Jr., of Stamford. See Weed Genealogy in Huntington's Stamford. Another record places this Sarah as daughter of Samuel.

102. JAMES REYNOLDS: (James[3]; John[2] John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., July 6, 1709; d. Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y. (Smithfield), June 2, 1773; buried Amenia City; m. Phebe Fowler, Greenwich, May 24, 1731. Children all born in Greenwich. James was commissioned Ensign (2nd Lieut.) of First Co., Trained Band of Greenwich, Oct., 1735; also Oct., 1739. In 1733 he petitioned with Joshua, Peter and Nathaniel Reynolds of Greenwich to the General Assembly of Connecticut "to be set off from Stanwich and to be joined to Greenwich Parish." On Feby. 17, 1749-50, his father gave him his house on Clapboard Ridge with his orchard, etc. This family is mostly buried at Amenia City, Dutchess Co., N. Y. Some of his descendants are said to have removed to Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y. (See remarks concerning his daughter Hepzibah, under Reuben[5] Reynolds, No. 191 herein.)

232. Mary, b. June 30, 1732.

233. Phebe, b. June 27, 1734.

234. Sarah, b. Sept. 5, 1736. A Sarah m. Justus Knapp, 1755. He was son of John and grandson of Joshua Knapp, Jr.

235. Rebecca, b. Oct. 27, 1738.

236. Jemima, b. Feb. 9, 1741.

237. Hepzibah, b. Sept. 18, 1744. It was possibly she who m. Reuben[5] Reynolds, whose record, No. 191, herein following see.

238. James Fowler, b. Jan. 5, 1746. May have been the James, private, French and Indian War of 1762. He was the private, Capt. Chas. Smith's Co., of Stanwich, Conn., in the Revolution.

239. Justus, b. April 2, 1748; buried Amenia City, Dutchess Co.

240. William, b. Jan. 18, 1751; d. Nov. 24, 1813; m. Rhoda - - - ; buried Amenia City.

241. Sophia, b. Sept. 25, 1754.

242. Dorcas, b. Sept. 9, 1756.

103. NATHANIEL REYNOLDS: (James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Feby. 20, 1702-03, where his birth is recorded in the Common-Place Book; d. Spring of 1748. He m. Ruth Purdy, Jany. 1, 1728-29. "On ye first day of January 1728-29 Nathaniel Reynolds was married to his wife Ruth whose name was Purdy," so we read in the records of the Second Congregational Church. Ruth belonged to the well-known family of Rye, N. Y.

There were but two families of the name of Purdy in Greenwich: FRANCIS PURDY, who in a deed of Nov. 5, 1718, was described as "of Greenwich" and his brother JOHN, who owned land there as early as Feb. 19, 1722. John must have been much younger, as he married the dau. of the younger brother of his sister-in-law (Sarah Brown). Moreover, Ruth Purdy Reynolds had a son Francis, which was not a Reynolds name.

We may assume therefore that Ruth was the dau. of Francis Purdy, who in turn was the son of Francis Purdy b. in 1650, rem. to Rye, N. Y. (with his step-father), in 1760. He was a proprietor as early as 1679. He m. before 1714 Sarah (b. about 1692) dau. of Peter Brown, who was b. about 1670 d. Jan. 11, 1733 (will probated in N. Y.) and whose wife was Martha, dau. of Peter Disbrow.

Peter Brown was the son of Hackaliah Brown, b. at New Haven in 1645, went with his father Thomas Brown to Stamford and settled in Rye in 1665 where he died in 1720. His wife was Mary, dau. of John Hoit of Stamford and Rye.

Thomas Brown was b. in Eng. about 1610 and sailed on ship Hector with Rev. John Davenport, arriving at Boston June 26, 1637. Settled in New Haven in 1638, rem. to Stamford 1647, where he d. Aug. 22, 1658. His wife Elisabeth d. at Stamford Sept. 21, 1657 and he m. 2ndly Unity, widow of Clement Baxton May 25, 1658.

Francis Purdy (b. 1650) was the son of Francis b. in Eng., rem. about 1635 to Concord, Mass., rem. to Fairfield, Conn., & d. there in 1658. He m. Mary dau. of John Brundage of Wethersfield, who after his death m. John Hait of Rye, N. Y. John Brundage was b. in Eng. about 1585, emigrated to Mass., in 1632 and rem. to Wethersfield, Conn., where he d. 1639, leaving widow Rachel, who m. Anthony Wilson & rem. to Fairfield, where he died 1642.

After the death of Nathaniel Reynolds, widow Ruth m. Jonathan Fiske of Greenwich. In the distribution of Fiske's estate, recorded at Stamford, July 21, 1762, mention is made of the "use by his widow of one-third part of said described lands, being conveyed to said widow by her father-in-law, Mr. James Reynolds, in part, and partly by her husband, Nathaniel Reynolds, deceased." While the Greenwich Records of this period make constant mention of a Nathaniel Reynolds, it is not always possible to determine which refer to him and which to Nathaniel[4], b. 1715, son of Ebenezer[3]

Nathaniel, together with Joshua, Peter, and James, Jr., petitioned the General Assembly in 1733, to be "set off from the Parish of Stanwich in the South West of which they live and to be joined to the Parish of Horseneck."

At a court of probate held in Stamford, June 7, 1748, letters of administration were granted on the estate of Nathaniel Reynolds, late of Greenwich, deceased, and Ruth his widow was appointed administratrix. Distribution was made April 7, 1752; after paying debts amounting to £413 of a large amount of real estate.

In Vol. VII, p. 67, Greenwich Deeds, is recorded:

"Know all men that I, James Reynolds, Senior, of Greenwich, in consideration of the love I have for my grandsons, namely, Nathaniel Reynolds, Francis Reynolds, Stephen Reynolds and Solomon Reynolds, all natural sons to Nathaniel Reynolds of Greenwich, and also by the love and good will I bear to their natural mother, Ruth Reynolds, widow and relict of the deceased Nathaniel", etc. Feb. 2, 1749-50.

He was elected Constable of Greenwich, Dec. 27, 1728. On Sept. 12, 1729, spoke of Uncle Ebenezer Reynolds—probably a mis-statement (Greenwich Deeds, iii, 133). The Greenwich Common-Place Book records the birth of "Nathaniel Renalds'" children: "Dec. 8, 1729, Nathaniel. July 8, 1731, Frances Renyalls." As several of them migrated in adult years, we have lost track of Francis, Ruth, Solomon, and Hannah. Nathaniel and Ruth lived in Greenwich. All the children below were living and mentioned in Stamford Probate Records, April 7, 1752:

243 Nathaniel, b. Dec. 8, 1729; d. 1805; m. Sarah ----, 1753.

244. Francis, b. July 8, 1731; nothing more known of him. There was a Francis of Crum Elbow, Dutchess Co., N. Y., which is between Yorktown and Peekskill, at this time, and it is probable they were identical.

*245. Ruth, b. about 1733; d. after 1760; m. --- Merritt. In 1760 was living on the property at Clap Board Tree Ridge, Greenwich, given her by her grandfather James.

*246. Solomon, b. about 1735; nothing known further. There were Solomons at this time in Woodbury, Conn. - the above Francis seems to have been there a while - - ; at Crum Elbow, N. Y.; and at Poundridge, N. Y. See the Census of 1790, printed R.Fam.Annual, 1921, p. 69, for suggestions. At Southbury, Conn., Sept. 4, 1754, a Solomon m. Mary Wildman.

*247. Anna, b. about 1737; m. Samuel Palmer. In a deed recorded in Greenwich, VIII; dated Feb. 25, 1760, we read: "Samuel Palmer and Anna his wife of Greenwich sells to David Knapp two acres in said Greenwich which was given to the said Anna by her honored grandfather James Reynolds, formerly of said Greenwich, but now of Dutchess in the province of New York, a lot on Clap-board-tree-ridge, bounded east by our sister Merritts, west by our sister Hannah Fiske." Their descendants lived in Westchester Co., N. Y.

*248. Stephen, b. Dec. 1, 1740; d. Aug. 17, 1815; m. Rachel Denton, 1763.

*249. Hannah, b. 1742; m. Jonathan Fiske, in or before 1760. He was the son of Jonathan Fiske of Greenwich, who m. Hannah's widowed mother, Mrs. Ruth (Purdy) Reynolds. Hannah's descendants reside in Saratoga County and at Troy, N. Y.

105. GIDEON REYNOLDS: (James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1706; d. there Jany. or Feby., 1769, leaving will dated Oct. 3, 1765, proved at Stamford, March 7, 1769; widow survived him. He m. Bethia Horton, April 23, 1731, probably daughter Joseph Horton of Rye. Gideon was Deacon of Second Congregational Church at Greenwich; member of Connecticut Legislature from Greenwich, 1764. They made their home in Greenwich, Conn.

On May 10, 1736, Captain James deeded to his "well-beloved & dutiful son Gideon Reynolds a large tract of land on Clapboard-tree Ridge and deeded him an additional piece Feby. 21, 1743.

*250. Gideon, b. about 1732; d. March or April 1772; m. Hannah Todd.

*251. Horton, "second son of Gideon"; d. 1797; m. Lydia Knapp, 1760.

*252. Sylvanus, d. 1820; m. Mary Mead, 1776.

*254. Bethia, b. March 31, 1742; d. Feb. 17, 1832; m. Odell Close.

*255. Gilbert, it may have been he who m. Johanna Lewis, Dec. 5, 1753, Dutch Church, Poughkeepsie. Record says that Gilbert was b. in "New England", both residents of Nine Partners (Amenia or Pine Plains). There was a Rev. Soldier of this name, First Lieut.

256. Mary, m. Ichabod Ogden, who was b. May 8, 1742, Greenwich.

257. Abijah of whom we know nothing. Mead copies from old records as 'Abyah or Abiah (female)', which is more likely right. However, there was an Abijah Reynolds in the Revolution: private, Capt. Waters' Co., Col. Roswell Hopkins' Sixth Dutchess Co. Regiment of N. Y.

258. Ruth, of whom we know nothing further.

*259. Ambrose, b. August, 1751; d. Dec. 24, 1830; m. Mary Knapp.

260. Jonathan. He, being a minor and his father dead, in 1771 chose brother Sylvanus Reynolds as Guardian. He may have been the Jonathan who on April 23, 1777, m. Mary Brown, at Second Congreg. Ch., Greenwich.

106. JUSTUS REYNOLDS: (James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1708; d. there, 1747; m. Elizabeth Sackett, April 23, 1737, by his father, Mr. James Reynolds, Justice of Peace. She was daughter of Richard Sackett. Possibly it was she "late of Greenwich" who d. before the inventory taken Nov. 5, 1754, by Abraham Reynolds, administrator. James Reynolds on April 29, 1738, deeded part of his home-lot to "my loving and dutiful son Justus." Justus sold land to Henry Bush in Greenwich, June 20, 1744. Justus always lived in Greenwich, Conn., where his children were born. Nathaniel Reynolds, his brother, was appointed administrator of his estate in 1747, which was probated at Stamford, mention Oct. 3, 1749. Stamford Probate, Feby. 2, 1747-48, Elizabeth survived and in petition for guardianship of her children, mentions the first four of them on Feby. 2, 1747-48. Inventory of his estate taken by Jehiel Hubbell and Nathl. Sackett, March 1, 1748.

261. Sackett, b. March 3, 1738; m. Mary Jones, Nov. 21, 1760.

262. Elizabeth, b. May 4, 1740.

263. Sarah, b. July 26, 1742.

264. Anna, b. May 20, 1745.

265. Mary, b. April 4, 1748, some months after her father's death.

107. JEREMIAH REYNOLDS: (James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., around 1711; d. 1768, Greenwich; m. Jemima Brown, daughter of Peter Brown of Greenwich. This Jeremiah is believed to have lived in Greenwich. On Sept. 24, 1748, his father James gave him fifty acres of land next to Nathaniel, brother of Jeremiah. Their father removed to Dutchess County, N. Y., and lived near Peekskill in the Nine Partners Patent. A Jeremiah of Fairfield County, Conn., was in the French and Indian War in 1761, and probably this one. On Feby. 19, 1750-51, he sold land to his brother James, Jr. (Greenwich Deeds, vol. vii.) Jeremiah and Jemima gave release of claims on property of Joseph Close of Greenwich, whose will, dated Nov. 22, 1759, was probated at Stamford, 1760. A Jerusha Reynolds is elsewhere mentioned as a daughter of this same Close. Jerusha was probably the wife of Samuel[5] Reynolds, son of Joseph, grandson of Joseph Reynolds. Samuel's wife was daughter of Joseph and Eunice (Haight) Close; she was b. April 21, 1733. We know very little of this Jeremiah or his children; and are similarly in the dark about another Jeremiah of Bedford, N. Y.

The Jeremiah of Bedford, Westchester Co., mentioned with a Caleb Reynolds April 3, 1815, was in the 1790 Census of Bedford with a wife and small son under 16, so he could not have been this Jeremiah, son of James, who by that time even if living would have been an old man. Westchester County Deeds reveal that the wife of the Jeremiah of Bedford was named Abigail. On Dec. 19, 1800, a David and a Caleb of Bedford were also in deeds. The children of the Greenwich Jeremiah, so far as we know, were:

266. David, b. around 1741. See note under Shubal below.

267. Caleb, nothing further known. Doubt he was a son of this Jeremiah.

268. Shubal. He and David were minors at their father's death. Shubal on Oct. 4, 1768-1770, and David Oct. 2, 1770, both chose Peter Brown for guardian, as they were then under age. Caleb is not mentioned and perhaps was not of this family. See on page 38 of the 1923 Reynolds Family Association Annual an account of a Shubael, Revolutionary pensioner of Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., who was b. about 1752; and who was living in 1835 in Green Creek Township, Sandusky, Ohio.

110. HEZEKIAH REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b Greenwich, about 1707, but possibly as late as 1710; d. shortly before Dec. 10, 1756, when Joseph Webb was appointed his administrator. Administration paper, Dec. 24, 1756, says Hezekiah was of Greenwich. His estate amounted to £234-1-4. Was of Greenwich in 1743. A deed bearing his name recorded at White Plains, N. Y., 1757, says then "deceased." Hezekiah's father Jonathan's estate was administered in 1710, yet a deed of gift to land in Greenwich, March 30, 1731, is from Jonathan Reynolds to his son Hezekiah; further land deeded to Hezekiah there March 17, 1759. This last as also the record "Hezekiah Reynolds and wife Sarah appointed commissioners May 1, 1759, "Stamford Probate" probably belongs to Hezekiah, Jr. It looks as though there were another Hezekiah, son of a Jonathan. On May 12, 1757, the Conn. Legislature instructed Joseph Webb to sell Hezekiah's land, "late of Greenwich, deceased." Hezekiah seems to have m. twice. 1: Ruth - - - - - of Stamford, who d. there, Sept. 18, 1732. 2: Sarah Webb, April 24, 1734; b. May 9, 1709, dau. Lieut. Joseph & Mary (Haight) Webb. Joseph's will of Dec. 6, 1743, mentioned her. Read Mead, History of Greenwich, p. 678.

271. Hezekiah, b. May 22, 1738. See remarks just above.

272. Jonathan, b. Feb. 28, 1740; "d. Sept. 14, 1840, lacking sixteen days of one hundred. Was it he who removed to Dutchess Co., and then to Danby and Rutland, Vermont? Was he the innkeeper of Nine Partners in 1763?

273. Joseph, b. Nov. 19, 1741; see Greenwich Census, 1790, in which one Joseph had a son under 16; wife and dau.; and another Joseph there having 1 son over 16; 1 son under 16; wife and dau.; 1 slave.

274. David, b. March 25, 1743-44. Chose Joseph Webb his guardian, 1759.

275. Israel, b. May 11, 1746; may have been the Israel & Anne his wife of Northcastle, N. Y. An Israel in Greenwich, 1790 Census: 1 son over 16; 2 under 16; five females. But as this Israel is not mentioned when his brother David and sister Sarah chose guardians in 1759, it is possible this Israel died in infancy though not conclusive.

276. Sarah, b. Oct. 4, 1749; in 1759 chose Joseph Webb guardian; m. Peter Knapp, Jr. Their children are given on p. 63 of Huntington's Records of Stamford. Peter was b. in 1745. See No. 279 below.

118. JOHN REYNOLDS: (Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. 1712; m. Joanna Winans, Feby. 16, 1740. She could possibly be the Joanna Reynolds of Greenwich, Conn., in the Census of 1790; one male under 16; herself; two daughters. Mar. 22, 1744-45 John deeded to brother Caleb. See pertinent notes of John under Nos. 272 and 278 herein, especially the footnote on page 112, third paragraph from bottom.

277. Elizabeth, b. April 5, 1742.

*278. Joshua, b. Nov. 30, 1743; d. 1818; m. —— Darling.

279. Sarah, b. April 15, 1746; m. (Feb. 1, 1770, Peter Knapp?) See Sarah dau. Hezekiah[4], No. 276 just preceding.

280. Gerardus, b. Oct. 17, 1748.

281. John, b. Oct. 29, 1750.

282. Joanna, b. Dec. 11, 1753.

*283. Jacob, b. May 23, 1756; d. Feby. 26, 1828; m. Martha Winans. Went Westerlo, N. Y.

284. Alpheus, b. May 11, 1760.

119. DANIEL REYNOLDS: (Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, abt. 1714; d. Cortland Manor, N. Y., 1803. Will proved Feby. 1, 1803, widow surviving; dated Dec. 20, 1802, son David executor. m. - - - - - - - - - - -. He removed from Greenwich, Conn., to Cortland Manor, (now Peekskill—deed of Dec. 25, - - -), Westch. Co., N. Y., before Dec. 25, - - -, and made his home there. Private, Capt. Geo. Peck's Co., Greenwich, Old Town, Conn. Militia, 1776-77, Revolutionary War; but possibly another Daniel, as he was then 62. He is probably the Daniel from Fairfield Co., Conn., in the French and Indian War. 1758. Nov. 17, 1742, deed of gift from father Joshua. It seems very strange that Daniel, b. about 1714, should have m., as is said, about 1737 and have ch. only 1768. Perhaps a generation left out between him and Joshua? Dates are copied from Alvah and Marcus Reynolds. There is the will of a Daniel in Stamford of about this period.

285. Samuel, had d. before Dec. 20, 1802, leaving widow; had children.

*286. Daniel, b. Nov. 9, 1768; d. June 2, 1837; m. Sarah Husted, 1790.

287. Isaac, b. about 1772.

*288. Shubael, b. about 1773; d. Rye, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1833, aet. 60; m. Hannah - -

289. Hannah, b. about 1774; was dead before Dec. 20, 1802, father's will.

290. Ann, b. about 1776; m. - - - - Sutliff.

120. CALEB REYNOLDS: (Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1717; d. between August 19 and Sept. 10, 1765, Horseneck, Greenwich, Conn. His will signed Aug. 19, 1765; probated Stamford, Conn., Sept. 10, 1765, is in the possession of Norman A. Reynolds of Coldwater, Mich. Somewhat abbreviated by the Editors, it reads:

"I, Caleb Reynolds, of the Town of Greenwich, in Fairfield County, and Colony of Connecticut, being sick and weak in body, but of sound memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

"My will is that my honored father, Joshua Reynolds, should have £10, York Currency, annually for his support, provided he should have need of it out of my estate towards my part of his maintenance in case of need.

"My son, Caleb Reynolds, his heirs, etc., one-third part of my lands and as much more as shall be prized at £50, York Currency, provided he shall pay such part of the legacies to his sisters as shall be hereafter mentioned and he to have his choice in the lands.

"My two sons, Joseph Reynolds and David Reynolds, the remainder of my land to be equally divided between them, provided they pay such legacies to their sisters as hereafter mentioned.

"I give unto my four daughters, Ann Reynolds, Mercy Reynolds, Eunice Reynolds, Mary Reynolds, £35 each, York Currency, and to my aforesaid daughter, Ann, I give £5 more of like Currency, the said sums to be paid out of my moveables so far as they will go and what is wanting to be paid by their three brothers equally, or if they refuse to have it out of my lands. I do nominate Mr. Gideon Reynolds (prob. Gideon[4], son of James[3]) Executor. * * I hereunto set my hand * * August 19, 1765.

CALEB REYNOLDS.

Witnessed: Nathaniel Lockwood; Jeremiah Lockwood; John Reynolds (prob. brother of Caleb).

Joseph, David, Eunice and Mary were under age during probate Sept. 13, 1765. He was Greenwich Surveyor of Highways, Dec., 1754. On Oct. 19, 1742, his father, Joshua[3], made him a gift of land in Greenwich. Caleb's home was in Greenwich. March 2, 1748, he sold land to Samuel Mills. We have no clue to the name of his wife. His children were b. in Greenwich:

291. Caleb, b. about 1739; m. Hannah Brown. Lived Pine Plains, N. Y.

292. Anne, b. 1741.

293. Mercy, b. 1743; m. - - - Carpenter.

294. Joseph, b. 1745. May be the Joseph whose wife, Sarah Brush, joined Congregational Church, Greenwich, 1800, but see Joseph, son of Hezekiah[4]. He is No. *273 just preceding.

295. Eunice, b. 1747.

296. David, b. 1749; d. unmarried in 1768; adm. 1768 by his bro. Caleb; mentions bro. Joseph and sisters Ann, Mercy Carpenter, Eunice and Mary.

297. Mary, b. 1752; mentioned in father's will, but died young.

125. PENELOPE REYNOLDS: (David[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., or Oyster Bay, L. I., about 1709. See p. 331, Powell's Long Island Genealogies, Caleb Wright, grandfather of Penelope and father-in-law of David Reynolds, was b. 1645, son of Nicholas & Ann; he m. Elizabeth - - ; lived at Oyster Bay, L. I. m. Reuben Pennoyer of Stamford, there on Nov. 6, 1728; he was b. there 1702, son of Thomas & Lydia (Knapp) Pennoyer of Stamford: "Rubon Ponioyre and Ponoliphy Renals were maryed ye 6th Day of November 1728 by ye worshipfull Samuel Peck esquier one of his majesties Just. of ye peace for ye County of Fairfield." Reuben's sister Abigail m. a Reynolds before 1724; she was b. Oct. 13, 1686. Reuben and Penelope lived only a few miles from David[3] Reynolds' homelot in Sound Beach until the birth of Lydia 1747. Her son Wright was born in that old home in 1750; baptized Stamford, St. Johns Ch., July 29, 1750, and the parents still called "of Stamford," so perhaps the removal from Stamford to Sound Beach was only temporary. It is possible they later lived in Mamaroneck. David gave his home in Old Greenwich by will to his daughter, Penelope, but also further land to David Jr. who then lived in Peekskill. Reuben and Penelope seem later to have gone to Peekskill and perhaps north or northwest of there; had large family which scattered. This information by Mrs. Caroleen B. Sheppard, Box 194 Mad. Sq. Sta., N. Y. City. David's will June 2, 1750, mention children Thomas and David. First eight ch. b. Stamford; 9th in Old Greenwich:

Pennoyer Children:

298. Elizabeth, b. Oct. 27, 1729; d. Stamford 1803? prob. unm. Records show 1803 d. Betty Pennoyer aet. 75 yrs. consumption, and Jan. 4, 1804, Zipporah Haws of N. Y. City apptd. Administrator Inventory showed only personal effects, no names, heirs, etc. Elizabeth dau. Reuben joined the Congreg. Ch. Stamford Feb. 26, 1758, and 'moved elsewhere'. The Zipporah Haws might have been sister or niece of Elizabeth.

299. Thomas, b. July 24, 1732; d. perhaps Phillipstown, Dutchess Co., N. Y., after 1790.

300. David, b. March 24, 1734-35; d. Peekskill? 1761-66 or Brinkerhoffville, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; m. (?) Margaret Birdell. Lived near his Uncle David Reynolds in Peekskill.

301. Penelope, b. July 10, 1737; m. Cornelius Turner, N. Y. City, June 9, 1759.

302. Zipporah, b. Jan. 27, 1739-40; d. N.Y.C.; m. -- Haws?

303. Reuben, b. Sept. 22, 1742; d. Pawling, N. Y.?

304. William, b. Feb. 15, 1744; d. Peekskill? His ch. lived Kinderhook, N. Y.

305. Lydia, b. June 2, 1747; d. Peekskill, Dec. 6, 1820; m. 1: ---. 2: Douglas Robinson. 3: James Kennedy. 4: -- Runyon.

306. Wright, b. May 31, 1750; d. Montgomery, Orange Co., N. Y., June 6, 1807; m. Sophia Keeler, 1772?.

307. Isaac, twin, b. Aug. (10?) 1754; d. N.Y.C., Dec. 9, 1809; m. Catherine Hyatt, Jefferson Valley, N. Y., 1780; lived Poughkeepsie and N. Y. City.

308. Jacob, twin, b. Aug. (10?) 1754; d. Montgomery, N. Y., Jan. 2, 1832; m. Martha Munsell? Lived Montgomery, N. Y.

126. DAVID REYNOLDS: (David[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. probably between 1706-1709, in Oyster Bay, where his grandfather Caleb Wright had given his parents land, or in Greenwich, Conn. As he appeared on Greenwich land records in 1730, he must then have been 21, and so born by or before 1709.

He, or more likely, his son, m. Mary - - - - -, whose name we get from a deed recorded April 15, 1761, in White Plains, Westchester Co., N. Y., mentioning "David Reynolds of Manor of Cortland (Peekskill) and Mary his wife." He should not be confused with his cousin David[4] Reynolds, who m. Abigail[4] Reynolds; nor with that David's son David, Jr.

Lieut. David, his father, apparently tried to hold him, the only son, in Greenwich by giving him half of his land when he became of age, or else when he married, but this David[4] finally decided to remove to Peekskill as did some of his Pennoyer relatives, and so to assure clear title Lieut. David[3] united with David, Jr., in the sale of the land. On April 7, 1748, in Westchester Deeds, Book H, p. 422, David, Jr., of Greenwich, purchased a tract of land in Cortland Manor, farm No. 4, in front of Lot No. 9, where he seems to have spent the remainder of his life. After his death his sons sold David's holdings in Greenwich, Conn. We know no more; David and James should be investigated in Peekskill. We believe David[4] died between 1750-1760, because his son James sold land in 1760, in Greenwich, inherited from the two Davids. David and Mary had four sons, but we know the name of only one:

309. JAMES, who in Aug. 1760 sold "land next to Grimes' land in Greenwich". Elsewhere he describes himself as of Greenwich, May 18, 1759; also 1761-1762; Greenwich tax list for 1761. May have returned to Peekskill.

310. THREE other sons, names unknown to the Editors.

I. DESCENDANTS OF JONATHAN[2].

137. JONATHAN REYNOLDS: (3 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Jany. 26, 1707-08, Greenwich, Conn.; d. after 1747. He was the eldest son of the eldest son of the eldest son of John[1] & Sarah Reynolds. It is inconceivable that, in line with the tradition, he did not christen his eldest son Jonathan, and though we have no record that he had such a son, the vacant period of three years between his marriage and birth of Mary, the first child given below, would indicate that another Jonathan was the first-born and in that period. We know very little of this family unfortunately. Jonathan may have been the Jonathan in the French and Indian War 1761-62 from Fairfield County, Conn.

He m. Elizabeth Briggs, May 6, 1733, daughter of Daniel Briggs of Stamford. Her sister Barbara m. Josiah[4] Reynolds. We believe they lived in Greenwich, Conn.

322. MARY, b. June 23, 1736, Greenwich, Conn.

323. DANIEL, b. Aug. 5, 1739.

324. HANNAH, b. Jany. 25, 1742-43.

325. PHILLIP (or PHOEBE?), b. March 30, 1744. If Phillip, he may have been the Phillip in the French and Indian War, private, 1761.

326. SAMUEL, b. March 29, 1747.

142. ROBERT REYNOLDS: (John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. 1727 in Greenwich, Conn.; d. April 13, 1809, as given in Chappaqua Quaker Book of Deaths at N. Y. Public Library. Robert's will signed April 8, 1808, probated White Plains, April 10, 1810, says he was "of Bedford," N. Y. Robert with his father and brothers migrated to Westchester Co., N. Y., from Greenwich, Conn., probably while Robert was a minor.

In the Census of 1790 this Robert is given in the Township of Northcastle with 3 sons over 16; 4 sons under; 3 females of which 1 was his wife. At the same time in not-distant Pawling, Dutchess Co., there was another Robert with two sons under 16, and five females. Though only these two are in the 1790 Census, another Robert with son William and daughter Zilpha died in Northcastle, will probated Sept. 24, 1788.

Robert's will mentions "wife Ann, widow of John Kipp, Jessie Kipp my wife's son, son Elijah Reynolds, son Elias, Miriam Kipp, step-daughter, daughter Rebecca Reynolds, - - - - two daughters Miriam Kipp and Rebecca Reynolds, Elisha son of the widow Kipp. Robert's brother Sutton, brother-in-law Walter Haight, wife's son Benjamin Kipp. It was these step-sons and step-daughters that made Robert's family so large in the Census of 1790. Step-sons John, Caleb and James Kipp; step-daus. Miriam and Phebe Kipp.

Robert's widow "Ann Runnels" left to her five children, John Kipp, Caleb Kipp, James Kipp, Miriam Kipp, Rebecca Runnels, and "my three daughters Phebe Underhill (wife of Abel Underhill), Miriam Kipp and Rebecca Runnels all property from late husband Robert Reynolds," will dated March 1, 1811, probated White Plains March 27, 1812.

He m. Mrs. Ann (Haight) Kipp, Feby. 21, 1782, who was b. 1741, and d. Chappaqua, N. Y., July 13, 1811, aged 70. She was widow of John Kipp, and her maiden name was Miss Ann Haight, and had a brother named Walter Haight. She was the daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Haight of Phillipsburg. Parents of both Robert and his wife Ann were dead when he and she married in 1782. Robert's family were all Quakers; likewise the family of his brother Sutton Reynolds, who lived nearby in Chappaqua district then called generally Northcastle Township. Farmers.

329. ELIJAH H., b. Aug. 5, 1782; d. March 5, 1814; m. Abigail - - - -.

330. ELISHA, b. 1785; d. April 28, 1869, Chappaqua, N. Y., aged 84; m. Jerusha - - - -, who was b. 1785; d. Feby. 29, 1868, aged 83. They were Quakers and lived in Chappaqua, Westchester Co., N. Y.

331. ELIAS, who died Oct. 1814, Bedford, N. Y. His will signed Oct. 7, 1814, probated White Plains, Nov. 1, 1814, mentions no children, as he was unmarried and lived in Bedford, N. Y.

332. REBECCA. She was of Bedford, N. Y., and died there unmarried June 3, 1816, leaving will signed April 20, 1816, probated White Plains March 2, 1818, which mentions brother Elisha and Rebecca Ann Kipp, and Anne, daughter of Caleb Kipp, half-sister Miriam, half-brother Benjamin Kipp.

143-a. JOHN REYNOLDS: (John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. 1715; d. 1774. He was probably born in Greenwich, Conn. This John lived at North Castle, N. Y., and died there. He m. Ann Finch, who died in 1787. It is a pity that we have no more information about his children than is given below. The discovery at the last minute, after this account was put in type, of the genealogical statement written by Sutton Reynolds (No. 359) which is printed in full under John and Hannah (Sutton) Reynolds, No. 42 herein, would indicate that this Joan who m. Ann Finch was not their son, though he probably was of the same Greenwich strain. Therefore we print below what we actually know of the John[4] who was son of No. 42. See No. 143-b, next following.

334. JOHN, m. Rebecca Rundell, 1759. Lived in North Castle, N. Y.

335. ANN, m. Stephen Edgett, removed to Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y.

336. SARAH, m. John Knapp, removed also to Nine Partners, N. Y.

337. MARY (Polly), m. 1: Jehiel Davis. 2: David Cook. Removed to Delaware County, N. Y.

338. EDWARD, m. Mary (Polly) Chapman. He d. Northcastle, N. Y.

339. ELIZABETH, b. 1745; d. Feby. 11, 1812, aged 67, at Northcastle, N. Y. She m. John Banks. They had Anna Banks, who d. Dec. 10, 1867, aet. 80, buried in cemetery near Truesdell's on Bedford-Katonah Road.

340. JESSOP, m. Millicent Green. Census of 1790 for Northcastle gives him a son over 16; three sons under 16; 5 females. Her father, Charles Green of Greenwich, in will July 13, 1795, probated 1800, mentions her as "wife of Joseph Reynolds." Codicil April 5, 1799, appointed Joshua Knapp as trustee for his "daughter Milleson Reynolds."

341. HANNAH, m. Jeremy Green. Resided in Westchester Co., N. Y.

342. JERUSHA, m. Jonathan Finch. Lived Northcastle, N. Y.

343. JONAH, m. - - - - Ireland. Census of 1790 for Northcastle gives him 2 sons under 16; 2 females.

344. DEBORAH, m. James Smith, "removed to N.W. part of N. Y. State."

143-b. JOHN REYNOLDS: (John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., or Hempstead or Oyster Bay, L. I., in 1734; died in British army prison in New York City about 1778; m. Zipporah Pierce, who died Oct. 17, 1814, buried Chappaqua, N. Y. They lived in Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y. They may have had children, but of them we have no record.

'John had a fine pair of horses; they were pressed into the American Army for a baggage team. John said if his horses went he would go, too, to drive them. He went and was taken prisoner by the British and carried to New York and died in prison about the year 1778.' See this extract in full under No. 42 herein. It is possible the mysterious Sutton[5] Reynolds (for John's mother was Hannah Sutton of Hempstead, L. I.) who was in Pawling, Dutchess Co., at the 1790 Census, was a son of this John. That remains to be worked out and proved.

Read the account of this strange Sutton[5] in the miscellaneous material at the end of this Book.

145. RICHESON REYNOLDS: (John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., or Northcastle, N. Y., 1735; d. Northcastle, Westch. Co., N. Y., March 1765, shortly after his father. His will is abstracted p. 211, Early Wills of Westchester County by W. S. Pelletreau; will dated Dec. 1, 1764; proved April 4, 1765 (N. Y. City, Book 25: p. 55), brothers John and Robert to be executors. Wife survived him; all property to be sold and proceeds to her, unnamed; mentions three sons. He lived in Northcastle, Westch. Co., N. Y. He m. Hannah Dean in 1758. Richeson's name may really have been Richardson as his son was so spelled. A Richardson Reynolds once lived on Long Island near Oyster Bay or Hempstead.

346. RICHARDSON, we know no more. In 1790 Census in Stamford-Norwalk area there was a Richardson and his wife, no children. He would then have been about thirty, or some years less than thirty. He served in the Revolution from N. Y. State.

347. JESSE, b. between 1755-1765, Northcastle, N. Y. See Census of 1790.

348. JOHN, b. between 1755-1765, Northcastle, Westchester Co., N. Y.

349. ANNE, "daughter of Richardson Reynolds & Hannah Dean, m. Oct. 21, 1784, at Chappaqua, Josiah Cornell, son of William & Mary of Phillipsburg." We think Anne was a posthumous child as not mentioned in the will.

147. SUTTON REYNOLDS: (John[4]; Jonathan[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. August 18, 1744, in Greenwich, Conn., or Northcastle, Westch. Co., N. Y.; d. Chappaqua, N. Y., June 26, 1828, "nearly 84." He and his children were Hicksite Quakers, except Jonathan who was an Orthodox Quaker. He was not in the Revolution because of the conscientious scruples of the Quakers against war.

He m. Miss Anna Carpenter, 1776, daughter of Joseph T. Carpenter; b. March 29, 1759; d. Dec. 23, 1830, "lacking three months and three days of 72," at Chappaqua, N. Y. However, we take as authentic the dates written into an old Family Bible by either Sutton or his wife. Some other records are taken from a typed and bound ms. in the N. Y. Public Library (geneal. section) entitled Chappaqua Book of Deaths.

Sutton's will, signed August 12, 1824, probated Aug. 15, 1828, mentions wife Anna and children—Amy, Sutton, Jr., Hannah, Joseph, Jonathan, and Andrew. As Sutton is mentioned in the will of his brother Robert of Northcastle, it is likely that he was the only one of the brothers and sisters to survive Robert who died in 1810. In the 1790 Census this Sutton is of Northcastle, Westchester Co., N. Y., himself, 3 sons under 16, wife and 2 daughters. At the same Census there was another Sutton Reynolds in Beekman, Dutchess Co., N. Y., recorded, himself, 1 son under 16, wife and 3 daughters. Our Sutton was a Quaker farmer and always lived in that part of Northcastle known as Chappaqua, N. Y., where his father had died in 1764. Descendants still live in that vicinity. The following children are given in the old Bible, and the birth dates are those recorded in the handwriting of one of the above parents. From the above it would appear that Sutton was about twelve years older than his wife and that he did not marry until he was about 32. Mrs. S. Wood Cornell of Pleasantville, N. Y. (1923) supplies much of this information.†

351. "Our first child was b. Jany. 27, 1777; d. September, 1777."

352. HANNAH, b. Sept. 17, 1778; d. Jany. 26, 1859; m. Thomas Dodge. Lived at Chappaqua, N. Y.

353. ABIGAIL, b. August 8, 1780; d. Nov. 26, 1861; m. James Kipp. 3 sons.

354. SARAH, b. Sept. 22, 1782; d. in infancy, 1783.

355. JOHN, b. Nov. 16, 1784; d. Chappaqua, Sept. 20, 1822; m. perhaps the Elizabeth who d. March 6, 1848, at Chappaqua. Their child d. there Jany. 23, 1815.

*356. JOSEPH, b. Nov. 18, 1786; d. Sept. 28, 1863; m. Lydia Carpenter.

*357. JONATHAN, b. Feby. 27, 1789; d. Dec. 8, 1837; m. Betsey Flewellin.

*359. SUTTON, b. Feby. 15, 1794; d. April 19, 1877; m. Maplett Carpenter.

360. AMY, b. April 5, 1796; d. Jany. 2, 1877, "aet. 80-6-16"; m. James Carpenter. Another record gives her birth as June 15, 1794.

† A Deborah, b. March 16, 1764; d. Jany. 27, 1854; m. Peter Carpenter, and lived Yorktown Heights, N. Y., heretofore assigned to this family, after these old Bible records would seem not to belong here.

361. EZRA, or ELIJAH,§ given by several other correspondents.

149. JOHN REYNOLDS: (Nathan[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 16, 1727; m. Rosanna van Campen, January, 1746. It is thought that he removed to Whitehall (then called Skeenesboro), Washington Co., N. Y. See what is said of him under No. 381. A John Reynolds in 1765 received land at Otter Creek from N. Y. State for services in the Black Watch, French and Indian Wars. See pertinent notes of this John under Nos. 272 and 278 herein, footnote, p. 112.

362. JOHN, b. Jany. 20, 1747.

363. RUTH, b. Jany. 27, 1749.

364. HANNAH, b. March 21, 1754.

365. JACOB, b. May 31, 1756.

158. BRIGGS REYNOLDS: (Josiah[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Greenwich Old Town, (Sound Beach) Conn., July 21, 1754; d. after Nov. 18, 1799, when he witnessed the will of Jonathan Howe. He m. Abigail Whelpley, dau. David Whelpley of Greenwich, who mentioned Briggs in his will dated Feby. 4, 1785; but curiously Whelpley's will refers to "estate of Briggs Reynolds" though he calls his daughter "wife," not "widow," of Briggs Reynolds.

We read on Dec. 6, 1768, "Joseph Reynolds (Josiah?) late of Greenwich, bond of Henry Burley of Greenwich as guardian for Briggs Reynolds, minor son of decedent." Briggs was a Revolutionary Soldier, "Private, Capt. George Peck's Co., Col. Jonathan Mead's Regiment of Militia. He was among men that served at Greenwich, but did not go to Westchester County, N. Y., being stationed with 18 others at Greenwich as a Guard. Discharged Jany. 8, 1777, after two months eight days of service." (No. 30, p. 58, 1916, Reynolds Family Annual). Briggs was given in the 1790 Greenwich Census "one son over 16, 3 sons under 16, four females," of which latter one was probably his wife. Strangely, we find no further record of him; and probate records (David Whelpley's will) at Stamford give only 370. MARY LYON, or Mary who m. - - - - Lyon. See Whelpley's will, Stamford, 1785.

170. JOSEPH REYNOLDS: (2 Josephs; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 27, 1757; d. Nov. 12, 1799, Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y. His son Joseph died a few days later.

Joseph m. 1: Ruth Rich, Jany. 21, 1745, when he was aged 17-4-25. She died August 5, 1750, leaving two children. He m. 2: Miss Lydia Parker, Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., March 12, 1751. She died

§ The Chappaqua Book of Deaths (N. Y. Public Library), also gives the following unknown Quaker Reynoldses:

ELIJAH REYNOLDS, b. 1800; d. Oct. 16 1823, aged 23.

Elizabeth, d. March 6, 1848.

Richard and Robert Reynolds were customers of the general store of Judge Caleb Fowler, of North Castle, between 1754-1760.

March 28, 1789, daughter of Thomas Parker. See Parker in America, page 581. All but the first two children below are by her.

"The following record was copied from an old sheet of paper sent by my mother (1834) to brother Myron. The Israel Reynolds mentioned was my mother's father.

"Oct. 17, 1873. H. C. FRISBEE."

"Joseph Reynolds was born August 27, 1727, was married to Ruth Rich when aged 17 years, 4 Months & 25 days, on the 21 day of January 1745 who bare him a Son Named Joseph Born the 23' day of July 1746 and a Daughter Named Ruth born the 2' day of August 1749. Lost his wife August 5th 1750; was Married the second time to Lydia Parker the 12th day of March 1751 who did bare him five children namely Lydia born 20th February 1752; Israel born 25th December 1753; Parker born 10th October 1755; Joanna born 4th September 1757; Asa born 9th August 1759. Ruth the Daughter of Jeseph Reynolds Died August 5th 1766. Lydia the second wife of Joseph Reynolds Died March 28th 1789. Joseph Reynolds our honoured Father Departed this life on the close of the 11th or on the beginning of the 12th day of November 1799 Brother Joseph died Day after our Father Sister Lydia died September 1, 1804."

We believe Joseph was reared in Pine Plains, or near Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., for his father Joseph moved to that place from Greenwich, Conn., in 1740. In 1748 when he was just of age, it is said he was in Crum Elbow (which is between Peekskill and Yorktown, Westchester Co., N. Y.). His second marriage was (?) in nearby Bedford, N. Y. However, the N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record, Jany. 1904, gives these baptisms for the Old Red Meeting House, Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y. Joseph's children: Ruth and Lydia, on Oct. 25, 1752; Israel, March 17, 1754; Parker, Dec. 12, 1757. History of Amenia, by Newton Reed, 1875, states that Joseph was one of the earlier members of the Red Meeting House. Israel, son of Joseph and Lydia Reynolds, was baptized there in 1754. I doubt that Joseph ever lived in Westchester Co. In the settlement at Pine Plains, Dutchess Co., his Uncle Nehemiah Reynolds was one of the leaders and well-to-do men of the county.

In 1776 in Dutchess County, Joseph and his eldest son Joseph signed the patriotic "Association paper," a sort of local Declaration of Independence, showing that by that time he had returned to Dutchess County. I cannot place him in the Census of 1790. There were then two Josephs in Greenwich, Conn.; one in Yonkers, N. Y.; one in Washington township and one in Beekman, Dutchess Co.; one in Easton, Albany Co., N. Y., etc., and Joseph and his son Joseph may be any of these. He was possibly one of the two Josephs given in Greenwich which would have included New Canaan, Conn. Joseph was a Baptist and extremely pious as may be seen from the letters printed at the close of this sketch. He was much concerned about the spiritual welfare of his son, the Rev. Parker Reynolds who, no doubt, found it trying to bring up a considerable family and serve a very poor and pioneer church at the same time. A careful reading of these old letters will serve to show where various members of the family were at different times. We know very little of Joseph, the son. He may have lived in New Canaan, Conn., near Greenwich, where Lydia (Jenks) lived and where the father Joseph seems to have spent his last years. Around 1791 Israel moved from New Canaan, Conn., to New York State, and as he died in Peru, Clinton Co., it was probably there he went then. The family in Michigan have a tradition that Israel lived for a time in Vermont, but perhaps this came about through the claim of Vermont about 1790-1800 to certain parts of what are now New York State. The editors are inclined to believe that the "New Canaan" was what is now Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y., and not the Connecticut Canaan.

Descendants of Joseph say that he was in the Revolution, and he was probably Soldier No. 198, p. 79 of the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual: "Private in Capt. Abraham Mead's Co., Ninth Regiment Militia, at N. Y. 1776, under Lieut. Col. John Mead. Discharged Sept. 2, 1776. Also, same company, private, marched Nov. 1, 1776, discharged Jany. 11, 1777. Command of the Saw Pitts (Rye or Port Chester, N. Y.) under General Wooster. Ambrose Reynolds in same Company." Or Joseph may have been No. 248, or 249, p. 85 of the 1916 Annual, the one a Captain in Beekman Precinct, Fifth Regiment, N. Y., Dutchess Co., etc.; the other a Sergeant in the Second Westchester Regiment, etc. Considerable is printed of Joseph in the Reynolds Genealogy printed in 1875 by Edwin Ruthven Reynolds, Albion, N. Y. To the history of Joseph the researches of Mrs. Nevin M. Fenneman (Sarah[10] Alice Glisan) of Cincinnati and of the Hon. Edwin[8] Ruthven Reynolds of Albion, N. Y., have contributed most fully.

The children of Joseph were:

375. JOSEPH J., b. July 23, 1746; d. November 13, 1799, "the day after his father"; m. Lydia Jenks. We know no more of him, but believe he had a large family. Some part of the Revolutionary records above may belong to him.

376. RUTH, b. August 2, 1749, baptized Oct. 25, 1752, as above; d. March 28, 1776; not married. The old record written by Lucy Reynolds Frisbie says that Ruth d. Aug. 5, 1766, but this seems to be a confusion with the month and day of her mother Ruth's death; the alternative date, March 28, 1776, given by others, seems likewise to be a similar confusion with the month and day of her step-mother's death. Either alternative points to early blunderings in recording of dates.

377. LYDIA, b. Feby. 20, 1752; d. Sept. 1, 1804; m. Joseph Jenks.

378. ISRAEL, b. Dec. 25, 1753; d. Nov. 22, 1812; m. Deborah Thatcher.

379. PARKER, b. Oct 10, 1755; d. June 29, 1833; m. 1: Esther Dagget. 2: Rhoda Carter. He was a Baptist minister of the frontier.

380. HANNAH, b. Sept. 4, 1757; d. Feby. 2, 1826; m. Ebenezer Roe (Rowe?). She was christened Joanna. Rowe was of Washington Township, Dutchess Co., N. Y. See No. 183 following.

381. ASA, b. Aug. 8, 1759; d. Dec. 25, 1834; m. Hannah Wells.

The following series of letters to and from JOSEPH[5] REYNOLDS reflect something of his character and times. The originals were all in possession of A. Heber[9] Reynolds (1846-1917) of Green Bay, Wisc. One of the best, that by Joseph himself, written in 1793, and reproduced in the opposite engraving, is in the hands of the Editors of this Genealogy. No comment is needed on its fine, firm hand and excellent state of preservation. In 1910, Heber wrote Mrs. Nevin Fenneman, "I most gladly send you one of the letters of Joseph (1793), and one which will give something of an insight into his personality and his concern for the young preacher Parker whom he tries to encourage when he seems to have been much disturbed over the struggle to keep up the work of a minister and yet provide for a growing family. This letter was written in response to a despairing letter of Parker's in which he thinks that he is working at too great disadvantage and seems almost ready to give it up. You see it was written at Canaan and directed to Granville, N. Y., and at this time (1793) I think Asa, Israel and Lydia were residing in Granville. * * * Every record seems to reveal the character of Joseph to be strong, well-balanced, religious and helpful, filled with a strong paternal love for his children, and especially for Parker, who, as he grew to manhood and engaged in his life-work of a preacher, often was in distress over the difficulties and anxieties which he was called upon to endure, and the deprivation which tested his ability to the utmost. Changes had come upon the old home at Nine Partners. The close of the long war of the Revolution had left the country in a sad state of debt, public and private, and of mis-rule, so the children had scattered towards the north and located in Saratoga. * * * About 1790 Parker evidently sought work in these towns, while Lydia, Israel and Asa went to Granville. * * * Many letters are in my possession from Joseph at New Britain and Canaan to Lydia, Israel and Asa. Then Israel went still farther north to Peru, Clinton Co., N. Y."

"Loving Son: My earnest desires for the wellfare of your immortal soul, as well as for its happiness, peace and comfort, here in time, constrains me to write you at this time.

"But what shall I write when I consider what I have heard you utter of late, both with your pen and tongue, of the dreadful state the Christian soul is in. I cannot set it forth in more glaring terms than you have done, and, if on the contrary, I attempt to speak of that inexhaustible fountain of Eternal Love that flows from God through Christ to the guilty sinner I cannot find words to convey my ideas so clearly as you have done, but, alas, how cruel it is, after such contemplations of the wonderful love of God in Christ Jesus, to such a poor, miserable self-ruined sinner, that after all this, you should have a thought towards despairing of that Eternal Love, that but a few nights past seemed to fill your soul and raised the hopes of an affectionate Father that you had truly fell in love with that love Jesus, which is the wonder of Angels, and the admiration of Saints, and must you, so soon, through the temptation of Satan, be overcome with a spirit of jealousy, but which is as cruel as the grave.

"But I want to tell you where I think Satan got an advantage against you when your distres fol'd upon you in such a manner the other night, I believe that you had intimation from the Lord to spend the night in fasting and prayer, and humbling yourself before the Lord, and it having such an effect that night that, perhaps, you as well as I did think that God was a God hearing prayer, and the next night, when you thought that you see something of a like distress in your sister and your affection moved towards her, you thought that perhaps you could do something for her by your fasting and prayers, but God, that is indefinately wise to let you know that you could do nothing of yourself, was pleased to withhold your desires, that you might be dependant upon Him for direction on every point of duty, suffered a subtil adversary to beset you with his temptations, and to persuade you to think that what you had met with was nothing, and thereby rob you of all comfort and if it were possible to drive you to despair of all comfort in time and eternity. But blesed be God, the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, the Lord knows them that are his. Therefore, my Dear Son, never despair of mercy, Trust in God, Resist the Devil, and he shall flee from you. Seek the Lord while he may be found, Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you, Never give out, and pray till God shall appear for you, and dispel the cloud, and grant you, the clear manifestations of his love. But time fails me to write more.

"Pray, Pray, Pray, and may God of infinate Mercy fill your soul with his Love, which is the sincere desire and hearty prayer of your most affectionate Father.

"You cant but be sensible that it touched natural affection, upon reading Brother Parker's letter, which I received saturday, where I was informed that you had been exceeding ill; but as I considered it not a punishment for sin, but as a chastisement from a faithful and loving Father, it would not be right to complain that God was not equitable in afflicting my Parents more than others of your age, as I believe that what ever affliction he lays upon you he will cause to work together for your good in the end, and although his hand may be grievous for the present, yet that it will work for you a far more exceeding weight of glory, where no rising of the lungs, or distress for want of breath; no wrecking cough to vitiate or distress the vitals; no distressing thoughts about a poor unconcerned child; no device from hell or earth to annoy or disturb your peace shall ever enter, but an endless and uninterrupted enjoyment of all perfection, with the happy choir of all blessed spirrits made perfect.

An old letter written by JOSEPH[3] to his son, the REV. PARKER[6] REYNOLDS, 1793. (See Nos. 170 & 379). This letter is owned by the Editors of this Book.

(No. 6) "Grenville, (N. Y.) May 12, 1793.

"To JOSEPH REYNOLDS, New Canaan.

"Very Dear Father. I received yours by John Kolb, and as I did then so I do now really feel the warm breathings of a tender Father's soul in well wishes towards his miserable son. My kind Father, with all the tenderness of humane and devine affection wishes me all possible happiness; but it is impossible for me to enjoy such a blessing under my present circumstances. To be as plain as possible for any being to be the base is just this: I must be perfectly freed from the remotest thought that it is my duty to preach the Gospel, and full sensible every moment of my future life in my own conscience toward God that he requires of me no such thing in any sense; or—I must be free from the incumbrances of this life so that I may be wholly devoted to the word in order to be happy, ever happy in this world, however it may be with me in futurity.

"I shall leave my Father and Sister Jenks to weight the above proposition, (as I wish you to show this letter to her), and if you are not both satisfied what is the present circumstances of my mind I shall be more particular in my next.

183. NEHEMIAH REYNOLDS: (Nehemiah[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. between 1732-40 in Greenwich, Conn.; reared in upper Dutchess Co., N. Y.; d. (Chatham, N. Y.?), date unknown. He m. 1: Mary Armstrong, in Dutchess Co., who died. He then m. 2: Anstress Southworth, May 24, 1787, "both of Nine Partners," Dutchess Co., in Quaker Meeting there (Old N. W. Geneal. Qtly. 1900). It is interesting to note the friends who signed as witnesses of this wedding: Anna Gardner, Martha Palmer, Deborah Valentine, Mehitable Brown, Phebe Barton, Abijah Coffin, Pontius Woolley, Wm. Mitchell, David Smith, Joseph Merritt, Edward Palmer, Jacob Thorne. At the 1790 census there was a Nehemiah at Warwick, Orange Co., N. Y.: 1 son over 16; 5 under 16; two females. Another Nehemiah was in 1790 in Washington Township, Dutchess Co., with 1 son over 16; 4 sons under 16; 6 females. It is likely that Nehemiah was of Dutchess Co.; and that his son Nehemiah was of Orange County, as he eventually went to Otsego Co.

The children are said all to have been b. in Dutchess Co. "He came from Dutchess Co. and settled at Chatham, Columbia Co.,"—Munsell's American Ancestry, II:101. The neighbors of the Washington township Nehemiah were Reuben Husted; Ebenezer Rowe whose wife Hannah (Reynolds) was daughter of Nehemiah's cousin Joseph[5] whose biography appears next before this one; Joseph Mosier, Reuben Palmer, etc. As the sons of Nehemiah have been listed first, and then the daughters, it is obvious that they are not given in order of birth. In 1774 a Nehemiah Reynolds was freeman of Stamford, but this may have been his father. This Nehemiah or his son was the Revolutionary Soldier p. 93, 1916, Reynolds Family Annual, Sergeant in Capt. Jonathan Whitney's Co., Ninth Regt. Militia under General Wooster 1776-77. Disch. Jany. 23, 1777, after two months, three days service.

*385. Jacob, b. 1761; d. 1831; m. 1. Sarah Hart. 2: Mary Olds. Lived in Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

386. Benjamin. "He never married."

387. Nehemiah. (Could he be the Nehemiah who m. Mary Claussen, Aug. 13, 1777, in the Second Congreg. Church of Greenwich?) Nehemiah d. Cherry Valley, Otsego Co., N. Y.; had son Henry W. who d. at Albany.

*388. David N., b. Oct. 3, 1785; d. 1867; m. Amy[6] Reynolds, dau. Solomon,[5] 1807. He lived in Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

*389. William, d. 1826; m. Sarah Mosher (Mosier?).

390. Andrew. Lived and d. Cherry Valley, Otsego Co., N. Y.; had Abraham and perhaps others.

391. Abraham. He might have been the Abraham from Dutchess Co., N. Y., who removed with sister Anne (who m. Humphrey Sherman) to Brookfield. That Abraham was b. 1771; d. Essex, N. Y., May 23, 1854, aet. 83; and is there buried with Amy, his wife, b. 1773; d. July 1, 1846, aet. 73. That Abraham had Andrew, Abner, Morris, John, Isaac, Edmund, Abraham, Keziah (Mrs. Alvin Adsit) and Christina (Mrs. Perkins). Abraham left a second wife, Rebecca, widow. His probate recorded with many deeds in Essex, but not fully investigated.

392. Jane.

393. Mary.

394. Sarah.

395. Rachel.

396. Salome.

397. Anna. (See notes above on Abraham of Brookfield, Essex Co., N. Y. Perhaps it was she who m. Humphrey Sherman of Brookfield.)

398. Ruhama.

185. DAVID REYNOLDS: (Nehemiah[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Nov. 24, 1745; d. Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y., July 1, 1820; m. Miss Lois Finch, who d. Oct. 25, 1812, dau. Jabez & Rebecca Finch. David in 1764, when aged 19, removed from Nine Partners, to Chatham, N. Y., and spent his life there. His presence in Chatham recorded in 1769. Census of 1790 for Chatham-Canaan, N. Y., gives him 3 sons over 16; 5 females, of whom one was his wife. The other children by 1790 were probably not living at home. See Munsell's American Ancestry, II, 101. David's home was really in Rayville, just north of Chatham-Canaan, N. Y. It is a pity that our records of his children are so meagre and incomplete. There was a David Reynolds, Revolutionary Soldier, in the Third Dutchess Co. Regiment, Col. Field, Capt. Dykeman's Company, but it would be difficult to prove that it was this David of Rayville, N. Y.

399. Joel, m. Elizabeth Crandall. Lived Clarksville, Otsego Co., N. Y.

*400. Nehemiah. Lived near Hallsville, Otsego Co., N. Y. See pages 17-18, 1916 Reynolds Family Annual for further information about this Nehemiah.

401. Amos, m. Martha (Patty) Thompson. Removed to Fond-du-lac, Wisc.

404. Zaida, m. James Murphy.

405. Rebecca, m. Stephen Finch.

406. Lydia, m. Arnold Wooley.

407. Esther, m. Oliver Allen.

408. Mary, m Job Thompson.

409. Lois, m. 1: Francis Barnard, Sept. 29, 1803, at New Britain, N. Y. Francis was son of Reuben & Phebe Barnard of Canaan, N. Y. Quaker marriage, Hudson M. Meeting. Lived Clarksville, Otsego Co., N. Y. 2: James Wilbur.

190. AMOS REYNOLDS: (Nehemiah[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. probably Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., June 10, 1759; died we know not when. He m. Elizabeth Mosher, Sept. 11, 1782, at First Stanford Baptist Church, Bangall, Dutchess Co., N. Y. He removed to Chatham, N. Y., and then apparently to Galway, N. Y. An Amos R. is given in the 1790 Census of Ballston, Saratoga Co., N. Y. "one son under 16; 3 females." Saratoga Co. land transfers: Saratoga, Amos Reynolds & wife to David R. (perhaps Amos' bro. or son) 1803; Galway, Philip & Bridget Palmer of Galway to Amos Reynolds of Galway, 1822; Corinth, Beloved Carpenter & wife Puah of Corinth to Amos R. of Galway 1824 Amos R. & wife of Saratoga to Samuel Reynolds (prob. their son) of Galway, 1826; Amos R. & wife Elizabeth of Saratoga to David Reynolds (prob. their son) 1830. The only Revolutionary Soldier named Amos (No. 7, p. 56, 1916 Reynolds Family Annual) was most probably not our Amos. The above marriage recorded at Bangall, Dutchess Co., as printed in the N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record. The Reynolds family of Reynolds Corners, near Schuylerville, Saratoga Co., N. Y., are probably descendants of Amos.

411. David, m. Maria—before 1830? Lived at Galway, Saratoga Co., N. Y.

412. Samuel. Lived at Galway, Saratoga Co., N. Y., in 1826.

413. Judith; m. John Allen.

414. Phoebe, "no issue."

191. REUBEN REYNOLDS: (Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., March 14, 1735-36; d. Aug. 3, 1819, Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y.; buried there with his wife. Date of his death in Family Bible of son of Reuben's son Israel. He m. Hepzibah ----. "His wife who d. 1828 was said to be 104 years old. Diligent search has failed to disclose her family name. I think it probable that her maiden name was Reynolds as well, and that she was Hepzibah Reynolds, dau. James[4] & Phebe (Fowler) Reynolds, who was b. Greenwich, Sept. 18, 1744; see James' record in the fourth generation. There has been a family tradition that she was a Huguenot and b. at New Rochelle, but Hepzibah is a New England name. I doubt this tradition." Read Ancestry and Descendants of Hosea and Elizabeth (Fuller) Reynolds, by Frank I. Bennett, Chicago, 1921. See Nos. 102 and 237 herein.

Reuben was in the French and Indian War, campaign of 1757: Captain White's Co., 9th Conn. Regt. Many of the Greenwich records were lost during the Revolution, but we know he, as well as five of his brothers,—Titus, Moses, Joel, Jonah and David—was in the Revolution. See Conn. Mil. Rec., Conn. Hist. Soc., Vol. XII, pp. 167, 313, 330, 334, and 349. Also Rey. Fam. Annual, 1916, p. 96, No. 349. "Private, short term, 1779-80, Second Regt. Conn. Line, May 1-Dec. 9, 1780, dates of enlistment and discharge." The Reuben Reynolds in Captain Betts Co., fifer, 3rd Regt., Conn. Line private, Jany. 8, to Sept. 1, 1781; fifer, Sept. 1 to Dec. 31, 1781, was from East Windsor, Conn., and I do not believe is our Reuben. A descendant of our Reuben states that he served seven years, eight months in the Revolution.

At least one of his children, Andrew, was born in Rye, N. Y. Reuben removed to Chatham (Canaan Township), Columbia Co., N. Y., where he and two other Reubens were at the taking of the 1790 Census. We do not know which is which: "Reuben Reynolds, 1 son under 16, 3 females." "Reuben, Jr., 1 son under 16, two females." "Ruben Randale 1 son over 16, 1 son under 16, 2 females." But uncles, aunts, cousins residing with a family head were often counted in his family at the census. See comments under No. 417 in next genreation.

About 1792 Reuben moved from Chatham, N. Y., to Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y., where he died. Kortright was then part of Harpersfield Township. It is probable that he had other children than the three given below and likely that he had a son Reuben who was the third Reuben in the 1790 Census at Chatham-Canaan. Miss Helen Stark of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes 1923: "I have seen the graves of both Israel and James, but no Reuben is buried with them so far as it shows. I don't believe he lived with either." Miss Stark and Mr. Bennett have contributed practically all of the information about Reuben and his numerous descendants.

416. Andrew, b. "Rye, N. Y.", March 4, 1764; d. July 28, 1855; m. 1: Sarah Cleveland, 1785. 2: Mrs. Frances Peck.

417. Rev. James, b. March 16, 1771; d. Aug. 15, 1837; m. Esther Nash, 1792. He lived in Peach Orchard, Hector-Burdette, N. Y.

418. Israel, b. "Horseneck," Greenwich, Conn., April 21, 1782; d. Aug. 7, 1869; m. Rachel Seward, 1802. If Israel's mother Hepzibah were really born in 1724 (i.e., 104 at her death in 1828), she would have been 58 at Israel's birth, and eleven years older than her husband; therefore Hepzibah Reynolds, No. 237 in this book, who was b. 1744, seems much more logical as the wife of Reuben and mother of Israel.

192. TITUS REYNOLDS: (Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1737 d. Dec. 25, 1808, "in his 72nd year," North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y. He m. Sarah Husted, of Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 1762. She was b. Oct. 14, 1741; d. Dec. 15, 1833,

North Salem, "aged 92"; dau. Benjamin & Sarah (Newman) Husted of Greenwich, Conn. Titus was reared in Greenwich; in 1756 and 1759 he was in the French & Indian War from Fairfield Co., Conn.; also an officer in the Revolutionary War, as follows:

> "Lieutenant commanding, Oct. 19, 1775, Capt. Nathaniel Delevan's Co., in Col. Van Cortland's Third Regiment, Manor of Cortland, N. Y. (Peekskill). Lieut., under Capt. Gideon Seely, appointed April 22, 1779, in Lieut. Col. Thaddeus Crane's Fourth Westchester Co. Regiment. Also, Lieut. in Capt. Seely's Co., Col. Joseph Benedict's Third Westchester Regiment, all of N. Y. Troops." (Reynolds Family Assn. Annual, 1916, p. 105.)

In the N. Y. Census of 1790 Titus was of North Salem: 1 son over 16, 2 under; wife and 2 daughters. His will signed Nov. 8, 1808, was probated at White Plains Jany. 17, 1809. Deborah Husted, sister to Sarah, above, m. Nathaniel[5] Reynolds, Jr., who was the grandson of Ebenezer[3]. Another Sarah Husted m. Daniel[5] Reynolds, Jr., grandson of Joshua[3]. Titus and Sarah were Quakers and warm patriots. They always lived as farmers in North Salem, and are buried in the No. Salem St. James' Cemetery. The farm of Titus was of about 600 acres—almost a square mile in area—and it was mostly in the area now flooded by the big Titicus Reservoir (New York City water supply), between Purdys Station and Salem Centre. At his death the big farm was divided up among his three sons who always remained there on the land. The information about Titus and his descendants is supplied principally by Benjamin Reynolds Lobdell and Miss Ellen O. Reynolds.

425. Mary, m. Rev. Ezekiel Halstead, Quaker preacher. Mrs. Daniel Todd is their gt. granddaughter.

426. Sarah, m. Elijah Quick. Removed to Indiana and became wealthy pork packer and flour miller.

193. MOSES REYNOLDS: (Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., between 1736-1745. He was in the Revolution: "N. Y. Troops, private in Capt. Mead's Co., Col. Henry Ludington s Seventh Dutchess Co. Regiment." See No. 314, p. 92, 1916 Reynolds Family Annual. In the 1790 Census he may have been the Moses in Stephen township, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., though this was just south of the Petersburgh area mostly settled by Reynoldses from the James of North Kingstown, R. I., strain, unrelated to this genealogy. That Moses in 1790 had son over 16, and two females, perhaps one his wife. Though he was living in 1765 when his father died, we are doubtful about his career after that. Reuben and Joel, his brothers, lived in the nearby southern township of Chatham-Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y., which would argue for our Moses being the Stephentown one.

At least two children in 1790 Census.

195. JOEL REYNOLDS: (Reuben[4]; Joseph[3] Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., between 1736-1743; m. Amy Hobby, who was b. 1737. Joel was a Revolutionary Soldier, N. Y. Troops: "Private in Capt. Waters' Co., Col. Roswell Hopkins' Sixth Dutchess Co., Regiment." See 1916 Reynolds Family Annual, p. 84. In the Census of 1790 he and brother Reuben were at Chatham (Canaan Township) Columbia Co., N. Y. Joel had then two sons over 16, 3 under 16, four females. Two years later Reuben his brother removed to Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y. Greenwich records states that Joel "removed to Albany County." The will of Deborah Hobby of Greenwich, Conn., probated 1802 in Stamford, gives to "Sarah, daughter of Joel Reynolds."

Eight children according to 1790 Census of Chatham-Canaan, N. Y.

197. JONAH REYNOLDS: (Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., around 1750; m. - - - - - - - - Perhaps his wife was Deborah Husted, sister of Sarah Husted who m. his brother Titus of nearby No. Salem, N. Y. Jonah at the 1790 Census lived in Northcastle, Westchester Co., N. Y., having then two sons under 16; two females, one perhaps his wife. He was there Oct. 29, 1787. He was a Revolutionary soldier of N. Y. State: "Private, Capt. Hobby's Co. Col. Thos. Thomas' Second Westchester Co. Regiment also in Capt. St. John's Co., same regiment." When his father died in Greenwich, Jonah was in 1766 placed under the legal guardianship of his mother, as he was a minor.

Three children, at least, in 1790 Census.

198. DAVID REYNOLDS: (Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. June 6, 1753; d. Aug. 30, 1827, Scotchtown, Orange Co., N. Y. Van Benschoten Genealogy says, he was b. Jany. 6, 1763. m. Margaret Crissey, July 12, 1787. She was born Nov. 7, 1763, in Westchester Co. and d. Aug. 12, 1858, Lake Sheldrake, Sullivan Co., N. Y. In 1790 Census he is probably the David of New Cornwall, Orange Co., - - 2 small sons; wife 2 small daughters. In the Revolutionary War there was a David, First Lieutenant in Capt. Samuel Raymond s Company (Cornwall Precinct) commissioned Nov. 9, 1775, under Colonel Isaac Nicholl, - - Orange Co. Minute Men. But according to D. A. R. Lineage Books, Vol. 32, No. 23, that David was b. 1737; d. 1825. Also in Commissary Dept. at Newburgh. Perhaps an inquiry of the U. S. Pension Bureau in Washington would clear this up.

Farmer at Loch Sheldrake, N. Y.

David probably had other children, but we know only of:

445. Chrissie.

446. Andrew, b. May 26, 1792; d. May 11, 1876; m. Katrina van Benschoten

447. Stephen.

448. David.

449. Rachel; m. Thomas Bross.

450. Marie, m. Thomas Langdon.

450a. Esther.

204. CAPTAIN TIMOTHY REYNOLDS: (2 Ebenezers; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., May 13, 1733; d. before Oct. 2, 1781, probably at Greenwich.

He m. Amy Knapp, Sept. 2, 1762, Greenwich; who was b. there April 25, 1743. She survived him and was Administratrix of his estate, appointed Stamford, Oct. 2, 1781. Some searchers have said his wife's name was Anna, but that is a confusion resulting from the fact that Anna Mead was the wife of his son Abel. The papers in the matter of his estate give the name clearly as Amy.

Timothy was a soldier in Captain White's Company of Stanwich, Conn., in the French and Indian War, campaign of 1756. As a result the 'Injuns' got him and he was their captive almost three years. Here is the story:

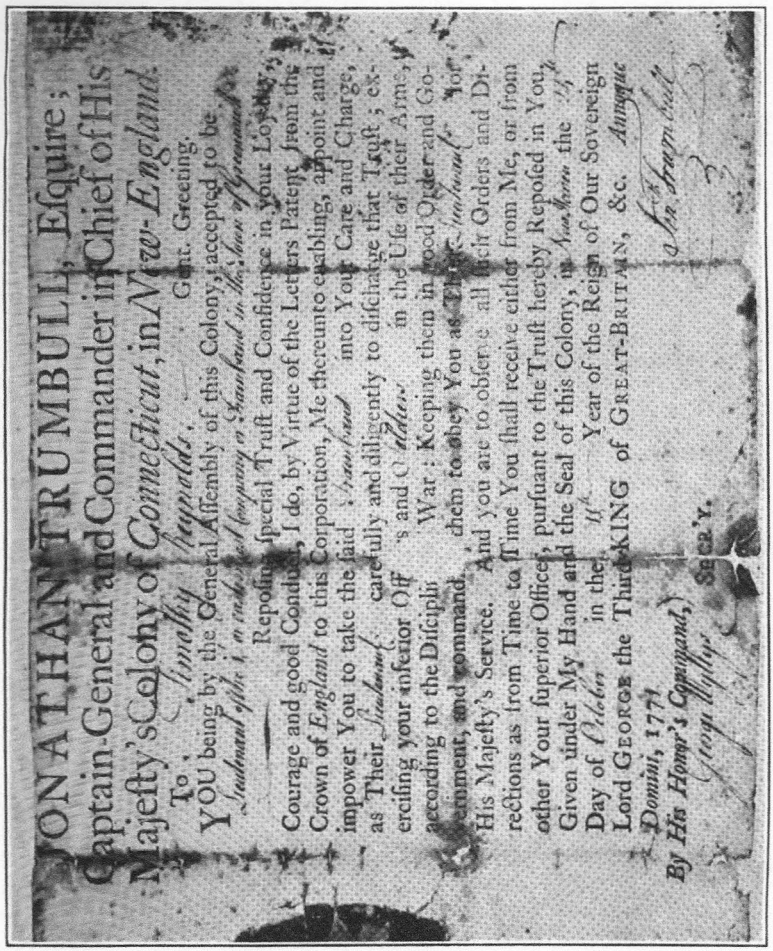
"My grandmother Phebe, dau. of Abel Reynolds, told me she had often heard her Grandfather, Captain Timothy, tell of being a prisoner of the Indians for several years and when he found the old chief planned to make him marry his daughter, he and four others made their escape, though only two reached home. They heard the Indians chasing them, so did not dare shoot their old flint-locks at any game. They lived on berries." (Mr. Nelson[8] U. Lockwood.)

We find the following petition from Captain Timothy presented to the General Assembly (Legislature) of Connecticut:

"March 13, 1760. Upon the memorial of Timothy Reynolds of Greenwich, representing to this Assembly that he was a soldier in the service of this Colony on the 17th day of July, 1756; at Lake George, N. Y., and was then on a party with Major Waterbury when attacked by the enemy, and was taken prisoner by the Indians and carried into captivity and by them detained until the 2nd day of June, 1759, when he found means to escape, and arrived at Lake George on the 30th June and entered the same service and continued until the 16th day of October, 1759, and praying this Assembly to order him pay as a soldier from said 17th day of July to the 16th of October, as per memorial on file. Resolved, By this Assembly, that the sum of £25 be granted to said Timothy Reynolds to be paid out of the publick treasury of this Colony by the Treasurer of this Colony."

Mr. Charles[8] F. Reynolds, Treasurer of the Forum, 354 Fourth Ave., N. Y. City, writes the Editors, 1923: "We have a powder horn at home marked Timothy Runnolds, dated August 2nd, 1759. It was carved at Ft. Ticonderoga. I think this must have been my great great grandfather's."

We know Timothy was three times commissioned in the Militia of Connecticut: Ensign (Second Lieut.), Oct. 9, 1769; Lieutenant, Oct. 11, 1771, First Company, Trained Band Militia of Greenwich, Conn. - - Mr. Charles H. Reynolds, 124 St. Mark's Ave., Brooklyn, possesses the original 1771 commission - -; and Captain in the Revolution, April 26, 1775, commanding the same Company. Other old relics of his military days are in the possession of descendants in Iowa.



JONATHAN TRUMBULL, Esquire;
Captain-General and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Colony of Connecticut, in New-England.
To Timothy Pitkin Gent. Greeting.
YOU being by the General Assembly of this Colony, accepted to be Reposing special Trust and Confidence in your Loyalty, Courage and good Conduct, I do, by Virtue of the Letters Patent from the Crown of England to this Corporation, Me thereunto enabling, appoint and impower You to take the said into Your Care and Charge, as Their carefully and diligently to discharge that Trust; exercising your inferior Off in the Use of their Arms, according to the Disciplin War: Keeping them in good Order and Government, and command them to obey You as His Majesty's Service. And you are to observe all such Orders and Directions as from Time to Time You shall receive either from Me, or from other Your superior Officer, pursuant to the Trust hereby Reposed in You.
Given under My Hand and the Seal of this Colony, in the Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign
Day of in the Lord GEORGE the Third KING of GREAT-BRITAIN, &c. Annoque
Domini, 1771
By His Honor's Command,

"TIMOTHY'S Royal Commission, 1771, as First Lieutenant. (He is No. 204). He became Captain, 1775, against the King."

At Timothy's death all children were minors. Captain Timothy and Amy lived in Greenwich where their children were born. His early soldiering probably accounts for his rather late marriage. Mrs. Albert W. Close and Nelson U. Lockwood of Stamford have supplied most of the information.

451. Jeremiah, b. April 25, 1763. Was living in 1781. We know no more. Not in the Greenwich Census for 1790.

452. Tammy, b. March 2, 1765; d. before Oct. 2, 1781, when widow Amy was appointed guardian of the other children.

453. Elijah, b. Nov. 15, 1766; d. March 1, 1836; m. 1.—Mead. 2: Drusilla Lockwood.

454. Timothy S., b. Jany. 21, 1768; d. Feby. 7, 1816; m. Hannah Hoyt.

455. Amy, b. about 1770; d. 1788, unmarried. Stamford Probate Dec. 16, 1788, her brother Timothy administrator; distribution to brothers and sisters. "Late of Greenwich."

456. Jared, b. Sept. 1773; d. 1822; m. twice, which see.

457. Abel, b. March 29, 1775; d. April 5, 1854; m. Anna Mead.

458. Asa, twin, born Nov. 5, 1776. No more known.

459. Abigail, twin, born Nov. 5, 1776. No more known.

460. George, b. Feby. 13, 1779; d. May 12, 1862; m. Hannah Lockwood.

205. NATHANIEL REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; Ebenezer[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Sept. 7, 1745, Greenwich, Conn.; d. there June 6, 1822, in his 77th year; buried Reynolds plot in Stanwich. He m. twice, 1: Rebecca Mead, Jany. 23, 1772, possibly dau. of Capt. Caleb Mead, who mentioned her child in his will April 6, 1792; though the reference is more likely to the wife of Elijah[6] Reynolds. The reference spoke of her as "deceased." She probably died in 1777, for Nathaniel m. 2: Deborah Husted, April 2, 1778, b. Aug. 6, 1745 d. April 18, 1839, aet. 93, dau. Benj. & Sarah (Newman) Husted. Deborah joined the Stanwich Congregational Church Dec. 12, 1813. Our Nathaniel may have been he of the list of Stamford Freemen 1774 with a Nehemiah Reynolds. See p. 6 of the 1913 Reynolds Family Annual, in which a correspondent says that the "father of Zadoc Reynolds suffered from an arrow wound which caused him much inconvenience; that Zadoc was drowned in Lake Cayuga, N. Y." Nathaniel lived in Stanwich or Greenwich, N. Y. First three children by Rebecca; others by Deborah. Nathaniel's will proved July 6, 1822. Stamford. He was in Revolution: Sergeant, Capt. David Hait's co., Aug. 26, 1776, militia Ninth Regiment. Lieut., in Capt. Chas. Smith's Co., Ninth Regiment, Nov. 10, 1776, to Jany. 7, 1777. In the Census of 1790 he is apparently the Nathaniel, Jr., of Greenwich, 1 son over 16 at home, 3 under 16, wife and two daughters at home. His family mostly buried in the Reynolds Plot in Stanwich, Conn.

461. Nathaniel, b. Aug. 7, 1772; d. April 4, 1838; m. Elizabeth Banks.

462. Zadoc, b. Feby. 6, 1774; d. Aug. 25, 1805; m. Polly Reynolds, Nov. 23, 1797.

463. Rebecca, b. 1777, in which year her mother died; was m. and had children by 1837; then living.

464. Benjamin, b. Feby. 23, 1779; d. July 7, 1810, aet. 31-4-12, killed by kick of a horse. His Uncle Benjamin was killed in the Revolution.

465. Ard, b. March 20, 1781; d. April 26, 1857; m. Ann Eliza Doell.

466. Heusted, b. July 23, 1782; d. Jany. 5, 1837, Windsor, Bertie Co., N. C.; buried May 8, 1837, from Christ Church, Greenwich; buried Reynolds Plot in Stanwich. He was a lawyer; not married. Will dated Jany. 5, 1837, probated in N. Y. City, Book 64; 482, 472 n.s., in 1837; mentions "formerly of Greenwich but now of Windsor, N. C."; gifts to Brothers Ard, Nathaniel's children, Zadoc's children, sister Harriet, sister Rebecca's children. His mother survived him. Gifts to friends in Windsor, N. C.

467. Harriet, b. Jany. 30, 1785; d. April 23, 1857; unmarried.

468. Sarah (Sally), b. Feby. 13, 1787; d. Jany. 3, 1805; aet. 17-10-21.

206. EZEKIEL REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; Ebenezer[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Oct. 13, 1747; d. Nov. 24, 1833, buried Stanwich, Conn., aet. 86-1 mo. He m. Mary Mead, July 4, 1770. Mary was b. Aug. 5, 1750, d. Sept. 18, 1818, aged 69, dau. Capt. Caleb & Hannah (Rundle) Mead, p. 280 of Mead Genealogy. In the Census of 1790 Ezekiel is given in Greenwich with one son over 16, one under 16, 3 daus., and wife. Mary's sister Rebecca Mead m. Ezekiel's brother Nathaniel Reynolds whose record is given herein. Ezekiel was private in Captain David Haight's Co. of Stanwich, Conn., 1776, Revolutionary War. He is No. 97, p. 67 of the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual. Unfortunately the names of Ezekiel's sons have not come down to us. The family is buried in the Union Cemetery of Stanwich-Greenwich.

469. Mary, b. Sept. 28, 1772; d. March 27, 1851 (aet. 78-5-26); m. Tompkins[5] Close, Dec. 28, 1794, son of Odell & Bethia[5] (Reynolds) Close, and had ten children: Ezekiel Reynolds, b. Oct., 1795; Gilbert, b. Oct., 1797; Odel, b. Aug., 1799; Phebe Maria, b. June 12, 1801, d. March 3, 1848, aged 46-8-20, m. Platt Brush; Louisa, b. Oct., 1803; Tompkins, b. Oct., 1805, m. Sally D. Reynolds (See Nos. 465,928, 585, 254 herein), who was b. April 13, 1814, d. Jany. 20, 1882; Abigail, b. Dec., 1807; Nancy, b. Nov., 1809; Zechariah, b. Jany., 1812 (he was the father of Mary Olivia Close, now Mrs. F. C. Potter, of Middletown, Conn., who supplies this Close information); Mary Amanda, b. March, 1815. See further under 585 herein.

470. Abigail, b. Nov. 13, 1774; d. June 6, 1861; m. Reuben Finch, Oct. 5, 1794. Had various children. Buried above cemetery.

471. Phoebe, b. Feby. 26, or 28, 1777; d. Sept. 21, 1855; m. Ezekiel[6] Reynolds, son of James[5] & Sarah (Lockwood) Reynolds of So. Salem, N. Y., whose record herein see No. 479.

207. ABIGAIL REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; Ebenezer[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 29 (or Dec. 11), 1749; d. May 27, 1839, there; buried Union Cemetery, Greenwich, with husband. She m. Nathaniel Ingersoll, May 21, 1778, at Greenwich; b. there April 14, 1754; d. there Nov. 16, 1834, son of Simon & Anne (Palmer) Ingersoll. They attended the Congregational Church, and always lived in Greenwich or Stanwich, Conn.

Ingersoll Children:

472. Hannah, b. Oct. 15, 1779; d. May 2, 1787, in childhood.

473. Abigail, b. May 8, 1781; d. April 7, 1876; m. 1: Captain Horton[6] Reynolds, whose record herein see. 2: Dr. Shadrach Mead.

474. Nathaniel, b. Feby. 19, 1783; d. April 16, 1824; m. Abigail Webber, who was b. Jany. 14, 1786; d. June 15, 1830.

475. Rebecca, b. April 26, 1785; d. Feby. 21, 1850, unm., act. 74-9-24.

476. Joseph, b. July 3, 1787; d. Dec. 12, 1862; m. 1: Mary Hobby, who d. 1822. 2: Mrs. Rachel (Halsey) Brown.

211. JAMES REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; Ebenezer[3] Jonathan[2]; John[1]). He was b. May 8, 1759, Greenwich, Conn.; d. March 2, 1833, Somers, Westchester Co., N. Y.; buried Mt. Zion Cemetery, Somers. He m. Miss Abigail Knapp, Oct. 18, 1786; who was b. Oct. 10, 1765; d. Nov. 3, 1831, Somers, N. Y.

The fine old house on the Seven Maples Farm, Cross River, Westchester Co., N. Y., now owned by Miss Amelia[8] Todd, daughter Cyrus L. & Elizabeth (Reynolds) Todd, was built by James. His fifteen children were born in it. Miss Todd has kept its remarkable antiquarian treasures intact and unspoiled, though many collectors have besieged her to sell various items from the old home. It is about two miles from the Cross River cemetery on the road to North Salem. James sold this farm to one of the Todds, Oct. 16, 1811, and removed to Somerstown, not many miles away, where he bought another place. He and Abigail attended the former Church of Christ, Salem, N. Y., where she was baptized July 4, 1790, and the children were baptized at various times from 1790 to 1810,—as in the records of that church printed in the N. Y. Geneal. & Biog. Record, xxxiii: 38-39, etc. That church recorded the death of "Abigail, wife of James Reynolds, March 24, 1810," which has rather puzzled the Editors; they have come to the conclusion it referred to another "Jeams" in that district. The old family Bible, containing the birth and death records of this family is in possession of Newman[8] Lounsberry Reynolds of Mahopac Falls, N. Y.; the Bible dates are given below. In the Census of 1790, James is listed in Salem with 4 sons under 16, wife and daughter.

James was in the Revolution - - see No. 181, p. 77, 1916 Reynolds Family Annual: In Captain David Hait's Co. of Stanwich, Conn., enlisted 1776. Under Charles Smith, Lieut. commanding militia at Greenwich, Conn. His brothers - - Sergeant Nathaniel and Ezekiel private—were in the same company. The children of James and Abigail were

II. Descendants of John[2].

237. HEPZIBAH REYNOLDS: (James[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) See Reuben[5] Reynolds, No. 191, herein.

239. JUSTUS REYNOLDS: (James[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., April 2, 1748 d. and buried Amenia City, Smithfield, Dutchess Co., N. Y. He is thought to be the Revolutionary Soldier, p. 79, 1916 Reynolds Family Annual, from Conn. Corporal, Capt. Samuel Mattock's Co., Col. John Chandler's 8th Conn. Line Regt. Enlisted, May 5, 1777, for duration of War. Appointed Corporal May 5, 1780. May be the Justus from Woodbury of Capt. N. Chapman's Co., Col. Moseley's Regt. reported May 1, 1778. Probably married and had children, but of him we know no more.

240. WILLIAM REYNOLDS: (James[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Jany. 18, 1751; d. Nov. 24, 1813; m. Rhoda ——— ; buried Amenia City (Smithfield) Dutchess Co., N. Y.. He lived in Smithfield, Dutchess Co., N. Y.

525. Justus, b. 1778; d. 1793, aged 15, at Amenia, N. Y.

526. Probably other children.

243. NATHANIEL REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Dec. 8, 1729; d. 1805, Cross River, N. Y.; m. Sarah (Ferris?), 1753. Her maiden family name is suggested by the name given her fourth son below. Nathaniel removed from Greenwich to Cross River, Westchester Co., N. Y. Letters of administration given his son, Dec. 23, 1805, describe Nathaniel as lately a resident of Salem, N. Y. In the 1790 Census for Salem, he is given 1 son over 16, 1 under 16, 4 females. Other children probably listed as heads of their own families. He lived as a farmer in Cross River, N. Y., and his old house was near that of George[8] W. Reynolds of Cross River (1923). It was built by him in 1766. He may have been in the Revolution. See Reynolds Family Annual, 1916, pp. 93-95. His son Nathaniel, Jr., was a Lieutenant in the Revolution. See picture of his house p. 108.

528. Nathaniel, b. Feby. 22, 1754; d. Sept. 21, 1843; m. Mrs. Hannah (Todd) Cooley.

529. Jared, b. Lower Salem, N. Y.; m. Huldah Cross, March 3, 1789, Church of Christ, Salem, N. Y. In Census of 1790 a Jared in Salem with wife and small son. We do not know that he was in the Revolution.

530. Benjamin; m. Abigail Murphy, May 15, 1782, Church of Christ, Salem. In the 1790 Census he may be the Benjamin of Bedford, N. Y., two females, 1 son under 16. He was in the N. Y. Troops in the Revolution, Capt. Lawrence's Co., Col. Drake's Regiment. "Right arm fractured by a musket ball, Oct. 26, 1781. Farmer, Lower Salem, Westchester Co."

531. Ferris, m. Lydia Avery, Sept. 7, 1786, Church of Christ, Salem. In the Buxton Cemetery, Bedford, N. Y. there is the headstone of a Ferris Reynolds, b. 1762-1766, d. March 8, 1838, aet. 72/76. His wife was Lavina b. 1762, d. Feby. 25, 1846, in her 84th year. We find no Ferris in the 1790 Census. The Lewis Reynolds buried in that cemetery may be their child. He was b. 1795; d. Aug. 8, 1871, aet. 76. Had wife Sarah b. Oct. 6, 1797, who d. Feby. 15, 1861, aged 63-4-9.

532. Ezra, m. Sarah Bush, June 6, 1780, Church of Christ, Salem, N. Y. Revolutionary Soldier, Private in Captain Seeley's Co., Col. Drake's Regiment; also possibly in Captain Delevan's Company of Dragoons. An Ezra Reynolds, tailor, came to N. Y. City about 1800, and died there 1824, when his son Justus was appointed his administrator. He had also a son Sands. Further investigation might identify these two Ezras as one man. Sarah Bush was perhaps daughter of Justus Bush of Greenwich and Amenia.

533. Samantha, m. A. Bigelow, Oct. 15, 1778.

534. Daughter, who m. a Mead.

535. Daughter, not married, "who lived with her brother and walked to Long Island with her brother's wife." See the story under Nathaniel, No. 528 herein following.

244. FRANCIS REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2] John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., July 8, 1731. Nothing is known of his descendants: there was a Francis of Crum Elbow (in Westchester Co., between Yorktown and Peekskill) at this time. 1790 Census gives a Francis in Washington, Dutchess Co. "son under 16; 1 female." At the same place, same date, there is given a "John Reynolds, son of Francis," who had a family of three sons over 16, and three females, of which one was probably his wife. No more known.

245. RUTH REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1733; m. (Joseph?) Merritt, and in 1760 was living on the property at Clap-board-tree Ridge given her by her grandfather James. See note under her sister Anna. In the Quaker Ridge Cemetery, Scarsdale, N. Y., Ruth Merritt, wife of Joseph Merritt, is buried. She d. Jany. 2, 1822, in her 85th year, wife of Joseph Merritt, who was b. June 3, 1737, - - Eardeley says Ruth Sniffen, but I doubt it. There was a Joseph Merritt in Nine Partners in this century. See notes under Nehemiah[5], No. 183, preceding this, regarding Merritt.

246. SOLOMON REYNOLDS (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1735. Nothing known of his descendants. There were Solomons at this time in Poundridge, Westch. Co.; Crum Elbow, N. W. of Peekskill, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; and Woodbury, Conn. 1790 Census gives one at Southbury, Conn., son under 16; 3 females. Also, Canaan (Chatham) Columb. Co., N. Y., 2 sons over 16; 1 female. Also Northeast Town, Dutchess Co., N. Y., 2 sons under 16; 3 females. Also, Frederickstown, Dutchess Co., 3 sons under 16, 3 females. Also, Saratoga, N. Y., self and one female.

As his brother Stephen Reynolds was in 1762 of "Woodbury, County Litchfield, Conn.," it is possible that the Solomon there at that time was our Solomon; see note under Stephen. At Southbury, Conn., Sept. 4, 1754, a Solomon m. Mary Wildman. But in that same area were many descendants of the Wethersfield Reynoldses, of whom the progenitors were John and Naomi (Latimer) Reynolds, apparently not identified with our Greenwich Family.

247. ANNA REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1737. She m. Samuel Palmer. In a deed recorded at Greenwich, dated Feby. 25, 1760 (Vol. 8): "Samuel Palmer and Anna Palmer his wife of Greenwich sells to David Knapp 2 acres in said Greenwich which was given to the said Anna by her honored grandfather James Reynolds, formerly of said Greenwich, but now of Dutchess in the province of New York, a lot on Clap-board-tree-ridge, bounded east by our sister Merritts, west by our sister Hannah Fiske." We have the name of only one child below. Their descendants lived in Upper Westchester County, N. Y.

Palmer Children:

541. Nathaniel, b. July 19, 1769; d. Jany. 11, 1826; m. Rachel Marshall and had at least three children.

248. STEPHEN REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Dec. 1, 1740, Greenwich, Conn.; d. Aug. 17, 1815, Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., buried Smithfield Cemetery there. His will is recorded in Poughkeepsie. m. Rachel Denton, Amenia, N. Y., Feby. 1, 1763; who was born April 2, 1742, o. s. at Farmington, Conn.; d. Albany, N. Y., Nov. 10, 1815, while on her way to visit her son Stephen, at Minaville, N. Y., and was buried in one of the church burial grounds in Albany. In 1856 her remains were transferred to the Reynolds plot in the Albany Rural cemetery. Her father was Benjamin Denton, of Foster's Meadows, Wallingford, Conn., also of Farmington, Conn., and Amenia, N. Y.; married at Farmington, Dec. 1, 1724, Rachel Wheeler, of Hartford, Conn. He was the son of Richard Denton, of Jamaica, L. I., the son of Richard Denton, of Halifax, England (born 1586), a clergyman, a graduate of Cambridge University, 1623; who came to America in 1635 and settled in Watertown, Mass. He led those colonists—among them Robert Reynolds, of Boston—who founded the settlement at Wethersfield and subsequently removed to Stamford with the first settlers. Cotton Mather eulogizes him in his Magnalia. He removed to Hempstead, Long Island, then returned to England and died there.

In a deed recorded at Greenwich, vol. ix; p. 52, Feb. 2, 1762. Stephen described himself as of "Woodbury, county Litchfield," and sells to Jonathan Fiske his share of his father Nathaniel's estate, and of his grandfather's, James Reynolds, of Dutchess County, N. Y. The fact that he removed to Woodbury, Ct., as soon as he had reached his majority, coupled with the fact that there was a Solomon there residing, makes the identification of the latter with Solomon, son of Nathaniel, more than probable. The Woodbury family of Reynolds are attributed without apparent authority to John of Wethersfield. (All of the data from from the time that Stephen left Woodbury are derived from family records).

Stephen removed to Amenia City, Dutchess Co., prior to 1763, where his uncle James lived, and where his grandfather James died. He erected in 1764 a residence on the old Albany post road and about a half mile to the north of the Amenia City (Smithfield) Church. This contained three rooms of the entire width of the house, with kitchens and dependencies behind. It was of frame, and a story and a half high; torn down in 1877.

He is probably the Revolutionary Soldier on page 102 (No. 397) of the 1916 Reynolds Fam. Annual;

"Stephen Reynolds: (N. Y.) Private, Capt. Chamberlain's Co., Col. Lewis Dubois (5th) N. Y. Regt. (See also Shubal Reynolds). A Stephen Reynolds was private, in Capt. Shepard's Co., Col. Wessenfels' Regt."

There is no record of any other Stephen of an age which would have made it possible for him to take part in this war. Burial of this family in the Smithfield, Amenia City, Cemetery.

Stephen and Rachel had the following eight children, b. in Amenia:

*544. Stephen, b. Sept. 1, 1765; d. July 8, 1833; m. Lydia Bartlett, 1787.

545. Rachel, b. Feby. 1, 1767; d. June 2, 1785, unmarried, aet. 19.

546. Chloe, b. Dec. 5, 1768; d. June 18, 1789, unmarried, aet. 21.

*547. Israel, b. Oct. 31, 1772; d. March 28, 1824; m. Deborah Dorr, 1798.

*548. Phebe, b. May 12, 1778; d. March 18, 1841; m. Abraham B. Pugsley.

549. Elizabeth, b. Sept. 14, 1782; d. Pine Plains, Apr. 10, 1844, unmarried.

550. Rachel, b. Oct. 14, 1785; d. Pine Plains, March 24, 1861, unmarried.

551. Samantha, b. May 27, 1788; d. Amenia City, Sept. 27, 1822, unmarried, aet. 35.

249. HANNAH REYNOLDS: (Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn.; m. Jonathan Fiske, Jr., July 21, 1762, whose father Jonathan Fiske, Sr., had married her widowed mother, Ruth (Purdy) Reynolds, widow of Nathaniel. Hannah's descendants reside in Saratoga Co., and at Troy, N. Y. See note under her sister Anna. They lived in Greenwich, Conn.

250. GIDEON REYNOLDS: (Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1732; d. March-April 1772; will dated Feby. 18, 1772, probated May 5, 1772, at Stamford, Conn., widow surviving him. He m. Miss Hannah Todd, dau. of Rev. Abraham & Hannah (Dickerman) Todd of Greenwich. See Todd Genealogy, 1920, pp. 47-49, by Geo. Ira Todd of Northampton, Mass. Rev. Abraham Todd, Yale, 1727, was minister of the West Society Congreg. Church, 1732-1773, Greenwich, Conn. Abraham died July 21, 1777. His wife was the dau. of Abraham & Elizabeth (Glover) Dickerman and was b. May 19, 1709. Hannah (Todd) Reynolds was b. Nov. 18, 1741. See Mead Genealogy, p. 56. It was this Gideon who sued John Mead, May 12, 1763, but lost the suit. He with others also sued Jonas Mead Oct. 11, 1764. This Gideon died three years after his father, Gideon, Sr. The will mentions all of the following children and his wife. They lived in Greenwich, Conn.

555. Hannah, b. 1758; m. Shubal Rundle, Feby. 8, 1776, in Greenwich. May 3, 1774, Hannah chose her Uncle Ambrose[5] Reynolds her guardian.

556. Tamar, b. 1760; d. Dec. 12, 1822; m. Thomas Peck, as his second wife, Nov. 14, 1787. See page 42 of Peck Genealogy by Darius Peck, 1877. Thomas was b. July 4, 1761. They settled in Poundridge, Westchester Co., N. Y., and had six children: Thomas, b. Oct. 28, 1795; m. Jane Bishop. Rufus, b. Jany. 8, 1805. Ezra Reynolds, b. Jany. 8, 1807; m. Catherine Hobby, dates dubious. Delilah, b. July 5, 1810; m. Samuel Hobby.

557. Gideon, b. 1763; d. 1792, unmarried, leaving will made Nov. 21, 1791, proved at Stamford Feby. 7, 1792, "of Greenwich," devising his estate to his two brothers, below. Uncle Ambrose, executor.

558. Oliver, b. about 1765, was of Northcastle, N. Y., 1790, Census mentions himself and wife, perhaps just married, hence no children.

*559. Abraham, b. Sept. 26, 1772; d. Dec. 2, 1858; m. Anna Mead.

251. SERGEANT HORTON REYNOLDS: (Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1734; d. there 1797, "second son" of Gideon, who so mentions him. He m. Lydia Knapp, before Oct. 28, 1762, when her father mentioned her in his will as Lydia Reynolds. She is also named in will of Sarah, widow of Capt. Jabez Mead, as "my niece, June 28, 1786. She was dau. Caleb & Clemence (Mills) Knapp. She survived Horton, for his will dated Aug. 23, 1796, proved May 2, 1797, mentions her. His brother Ambrose executor. He joined the Congregational Church, Greenwich, June 8, 1774; also he and wife on church records again Oct. 18, 1786.

He was in the Revolution: "Corporal, Capt. Joseph Hobby's Co. of the Ninth Conn. Militia under General Wooster, 1776-7. Discharged Jany. 11, 1777. In November 1776 this Regiment, having just returned from New York, was ordered to the Westchester border, after the Battle of White Plains." Horton became a sergeant and "was wounded in the Battle of White Plains." In the Census of 1790, he is given as of Greenwich, 1 son over 16; 2 under 16; wife and 3 daughters. His home was always in Greenwich. He was also in the French and Indian War, 1757, from Fairfield Co., Conn.

560. Lydia, b. about 1761; d. Oct. 5, 1850; m. Dr. Elisha Belcher, 1781.

561. Charity, b. 1765; d. Aug. 3, 1806; m. Benoni Platt, Jr. Lived Westchester Co. in 1796.

562. Bethia, m. Nathaniel Sackett, Feby. 19, 1789. Mentioned in her brother's will.

563. Anna, b. March 1772; d. Jany. 6, 1852; m. David Hobby, Jr., Feby. 25, 1790.

564. Rachel, b. about 1775; m. Zalmon Sanford, Apr. 24, 1793, Second Cong. Church.

565. Mary (Polly), b. March 31, 1777; d. May 23, 1864, aet. 87-2-23; m. 1: Caleb Purdy, July 24, 1793. He d. before 1796. 2: Stephen Waring, Nov. 19, 1797.

566. Ruth, b. about 1778; m. Ebenezer Knapp, Jr., Dec. 24, 1795.

579. Sarah, m. Ames, before 1809.

580. Mary m. Hobby before 1809.

*581. Gideon, b. 1783; d. July 14, 1847; m. 1: Betsey Reynolds. 2: Theodosia Smith. 3: Mrs. Hannah Smith.

582. Joseph H., b. after 1790. He and Gideon received the Bedford land above mentioned. We know no more of him.

254. BETHIA REYNOLDS: (Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., March 31, 1742; d. Feby. 17, 1832, aged 89-11-17; buried Husted Plot, Clapboard Ridge. She m. Odell Close, prior to 1765, Greenwich. He died April 26, 1812, in his 75th year. Note that two of their children married back into the Reynolds family. They lived in Greenwich or Stanwich, Conn., where were born:

Close Children:

584. Mary, b. April 15, 1770; d. May 6, 1848, aged 78 years 20 days; m. Solomon Lockwood. She is buried Williams neighborhood cemetery, Bedford, N. Y.

585. Tompkins, b. May 11, 1772; d. Feby. 18, 1855, aged 82-9-7, buried Stanwich; m. Mary[6] Reynolds, Dec. 28, 1794, dau. Ezekiel & Mary (Mead) Reynolds whose record herein see, No. 206. They had ten children. A granddaughter of Thompkins and Mary is Mrs. F. C. Potter of Middletown, Conn., an authority on this family. See 469 herein.

586. Eunice, b. Aug. 12, 1774; d. Feby. 14, 1821; m. Amos Husted. When she died he m. 2nd, Sarah[6] Reynolds, dau. of Ambrose & Mary Reynolds and cousin to Eunice. See Nos. 259, 590 just following.

587. Nancy, b. March 17, 1781; d. May 10, 1852; m. Elnathan Husted, b. Jany. 16, 1775; d. Feby. 1, 1825.

255. GILBERT REYNOLDS: (Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1740; date of death unknown to us. He was a Private in the Revolutionary War, Capt. Ebenezer Schofield's Co., Col. Thaddeus Crane's Westchester Regiment. Also, in same company and regiment, he became First Lieutenant, Feby. 17, 1780. See 1916 Reynolds Family Annual, p. 72. A Gilbert and Ezra Reynolds were of Westchester County, 1783, made administrators of will of Captain John Bush (husband of Clemence Bush), in lieu of Anna Bush. In the Census of 1790, Gilbert was in Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., having one son over 16, wife, and a negro slave. Perhaps the William and Jonathan of Salem, N. Y., were his brothers.

We know nothing of his marriage, but a Gilbert Rundels, "b. in New England," m. at Poughkeepsie, Dec. 5, 1753, Johanna Lewis, b. in Poughkeepsie, "both residents of Nine Partners, Dutchess Co." Dutch Church, Poughkeepsie. We do not know his wife's name or name of more than one child. Last minute information is that Gilbert, Sr., m. Anna Bush(?).

*588. Gilbert, b. Salem, N. Y., April 2, 1771; d. Coeymans, N. Y., June 17, 1807; m. Fanny Todd, Sept. 14, 1791, and removed to Coeymans, Greene Co., N. Y.

259. AMBROSE REYNOLDS: (Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 1751; d. Dec. 24, 1830, aet. "79-4," Greenwich; buried Second Congregational Church Cemetery, Greenwich. m. Miss Mary Knapp, of Greenwich, who was b. Nov. 6, 1756; d. March 2, 1840, aet. "83-4," dau. Joshua & Eunice (Peck) Knapp. Ambrose was in the Revolution: "Private, Capt. Abraham Mead's Co., Col. John Mead's 9th Regt. of Militia on command at the Saw Pits under Genl. Wooster, Nov. 1, 1776, to Jany. 11, 1777; also, same company, "on an expedition to New York and in Continental Service, August, 1776." Discharged Sept. 6, 1776." A Joseph Reynolds was in same Company same occasions. In 1790 Census of Greenwich was an Ambrose: 2 sons under 16; 2 females (of wh. one was probably his wife). It is said that among his children were three pairs of twins, but we give otherwise the only dates that we have been able to get. He was a farmer, lived on the Cross road from North Street to Lake Ave., Greenwich. The chimney of his old house on south (west?) side of road is all that now (1923) remains. His descendants still live in Greenwich, Conn. Belonged to Second Congregational Church, Greenwich. When the family was baptized Sept. 20, 1803, all the children below were living.

590. Sarah, b. 1787; d. Oct. 26, 1847, aet. 60; m. as his second wife, Amos Husted after Feby. 14, 1821, son of Peter & Eunice (Lyon) Husted, b. Dec. 2, 1769, d. Sept. 8, 1843. Amos m. 1st: Eunice Close, b. Aug. 12, 1774; d. Feby. 14, 1821, dau. Odle & Bethiah[5] (Reynolds) Close. See Bethiah's record herein, see Nos. 254, 586.

591. Ambrose, b. March 31, 1789; d. Nov. 16, 1843; m. Amy[5] M. Reynolds.

592. Joshua, b. July 29, 1793; d. Sept. 29, 1866; m. Rachel[5] Reynolds.

593. Gideon, b. 1794, some say he was Joshua's twin; d. Rye, N. Y.; m. 1: Betsey Fountain. 2: Mrs. Emeline (Mead) Canfield.

594. Mary, born in 1796; died unmarried, Greenwich, Conn.

595. Bethia, b. 1797; d. Dec. 30, 1872, aet. 75, Greenwich, unmarried. Buried Second Congregational Churchyard.

596. Jared, b. Sept. 17, 1798; d. Jany. 31, 1880; m. Julia Rundle.

597. Benjamin, b. April 1800; d. June 1899; m. Lucinda Mead, 1842.

598. Eunice, died in Greenwich, Conn.; unmarried.

261. SACKETT REYNOLDS: (Justus[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., March 3, 1738; m. Mary Jones, "dau. Mr. Benj. Jones," Nov. 21, 1760, at First Congreg. Church, Greenwich. Sackett's name does not figure in the 1790 Census of Conn. or N. Y. He was in the French and Indian War, 1755, Capt. Thomas Hobby's Co. from Greenwich; private, Capt. David Waterbury's Co. of Stamford, 1756. I do not find him on the Revolutionary Rolls. He lived Greenwich, Conn.

601. Justus, b. July 26, 1761; d. before 1842; m. 1: Elizabeth Hobbs, March 18, 1789. 2: Phebe Norton, Nov. 17, 1802.

602. Mary, b. Feby. 1, 1763.

603. Elizabeth, b. April 11, 1765.

604. Hannah, b. July 26, 1767.

605. Benjamin, b. April 10, 1770.

272. LIEUT. JONATHAN REYNOLDS: (Hezekiah[4]; Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Oct. 1, 1740 (o. s.), at Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; d. Whitehall, Wash. Co., N. Y., Sept. 14, 1840, aged 99-11-14; buried Evergreen Cemetery, Center Rutland, Vt. The inscription at his grave gives the above date of death and exact age and also:

LIEUTENANT JONATHAN REYNOLDS

A soldier of the Revolution, a worthy citizen, an exemplary Christian, he lived respected and died regretted, full of years and full of honors.

He died intestate; letters of administration recorded as Salem, Washington Co., N. Y., were issued to his son Nicholas on March 9, 1841. Administration papers describe Jonathan as resident of Town of Whitehall, N. Y., at his death, and mention son Nicholas; daughter Sarah, widow of Amos Hewitt, deceased, residing in State of Michigan; son Morrison Reynolds of Rutland; daughter Rebecca, widow of Exi (the first name is illegible) Chatterton, deceased, of Rutland, Vt.; Henry M. Reynolds of Auburn, N. Y., his children and heirs-at-law him surviving, and the following grandchildren: Electa Reynolds of Shrewsbury (Salisbury?), Vt., and Eli Reynolds of Illinois, children of James Reynolds, deceased.

In the History of Rutland, pub. about 1883, we read:

"Jonathan Reynolds came to the Town at an early day and for £300 purchased 275 acres of land of James Mead in the Otter Creek Valley, the farm or a portion of it being now known as the J. and Grafton Griggs Farm—or Jones Griggs Place. (NOTE: This is between Proctor and Center Rutland, property now—1924—owned by the Vermont Marble Co.) Mr. Reynolds was a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary Army and was known as a great hunter and trapper. He died in 1840, when he was one hundred years old lacking sixteen days.

"In the old North Cemetery a stone bears the record of the death of 'Joshua Reynolds who died in 1818 at the age of 75 years.' According to the Vermont Historical Magazine he lived at the North or (Merriam) Mills. There was a large number of descendants who lived on the road from West Rutland to Sutherland Falls. Morris and Bradley Reynolds live in that vicinity.

Another record states that Jonathan was a free-holder of Rutland in 1780, though he declared in 1832 in pension application that he had lived there from the winter of 1784. Many records touching his children and descendants are published in the 1923 Reynolds Family Annual, pages 41-48.

He was probably the Jonathan Reynolds, inn-holder of Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., at whose house were held the meetings (1762-63) of the proprietors† who obtained from Governor Wentworth of New Hampshire a charter for the town of Danby, Vermont, which was settled in the summer of 1765. When Jonathan first enlisted in the Revolution, 1775, he was living in Spencertown, Columbia Co., N. Y., according to his statement in application for pension in 1832. He also stated that from 1784-1832 he had lived in Rutland. By 1837 he was living in Whitehall, Washington Co., N. Y., and d. there in 1840. Little was known of his history until Mr. Marcus T. Reynolds of Albany made a special investigation while this Book was on the press.

Jonathan served in every year of the American Revolution, but not all of any one year. The U. S. Bureau of Pensions reports:

"JONATHAN REYNOLDS, living at Spencertown, Albany Co., N. Y., at time of enlistment, was b. Oct. 1, 1741, o.s., (sic) at Nine Partners, N. Y. Enlisted 1775 to 1778, served short terms every year as Sergeant in Captains Brown and Barrett's Companies under Col. Peter Van Ness, N. Y. State Militia, and from † NEHEMIAH REYNOLDS and EPHRAIM REYNOLDS were among the 68 inhabitants of Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., who in 1760 petitioned Benning Wentworth, Governor of N. H., for a charter of two Townships, each six miles square. This was granted Aug. 27, 1761. On Sept. 22, 1761, fifty-nine settlers took up the charter for the founding of Danby, Vt., in the extreme southern part of Rutland County.

Grants by New Hampshire of land now comprising the State of Vermont, were not recognized by New York. New York in 1772 set off from Albany County, a county called Charlotte with the county seat at Skenesborough (now Whitehall). It was not until 1777 that Vermont declared its independence and continued as a separate republic, until on March 4, 1791, it was admitted to the Union. In consequence of the above, much confusion has arisen, as persons living in southwestern Vermont were also identified as being of Albany County, Charlotte County, N. Y., or New Hampshire.

The first annual meeting of the proprietors of the new Danby settlement was held "at the house of JONATHAN REYNOLDS, inn-holder" at Nine Partners, on the second Tuesday of March, 1762, and continued to be held there until the spring of 1763. In the autumn of 1763, or the spring of '64 a road was laid out from Bennington to Danby and in the summer of 1765 the first settlement took place by five men: Joseph Soper, Joseph Earl, Crispin Bull, Luther Colvin and Micah Vail.

John Reynold's grant of land: The identity of this John has not been established. He could possibly be No. 118 in this Book, whose son Joshua lived in Rutland, Vermont, from before 1790. That John was cousin to the Jonathan we are discussing. The Calendar of Land Papers of N. Y. State, Vol. xx, p. 80, records the grant to "John Ranolds" and seven other late privates in the 42nd regiment, of 8,000 acres "in the County of Albany," located on both sides of Otter Creek, Vermont. This was in 1765. Otter Creek emptied into Lake Champlain opposite and well above Crown Point; it is a long stream and flows through Rutland, near where Joshua (No. 278 herein) son of a JOHN REYNOLDS settled, perhaps on his father's land. Otter Creek in 1772 was set off from Albany Co., N. Y., with Skenesborough (now Whitehall) as the county seat. The Forty-Second Highlanders were the famous "Black Watch" which marched across the wilderness (Ohio, Indiana and Illinois) to take over the Mississippi River posts, ceded by the French in 1763.

There was no Reynolds in Danby when it was "organized" in 1769, nor does the name appear in the list of inhabitants in 1778. The majority of the Nine Partners grantees did not emigrate to Danby, but sold out at a profit to speculators and adventurers. It is probably more than a coincidence that 1765 marks the beginning of the emigration from Nine Partners, N. Y., to Danby in Rutland Co. where JONATHAN REYNOLDS settled and the grant of land to the soldier John Reynolds of the "Black Watch." This John might also be No. 149, fifth generation herein; though less likely than No. 118, fourth generation. Mr. Frederick W. Payne of Hartford, Conn., some years ago published in the Boston Evening Transcript an excellent account of the Nine Partners migration. Nine Partners is now Mechanicsville.

Mr. C. E. Holden, an authority on Whitehall history, believes that there was a still earlier settlement by Reynoldses (possibly John of the Back Watch) who was the father of some of the unidentified Reynoldses of Whitehall given among miscellaneous matter at the close of this Book. Note that Caleb, Joshua and Benjamin signed a petition together in 1766. The Documentary History of New York, Volume IV, deals with the settlement of Vermont and the persecution of the early settlers by Ethan Allen. Boundary feeling ran so high that to many people in the disputed tract New York gave some lots of land out in Chenango County and paid their expenses of removal, making use of the $30,000 indemnity paid New York by Vermont when Vermont was taken into the Union.

March 5, 1779, to end of War, as Second Lieutenant, under Bartholemess Barret. Col. Peter Van Ness took part in the 'taking of Johnstown and capture of Burgoyne.'

"Applied for pension July 7, 1832, and claim allowed.

"Residence at date of application, Rutland, Vt., from winter of 1784. . . . In 1837 he resided at Whitehall, N. Y. . . . Soldier d. Sept. 14 or 16, 1840, leaving children. Son Jacob of Rutland, Vt., aged 79 years in 1856 is only child named."

Further record indicates that Jacob tried to collect pension due his father and that Jonathan's wife Rebecca presumably died in Rutland and Jonathan in Whitehall. The Revolutionary records, Nos. 247 (p. 85) and 301 (p. 91), in the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual probably relate to this Jonathan. In the 1790 U. S. Census of Rutland; Jonathan's family is described "himself and 2 males over 16; 4 males under 16; three females." JOSHUA REYNOLDS, presumed to be his second cousin (See No. 278 herein following), was also given as of Rutland, "himself, 2 males over 16; 4 males under 16; 4 females."

The Adjutant-General of Vermont reports the following:

"Jonathan Reynolds served as Sergeant in Captain Eli Noble's Co., Col. Herrick's Regiment of Militia in the service of Vermont, commencing the 11th day of October, 1780. He also served in Captain Joshua Hazen's Co., Col. Wood's regiment that marched to Brookfield on the alarm of Oct. 1780, period of service 3 days. In Captain Noble's Co. 12 days." (See p. 91, 1916 R. F. A. Annual.)

Jonathan's daughter Patty (Mrs. John Eliot), when an old lady related to her grandchildren that Jonathan was an officer in the Revolution, and that she remembered the Hessians and red-coats marching by, and that Jonathan had negro slaves. She told that one of the slaves once stole Jonathan's gay Revolutionary uniform and was caught wearing it. The negro was stripped of the uniform, tied to his master's horse and was led home.

In 1760 in Quaker meeting at Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., there was a Jonathan Reynolds mentioned with Micah Palmer and Zebulon Mead. He might have been the Jonathan Reynolds, private, French and Indian War, 1761-62.

Of Jonathan's wife, we know only that her name was Rebekah and that she was b. 1740. Her tombstone in Evergreen Cemetery, Center Rutland, reads: "Rebekah, wife of Lieut. Jonathan Reynolds, died Jany. 17, 1830, aged 90." Their children were:

607. PATTY (Martha?), b. about 1766; d. Delmar, Penna, 1854; m. 1: John Eliot. 2: Charles Pardie about 1831. Three Eliot children: Silas. John of Hannibal, N. Y. Zada, b. 1791; d. 1831, m. at 14 to Silas Crandall and had Smith m. Mary Walker; and Emerancy.

608. JAMES, lived in Salisbury, Vt., but d. before 1841; m. Cynthia Strong of Rutland, there, March 5, 1798. Children: Alva, b. Jany. 1, 1804. George W., b. Dec. 31, 1805. Electa b. Feby. 17, 1808, was of Salisbury and unmarried in 1841. Eli S., b. Dec. 3, 1809, was of Berwyn, Ill. (See p. 28, 1922 R. F. Annual), in 1841. Enos Strong, b. Feby. 3, 1812.

609. SARAH, was widow of Amos Hewitt and resident of Michigan in 1841, when her father's estate was administered.

610. NICHOLAS, m. Patty Norton of Weathersfield, Vt., Dec. 31, 1801. Was Administrator of his father's estate in 1841. Children: 1. Laura, b. Nov. 6, 1802. 2. Rozilla, b. Dec. 27, 1804, m. Cyrus Noble of Castleton, Oct. 17, 1827. 3. Patty, b. Feby. 15, 1807. 4. Eunice, b. April 30, 1809. 5. Emily, b. Aug. 8, 1811. He lived in Rutland, but may have been of Whitehall when his father died in 1841.

611. JOHN. We have no absolute proof that he was son of Jonathan, m. Phebe Bennett of Woodstock, Oct. 19, 1806, there. They lived at Wells, Vt., and had: Kizza, (Keziah?); Charity and John.

612. WALDO. We have no absolute proof that he was son of Jonathan; Previous historians ascribe him to JOSHUA No. 278, following these paragraphs. Waldo m. Electa ——. JAMES & CYNTHIA had a daughter Electa, b. Feby. 17, 1808, who may have been named for her aunt, just married to Waldo. Waldo and Electa had: Sarah W., b. Dec. 12, 1810, Rutland. Cyrus W., b. Feby. 7, 1812, d. Aug. 9, 1813, at Rutland. See No. 626 in Sixth Generation.

613. HENRY W., of Vergennes, Vt., m. Mary C. Willard, of Rutland, July 19, 1813 and they had: Henry M. of Auburn, N. Y., in 1841, who had 1. William of Auburn, N. Y. 2. Harriet of Auburn, N. Y., 1841.

614. JACOB b. 1777; d. Jany. 15, 1864, aged 88. Buried Evergreen Cem., Rutland. He m. 1: Betsey ——, b. 1780, who d. March 24, 1813, aged 33. He m. 2: Amy or Aura Alger, b. 1776; m. at Strafford, Vt., Dec. 5, 1819; d. Aug. 11, 1853, aged 77. Both wives buried beside Jacob.

615. MORRIS b. Rutland, Feby. 13, 1780; d. July 9, 1848, called Morrison in administration of his father's estate. He m. Charlotte Chatterton at Rutland, Jany. 23, 1805; she d. May 6, 1854.

616. REBECCA, m. Exi Chatterton of Rutland, Jany. 30, 1806. She was a widow when her father's estate was administered in 1841.

273. JOSEPH REYNOLDS: (Hezekiah[4]; Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Nov. 19, 1741. The Josephs of his period and generation seem to be mixed up and little known of them. Sarah Brush, wife of a Joseph Reynolds, joined the Second Congreg. Church of Greenwich, 1800. There was another Joseph[5], who was son of John[4] & Hannah (Jessup) Reynolds, but as he lived in Northcastle we can eliminate him; as likewise Joseph[5], 3rd, who lived in Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., then. Therefore the two Josephs living in Greenwich in 1790 Census with families were probably the sons, respectively, of Caleb[4] and Hezekiah[4], but which was which we cannot even guess. Or these two Josephs may be Joseph No. 170, and his son Joseph of New Canaan and Greenwich, both of whom d. 1799. The Census gives for Greenwich 1790:

	Males
	Over 16	Under 16	Females	Slaves
Joseph Reynolds	1	1	2	0
Joseph Reynolds	2	1	2	1

278. JOSHUA REYNOLDS: (John[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 30, 1743; d. in 1818, Rutland, Vt., aged 75; buried Old North Cemetery, Rutland. Joshua lived at the North or

Merriam Mills, near Rutland, Vt., near his second cousin Jonathan (No. 272) and in 1790 Census in Rutland Joshua had "two males over 16; four under 16; four females."

Of his service in the Revolution the 1916 Reynolds Family Annual (p. 91, No. 305) gives: Private, Captain Claghorn's Co., Col. Mead's Vermont militia regiment, "scouting after Tories at sundry times and also guarding in time of trail such as May 6, 1777, each man victualled himself." Allowed pay for service from May 22-26, 1777. Perhaps he served also in New York State. Read particularly the account of John of the Black Watch, French & Indian War, under Lieut. Jonathan, just preceding these paragraphs. It is quite likely that that John was Joshua's father. See the long footnote, page 112.

Joshua was one of the petitioners with Caleb and Benjamin Reynolds in 1766 in dispute between N. H. and N. Y. over boundaries (See Doc. Hist. of N. Y., IV:620); and W. R. Cutter, Families of Central Vermont, pp. 1442-43, who says that Joshua and Lieut. Jonathan (No. 272) migrated to Rutland from Pine Plains, upper Dutchess Co., N. Y. The "Otter Creek" mentioned seems then to have meant Rutland. The farms of Joshua and Jonathan in 1790 were in the near vicinity of Rutland. More elaborate description of their homes is given under the preceding account of Jonathan herein. Much of this information has been found since most of this book was first set in type, so that some of this sketch may not exactly agree.

Joshua m. —— Darling of Wells, Vt., of whom we know no more. A "Mrs. Reynolds, d. Nov. 14, 1805, aged 57 (b. 1748)," Rutland, Vt See History of Wells, Vt. It is not unlikely that they had more children than these:

624. NEWELL.

*625. JOSHUA, Jr., b. Rutland, July 14, 1785; m. Sophia Gilette, who was b. May 19, 1787. Removed to Le Roy Bradford Co. Pa.

*626. WALDO, m. Electa ——. Last-minute information would indicate that this Waldo was probably not the son of Joshua as given in Cutter's book named above. See *612 under 272 above.

627. OLIVE, of Rutland, m. Henry Spaulding of Middletown, Jany. 2, 1820.

628. PALMER, d. 1829; m. Polly Cross, Dec. 11, 1808, daughter of Daniel Cross. Both of Wells, Vt.; see Hist. of Wells, Vt. Children: 1. Polly, b. March 5, 1810. 2. Susan, b. June 5, 1812. 3. Harrison (Harry), b. March 29 1814. 4. Hannah A., b. Dec. 16, 1817. 5. Olive, b. Oct. 20, 1823. 6. Martin N., b. Sept. 4, 1825, removed from Rutland to Whitehall and d. there June 24, 1870. Martin N. had 1. Jacob, m. Martha Paul, dau. Belus Paul and had Elizabeth Reynolds who m. Charles Cook. Jacob m. a second time after death of wife Martha; he then removed to Iowa. 2. Joseph who removed to Iowa; "was quite a fighter." 3. Merritt, who always lived at Whitehall and d. there; bought out the others. 4. Elizabeth, who probably did not marry.

629. MARTIN, m. Sarah W. Leland, Jany. 16, 1827, in Chester, Vt Resided Cambridge Windsor Co. Vt. Deeded land in Chester, Vt., to Ptolemy Edson. See notes under No. 1167 herein.

630. MARY, "m. —— Ford." May have been the Polly of Vergennes who m. John Lord, Jany. 19, 1813, also of Vergennes.

283. JACOB REYNOLDS: (John[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., May 23, 1756; d. Westerlo, N. Y., Feby. 26, 1828; m. Miss Martha Winans, who d. at Westerlo, Jany. 8, 1827. The Winans family of Dutchess County, N. Y., were originally from the Dutch Province of Brabant. See Huntting's History of Little Nine Partners. Jacob removed from Greenwich to Westerlo, Albany Co., and organized a church there in 1794. Perhaps he spent some years elsewhere before reaching Westerlo. They made Westerlo their home.

635. ALPHEUS.

636. JAMES. [James and Margaret (Jackson) Reynolds of Albany had child Ephraim, b. May 22, 1799, might be this James.]

637. JOHN.

*638. IRA WINANS, b. Oct. 4, 1794; d. March 28, 1848; m. Maria Snyder, 1814.

286. DANIEL REYNOLDS: (Daniel[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Nov. 9, 1768; d. June 2, 1837; buried old cemetery at Sound Beach; aged 68-6-24. He m. Sarah Husted, Oct. 3, 1790; who was b. April 13, 1766; d. Nov. 3, 1843, aged 77-6-21. See also the Sarah Husted who m. Titus[5] Reynolds and Deborah Husted who m. Nathaniel[5] Reynolds. We believe that this Daniel, like his fathers, continued to live in Old Greenwich all his life. We have records of only the one child below given. Mr. Marcus T. Reynolds believes that Daniel had also Shubal, Isaac Hannah and Anna, whom the Editors believe were brothers and sisters, not children, of Daniel.

640. JOHN H., b. July 23, 1791; d. Jany. 23, 1853, aged 61 years 6 mos.; buried Church Cemetery, Sound Beach, Conn. He m. Deborah - - - -, who d. Jany. 30, 1886, aged 87 years 9 mos. It is said that he lived in Cortland Manor, Peekskill, Westchester Co., N. Y.

288. CAPTAIN SHUBAEL REYNOLDS: (Daniel[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., or Rye, N. Y., about 1773; d. "Sawpitts," Rye or Port Chester, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1833, aged 60. Various records of his family are in the records of Christ's Church, Rye, N. Y., published in N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record, 46:239. 47:397. 48:127, 131, etc.

He m. Hannah - - - -, who was b. March 22, 1779, baptized at Christ's Church, Rye, Nov. 25, 1838. Record states that she lived at "Sawpitts," which was an ancient name for Port Chester. She was buried March 8, 1839, "at Sawpitts, widow of Shubael Reynolds, aged 59-11-13." At her home were married, when she was a widow, John F. Peck to Loretta Lyon. A Mary Reynolds, "dau. John & Mary Reynolds," b. Sept. 5, 1826, d. there Sept. 13, 1840, aet. 14 yrs. 8 days, perhaps granddaughter of Shubael and Hannah. A William Reynolds, b. July 17, 1806; d. Sept. 8, 1838, aged 32-1-20, buried Sept. 10, 1838, at Port Chester Sawpit, was possibly of this family. We know no more. Investigation should be made in Portchester and Rye, N. Y. He probably got his captaincy in the War of 1812 or for militia services. Captain Shubael, if b. 1773, as the Rye Church record, "died 1833 aged 60" indicates, could not have been in the Revolution, and the Revolutionary soldier must have been another with this unusual name.

Another older Shubael was in the Revolution. 1916 Reynolds Family Annual, p. 102: "N. Y. troops, private in Captain Waters' Co., Col. Roswell Hopkins Sixth County Regiment, N. Y." The report of the U. S. Pension Bureau concerning him appears in the 1923 Reynolds Family Annual.

291. CALEB REYNOLDS: (Caleb[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., about 1739; d. in upper Dutchess County, date unknown.

He m. Hannah or Sarah Brown, dau. Mr. & Sarah (Winans) Brown, and granddaughter of James Winans of Pine Plains, Dutchess Co., N. Y. The Winans family were Dutch, originally from the Dutch Province of Brabant. For more on Winans genealogy, see Huntting's History of Little Nine Partners, N. Y., pp. 377, 390, etc. Huntting says that Caleb came from Horseneck, Greenwich, Conn., in 1773, and settled on the hill north of Phineas Carman Mills. Several of the children of Caleb lived at Argyle and other points in Washington Co., N. Y. Caleb owned about 500 acres in one large farm. His stock ear-mark, recorded May 1, 1773, was "a half-penny under the left ear."

Caleb is probably the soldier in the French and Indian War from Fairfield County, Conn., 1758. Probably also in the Revolution: "Private, Capt. Waters' Co., Col. Roswell Hopkins's Regiment from Northeast Township, Dutchess Co., N. Y." In the Census of 1790 for Northeast, N. Y., Caleb had (living at home, at least) 3 sons under 16, 4 females—but it is not unlikely this was the record of the family of his son Caleb.

*645. JOSEPH, b. July 26, 1761; d. Sept. 1847; m. Ruth Palmer.

*646. ABRAHAM, b. Sept. 10, 1785; d. Feby. 5, 1853; m. Maria Strever.

647. DAVID. Perhaps it was he who m. Phebe Wilde, Dec. 3, 1789, First Stanford Baptist Church, Bangall, Dutchess Co., N. Y. See N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record.

648. DANIEL.

649. NATHANIEL. Hunting says, "He was the last to live in Pine Plains, N. Y. His son, Alfred, lived in the original house." Page 377 Huntting.

650. ISAAC.

651. JOHN.

652. CALEB. Was it he who d. July 24, 1826, in his 40th year (b. about 1786) and was buried in Boland District Burying Ground, Dutchess Co?

653. ANNA. Could it have been she who m. Humphrey Sherman and lived in Westport, Essex Co., N. Y.? The Abraham Reynolds and Sister Anna (Reynolds) Sherman who went to Essex Co. from Dutchess Co. are being investigated and a report will be made in a later Annual. Sherman ms. genealogy in N. Y. Public Library. It is more likely Nos. 391 and 397 herein, under 183, on page 91.

654. PHOEBE.

655. CLARA.

656. ELIZA.

657. REUHAMA.

658. One other child.

306. WRIGHT PENNOYER: (Penelope[4]; David[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., May 31, 1750; d. Montgomery, Orange Co., N. Y., June 6, 1807; m. Sophia Keeler about 1772. She was b. Feby. 15, 1757; d. Montgomery Nov. 11, 1801. 1790 was in Schagticoke, Albany Co., N. Y.; 1702 witnessed document in Montgomery, N. Y., so must have moved. One of his twin brothers was already living there; family tradition states Lydia was b. there 1778, so Wright may have also lived there previously.

Pennoyer Children:

660. ELIZABETH, b. Sept. 1, 1773; m. Lorenzo Baker, son and dau.

*661. SARAH, b. Dec. 15, 1775; m. Obadiah King, 3 ch.

662. LYDIA, b. Sept. 24, 1778; m. John Burt, N. Y. City and Brooklyn. 6 ch.

663. ROBERT MCFADDEN, b. June 13, 1781; m. Mary E. - - -. 1 dau.

664. HIRAM, b. June 9, 1786; d. Montgomery, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1792.

665. ANNA, b. Jany. 29, 1788; m. Gilbert Clement. 3 daus.

666. ABRAHAM, b. April 18, 1791, d. May 24, 1791, and his twin:

667. ISAAC, b. April 18, 1791; who d. May 28, 1791.

668. FLOYD SMITH, b. Nov. 4, 1793; m. Mary Brown. 6 ch.

SIXTH GENERATION

I. DESCENDANTS OF JONATHAN[2].

329. ELIJAH H. REYNOLDS: (Robert[5]; John[4]; Jonathan[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Northcastle, N. Y., Aug. 5, 1782; d. March 5, 1814, at Northcastle (Chappaqua) Westchester Co., N. Y., "aged 31-6-28, son of Robert."

He m. 1: Mary Dodge, June 19, 1806, Chappaqua, N. Y., dau. Robert and Sarah Dodge of New Castle, N. Y. Quaker record of Chappaqua gives this marriage "Elijah Reynolds, son of Robert and Ann of Salem." 2: Abigail - - - - -, who d. April 21, 1816. His will made Jany. 26, 1814, probated White Plains, N. Y., March 24, 1814, mentions wife Abigail, half-sister Miriam Kipp, sister Rebecca Reynolds, brother Elisha Reynolds of Bedford, half-brother Benj. Kipp of New Castle, and his "little daughter Ann Maria Runnels." Ann Maria died unmarried, leaving a will which is probably that probated at White Plains, April 9, 1829. Like his brother Elias who died the same year he was a shoemaker, but Elijah lived in North Castle and Elias lived in Bedford, N. Y.

331. ELIAS REYNOLDS: (Robert[5]; John[4]; Jonathan[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) d. Oct., 1814, Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y. He did not marry. His will, executed Oct. 7, 1814, probated at White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 1, 1814, gives to sister Rebecca, half-sister Miriam Kipp, half-brother Gilbert Kipp of New Castle, N. Y. He was a shoemaker and lived in Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y.

Mrs. Edward Underhill of 311 West 97th St., N. Y. City, has an old oil portrait of this Elias, for whom her father Elias[7] Reynolds (son of Jonathan[6]) was christened. See Nos. 357, 714.

334. JOHN REYNOLDS: (John[5]; John[4]; Jonathan[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Northcastle, N. Y., m. Rebecca Rundel, 1759. He was of North Castle and she of Poundridge, Westch. Co., N. Y. After John's death, she married 2nd: Isaac Clark, and they had Stephen who m. Mary Wakeman, moved to Saratoga; Jesse b. Bedford, m. Betsy Elliott.

*703. JONATHAN, b. 1761; d. Bedford, N. Y., 1823; m. Sarah St. John.

*704. SOLOMON, b. June 3, 1763; d. Sept. 6, 1831; at Elmira, N. Y.; m. Joanna Miller.

705. REBECCA, m. Timothy Newman; moved to Greenbush, Rensselaer Co., N. Y. Several children.

*706. ROBERT, b. 1770; d. Sept. 6, 1838; m. Lydia St. John, sister to Jonathan's wife.

*707. JONAH, m. 1st: Polly Tilton; 2nd: Mrs. Betsey White, wid.

708. JOHN, twin; d. 1809; m. Esther - - -. He is buried in N. Y. City.

709. JESSE, twin; d. Poundridge, N. Y., aged 9 years.

710. RICHARD, died young.

356. JOSEPH REYNOLDS: (Sutton[5]; John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Chappaqua, N. Y., Nov. 18, 1786; d. there, Sept. 28, 1863; aged 76-10-11; m. Lydia Carpenter, of Chappaqua, dau. Peter & Deborah (Haight) Carpenter, of Chappaqua. Lydia d. there Sept. 2, 1863, aet. 72-4-25. He was a farmer; Hicksite Quaker, and an original Republican. His home was always in Chappaqua, N. Y.

711. ELIJAH, b. Chappaqua, N. Y.; d. about 1890; m. Maria Sherwood. Had Lydia, b. Oct., 1849; d. Aug. 17, 1863, aet. 14 yrs. 10 mos.
Warren K., b. Dec. 5, 1851; d. Chappaqua, Feby. 26, 1869, aet. 18-2-21.
Cornelia, who never married. They all lived in Pleasantville, N. Y.

*712. EDWARD, b. Dec. 26, 1826; d. Aug. 23, 1859; m. Cornelia S. Ryder, 1849.

357. JONATHAN REYNOLDS: (Sutton[5]; John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. Chappaqua, N. Y., (Northcastle) Feby. 27, 1789; d. Chappaqua, Dec. 8 (Bible record) or 12th (Cemetery record), 1837, aged 48-9-15. He m. Betsey Flewellin, b. March 1, 1795; d. Aug. 28, 1872 (or May 28, 1872, aet. 77-2-27), Chappaqua, N. Y., daughter John & Esther (Thorn) Flewellin of Somers, N. Y. Upon Jonathan's death she m. at Croton Valley, N. Y., March 20, 1839, William T. Travis of Somers, son of John & Elizabeth.

Jonathan was an Orthodox Quaker. His brothers were Hicksite Quakers. They lived at Croton Lake, Westchester Co., N. Y. Had only:

*714. ELIAS, b. Nov. 9, 1814; d. Dec. 1, 1894; m. Jane Jordan, 1839.

358. ANDREW REYNOLDS: (Sutton[5]; John[4]; 2 Jonathans; John[1]) b. June 5, 1791 (Family Bible kept by his parents says June 3rd), Newcastle (Chappaqua), N. Y.; d. Ossining, N. Y., Oct. 21, 1879; buried Chappaqua. Cemetery records say b. June 3rd; d. Sept. 21.

He m. Susan Washburn, June 15, 1814, Newcastle; b. there Aug. 10, 1796; d. Ossining, Jany. 16, 1869; dau. John & Margaret Washburn of Newcastle, Westchester Co., N. Y. Andrew was a Quaker farmer, Whig and Republican. His family Bible printed 1827 is held by his grandson, Geo. F. Secor of Ossining, N. Y., who runs this Reynolds line for the Editors. Andrew lived in Newcastle, Chappaqua and Ossining (then called Sing Sing), N. Y. Children b. Newcastle, N. Y.

716. REBECCA CARPENTER, b. Nov. 26, 1815; d. aet. 43-6 mos., May 26, 1859, Ossining; m. Isaac Secor, Nov. 8, 1837, Newcastle, as his first wife; upon her death Isaac m. her sister, Ann Maria, below.

717. PHEBE S., b. Aug. 20, 1820; d. Pleasantville, N. Y., May 5, 1871, aet. 50-7-15; m. Ludlow Searles, there, Oct. 15, 1860.

*718. ANN MARIA, b. Feby. 12, 1829; d. Feby. 25, 1905; m. Isaac Secor, as second wife, after death of her sister Rebecca above.

719. SUTTON J., b. Feby. 10, 1837; d. March 4, 1837, in infancy.

359. SUTTON REYNOLDS, Jr.: (Sutton[5]; John[4]; 2 Jonathans: John[1]) b. Northcastle, (Chappaqua, N. Y., Feby. 15, 1794; died April 19, 1877, aged 83, at Chappaqua, N. Y. He and wife buried in Chappaqua, Westchester Co., N. Y., where he made his home after this marriage. He m. Maplet H. Carpenter, at Newcastle, Nov. 20, 1817, b. Feby. 1, 1789; d. April 19, 1859, aged 60-2-27, daughter of Peter & Deborah Carpenter of Newcastle. Maplet became a Quaker at her own request, May 2, 1817. They had no children. His nephew Elias was his executor. In 1828 he followed the Hicksite wing of the Quakers. He left a very interesting record of his family history in an old account book which he kept in Chappaqua, N. Y. It is printed in full under his grandfather, No. 42 herein preceding, which see. This old book and some ancient papers and deeds of the family are now owned by Mr. George F. Secor of Ossining and New York, who is No. 1348 herein.

378. ISRAEL REYNOLDS: (3 Josephs; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Amenia or Pine Plains, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Dec. 25, 1753; baptized Red Meeting House, Amenia, N. Y., March 17, 1754; d. Peru, Clinton Co., N. Y. Nov. 22, 1812; dates from Family Bible, as copied by Mrs. Nevin M. Fenneman. Under the account of his Father, who is No. 170 herein preceding, is a series of old letters giving some indication of Israel's migrations and successive places of residence. In July, 1791, a letter from Sarah Palmer, Plattsburg, N. Y., written to Israel's father in "New Canaan" says, "I hope you will come with Israel when he moves." On Dec. 16, 1782, Israel deeded to his brother Joseph of Charlotte Precinct, Dutchess Co., his interest in the Great Lot No. 25, Patent of Nine Partners. He must have removed around that time. On Feby. 1, 1796, Israel deeded to his brother Parker of Saratoga eighty acres, "which is the whole farm on which Israel Reynolds now lives."

He m. Deborah Thatcher (sp. Thacher), March 5, 1778; who was b. April 9, 1760; d. Jany. 26, 1813. The Census of 1790 gives Israels in Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y. (perhaps in the correspondence just referred to Canaan, N. Y., and not Canaan, Conn., was meant). See notes under his brother Asa, No. 381, following this.); and in Northcastle, Westchester Co., N. Y. This Israel is certainly the Israel in 1790 of Canaan, Columbia Co., "himself, 2 males over 16; 3 males under 16; wife, 2 females," probably not all being his children. His brother Parker in that Census was also of Canaan; and he had many cousins and other relatives in the same township then: Andrew, David, Joel, Solomon, and three Reuben Reynoldses. He could have been the Israel of Greenwich, Conn.

His family were Baptists. From Canaan he went to Peru, N. Y., where Lucy was married. In 1793 he is given as among the first settlers of Clinton Co.—"Israel Reynolds near the Lake (Champlain)". Probably his son Seneca was b. in Peru, N. Y., and not in Vermont as has been said; although at that time Vermont claimed certain parts of what was and is N. Y. State.

Among his children there was some serious trouble, so that they seem to have divided into two groups which apparently never made up again. It is a tradition among the Michigan descendants that Seneca and Israel, Jr., being misused by an older brother when their parents died, ran away from the "Vermont Home," and came to Owosso, Michigan, and—having done so—said little about their family. Some of the other children migrated to Brandon and other points in Wisconsin. Among the old papers collected by the late A. Heber Reynolds, the Editors have found an interesting extract,† but there has not been time to verify its statements. The Adjutant-General of Vermont informs the Editors that SENECA Reynolds is not on Vermont's 1812-14 military rolls, but that Raymond Reynolds and Harvey served in the War of 1812. RAYMOND appears on the payroll of a regiment of light dragoons, pay to June 30, 1814, 4 months, 11 days. HARVEY, appears on the payroll of a regiment of light dragoons, pay to June 30, 1814; 3 months, 17 days. They served in the same regiment, dates of discharge not given.

Of his children, we believe Lucy and Leonard were b. in Charlotte Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; Leonard to Irene in Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y.; and Harvey, Seneca and Israel in Peru, N. Y.

*721. LUCY, b. Jany. 6, 1779; d. Dec. 6, 1852; m. 1: Simeon Frisbie, April 10, 1796; removed to Elizabethtown, Essex Co., N. Y. 2: Norman Newell, 1817.

722. LEONARD, b. Jany. 9, 1781.

723. SOLOMON, b. Sept. 5, 1783.

*724. RAYMOND, b. Feby. 18, 1786; d. May 11, 1863; m. Hannah Hooper. Had: Lewis, Loren, Alonzo, Edwin, Marcus, Thomas, George and Charles.

725. JOSIAH, b. August 10, 1788.

726. IRENE, b. Sept. 2, 1790; d. May 22, 1793. (or Ilena?)

*727. HARVEY, b. August 26, 1793; d. 1870, Wisconsin; m. - - - - - -. Had: Seneca, Edwin, Rufus, Lucy and Sarah.

*728. SENECA, b. March 7, 1796; d. April 14, 1872, Owosso, †Mich.; m. Ann Livingston, 1823, who was b. Greece, N. Y.

† "Edwin Reynolds, son of Raymond?, is authority for the statement that his uncle Seneca? Reynolds was picked up at sea off the coast of France about 1835, having fallen from the ship while on his return from Manchester, England. His body was taken to New Orleans. He had enlisted with his brother Harvey for the War of 1812, but being under age his father took him out. Seneca, enraged at this, enlisted again, this time in the British Army. When his regiment returned to England, he went with it. Later Seneca engaged in business in Manchester and accumulated a fortune. Court proceedings were instituted for the possession of the property and at the trial in Vergennes, Vermont, the three brothers Raymond, Harvey and Israel gave testimony. But Harvey, being influenced by drink, testified that he had no brother Seneca and the case was lost. I presume there must be some evidence in the Court Records at Vergennes. I have Edwin's story at length, but these are the main points."

At the moment of going to press, the Editors have not had time to verify this account from the Vergennes records. Though the names may be somewhat mixed up,—for Seneca? died not in 1835 "off the coast of France," but at his home in Owosso, Michigan, in 1872,—there may be some facts behind this tradition. It would be interesting to investigate it further, for its historical interest. Israel, Sr., d. the year the War of 1812 broke out; and his wife the next year, which may have broken up the family. Manchester, England, and Manchester, Vt., may have been confused.

729. ISRAEL, b. July 11, 1800; lived at Owosso, Mich. Seneca and Israel are both buried† in sight of the Michigan homes they built, about five miles south of Owosso, Mich. Myron H. Reynolds has the old Bible of Seneca.

730. NOAH, is given by Heber Reynolds as the youngest child of this family, but the Editors doubt it, as he does not appear in Lucy's old Bible which gives the children of Israel & Deborah, and from which these various dates are taken.

379. REV. PARKER REYNOLDS: (3Josephs; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Amenia (Nine Partners) Dutchess Co., N. Y., Oct. 10, 1755; d. June 29, 1833, Elizabethtown, Essex Co., N. Y. He m. 1: Esther Daggett, 1777, dau. Mayhew & Esther (Atwater) Daggett of Fairfield, Conn. Esther was b. Nov. 12, 1762, Wethersfield, Conn. He m. 2: Rhoda Carter, Elizabethtown, N. Y. She d. June 1, 1817. First seven children by first wife; Celinda to Emily by second wife. Parker engaged in trade at Saratoga, N. Y., at the beginning of the 19th Century, but subsequently removed to Granville, N. Y.; finally to Elizabethtown, N. Y., where he became a Baptist preacher. He died there and is buried in Elizabethtown. Read the exchange of letters between Parker and his father, under the biography of his father Joseph, who is No. 170 herein preceding. They reveal something of his character and of the rigid piety of his times. Children by first wife born in Nine Partners, N. Y.; by second wife in Elizabethtown, N. Y. Parker was baptized in the old Red Meeting House, Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Dec. 12, 1757.

733. LYDIA, b. July 6, 1778; d. 1779; m. Ethan Branch. No children.

*734. ESTHER, b. July 4, 1780; d. Nov. 1, 1872, Rupert, Vt., at home of her dau. Adeline; m. Benjamin Warren, Saratoga Springs, Jany. 28, 1795.

*735. JOHN PARKER, b. Sept. 21, 1782; d. Hamilton, O., March 21, 1858; m. 1: Rebecca Newell. 2: Patience Wilson.

736. RUTH, b. March 7, 1785. Probably died young.

737. CYNTHIA, b. May 20, 1787; m. Calvin Averill.

*738. WERDEN P., b. Feby. 6, 1789; d. May 6, 1868; m. Emme[7] Reynolds, cousin.

*739. LINUS JUNIUS, b. Nov. 3, 1790; d. July 4, 1838; m. Alice Baker.

740. CELINDA S., b. July 2, 1806; never married. Devoted to studies; left a volume of her poetry and other writings.

*741. LEMUEL COVILLE, b. June 17, 1808; d. Jackson, Mich.; m. Angie Kimball.

742. CORDELIA C., b. Oct. 19, 1810; d. Green Bay, Wis., Jany. 18, 1874; m. Major E. Shailer U. S. A. No children.

*743. EMILY, b. June 11, 1813; d. June 29, 1880; m. Capt. Daniel M. Whitney of Green Bay, Wis., where they lived in 1875. Their daughter Charlotte m. A. Heber Reynolds whose father Werden, Jr., was a son of Emily's brother Werden, Sr. No. 738.

381. ASA REYNOLDS: (Joseph[5]; Joseph[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., August 8, 1759; d. Granville, Wash. Co., N. Y., Dec. 25, 1834, there buried. m. Hannah

Wells, Oct. 24, 1782; she was born April 26, 1766; d. April 25, 1849, North Granville, N. Y. Asa was a cooper by trade; in later years kept a general store. His home before he removed to Granville (that is, prior to 1787 at least) was in Nine Partners (region about Pine Plains and Amenia) Dutchess Co., N. Y., where were many others of his relatives. Note that all of the names given his children are palindromic; that is, they spell the same forward or backward. He is given in the Census of 1790 (See 1921 R. F. A. Annual, p. 70, No. 310) as of Granville, 1 son over 16; 2 under; wife and three daughters; no Indians; no slaves. "Parker and Asa removed from Nine Partners to Saratoga and then to Granville, N. Y., soon after the Revolution. So did several of the children of John and Rosanna (van Campen) Reynolds." We are certain that all but the first three children were born in Granville, N. Y.

*745. HANNAH, b. July 31, 1783; d. Oct. 7, 1828; m. Ambrose Frisbie, Jany. 4, 1802. Three daus. and one son, Horatio Corydon Frisbie who d. unm. at 23.

*746. ASA, b. March 13, 1785; d. Feby. 14, 1860, Granville, N. Y.; m. Pamela Lamson, Mar. 10, 1814.

*747. EMME, b. March 21, 1787; d. Dec. 31, 1851; m. Rev. Werden[7] Peter Reynolds, which see herein.

*748. IRI, b. May 1, 1789; d. June 14, 1861, Syracuse, N. Y.; m. Lucy Wait, Oct. 14, 1810.

Copy of an old letter written by ASA[6] REYNOLDS (3Josephs; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) at Granville, Wash. Co., N. Y., October 14, 1788, quill pen, coarse brown paper, size 9 x 14½ inches, to his brother Rev. Parker Reynolds, Nine Partners (Amenia), Dutchess Co., N. Y.:

"Granville, Octr. 14, 1788, to PARKER REYNOLDS.

"Dear Brother,

"I had Concluded not to write to any of my Friends, but on Receiving your kind letter of the 10th Instant I thought best to return you an answer—to let you understand the Present, Past, and first Future Tenses, as far as Time, Brown Paper, and other Matters would admit. I presume you'll remember that we embarked on board the Sloop Granville in New Canaan the 23rd of September, and Sat. Sail for (what was Called) the Goodly Township of Granville—whence we sailed the first day as far as Wescotte in Steven Town— The next morning Setting Sail, the Wind being Fair, we reached as far as Kampbells in Old Hoosack, where we came to Anchor, and the next morning weighing Sail, Matters proving pretty favorable after the Fatigue of so long a Voyage we had the Pleasure of Landing at Moor's (Alver) Tavern at Black Creek—where after taking proper Refreshment that Night—the next Day we march'd on intending if Possible to reach our present Station—but Night coming on and perceiving we should not be able to attain our Desire, we put up at a very good Inn 6 miles back— whence the next Morning (being First Day) we Sat out for Town and about Ten Oclock we came to a Certain place which Mr. Bishop Bought. Capt. Grover where wee was met by Mr. Bishop and order'd or desired to make a Halt with a Token that, that was the Place we were to reside, meaning that Building which Mr. Jenks was pleased to call the Meeting† House! But however by the best account, it was in the first place a Gambrel Roof Log house, built by Capt. Grover for his own Use, Benefit and Behoof;—but after Some time the River Nile overflowing its foundation, he was obliged to Dislocate it: whence moving its parts about 65 Rods South Longitude he Erected it again and Transmografied it into a Barn—He taking his residence in some other Edifice 'Till at length remembering the Conveniencies of his old Asylum he returned and Converted it into a place of Abode where he has ever since resided, and where I and my Family continued some seven days, at the end of which time Mr. Bishop proposed [end of page with remark in parenthesis: 'Turn it around'—Edit. Note] our moving into his Kitchen—we accepted the Royal Privilege and Crawling out of the Old Transmuted Fortress we march'd on and took possession of our present Stand—where we expect to stay 'till we are ordered to Elope to Some other Place;—But this Room is so well Constructed that we can scarcely desire a Third Remove (what Poor Richard calls equal to a Fire) as our first has pretty well warn'd us—But very lucky for us this Room has a Door to it! the which if it had not been we should have been Obliged to have Erected Scaling Ladders and flung ourselves down through the Precipice (where the Chimney ought to be) into the Ashes—which would have been such a Coarse way of Conveyance that we should have had no Idea of ever Diverging ourselves from the Place unless it was by Tareing off the Clapboards with which the Room is Cield—or Creeping out through Uncle Padden's Parrellogram—which he hack'd through the East side of the Room for a prospect into the Hogpen—or to let out some of the Crickets with which the Room is overspread—but not to be prolix about Matters, the Building that we now live in is Shingled, partly Ceiled upon the outside and roughly Clapboarded upon the Inside—the Chimney built as high as the Mantle Tree—Two rooms in it and a Family in Each—Hannah at first Sight of her new Habitation here in Town, Changed her Visage from that of a Languid to a more Sanguine countenance but on the whole I think that the Agitation of her mind together with the Fatigue of a Long Jorney has rather been too hard for her but I hope she will recruit again after she comes to get a Little Naturalized to the Place. Emmie I hope is rather better than she was, the rest of us are pretty well. Mr. Bishop has bought me a Cow but never thought to buy any—with her. I have not sold your Coat and Vest—we remember Love to all our Friends—am thy Loving Brother—

"N. B. They catch bears here. "ASA REYNOLDS."

"P. S. For further Particulars enquire of Major or Capt. Lusk."

† "but I think that he was unwarranted in his description of the Building for I believe that it Cant be produced either in Sacred or Profane History that ever any Artificial work having no foundation, Roof, Sides, Gable wall, Floors, Doors, Windows, or Chimney, was ever Call'd a Meeting House."

NOTE: The preceding letter is (1923) in possession of Harrah J. Reynolds of Meadville, Penna. His father Harrah owned it for years, as he was the son of Asa the writer of the letter.

The references to sailing are of course a metaphor—they probably traveled horseback or in ox-cart.

The Canaan mentioned is probably Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y., and the other places are north of there on the direct route to Granville, Washington Co., N. Y. Some descendants say New Canaan, Conn., was meant, but Asa could hardly have driven from New Canaan, Conn., to Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., in a day, especially as the second day he traveled only from Stephentown to Hoosac.

416. ANDREW REYNOLDS: (Reuben[5]; Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Rye, N. Y., March 4, 1764; d. July 28, 1855, Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y.; m. twice as below given. For excellent accounts of him and his descendants in more detail, especially as to maternal descent, read: Cleveland Genealogy, pp. 283-84, by Collin, 1883, p. 62; Ancestry and Descendants of Hosea and Elizabeth Fuller Reynolds, 1921, by Frank I. Bennett, 5807 Blackstone Ave., Chicago. Mr. Bennett is the leading authority on Andrew's descendants.

Andrew was a currier, leather and harness manufacturer. He was b. Rye, N. Y., but was reared in Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y., where his first four children were born; about the beginning of 1792 he and his father removed to Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y., where both lived and died. Andrew's children from Andrew to last inclusive were b. Kortright. Andrew is given in the 1790 Census at Chatham (Canaan Township), N. Y., "himself, wife and four sons under sixteen." In the same township were his father Reuben, Reuben, Jr., another Reuben Randale, Solomon, David, Joel, Israel and Parker,—all probably kinsmen of his. See p. 69, Nos. 206-214, of the 1921 Rey. Fam. Annual, Census of 1790.

In the Revolution he was "Private in Captain van Wyck's Co, Col. Dirk Brinkerhoff's Second Dutchess Co., Regiment." (R. Fam. Annual, 1916, p. 56, No. 12). This service during 1779 and 1780, was rendered when he was but 15 or 16 years old, though this was not unusual during the Revolution. A certificate for his pay was in Colonel Brinkerhoff's hands at the time of the Colonel's death and was never demanded by Andrew, who d. 1855.

Bennett, above, traces the ancestry of his first wife in detail. Andrew m. 1st: Sarah Cleveland, 1785; b. Hillsdale, Columbia Co., N. Y.; d. Kortright, N. Y., Feby. 4, 1811, aet. 48; dau. Elijah and Alice (Lawrence) Cleveland of Hillsdale, N. Y. Elijah was a Rev. Soldier, 9th Albany Co. Rgt.; he and wife were bur. near site of old Baptist Church, Hillsdale. President Grover Cleveland was of this family. Read the Cleveland Genealogy, above mentioned. Alice Lawrence was descended from Sir Robert Ashton Hall, Lancashire. One of her forbears, Enoch Lawrence, m. Mrs. Ruth (Whitney) Shattuck, widow of John Shattuck of Watertown, Mass. This Ruth Whitney was b. April 15, 1645, dau. John and Ruth (Reynolds) Whitney of Watertown, Mass. Ruth Reynolds was the daughter of Robert and Mary Reynolds of Boston, and Mrs. Ruth (Whitney) Shattuck was therefore the granddaughter of Robert Reynolds who is supposed to have come to America with John Reynolds of Watertown. Therefore the descendants of Andrew and Sarah (Cleveland) Reynolds are descended from Robert Reynolds (1630) of Boston as well as from John Reynolds of Watertown. This to the knowledge of Marion H. Reynolds, a specialist on the Robert Reynolds Line, is the earliest instance of descendants of John and Robert intermarrying. John and Robert had separated probably at Wethersfield, Conn., in 1635-36, about 150 years before Andrew Reynolds m. Sarah Cleveland.

First four children of Andrew and Sarah were b. Chatham (Canaan Township) N. Y.; others in Kortright, Dela. Co., N. Y. Andrew m. 2nd: Mrs. Frances Peck, after 1811; b. Feby. 11, 1771; d. winter of 1853; but no children are recorded to them. He is said to have fifty grandchildren.

*819. ISAAC, b. Sept. 9, 1787; d. June 3 (17), 1854; m. twice, which see.

*820. HOSEA, b. Oct. 15, 1788; d. May 17, 1867; m. Elizabeth Fuller.

*821. HENRY CLEVELAND, b. Jany. 1, 1790; d. Oct. 26, 1856; m. Roxana Faulkner.

*822. SARAH (SALLY), b. Jany. 14, 1791; d. before 1860; m. Joseph Edmunds.

*828. JOHN, b. Feby. 11, 1802; d. June 20, 1857; m. Sally Kenyon.

*829. CHARLES, b. Dec. 8, 1804; d. April 13, 1862; m. twice, which see.

830. Daughter, b. and d. in 1806.

417. REV. JAMES REYNOLDS: (Reuben[5]; Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. Horseneck, Greenwich, Conn., March 16, 1771, on tombstone; d. August 15, 1837, aged 66-4-29, at Peach Orchard, now Hector near Burdette, Schuyler Co., N. Y. He was known as "Elder" Reynolds. He was a fine and noble-spirited man. He became a preacher of the old-school Baptist faith, serving without pay. With his own hands he is said to have built four churches. From Greenwich, Conn., his father Reuben took the family to Chatham-Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y.; and in 1792 to Kortright and Harpersfield, Delaware Co., N. Y., then the Indian frontier. James' brother Andrew remained all his life in Kortright township; about 1814 his brother, the Rev. Israel, also a Baptist preacher, removed to Cortland, N. Y., and spent the rest of his life there. Dr. George P. Reynolds of Alameda, California, wrote about 1914: "The Rev. James, my grandfather, died in Hector about 75 years ago. He had two brothers, Israel and Andrew, but I never knew of his having any sisters." James and his wife and one child removed from Kortright to Peach Orchard (Hector) N. Y., about 1794-95.

James m. Miss Esther Nash, 1792, daughter of Johnson & Joanna (Hoyt) Nash of Harpersfield, Delaware Co. The Nashes were of Harpersfield in 1790 Census. Esther was b. 1777; d. Dec. 28, 1842, Peach Orchard, Hector, N. Y. James and Esther are buried in the family lot of Wm. H. Reynolds in Hector Union Cemetery, Burdette, N. Y. Their first child was b. in Kortright; all the others in Peach Orchard, Hector, N. Y.

*832. JOHNSON NASH, b. March 13, 1793; d. July 11, 1859; m. Mary Wilcox.

*833. HANNAH, b. Jany. 27, 1796; d. April 25, 1834; m. 1: Ebenezer Hanley. 2: Judge Henry Saylor.

*834. PHEBE, b. Sept. 30, 1797; d. March 29, 1836; m. Matthias Jonathan Jaquish.

*835. GEORGE W., b. Dec. 13, 1799; d. March 31, 1851; m. Lurinda Hanley.

836. JAMES, who died at or near Pottsville, Penna.

837. NELSON L., b. about 1804; d. Oct. 20, 1878, Oshkosh, Wis.; m. Sarah B. - - - - and had John E., Eunice H., who m. a Strate. All lived in Oshkosh, Wis. No more known.

838. ADELINE, married Dennis Tunison.

839. PAMELA, b. March 18, 1808; d. March 18, 1879, Hector; m. Rev. Asa Story, Feby. 3, 1838 (1835?), at Hector. Had: Caleb and Joshua, who lived in California, and G. W. Story. Asa was son of Rev. Cyrus Story, b. Aug. 10, 1802, Grantham, Mass.; d. Pine Bluff, Ark., Nov. 13, 1852.

840. PETER HAGAR, b. around 1810; d. Himrod, N. Y.; m. Harriet Eggleston, Sept. 13, 1853, dau. Thomas & Elizabeth (Clark) Eggleston of Pulteney, N. Y. Harriet was b. June 17, 1833; d. Feby. 10, 1860. They had no children. Peter is buried at Himrod; Harriet at Pulteney, N. Y. Peter was named for a neighbor of his father.

*841. WILLIAM HARRISON, b. Sept. 9, 1813; d. March 31, 1894; m. 1: Eleanor Nivison. 2: Martha Lacy.

842. MARIA LOUISA, died at Big Stream, N. Y.; m. 1: Isaac Sked (Skid?), but divorced. 2: Daniel Hunter.

843. ESTHER LUCINDA, died in Minneapolis, Minn.; m. Vine G. Crane. Had two sons. All lived Minneapolis.

418. REV. ISRAEL REYNOLDS: (Reuben[5]; Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. "Horseneck," Greenwich, Conn., April 21, 1782, (old Bible record); d. Cortland, Cortland Co., N. Y., August 7, 1869.

He m. Miss Rachel Seward, April 20, 1802; b. Nov. 2, 1783; d. Sept. 28, 1874, daughter of Aaron & Elizabeth (Clark) Seward. Elizabeth d. April 22, 1813. It is stated that Rachel was an aunt of Wm. H. Seward (1801-72), who was Secretary of State under Abraham Lincoln.

Israel's father Reuben lived at the 1790 Census in Chatham-Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y.; in 1792 he with sons Reuben, Andrew and James, and perhaps other children, of whom we have no record, removed to Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y. Israel's wife's parents were of Delaware Co. Between 1810-1820 Israel removed from Kortright to Cortland, N. Y. In the 1810 Census he was of Kortright, 1 son under 10; himself being between 26-45; 3 daughters under 10; wife between 26-45, which tallies with our family record. In 1820 was not in Kortright Census. Of his two known brothers, Andrew remained in Kortright; and James, who was also a Baptist minister, went about 1795 to Hector (Burdette) Schuyler Co., N. Y., where he always lived. Rev. Israel spent the rest of his life from some time not long after 1810 in Cortland, N. Y. Because Rev. Israel and Daniel Clement bought land together at Cortland in 1814, it has been thought that Clement m. Israel's sister, but this is only conjecture. The old Bible of Rev. Israel reads, "Reuben Reynolds, father of Israel Reynolds, died Aug. 3, 1819." This Bible was in the possession of Mrs. Martha J. Carson, an old lady of Cortland, who about 1915 lived in Cortland, N. Y. The children of Israel and Rachel lived in and about Pulteney and Cortland, N. Y.

845. MALINDA, b. Feby. 6, 1803; m. Ephraim Sanford.

846. ELIZABETH, b. March 24, 1805; m. Russell Cowles.

The home where he raised his family was burned about 1903. Charles[8] C. Reynolds (No. 1931), Enoch's grandson, while visiting the site in 1918, secured the old door-knocker, a prized keepsake, which is now mounted on his door near Altona, Ill. Maria was b. In the "Hard Cider and Log Cabin" Presidential Campaign of 1840 he drove his team of oxen, being one of one hundred yoke, in a local demonstration for William Henry Harrison. The oxen were to haul and erect a tremendous ash flag-pole. It was set up in Bedford Village in a place where the countryside might gather to hear the local orators while they extolled the bravery of Harrison who had fought the Indians under Tecumseh and The Prophet. "Tippecanoe and Tyler, too!" rang from the Bedford Hills. Enoch attended a district school under an old-style master who favored the Cockney motto, "Give an hinch and they'll take an hell." Enoch used to tell of his brother Reuben, that the Master having caught Reuben at some breach of the rules, ordered him out upon the floor to receive punishment. Reuben first stepped to the fireplace and possessed himself of the "fire-stake."

"Reuben, what are you doing with that fire-stake?" the Master demanded.

"I believe I need as good a weapon as you have," he retorted.

"Reuben, go home!" and the command was promptly obeyed.

Enoch was a member of a family of fifteen and early knew the ardor of competition. Enoch and Maria had: (all b. at Bedford Village, N. Y.)

dau. Abraham & Lydia (Husted) Todd of South Salem, N. Y. Abraham was an officer in the Revolution,—See p. 88, 87-88, 158-59, etc., of Todd Genealogy, 1820. Nathaniel, a farmer, in his will signed Dec. 20, 1839, probated Jany. 22, 1844 at White Plains, describes himself as being of South Salem, N. Y. A house which he built in 17— is still in use between the home of George W. Reynolds and the old Cemetery in Cross River.

He had an unusual experience in the Revolutionary War. Officially, his record runs: Private, Captain Seeley's Co., Col. Drake's Regiment. Also private in same company, Lt. Col. Benedict's Third Westchester Regiment. His brother Ezra was in the same Company. Nathaniel was also private in Capt. Ebenezer Slason's Co., Third Westchester Militia Regiment under Col. Samuel Drake, April-November 1776. Nathaniel became Second Lieutenant of Captain Samuel Lawrence's Co., same Regiment, June 25, 1778; taken prisoner June 24, 1779; exchanged only Oct. 24, 1781, two years later. Lieutenant of Fourth Westchester Regiment; Lieutenant in Capt. Lawrence's Co., Lt. Col. Thaddeus Crane's Fourth Westchester Regiment, in which Company was his brother Benjamin, later seriously wounded. George W. Reynolds, of Cross River, still has the ancient commission by which Nathaniel was made "Lieutenant No. 1 of Captain Joseph Benedict's Company in the Regiment of Militia in the County of Westchester, whereof Jesse Truesdal, Esquire, is Major. Dated Oct. 19, 1786. He was in the battles of White Plains and Ridgefield, Conn. In later life he drew a pension for his military services. On June 24, 1779, Nathaniel while on guard duty, was taken prisoner by a detachment of British Cavalry under Colonel Simcoe. Released in an exchange only Oct. 24, 1781. We quote the excellent account of Nathaniel's experiences by his grandson Alvah[7] Reynolds, of Altona, Ill., who is one of the Associate Editors of this genealogy:

"War with its accompanying devastation usually terminates in a food shortage felt by both combatants and civilians. So it was in the Revolutionary War. Farmers suffered both from military foraging parties and from unscrupulous civilians thieving in the night, for the notorious 'cowboys'—roving bandits and Tories—made frequent raids and sometimes committed murders. Nathaniel Reynolds was home one night before his enlistment, and was awakened by the noise of the bars being slipped and dropped; he heard some of the cows walking over the lower bar. He primed his flintlock, pointed it in the direction of the bars and fired, then hastily re-loading he waited, listening, but heard nothing more of the marauders.

"Next morning he found the bars down and the cows wandering about the place. He grew to hate the British who were continually marching by and pulling their cannon along the roads, pillaging the countryside and mal-treating its people, so he decided to enlist and to help free his country of English domination. He was unfortunately taken prisoner by the enemy, and held in their detention camp on Long Island for over two years, where his employment was the making of coats for the British soldiers, as he was a tailor by trade.

"His wife and sister, knowing of his imprisonment and solicitous of his welfare, decided to visit him in prison camp, and undertook and accomplished the journey on foot.

"They walked to Long Island Sound, probably to Greenwich, obtained passage across, and passes into the prison camp, where they found all well with Nathaniel. After spending two days with him they started on the return journey, and after crossing the Sound proceeded several miles, they were arrested at a British outpost as spies and were searched by the Redcoats. They were, however, released as nothing was found on them, for Hannah had taken the precaution to do her message up in her hair. On being released, they proceeded several miles, when he saw horsemen coming behind them. They despaired lest their message be found in their possession, they climbed over the stone fence at the roadside, and concealed themselves, after having lifted a stone and placed their letter under it.

"While they waited in hiding, four troopers rode by and one was heard to remark, 'Those women were in a h—— of a hurry, or they would be in sight by this time!'

"By this remark, the women knew they were being sought again, and they avoided the road for some miles, going across country. They finally arrived home, having safely completed their journey, and at a time when the presence of British soldiers gave their martial law the right of might to govern.

"This is a part of the war experience of my grandfather, Nathaniel Reynolds, as I remember it being told by him and grandmother, when I would occasionally visit them in Cross River with father and mother when I was a boy, up to the time of his death in 1843, at which date I was thirteen years old."

Stephen's class poem written in his freshman year, which is still in existence, is evidence that he went to college, but to which one is unknown. He studied medicine with James Potter, M.D., at New Fairfield, Conn., 1784; removed to Minaville, town of Florida, Montgomery Co., N. Y., in 1785, and practised there until May 1832 when he removed to Schenectady, N. Y., having purchased No. 25 North Church St., the next building north of the Dutch Church. He was a celebrated Latin scholar and something of a poet. He was the founder and president of the Washington Benevolent Society, and going to Philadelphia, he commissioned Sir Gilbert Stewart to paint a replica of his portrait of Washington, which he presented to the Society. When the Society disbanded, the portrait was returned to him, and it is now in the possession of his great-granddaughter, Mrs. Frank J. Wilder, of Saratoga (Josephine Voorhees, now of Boston,—her husband owns Wilder Book Store). Stephen was the president of the Montgomery Medical Society, which issued certificates entitling its members to practice medicine, and was one of the first in this portion of the country to hold clinics.

The Montgomery County, N. Y., Historical Society at Old Fort Johnson now possesses two old autograph letters from General Lafayette to Mrs. Lydia (Bartlett) Reynolds, who was his hostess at Amsterdam. One of the letters, telling of the death of his son, was written after his return to France. They were loaned to the Society by Mrs. Frank J. Wilder of Somerville, Mass., a granddaughter of Betsey Reynolds who m. Dr. Samuel Voorhees.

Portraits of Stephen and his wife Lydia Bartlett, and their son Marcus[7] T. Reynolds, painted by Ezra Ames, about 1821, are in possession of Marcus[9] T. Reynolds of Albany, N. Y., and are reproduced in this book.

567. CAPTAIN HORTON REYNOLDS: (Horton[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1781; d. Greenwich, Feby. 9, 1814, aged 33; buried Husted Plot, Clapboard Ridge.

He m. Miss Abigail[6] Ingersoll, Nov. 21, 1798, Greenwich Congregational Church, daughter of Nathaniel & Abigail (Reynolds) Ingersoll. See No. 207 herein for her descent. She survived Captain Horton and afterwards married Shadrach Mead, Feby. 20, 1815, Second Congregational Church. Shadrach administered Nathaniel's estate. Horton Reynolds was Captain of a Greenwich Company of Militia in the War of 1812. His Sergeant was his cousin Abraham Reynolds, and Ambrose and Gideon, cousins, were in the company also. Descendants not traced further than below given.

1105. JAMES H., of whom we know no more.

1106. ABIGAIL J., b. June 8, 1806; d. Nov. 5 ,1860, aged 54-5-7, Old Cemetery, Cos Cob; m. Wm. Hanford Mead, March 7, 1831. He d. Feby. 1872.

1110. MARY (POLLY), b. Nov. 12, 1786; d. Feby. 11, 1842; m. John Silkman.

1111. SARAH (SALLY), b. Sept. 27, 1788; m. Charles Raymond.

1112. THIRZA, b. Nov. 13, 1790; d. Feby. 22, 1837; m. Henry (Harry) Ritch of Greenwich, Conn. Her dau. Eliza, m. 1st, a Higgins. 2nd, Gideon[7] Todd Reynolds. See herein, seventh generation, No. 1123.

1113. WILLIAM REYNOLDS, b. No. 2, 1792; d. Sept. 2, 1793.

1114. WILLIAM REYNOLDS, b. Dec. 2, 1794.

581. GIDEON REYNOLDS: (William[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Poundridge or Lewisboro, Westchester Co., N. Y., in 1783; d. July 14, 1847, Cross River, N. Y.; he and most of his family are buried in Cross River Cemetery.

He married three times: 1: Betsey[7] Reynolds, his second cousin, once-removed, Dec. 27, 1803; b. Sept. 1, 1786, Westchester Co., N. Y.; d. June 12, 1830; buried with her husband and parents in Cross River Cemetery. She was of John of Watertown through (3 Nathaniels; James[3]; John[2]). First ten children are by her. Gideon then m. 2: Miss Theodosia Smith, April 15, 1831; b. Jany. 3, 1789; d. May 11, 1843; dau. Matthew & Theodosia (Mead) Smith. Buried churchyard North Salem, N. Y., with her parents. See Mead Genealogy, p. 251. Gideon and Theodosia had one child, Emeline Hoe. Gideon m. 3: Mrs. Hannah (Rundle) Smith, widow of Alvah Smith, Feby., 1846, Christ Church, Greenwich. She was b. Sept. 12, 1794; d. Jany. 5, 1883; buried beside her first husband in Greenwich Congregational Churchyard, Conn. Gideon in 1846 was "of Cross River." Alvah Smith was b. Dec. 28, 1792, d. March 30, 1836, son of Charles & Sally Smith. Hannah and Gideon had no children. Gideon's son Gideon m. Emily Smith at the same church in Greenwich, Conn., eight months later.

Gideon served in the War of 1812, together with his cousins, Sergeant Abraham and Private Ambrose, in the Militia Company of Captain Horton[6] Reynolds, their cousin. Gideon was of Cross River, then of Lewisborough, N. Y., but was "of Greenwich" when he made his will May 28, 1847. It was probated Sept. 14, 1847. He lived only sixteen months after his third marriage. At one time Gideon owned and operated the through stage line from Danbury, Conn., to New York City through White Plains. In 1829 he built the splendid big red brick tavern at Cross River, which he operated as a half-way house in this stage run of about seventy-five miles. This big old-fashioned tavern is still owned in the family, now being occupied by Mrs. Mary Julia Moore, whose record appears farther on. In the neighborhood are the home of Miss Amelia Todd, the "Seven Maples Farm"; the big farm of George W. Reynolds; and the home of William Silkman Reynolds, all of Cross River. Gideon's children were probably all b. in Cross River, Westchester Co., N. Y. Mrs. Mary Lockwood Smith has gathered the materials and data which have made possible the complete account of Gideon and his descendants, and the Editors are deeply indebted to her.

588. GILBERT REYNOLDS: (Gilbert[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Westchester County, N. Y., April 2, 1771; d. June 17, 1807, "after an illness of six days," aged 36. He m. Fannie Todd, Sept. 22, 1791, Church of Christ, Salem Westchester Co. (or Sept. 14, 1791, on church records); who was b. August 28, 1775; d. Aug. 23, 1860, daughter of Oliver & Lydia (Close) Todd of So. Salem. Oliver Todd was in the Revolution—see pp. 88, 160, Todd Genealogy of 1920. Oliver Todd was b. Oct. 25, 1748; d. July 25, 1814, aged 66. Lydia Close was b. Oct. 5, 1747; d. April 27, 1825, aged 77; they m. Feby. 25, 1768. Fanny Todd had a brother Ira, b. Aug., 1777; sister Huldah, b. July 12, 1779; brother not named b. May 2, 1782. This line is confused in the Todd Genealogy.

History of Greene Co., N. Y., p. 61, mentions a Dr. Gilbert Reynolds, physician, as of 1827; but this is probably Gilbert, 3rd. The name Uel probably came from the Todd Family. Until his death in 1807 Dr. Gilbert Reynolds was a physician at Coeymans, Greene Co., N. Y. There were several Gilbert Reynoldses in the Civil War (see Records of Adjutant General of N. Y. at Albany), mostly from around Rochester, and probably of this line. He died early from after-results of an injury to his hip, after a fall on the ice crossing the Hudson.

1132. OLIVER, b. Jany. 31, 1792; physician, resided Webster, Monroe Co., N. Y. Mrs. Jacob Vaughn of Swea City, Iowa, is his grand-daughter. Addition on page 439.

1132-a. NANCY, b. Dec. 22, 1793; d. June 22, 1862; m. Dr. Guy C. Spalding, March 5, 1811. They lived at Coeymans, N. Y., and had Gilbert Reynolds. More is told of her and her descendants on page 438.

1132-b. AMBROSE HORTON, b. Jany. 23, 1796; d. Oct. 26, 1834.

1132-c. GILBERT, b. Dec. 2, 1797; d. Aug. 18, 1831; m. Sarah B. ——. His will dated Aug. 11, 1831, probated Sept. 8, 1831, is in the Hall of Records, N. Y. City, Vol. 67, p. 476, 403 n.s. "of New York, coachmaker," mentions son Edwin Gilbert Reynolds and daughter Julia Maria who was younger, wife Sarah B., brother Uel, brother Alfred.

*1133. UEL, b. Dec 18, 1799; d. Sept. 19, 1874; m. Mary Ann Newberry.

1133-a. ORSA, b. Oct. 30, 1801; d. June 5, 1827.

1134-a. HARVEY, b. Jany. 31, 1804; d. 1867.

*1134. ALFRED, b. Feby. 13, 1807; m. Juliet Stillwell, Oct. 17, 1827. He lived in Rochester.

591. AMBROSE REYNOLDS: (Ambrose[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., March 31, 1789; d. Nov. 16, 1843, aged 54-7-16, Greenwich; Episcopal Cemetery.

He m. Miss Amy[7] M. Reynolds, Sept. 5, 1831, by Rev. Joel Mann, Second Congregational Church. Another record gives March 6, 1831. Amy was thus a first cousin, once removed, to Ambrose, her husband. Joshua, brother of Ambrose, m. Amy's sister Rachel. Ambrose was a private in the War of 1812 with his brother Gideon. Captain Horton Reynolds commanded this Company and Abraham Reynolds, cousin, was its Sergeant. Family attended Second Congregational Church. Amy was b. 1807, d. April 17, 1888, aged 81, Greenwich. See Nos. 559, 1093.

1135. AMBROSE A., baptized July 20, 1834, who d. unmarried.

1136. OLIVER, b. Nov. 18, 1837; d. Oct. 22, 1864, aged 26-11-4; unmarried. He and Sylvanus were baptized June 16, 1844, Second Cong. Ch.

1137. SYLVANUS, b. May 17, 1842; d. Oct. 29, 1867; m. ————. Has son Sylvanus living in Greenwich now, who is married.

592. JOSHUA REYNOLDS: (Ambrose[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., July 29, 1793; d. there Sept. 29, 1866; buried Christ Church Cemetery; m. Rachel[7] Reynolds, Jany. 9, 1822, sister of Amy who m. his bro. Ambrose, and dau. of Abraham[6] & Anna (Mead) Reynolds of Clapboard Ridge, Greenwich. Rachel was b. there Dec. 14, 1799; d. Greenwich, Dec. 25, 1843, aet. 44 yrs. 11 days. Rachel's father and her husband were first cousins. Joshua was a farmer and lived on North Street on the farm where Augustus N. Reynolds lived in 1906. Second Congregational Church. Descendants still in Greenwich; and in La Junta, Colo. See Nos. 559, 1091.

*1139. WILLIAM TODD, b. June 11, 1824; d. Stanwich, Conn.; m. Anna Maria Knapp.

*1140. ELETHEA, b. May 4, 1826; d. April 28, 1890; m. Silas Merwin Mead.

1141. RACHEL ANN, b. June 29, 1828; d. Greenwich, Nov. 26, 1912; m. Ezra B. Knapp, at Rye, N. Y. No children. Lived, New Fairfield, Conn.

*1142. ABRAHAM, b. Nov. 17, 1830; d. May 2, 1908; m. Lucina J. Mead, 1856.

*1143. AUGUSTUS NORMAN, b. June 21, 1833; d. March 3, 1912; m. Martha A. Mills.

1144. EDGAR JOSHUA, b. Dec. 10, 1835; d. April 13, 1862, aet. 26-4 mos.; d. Greenwich, unmarried.

1145. MARY LOUISE, b. July 27, 1840; d. Jany. 18, 1855, aet. 14-5-22, Episcopal Cemetery, Greenwich.

593. GIDEON REYNOLDS: (Ambrose[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., 1794; d. Rye, N. Y.

He made his home in Rye, N. Y., and m. 1: Mrs. Emeline (Mead) Canfield, by whom he had two children. See Mead Genealogy, p. 281. She was the daughter of Benjamin & Eunice (Knapp) Mead. By Canfield she had a son Arden V. Gideon m. 2: Betsey Fountain, 1827;

b. Feby. 12, 1808; d. 1848. No children by Betsey. Children by Emeline b. in Rye, N. Y. Emeline d. Rye, N. Y., July 4, 1876; buried Rye Union Cemetery.

1146. JAMES, who died unmarried.

1147. BENJAMIN, m. Louisa Parker, Rye, N. Y.

596. JARED REYNOLDS: (Ambrose[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Sept. 17, 1798, Greenwich; d. there Jany. 31, 1880, aged 81-4-14. He m. Julia A. Rundle, b. Jany. 11, 1805; d. Jany. 23, 1867. Both buried Episcopal Church Cemetery. He and his wife joined the Second Congregational Church May 5, 1839; all three ch. baptized Aug. 30, 1844. They lived in Greenwich, Conn.

1149. JULIA A., b. Oct. 24, 1838; d. Nov. 30, 1858, unm., "only daughter," aged 20-1-6.

*1150. JARED SYDNEY, b. April 17, 1840; d. Jany. 1, 1897; m. Esther Purdy.

*1151. SAMUEL EDWARD, b. 1842; m. Mary E. Husted.

597. BENJAMIN REYNOLDS: (Ambrose[5]; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., April 1800; d. Greenwich, June 7, 1899, aged almost 100 years. He m. Lucinda Mead, Jany. 3, 1842, Greenwich, daughter of Isaac & Polly (Mead) Mead. See pp. 448, 377, Mead Genealogy. Lucinda d. Greenwich, Sept. 1893. Benjamin attended the Greenwich Schools and Lucinda the Wethersfield Private School. Farmer; Republican. Lived on North Street, Clapboard Ridge; Parsonage Road. Member Second Congregational Church. Julia and Mary have the old family Bible dated from 1808. Up to his death, Benjamin retained his faculties clearly, but was unable to move on account of an injury to his knee a few years before. Always lived in Greenwich, but through unfortunate endorsements lost a large portion of his fortune. He died in comfortable circumstances. Was of solid integrity and endowed with many excellent qualities of the heart and mind. Three children:

1152. JULIA, b. 1843. Has not married. Address: 155 Milbank Ave., Greenwich, Conn.

1154. MARY E., b. Oct., 1851. Has not married. Address: 155 Milbank Ave., Greenwich, Conn.

601. JUSTUS REYNOLDS: (Sackett[5]; Justus[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Greenwich, Conn., July 26, 1761; d. before 1842? m. Miss Elizabeth Hubs (Hobbs?), daughter of Obadiah Hubs of Rye, N. Y., March 18, 1789, at Purchase, N. Y., Quaker Meeting. Justus was then of Greenwich. Purchase was in the township of Harrison, Westchester Co., N. Y. In the Quaker records for Westchester County we also find: Justus Reynolds of New Rochelle, m. Phebe Norton, daughter of Joseph & Elizabeth Carpenter, of Harrison, N. Y., Nov. 17, 1802, at Purchase. This might be a second marriage of the same Justus, or another Justus altogether. As Phebe's name was Norton, it might be that she was then a widow; or that Carpenter above was her mother's maiden name. In 1897 there was a Justus and wife Rachel—he was a monument cutter— in Amenia. He was of the Kingstown, R. I., family. All we know of their children is taken from the same Quaker records:

1160. HANNAH, "dau. Justus & Elizabeth Reynolds of Mamaroneck, m. Willit Secor of Mamaroneck, son of James & Hannah, May 20, 1813, at Mamaroneck."

1161. ELIZABETH, "dau. Justus & Phebe (both deceased), of Purchase, m. Ashbel Schofield of Stamford, Conn., son of Gilbert & Abigail, Nov. 14, 1842, at the home of Rufus Reynolds in Harrison, N. Y. Ashbel became a Quaker about a year previous." Perhaps Rufus was a son of Justus.

607. PATTY REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[5]; Hezekiah[4]; Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. about 1766, probably in Spencertown, Columbia Co., N. Y.; reared in Rutland, Vt., where she probably married; d. Delmar, Penna., in 1854, aged 88 years. Very little is known about her, except that she recounted many bits of family history to her grand-daughter. These are related under the sketch of her father, Lieut. Jonathan, No. 272, herein. Her husband Eliot had a brother Robert Eliot. "Patty" was probably christened Martha.

She m. 1: John Eliot, by whom three children. She m. 2nd: Charles Pardie, about 1831, by whom no children. They are believed to have resided at Delmar, Penna. Three Eliot children:

Eliot Children:

1162-1. SILAS.

1162-2. JOHN of Hannibal, N. Y. "He was a tavern-keeper on the turnpike at Hannibal. Well-to-do."

*1163. ZADA, b. about 1792; d. Feby. 1, 1831, Hannibal, Oswego Co., N. Y.; buried there; m. Silas Crandall of Hannibal, about 1806.

608. JAMES REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[5]; Hezekiah[4]; Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. probably in Rutland, Vt., or Spencertown, N. Y., before 1779; d. probably in Salisbury, Vt., before 1841, when was mentioned in his father's estate papers. He m. Miss Cynthia Strong in Rutland, March 5, 1798. They were then both of Rutland, but in 1841 his family were in Salisbury, Vt., where it would appear his children were born, as they are given in the town records. We believe there were other children b. between 1798 and 1803, probably in some other town. Electa and Eli are mentioned in the estate papers of their grandfather Lieut. Jonathan. See pp. 41 and 45 of the 1923 Reynolds Family Annual; also p. 28 of 1922.

1164-a. ALVA, b. Jany. 1, 1804.

1164-b. GEORGE W., b. Dec. 31, 1805.

1164-c. ELECTA, b. Feby. 17, 1808; d. about 1880 at Mason City, Iowa.

*1165. ELI S., b. Dec. 2, 1809; d. Berwyn, Ill., in 1911; m. Miss Mary E. Smith who was b. Oct. 6, 1818, d. Berwyn, Dec. 23, 1900

1165-a. ENOS STRONG, b. Feby. 3, 1812.

612. WALDO REYNOLDS: son of Joshua or of Jonathan. For Waldo's children, see No. 626 shortly following this reference.

614. JACOB REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[5]; Hezekiah[4]; Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Spencertown, Columbia Co., N. Y., or Rutland, Vt., in 1777; d. Rutland, Jany. 15, 1864, aged 88; buried Evergreen Cemetery, Center Rutland, Vt., beside his two wives. He m. 1: Betsey ----, who was b. 1780; d. March 24, 1813, aged 33. He m. 2: Amy or Aura Alger, b. 1776, m. at Strafford, Vt., Dec. 5, 1819; d. Aug. 11, 1853, aged 73. Headstones for all three in Cemetery. They lived in Rutland, Vermont, and their children were:

1166 JACOB, lived on part of the original farm of Lieut. Jonathan, now known as the Jones Griggs place between Center Rutland and Proctor. He was known as Jock or Jake.

*1167. JONATHAN, 2nd, b. Rutland, July 6, 1811; d. Center Rutland, Oct. 10, 1866; m. Harriet A. Deland of West Rutland, April 18, 1830.

615. MORRIS REYNOLDS: (Jonathan[5]; Hezekiah[4]; Jonathan[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Rutland, Vt., Feby. 13, 1780; d. July 9, 1848. He is called Morrison in administration of estate of Lieut. Jonathan Reynolds, 1841, but in other Vermont records appears as Morris Reynolds. He m. Miss Charlotte Chatterton, Rutland, Jany. 23, 1805. Both were of Rutland. It was probably Charlotte's brother Exi or Eli who m. Morris' sister Rebecca in 1806 in Rutland. Charlotte d. May 6, 1854.

Morris always lived in Rutland. He kept an old account book from 1804-1810 of which the owner, George B. Reynolds (1924) of Middlebury, Vt., says: "The items would indicate that it was a record of a blacksmith, which bears out my brother's statement that he always understood our great-grandfather's name was Jonathan and that he was a blacksmith; it may be his son Morris kept his books or perhaps Morris may have run the shop after his father retired." Morris and Charlotte's children were:

*1168. ISAAC C., who m. Ruth Ann Johnson, Feby. 9, 1831. Lived in Rutland, Vt.

1169-a. BRADLEY AARON, who died at age of six.

1169-b. MORRIS, JR., m. Martha Foot. Children: Charles who d. aged 21. Mary m. Geo. Keefe, but had no issue. Morris lived in Rutland, but finally died in Proctor, Vt.

1169-c. ABNER T., m. Fannie Starks. Lived Pittsford, Vt. Had no issue.

1169-d. CHARLOTTE, m. I. Bingham Proctor, Feby. 22, 1853, both of Rutland. Children: William Proctor, died in infancy. John Proctor, wife unknown. Mary Proctor, m. Wm. McNeil. This family lived in Caledonia, Mich. Mary McNeil, widow, still lives in Caledonia.

*1170. AARON BRADLEY, b. Rutland, Sept. 1826; d. Dec. 1897; m. Mariette Boardman, Dec. 25, 1860. She was b. Black Earth, Wis., Aug. 1842; d. Proctor, Vt., Dec. 1910.

625. JOSHUA REYNOLDS, Jr.: (Joshua[5]; John[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Rutland, Vt., July 14, 1785; m. Sophia Gillette, who was b. May 19, 1787; d. Oct. 6, 1821. Date of her death as given in Cutter, Families of Central New York, pp. 1442-3, does not seem correct. It is the date given for birth of Hiram and before Charlotte was born! "When a young man he left Vermont and located in Le Roy Township, Bradford Co., Penna. He built a large house and cleared a considerable farm there." Children all b. Bradford Co., Penna.

1172. JULIAN, b. Feby. 8, 1807; m. - - - Hayward.

1172. HENRIETTA, b. Nov. 1, 1808.

1173. LUCINDA, b. May 21, 1811; m. Samuel Ellicott.

*1174. NELSON, b. Dec. 30, 1816; d. Sept. 8, 1877; m. Clarissa Knapp.

1175. HIRAM, b. Oct. 6, 1821; m. Betsey Taylor.

1176. CHARLOTTE E., b. Aug. 9, 1830; m. Daniel Spaulding.

626. WALDO REYNOLDS: (Joshua[5]; John[4]; Joshua[3]; John[2]: John[1]) b. Rutland, Vermont, d. ———. m. Electa ———. He probably lived in or near Rutland, Vermont, as two children are recorded there. There were probably other children as well.

1177. SARAH W., b. Dec. 12, 1810.

1178. CYRUS W., b. Feby. 7, 1812. He is probably the "child of W. Reynolds, d. Rutland, Aug. 9, 1813, aged 1 yr. 6 mos."

Increase was member of Westchester Co., N. Y., Militia, Second Regt., during the Revolution. Joanna was b. Oct. 7, 1761; d. Jany. 22, 1848, Sat., Aurora, Ill.

The children of Solomon and Joanna were b. in Somerstown, Westchester Co., N. Y. In 1790 Census there were four Solomons in New York State, but of them we eliminate two, so that this Solomon was probably in Frederickstown or Northeast Township, Dutchess County. In the first instance, 3 small sons, wife and 2 daughters; in the second, two sons under 16, wife and two daughters.

The Elmira Reynoldses are of this descent. Most of this family went from Westchester Co. in 1824, to Newton, Chemung Co., N. Y. (now Elmira). Afterwards some of them went to Illinois. Principal authorities on this family are Marcus T. Reynolds; Mabel E. Reynolds of Laurium, Mich.; Adelaide Krotts, daughter Harriet K. Moore Krotts. The dates and children below are from the old papers left by a daughter of Isaac, Adelaide Reynolds Moe, on her death in 1914, and are so carefully written that they are undoubtedly correct. Much information was given also by Mrs. Geo. R. Story, 66 So. Broad St., Norwich, N. Y. Children b. Somers Township, Westchester Co., N. Y.

July 4, 1838, at Port Byron, Cayuga Co., N. Y., where he is buried. m. Alice Baker, Jany. 1, 1815, at Comstock's, Fort Ann, Wash. Co., N. Y., daughter Deacon Reuben and Lydia (Mason) Baker; granddaughter Nathan and Sarah (Mason) Baker—both Reuben (Rev. Sold.) and Nathan being of Rehoboth, Mass. For Baker Genealogy see Reynolds, Gale and Baker Families, by Hon. Edwin Ruthven Reynolds, 1875. While yet a boy, removed with his father Parker Reynolds to Saratoga and to Elizabethtown. Learned printing business at Salem, N. Y., with his brother John P. who for several years published the Washington Register at Salem. Both of them were Jeffersonian Republicans and opposed DeWitt Clinton. Linus himself published and printed the Washington Register for several years down to 1828, when he was invited to East Poultney, Vermont, to edit the Northern Spectator, published by Mallory, Hosford & Co. He edited it about three or four years, but about that time was ordained as the Pastor over the Baptist Church in Middletown, Vt., where he preached five years. He afterwards preached a year or two as missionary in different places, and finally became the minister of the Baptist Church at Port Byron, Cayuga Co., N. Y., where he is buried beside his daughter Caroline. Horace Greeley was an apprentice in the office of the Northern Spectator during the time Linus was Editor. The latter discovered the wonderful abilities of the future great editor, and said, "If he lived, he would shake the world." Greeley in his Recollections, Ch. 10, was much attached to "the Elder" and says, "for whom I cherish fervid and grateful recollections." Judge B. Frisbie, in 1875 Editor of the Poultney Journal, spoke of Linus as follows: "We have before us several copies of the Northern Spectator, dated 1829, 1830. That paper was published in the East Village in the building now occupied by Zebediah Dewey as a dwelling house.

It was published about ten years. Linus J. Reynolds was the editor. He was a Baptist clergyman, settled in Middletown some five years previous to 1832. He had a fair standing as a preacher and was noted as a scholar. The moral tone of the Spectator, under Mr. Reynolds' management, was excellent, and there were less grammatical, typographical and other errors than are ordinarily found in our country papers at the present day. The Temperance reform began while Mr. Reynolds edited the Spectator, and he espoused the cause with zeal and earnestness. He was among the pioneers in Poultney and Middletown, and wrote and spoke much in favor of the cause." His wife (née Alice Baker) is buried at North Petersburgh, N. Y. They had:

865. ARD REYNOLDS: (David[6]; Titus[5]; Reuben[4]; Joseph[3]; Jonathan[2]; John[1]) b. North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., 1812; d. Brooklyn, N. Y., June 17, 1877, aged 65; buried in family plot, Woodlawn Cemetery, Bronx, N. Y. City, Lot. So. ½-3238, graves 4-6, Sec. 17, Forest Plot. He m. Miss Phoebe Angelina Barrett, b. 1817; d. March 8, 1880, aged 63. Family lived in Morrisania, N. Y. A Bible was presented to Ard by the Marsh Lodge of Masons, Brooklyn, which he founded. The family lived mostly in Westchester County.

Ard and his brothers Horace and David went to California in the great Gold Rush. Ellen Reynolds of Pleasantville, N. Y., writes:

"I can remember Uncle Ard coming to my father's house to bid him goodbye just before he started for the gold fields in California in 1849, with his brothers who never came back. On his return fifteen years later, he told us it took six months to get there on a sailing vessel around Cape Horn. On reaching the American River north of Sacramento, California, they worked awhile. David, discouraged, went up to prospect in the Sierras on the upper American River. They did not hear from him and never could find him, so suppose he died up there. Ard left Horace after enduring great hardships for nearly fifteen years. He came home broken in health and spirit. I met him many times afterward. Horace remained three years after that and died on his way back from California, his wife and two children at South Salem having meanwhile died."

Henry H. Reynolds of Ridgewood, N. J., writes:

"I have the articles of agreement made on March 3, 1853, between Ard Reynolds of Sutter Co., and John Jackson, regarding a certain claim known as South Cove Claim in the bed of Feather River in township of Ophir, Butte Co. I have also a letter written from Ard to his wife, Bedford, N. Y., dated March 31, 1851, written on a large sheet showing an engraved sketch of San Francisco in 1851. I have also a lithograph of four sketches showing pictures of Sunday amusements in the mines. This was addressed to a Mrs. L. Horton, Port Chester, N. Y. I have also a letter to his daughter Augusta, Bedford, N. Y., dated May 1858. I did have, but cannot now find, a chart showing the trip around the Horn; also showing the return trip from San Francisco around the Horn. Dates were marked along the course showing the location of the ship and what happened, such as seeing whale-ships, waterspouts, whale, etc. I know grandfather did return to New York broken in health and without the fortune he went to seek.

"Ard spent $20,000 in a company damming the Feather River and the work was just completed when a freshet came down and tore all the works away. They did not have the funds to try again and lost very heavily—practically ruined by it. After that the three brothers each tried his luck alone in gold-digging. When Ard came home, Horace remained five years; then on the way back sickened in Indiana and died en route home."

In the same California goldfield where these boys worked without result for many years, great gold dredges are today taking millions from the gravel. Modern processes of recovering gold have enabled mining companies to extract a great amount of gold from the tailings and waste gravel of former miners who could not then make it pay.

While Ard was in California the fifteen years, his family lived at Bedford, N. Y. Ard and Phoebe had:

Jonathan J. and Huldah (Reeves) Hayden. Alvah is a member of the Christian Church; Republican; and compiler of the Partial Genealogy of John Reynolds, pub. by himself, Sept. 1916, Galesburg, Ill.—an extended account of the descendants of John Reynolds of Watertown, Mass., 1635. It is one of the foundation stones in this present Watertown Genealogy. We quote his biography from the preface to that book: "My father, with other neighbors, hired a schoolteacher winters to teach us children. They came for miles around to learn how to read, write and 'cipher.' Our school building was small, with long benches for seats and a wide board fastened to the wall to write on. Our pens were made from a goose quill, and ink made by boiling the sap and bark of trees.

"As soon as I was old enough I was sent out to learn the carpenter's trade. I worked some three and a half years for $30-40 a year. Two winters my boss did not have work, so I went home and went to school. My teacher then was a fine man and a good scholar. After I learned my trade I found work in and around New York City at 10½ shillings a day the first year, and 14-15 shillings the second and third a half years in all, in New York City. I put about half my wages in the Greenwich, N. Y., saving bank, lived and clothed myself on about half my wages.

"In the summer and fall of 1854, I got the Western fever and took Horace Greeley's advice to 'go West, young man, and grow up with the country.' In December, 1854, in company with my cousin, James H. Newman, I started for Kansas to help build up that Territory into a free State. Lucky or unlucky, we never got to Kansas. We found difficulties we had not counted on. The suspension bridge at Niagara had not been opened for railroad traffic. We crossed over with our baggage on a temporary wagon bridge. Our emigrant train a slow poke, 8 or 10 miles an hour, and stopped for wood and water every two hours. Arriving at Windsor, we unloaded, ferried to Detroit, and loaded again for Chicago.

"On arriving at Chicago we were pretty tired. Riding and sleeping on wooden benches for some three weeks had begun to wear on us, so we rested in Chicago some three or four days and started for St. Louis via Springfield and Alton by cars and river boat to St. Louis To our dismay we found no river boats running on the Missouri River, so after a day or two we concluded to buy a yoke of oxen and rig a wagon with cover for our first home. We took a ferry boat across into Illinois to find the oxen. We met with fairly good luck, got the oxen and wagon and provisioned it in four or five days, and struck out.

"While eating dinner at the hotel some miscreant, black or white, confiscated Newman's overcoat, not stopping to take out the Bible he carried in it, given to him by a good lady friend in New York. I well remember the verse she wrote in each Bible she gave us. It read·

> "Pray hear to me, and not delay,
> To read a chapter every day;
> Pray read this book with pious care,
> And for your dying hour prepare."
> MRS. KATHERINE N. COLE.

"We drove along some four or five miles, came to wood and roads without fence and log house, with colored occupants and some lank, wild hogs hunting for mast. Occasionally a nest of pigs where four or five mothers had left their little ones in a bed of leaves and gone off to forage. We were warned to leave the pigs alone, for an alarm from them would bring the old ones and we should have to climb a tree. We finally came to the little town of Washington, on the bank of the Missouri River about Christmas. Were offered work in a saw mill which we accepted for about two months. Not liking our occupation or location, we concluded to retrace our steps to St. Louis.

"We took a river-boat for Peoria; stopped there several days. Not finding work at our trade, we went to Rock Island, Davenport and Moline. Disappointed in not getting something to do, we walked to Geneseo, where Newman was taken sick with measles and I found work building an office for O. J. Stow, the druggist. By the time Newman was able to work and the office was completed, we found work in Altona, Ill., building a tavern for Stewart Koon in June, 1855.

"After the hotel was completed, we worked in and around Altona three or four years. The prospects of Civil War stopped all business in 1858, for four or five years, so that corn was burned for cooking and heating and was sold for ten cents a bushel in the markets.

"In 1857 I bought a quarter section of land (N.W.Sec. 2; 13 N.: 2 E.; 4 P. Meridan) for $2,400, laying out. Had it to fence and brake, plow and build on for a home. In April, 1859, I married Susannah Hayden. We took up our abode in a shanty and went to work farming as best we could.

"We did without all luxuries and many comforts for some eight or ten years. As times got better we added to our farm, so that in 1894, we had nine 'eighties'; 720 acres of land in Ontario Township, free of incumbrance. In that year we deeded to our six children each an eighty acres of land. In 1896 my wife died and my two youngest daughters kept house for me for eleven years. In 1907, not wanting the care of the farm any longer, I sold it to my youngest son, Charles C. Reynolds. A part of the consideration was that I have a home with him as long as I live. The money consideration I divided equally among my children." He was apprenticed at carpentry Sept. 12, 1846.

He has been an active officer of the Reynolds Family Association, and has given largely and liberally to the cost of this and previous publications. His portrait is printed opposite page 15 of the 1921 Reynolds Family Annual; also as the frontispiece of the Reynolds Genealogy he published 1916.

His address is: Altona, Knox Co., Ill., where all children born.

His portrait, painted by Ezra Ames, now (1924) in the possession of Marcus[9] T. Reynolds of Albany, is reproduced as the frontispiece of this Book. Those of his parents are published near page 150, herein.

When he was ten years old he was sent to the high school at Canajoharie, N. Y., where he remained three years. On leaving there, he entered a collegiate school at Utica, where he was fitted for college. In 1805, entered Union College, graduated second in his class 1808. He began the study of law in Albany in 1809, and a year later entered the office of Matthias B. Hildreth of Johnstown, Fulton Co., N. Y., who was many years the Attorney General of N. Y. State. Marcus was admitted to the bar Feby. 14, 1811, and early evinced those talents which enabled him to advance rapidly. He practiced at Johnstown for seventeen years, where he was compelled to contend with the talented lawyer, David Cady. In May 1828 he removed to Albany, where he passed the remainder of his life.

"From the year 1837 to the adoption of the Code of Procedure, Marcus T. Reynolds, Samuel Stevens and Nicholas Hill were impartially regarded as the three prominent lawyers in N. Y. State. It was said that a reference to the reports of cases argued in the Appellate Courts of the State from 1817-1853, when he retired, will show that Marcus T. Reynolds was counsel in more cases adjudicated in the Supreme Court and the Court for the correction of errors than almost any other lawyer of the State. During a period of twenty-six years he was second to none as a barrister. The story of his career during that time is the history of the Supreme Court, Court for the correction of errors, and the Court of Appeals.

"He had the faculty of passing from grave to gay, from lively to severe, with surprising facility. He carried his cases, by being thoroughly imbued with them himself, and then, by a clear and well-defined statement to the court and jury, imparting the impression that he had no doubt of the right of his case. Before a jury, he had a sort of magnetic power, by which he photographed his own ideas and reasons upon the minds of the jury." (See: Proctor's, Bench and Bar; Procedings of the Albany Bar on the Death of Marcus T. Reynolds; Albany Evening Journal, July 15, 1864.)

He was confirmed by the Senate as Justice of the Supreme Court, July 7, 1849, and was also elected to Congress. He was in the same Congress about 1860 or 1861 as his tribesman, the Hon. Edwin Ruthven Reynolds of Albion, N. Y. State.

Within a year or two of the operation of the first passenger railway train, in 1831, he became concerned in the organization of steam roads, and when on May 5, 1836, several small lines consolidated as the Albany & West Stockbridge road, he was elected President of the new company. He was chosen President of the Utica & Schenectady R. R., later merged into the N. Y. Central lines. First President, Albany & Northern R. R., Oct. 17, 1857; Director, Albany Insurance Co., 1835-1863; director N. Y. State Bank, June, 1840, to July, 1861; a founder of the Albany Hospital, organized 1843; founder and trustee of the Albany Orphan Asylum, organized May 19, 1830; an organizer and fourth largest contributor to the Albany Rural Cemetery; President of Albany & Bennington R. R., April 30, 1850; President of Albany & Susquehanna, 1855; President Utica & Schenectady R. R.; one of the largest contributors to the founding of the Dudley Observatory, 1852. Elected Vestryman of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 1842; Warden, 1843, serving through 1860; chairman of its most important committees.

He resided a long time at number 7 Park Place, Albany, which site was taken about 1870 for the new capitol. His last residence was at the southeast corner of Maiden Lane and Pearl Street, where he practiced law and lived with his family.

See R. F. Report, 1908, p. 14.; m. Elizabeth Ann Gale, Nov. 25, 1847, at Gaines, N. Y., b. Aug. 3, 1827; d. April 16, 1905. This Gale Family fully traced in a genealogical pamphlet by Edwin Ruthven Reynolds, 1875, in some large libraries, pp. 10-15. Of his own life, Edwin writes: "After my father left Poultney for the West, being desirous of getting what education I could, I went to the New Hampton Institution, N. H., where I was fitted for College, under my friend, Rev. E. B. Smith. I then entered Brown University, where I remained about two years. Owing to the situation of my father's family at that time, I felt it my duty to assist him as much as I could, and so went and taught the Academy at Cold Spring, on the Hudson, for one year. In February, 1838, I came to Albion, as the first Principal of the Albion Academy, which I taught about four years. While conducting this Academy, my Collegiate relations were changed, and I was received at Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., ad eundum gradum, and in 1845 had conferred upon me the degree of Master of Arts, by the same College. In November, 1841, I was appointed by the Board of Supervisors, County Supt. of Schools and devoted the next two years to the duties of that office, after which I again took charge of the Albion Academy, 1845-6, for about two years more. In the meantime I had studied law in the office of Hon. A. Hyde Cole and Hon. Dan H. Cole, at Albion, and was admitted to the bar at Rochester, Oct. 27, 1843, Samuel Nelson then Chief Justice. In April, 1848, I was elected Justice of the Peace for the town of Barre, and served till 1854. As I had myself, when a boy, in my fathers' office in Poultney, learned the printing business, I took much interest in our local papers, and for several years wrote for them and for other journals; and during most of the time that the Orleans American was conducted by S. A. Andrews, I took the principal charge of the concern, writing most of the political articles. Mixing in political affairs much more than was profitable to myself, I was (by appointment to a vacancy) a Member of the 46th Congress in 1860-61, and stood within a few feet of Mr. Lincoln when he delivered his first Inaugural Address, March 4, 1861. In the fall of 1863, I was elected County Judge and Surrogate of Orleans County, N. Y., and served as such for four years, from Jany. 1, 1864, to 1868. During all these years I have been more or less engaged in the practice of the law in Albion, and have dealt somewhat in real estate. We have had only two children."

He was a member of the R. F. Assoc. until his death. He learned the printer's trade in his father's office alongside of Horace Greeley, also an apprentice there. Presbyterian. In his last years made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Grace Phillips, of Albion, N. Y. In addition to their own two children, Edwin and his wife had the care of Anna Cushing, who died in infancy, and Charles Cushing, children of his wife's deceased sister, Phoebe. Edwin and Elizabeth had:

"George W. Reynolds learned the trade of a tanner in the tannery of his father, Hosea Reynolds, and found time also to assist his father and brothers in farm work. His limited education was acquired in an old-time district school and in the Academy at Jefferson, Schoharie County. He was fond of reading and he walked many miles to borrow books from the private library of Dr. Halsey, a famous physician several miles distant. In 1836, with a brother, he went to Stamford, then known as the head of the Delaware River, to engage in the business of saddle and harness-making. In 1843, after his marriage, he moved to Franklin to follow the same occupation.

"He was an ardent Abolitionist and, in order to make his views upon the subject of slavery better known, he entered the newspaper field by starting, in 1855, Franklin's first newspaper, The Franklin Visitor, placing upon the first page under the heading, the words: 'I also will Shew mine opinion.'

"The Visitor was one of the few papers published in the county. When the editor enlisted for service in the Civil War, the Visitor was sold to and merged with the Delhi Republican.

"His fondness for books led the editor to establish a bookstore in Franklin. The bookstore was a popular place of meeting for students and others, and the source of lasting friendships.

"In 1866 he again engaged in editorial work, having purchased the Oneonta Herald, from its founder. He was subsequently twice appointed postmaster at Oneonta by President Grant, dividing his time between newspaper work and the postoffice until he sold the Herald. Upon retiring from the postoffice in 1877 he established the Oneonta Press, and later disposed of that paper to accept an editorial position with the News-Letter at Exeter, N. H. From there he moved to Melrose, Mass., where he bought the Melrose Journal. This venture proved to be successful, financially and otherwise, but as he found the work too arduous he sold out and bade farewell to newspaper activity. His rest was of short duration, for he could not endure the thought of laying aside the pen. In a short time he was again in the harness as owner of a newspaper at Clinton, Mass, later moved to Oneonta to become editor of the Oneonta Spy, his third newspaper venture at Oneonta.

"On account of the infirmities of age, he was finally obliged to write his valedictory and, turning the Spy over to his son, Edward C. Reynolds, he returned to Franklin to spend his declining years. He continued to write until near the end of his life. Although for forty years intimately connected with the printing business, he was never a practical printer, and his activities were wholly editorial. He was widely known as a graceful and forceful writer.

"At the funeral of the old Editor, the Rev. Samuel J. White, his friend and pastor from 1843 to 1851, referred to his early education, expressing regret that the facilities had not been better. This was the one thing lacking to have given him a wide reputation as a literary man. He mentioned his patriotism, always the most ardent, and his earnest work for the abolishment of slavery, which both had lived to see accomplished; and the firm stand always taken by the editor for good government and an honest administration of American affairs."

†Cuyler Descent: JOHANNES CORNELIUS CUYLER (born in Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1766; died there Oct. 25, 1828) m. Hannah Maley (b. Oct. 12, 1769) who was the dau. of John Maley (b. in Alsace, 1743) who came to America in 1766 and two years later was a tax-payer in Albany, where he died Oct. 28, 1811, leaving a large estate. His wife was Catharine Tremper (b. 1748) dau. of Jacob W. Tremper, of Kingston, N. Y., of whose estate John Maley and William Tremper were made administrators Oct. 6, 1795. The earlier generations spelled the name Trompour and Trumpbour. Johannes Trumpbour, of Ulster Co., whose will was executed March 3, 1783, proved June 28, 1785, appointed his wife, Cristine, and sons, Nicholaus and Jacob, executors.

Johannes C. Cuyler in 1800 purchased Old Fort Johnson (near Amsterdam, N. Y.) which had been the manor-house of Sir William Johnson, which he occupied at his summer residence until 1817.

He was the son of Cornelis Cuyler (b. in Albany, Oct. 13, 1735, d. in Schenectady, Feb. 1, 1794) and Anna Wendell, whom he married March 26, 1763. She was born in Albany, June 5, 1736, and died in Schenectady, Feb. 25, 1775. She was the dau. of Jacob Wendell (b. 1702 d. Aug. 2, 1745), who married Helena Van Rensselaer (b. Oct. 4, 1702) Dec. 19, 1728. Jacob Wendell was the son of Harmanus Wendell (b. 1678 d. 1731) and Anna Glen (b. 1677 d. 1756) whom he married in 1699. Harmanus was the son of Hieronimus Wendell (b. 1655 d. 1691) and Anantje Visscher, the dau. of Harmanus Bastiaan Visscher (b. 1619 d. 1693) and Hester Tjerkse. Harmanus was the son of Bastiaan Visscher, of Horn, Holland.

Hieronimus Wendell was the son of Evert Jansen Wendell (b. 1615 d. 1709) who, July 31, 1644, m. Susanna De Trieux (d. 1660) the dau. of Philip De Trieux (b. 1585) and Susanna De Schene. Anna Glen, wife of Harmanus Wendell, was the dau. of Jacob Sandertse Glen (b. 1647 d. Oct. 2, 1685) trader, of Albany, who married Catharina Van Witbeck, dau. of Jan Thomase Van Whitbeck.

Jacob Sandertse was the son of Sander Leendertse (Glen) and Catalyn Dongan (Doncassen). He d. Nov. 13, 1685, and his wife, Aug. 12, 1684. Tradition declares that he was Alexander Lindsay, of the Glen, younger son of the Earl of Lindsay, and that the name Sander Leendertse was a Dutch corruption of the Scotch name. He was in the employment of the West India Company and settled at Fort Nassau, on the Delaware, in 1633, but in 1665 removed to Schenectady as holder of the patent of Scotia. A portion of this estate and a fine house erected in 1717 are still owned by the Sanders-Glen family.

Helena Van Rensselaer, wife of Jacob Wendell, was the dau. of Hendrick Van Rensselaer (b. Oct. 23, 1667 d. July 2, 1740) who inherited that portion of the Manor which was on the East side of the Hudson River and erected a brick residence called Fort Crailo, still standing in the City of Rensselaer, where "Yankee Doodle" was composed. He married, March 19, 1689, Catrina Van Brough (b. 1665 d. Dec. 6, 1730). He was the son of Jeremias Van Rensselaer Patroon, of the Manor (d. Oct. 12, 1684) and Marritje Van Cortland, whom he married July 12, 1662 (b. July 30, 1645 d. Jan. 29, 1689). Jeremias was the son of Kiliaen Van Rensselaer (d. 1643) first Patroon and Anna Van Weely, whom he married in 1627. She died, 1670, and was the dau. of Jan Van Weely, wealthy pearl merchant of Barnevelt (Assassinated 1616) and Leonora Hawkins, of Antwerp.

Marritje Van Cortland, wife of Jeremias Van Rensselaer, was the dau. of Oloff Stevense Van Cortland (b. 1600 d. April 4, 1684) Patroon of the Van Cortland Manor and son of Stephen Van Cortland and Catharina—(b. 1565). Oloff Stevense Van Cortland m. Anneke Lookermans on Feb. 26, 1642, who died 1669. She was the dau. of Govert Lookermans and From Tournhout.

Helena Van Rensselaer, wife of Jacob Wendell, was the dau. of Catrina Van Brough, who married Hendrick Van Rensselaer, March 19, 1689 (b. 1665 d. Dec. 6, 1730). She was sister of Pieter Van Brugh VI., mayor of Albany, and the dau. of Johannes Van Brugh (b. 1624 d. 1699) and Catarina Jansen (m. 1658). Johannes was the son of Pieter Verbrugge.

Catrina Jansen was the dau. of Roeloff Jansen (d. 1637), the son of Tryn Jansen and Annecke Janse (Webber) (b. 1605 d. 1688) who tradition says was the dau. of Anne Webber by Frederick Hendrick (b. 1584 d. 1647) the second son of William the Silent (b. 1553 d. July 10, 1584) who came to the throne in 1625 as Prince of Orange, after the unexpected death of his brother, Maurice. She was given a large farm lying below Wall Street, New York, which, on the occupation of the British in 1686, was presented to Trinity Church and which has been the subject of litigation ever since.

Cornelius Cuyler, husband of Anna Wendell, whose ancestry has been given above, was the son of Johannes Cuyler (b. in Albany, June 21, 1698 d. Oct. 24, 1746) a trader of Albany, and Catharina Wendell, b. 1705, m. Oct. 28, 1727, d. April 12, 1746. She was a sister of Jacob Wendell, the father of Anna.

Johannes Cuyler was the son of Abraham Cuyler, a trader and Justice of the Peace in Albany, and brother of Johannes Cuyler, XIV. mayor of Albany. He was buried in the Albany Church, July 14, 1747. His will is dated May 11, 1742, but was not proved until Oct. 10, 1747, and is recorded in Liber p. 179 N. Y. Surrogates Office. He married in the Dutch Church, Albany, Nov. 17, 1689, Caatje Bleecker, dau. of Jan. Jansen Bleecker and Margaret Rutgers Van Schoenderwoert. She was b. May 1, 1670, and died April 8, 1734, and was bur. in the Albany Church, April 11th.

Jan. Jansen Bleecker was b. July 9, 1641, at Meppel, Overyssel, Holland, the son of John Bleecker. He was married Jan. 2, 1667, and died at Albany, Nov. 21, 1732, and was buried in the Dutch Church on Nov. 24th. He was the father of Johannes VIII, Mayor and Rutger, the fifteenth Mayor of Albany.

Abraham Cuyler was the son of Hendrick Cuyler, born at Hasselt, Holland, whose baptism is there recorded August 11th, 1637, as Henderyck, the son of Isebrant Coylaert, a tailor, and Evertien Jansz. He married about 1660, at New Amsterdam, Anna Schepmoes, and in 1664 settled in Albany and bought a lot on the East side of Pearl Street and after 1680 lived on the South side of State Street near the Fort. He was commissioned Lieutenant of a Foot Company for the County of Albany and Major of all the Foot Companies in the City and County of New York, Dec. 16, 1689. He delivered Ft. James to the Leislerians and was Captain of the Fort in 1689.

His will is dated March 21, 1690, and his wife took out Letters of Administration on it Nov. 17, 1690. Will filed in Surrogate's Office, N. Y. Liber 14 A., p 124.

Annetje Schepmoes, his wife, was baptised in the Dutch Church at New York, Feb. 16, 1642. She was the dau. of Jan. Janse Schepmoes, of Delft (b. 1605) and Sarah Pieters (b. 1609) who were married in Amsterdam in 1632.

Jan. Janse Schepmoes d. in New Amsterdam, Jan., 1656, and on Oct. 7th of the same year his widow m. Willem Cook. Her will is dated July 3, 1702, and was proved March 18, 1702-'3 and is recorded in Liber 7, p. 93, at the N. Y. Surrogates.

The Holland ancestors of Hendrick Cuyler, who lived at Hasselt, as given in The Earliest Cuylers in Holland and America, by Maria Churchill Nicoll, are:

Isebrant (father of Hendrick) & Evertien Jans, son of Reynier (b. about 1578-'80) and Hendryckien Jans, son of Cornelius and Marrietien Isebrants, son of Andreas—an organist of Hasselt, son of Engbert (barber surgeon) b. before 1509, son of Andreas, a grandson of Tydeman, an official in Hasselt in 1456.

All previous to Isebrant spell the name Koylert.

removed to Portage, Alleghany (now Livingston) County, N. Y., in 1806, with her brothers Micah and Eli Griffiths, a Colonel in the War of 1812 who settled at Pike.

John Stewart, Jr., was b. about 1783, when his mother (Diadema) was but fifteen years old. He and his brothers Dana and Eli were grown up when they removed in 1806 to Pike, Livingston Co., N. Y. He m. there Nancy Bancker§ Clute, b. Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 25, §Clute Descent: NANCY BANCKER CLUTE (b. in Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1776, died in Moscow, Livingston Co., N. Y., April 28, 1864), wife of John Stewart and grandmother of CATHERINE MALEY (CUYLER) REYNOLDS, was the dau. of Daniel Toll Clute (b. Nov. 29, 1754) in Schenectady, N. Y.; d. and bur. at Castile, Livingston Co., N. Y., July 25, 1815, where he had obtained the Squaky Hill reservation (near Genesco) from Little Beard, the Indian proprietor. Her mother was Annatje Bancker (b. at Schenectady, Oct. 13, 1756; d. there April 28, 1807). They were married June 25, 1775. Daniel Toll Clute was the son of Gillis (Jelles) Clute (b. about 1729—will executed May 4, proved July 10, 1809, left his house and lot in Schenectady to his "eldest son, Daniel") of Schenectady, and Geertruy Toll (b. Aug. 7, 1729, d. Aug. 12, 1756), who were of Schenectady when they were married in 1754.

Gillis Clute was the son of Johannes Clute (Cloet) bp. at Kingston, Sept. 22, 1700, (who removed in 1703 to Schenectady) and Tanneke Fonda, of Schenectady. They were m. at Schenectady, Dec. 11, 1726.

Johannes Clute was the son of Frederic Clute, who came from Kingston, N. Y., about 1703, and bought 150 acres of land of Johannes Clute, an earlier settler in Niskayuna (near Schenectady). Their relationship has not been determined. Frederic Clute married Francyntje Du Monds, of Kingston.

Tanneke Fonda, wife of Johannes Clute, baptised in Albany, March 9, 1698, was the dau. of Gillis (Jillis) Fonda, a gunstocker of Albany, who removed to Schenectady about 1700. He made his will Sept. 8, 1737, and mentioned his wife, Rachel Winne (a dau. of Pieter Winne and Jannetje Adams) whom he had married Dec. 11, 1695. Pieter Winne was Commissary or Magistrate of Bethlehem, Albany Co. He was born in Ghent. He made his will July 6, 1684.

Gillis was the son of Douw Jillise Fonda, who owned property at Lubberdeland (Troy) in 1676 and who died Nov. 24, (27) 1700, and whose wife was Rebecca.

Douw Jillise Fonda was the son of Jillis Douwese Fonda, who was in Beverwyck (Albany) as early as 1654. His wife, Hester, was a widow in 1664 and by 1666 was the widow of Barent Gerritse.

Geertruy Toll, wife of Jillis Clute, was the dau. of Captain Daniel Toll and Grietje Bratt. Daniel Toll was b. July, bp. Aug. 11, 1691, in Albany. His will, executed May 6, 1747, was proved Oct. 18, 1748. On July 18, 1748, he was ambushed by a party of French Indians at the "Turkey Massacre" at the Kleykuil (now in the town of Glenville, near Schenectady). He was found tied to a stake to which was attached a crow. He had been scalped and his eyelids had been cut off. Capt. Daniel was the son of Carel Hansen, a Dane, who, having been shipwrecked in the West Indies, was held captive for several years, until he escaped by swimming to a Dutch vessel. He finally settled in the flats near Hoffman's Ferry, on the North bank of the Mohawk, above Schenectady, which he bought from Hendrick Cuyler, which lands, together with his branding iron, hymn book, cradle and furniture, are still owned by the Toll family. He married Lysbet, dau. of Daniel (?) Rinckhout, of Albany, (b. in 1630 in Pommerania, Holland) and died in March, 1737, or '38.

Grietje (Margarita) Bratt, the wife of Capt. Daniel Toll, was born April 25, 1686. She was the dau. of Samuel Bratt and Susanna Van Slyck.

Samuel Bratt was born in 1659, the son of Arent Andriese, who, with his brother, Albert Andriese, were among the earliest settlers of Albany, where they were often known as De Noorman (which gave the name to Normanskill). Arent became, in 1662, one of the earliest settlers of Schenectady, about which time he died.

His wife was Catalyntje, dau. of Andries De Vos, Deputy Director of Rensselaerswyck, who died in 1665.

His home lot in Schenectady was the West quarter of the block bounded by Washington, Union, Church and State Streets, the heart of the oldest section of the city.

She married in Nov., 1664, Barent Janse Van Ditmars, who was killed in the massacre of 1690. A year later she married Class Janse Van Boekhoven, whom she also outlived. Their joint wills were executed Jan. 11, 1698-'9.

Susanna Van Slyck, the wife of Samuel Bratt, was the dau. of Jacques Van Slyck, who was born in 1640, at Canajoharie. His Indian name was Itsychosaquachka. The Mohawks gave him half of an island, being immediately West of the city.

He married Grietje, dau. of Harmen Janse Ryckman, of Albany. He made his will May 8, 1690, naming Pieter Schuyler, first Mayor of Albany, Dirck Wesselsen (ten Broeck) and Johannis Glenn as guardians of his minor children. His widow, Grietje, married Adam Vrooman, Feb. 21, 1691-'2. Jacques was the son of Cornelis Antonissen Van Slyck, called by the Indians "Broer Cornelis," and a Mohawk woman. (Continued next page)

Cornelis Van Slyck received a large tract of land at Catskill as a reward for his services in bringing about peace with the Indians. He died in 1676.

Returning to Nancy Bancker Clute, wife of John Stewart and grandmother of Catharine Maley (Cuyler) Reynolds, her mother was Annatie Bancker, who was born in Schenectady, Oct. 13, 1758, married Capt. Daniel Toll Clute, June 25, 1775, and died at Schenectady, April 28, 1807.

She was the dau. of Thomas Brouwer Bancker, b. 1730, d. May 25, 1807. He resided in Schenectady. He married Annatie Mebie, Nov. 2, 1754 (b. Oct. 4, 1732, d. July 2, 1776).

His father was Johannes Bancker (b. after 1711), who settled on the Normanskill, where Thomas Brouwer was probably born, but removed to Schenectady prior to 1735, where the baptisms of the other children are recorded. His mother was Magdalina Veeder, of Schenectady (b. April 2, 1710).

Evert Bancker, the father of Johannes, was a merchant of Albany, where he was born Jan. 24, 1665. In 1692 he was Justice of the Peace. On Oct. 15, 1695, he was appointed (the third) Mayor of Albany by Gov. Fletcher. He was reappointed by Gov. Edward Hyde in Oct. 1707 until Sept. 1709. He was appointed Master in Chancery Oct. 13, 1705, and Indian Commissioner in 1696, 1706; 10; 20; 24; 26 & 28. His homelot was on the south side of Yonker (State) Street and Fourth east of Pearl.

He retired to his farm in Guilderland, where he was buried July 10, 1734. His will was executed March 13, 1734, and proved July 31 of that year. He married Sept. 24, 1686, Elizabeth Abeel, who was the sister of Johannes Abeel, Albany's second Mayor. She was born March 23, 1671, and was buried March 20, 1734. She was the dau. of Stoffel Janse Abeel and Neeltje Janse Croon.

Evert Bancker was the son of Gerrit Bancker, who emigrated from Amsterdam and who was in New Amsterdam, prior to 1655. In 1657 he was in Beverwyck where his homelot was on the south of Yonker (now State) Street, the third east from Pearl. He was one of the fifteen original proprietors of Schenectady under Arent Van Curler in 1662. Six farms on the Bouwland were alloted him and his homelot was the northerly quarter of the block bounded by Washington, Union, Church and State Street (the center of the older portion of Schenectady) which on his death, about 1691, descended to his son Evert.

Gerrit Bancker m. Lysbet Van Eps (b. 1623, d. July 3, 1693), who after his death returned to New Amsterdam where she engaged in trade and accumulated a large fortune, which she left to her son Evert. She was dau. of Dirk Van Eps (d. before 1652) and his wife Maritie Damen, who later married Hendrik Andriese Van Doesburgh and after his death in 1663 she m. Cornelius Van Nes in 1664.

Magdelina (Helena) Veeder, wife of Johonnes Bancker, was born April 2, 1710, the dau. of Gerrit Simonse Veeder, who married Aug. 3, 1690 in Albany, Tryntje, only dau. of Helmer Otten, a resident of Beverwyck, as early as 1633 and Ariantie Bratt, b. 1651 dau. of Arent Andriese Bratt(d. 1662). Ariantje after the death of Helmer Otten in 1675, m. Reyer Schermerhorn.

Gerrit Veeder, through his wife, became possessed of the lots on the northwest corner of Union and Church Streets in Schenectady. He made his will March 12, 1746-7. It was proved July 8, 1755.

Gerrit Veeder was born in 1624, the son of Symon Volkertse Veeder (alias de Bakker) and in 1644 belonged to the ship Prince Maurice, which plied between Amsterdam and New Amsterdam in which city he bought a lot in 1652, which two years later he sold when he removed to Beverwyck. He rem. to Schenectady in 1662. He made his will Jan. 8, 1696-7, described himself as of "Rensselearwyck Colony" and mentions his wife Engeltie (Van R Manor Records N. 1196). His will recorded April 13, 1713 No. 1784 in Calender of Wills describes him as Symon Volckertson of Schinnechtady, Albany Co. yeoman.

Annatie Mebie, the wife of Thomas Brower Bancker, was b. in Schenectady Oct. 4, 1732, and died July 2, 1776. She was married Nov. 2, 1754. She was the dau. of Jacob Mebie, b. March 1, 1698, bp. May 5, 1700, d. April 18, 1755, who m. Aug. 7, 1725, Catrine Vrooman.

Jacob Mebie inherited from his father Jan Pieters-Mebie one half of the third flat on the south side of the Mohawk eight miles above Schenectady. He made his will April 25, 1755, which mentions his wife Catrine and Anna, wife of Thomas Brouwer Bancker.

Jan Pieterse Mebie of the Woestyne m. Anna Pieterse dau. of Pieter Jacabse Borsboom. In 1867, Rode, a Mohawk sachem granted them eighty acres on both sides of the Shoharie Creek, because Anna Pieterse was "something related to the Christian Castle."

Jan Pieterse Mebie made his will April 3, 1725 (proved Sept. 13) and died April 8, 1725.

Pieter Jacobse Borsboom was a brick maker, who early settled in Beverwyck. In 1662 he became one of the fifteen original proprietors of Schenectady. His will was recorded in New York, Oct. 18, 1686. His wife was an Indian woman, which probably explains the gift mentioned above. Catrina Vrooman, wife of Jacob Mebie, was b. May 12, 1701, and was the dau. of Jan Hendrickse Vrooman, who, July 4, 1680, m. Geesje, dau. of Simon Volkertse Veeder (b. 1624) already considered.

Jan Hendricksen Vrooman inherited the homelot of his father, Hendrick Meese Vrooman (now the site of the New York Central Station) in Schenectady. In 1686 he bought a half interest in Van Beel's patent on the Normanskil. In 1690 he was captured at the massacre of Schenectady and, with his nephews, Barent and Wouter Vrooman, was carried into Canada, where he remained until rescued in 1697 by his brother, John.

Hendrick Meese Vrooman was one of three brothers who early appeared in Beverwyck. In 1670 he was living "behind Kinderhook," but in 1677 removed to Schenectady, where he lived until he was killed in the massacre of 1690 with his son, Bartel, and several grandchildren.

1776, d. Moscow, N. Y., April 28, 1864, a sister of Gellis Clute who bought the "White Woman's Reservation" (Mary Jamison) at Squawkie Hill. John Stewart, Jr., d. 1857, and with his two brothers is buried in Three Rivers, Mich.

John Stewart, the elder, was an inn-keeper of Whitehall when he made his will, Sept. 3, 1792. It mentions three sons and four daughters. His brother Daniel Stewart and wife Diadema were executors. Will recorded at Salem Nov. 2, 1792. Diadema was the daughter of Micah Griffiths, who was an early settler of Skenesborough (now Whitehall, N. Y.) and Diadema Kennedy. He died about 1805.

Dexter Reynolds received his early education at the College Hill Academy, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; continued preliminary studies at Albany Academy, which he entered in the fall of 1842, remaining two years, when he was prepared to enter Union College in 1844. Here he joined the Sigma Phi Fraternity, class-mate of President Chester A. Arthur, who was an intimate friend. He graduated July 26, 1848, ranking second in his class of 120, honored with the Latin salutatory. Attending Lawrence Scientific School (now part of Harvard University), the year of its founding, 1848-49; graduated Harvard Law School, '50. Admitted to the bar at Albany, Dec. 2, 1851. In 1853 wrote the volume published by Gould, Banks & Co., Albany, 1853, A Treatise on the Law of Life Assurance. Formed partnership with Orlando Meads; afterwards with John Olcott, son of Thomas Worth Olcott, the banker. Later on he was associated with the law firm of M. T. & L. G. Hun, nephews, at 25 North Pearl St., Albany. With his friends, Erastus Corning and J. Howard King, he made a number of visits to western states on hunting trips, and it was then he purchased large tracts of land in Iowa, equal in extent to nearly half the area of that state. His final sale in closing the investment was 210,000 acres. In the Civil War, he was paymaster of the Third Regiment; went to Richmond, Va., under General Frederick Townsend, with rank of major.

His patented inventions numbered twenty or more, and each of these was among the pioneers of very important lines. He first gave considerable study to the manufacture of paper from wood pulp at a time such processes were not practical or paying. In 1858 published a treatise on the subject. His investigation was most thorough, and gave an impetus to the trade at a time of discouragement.

Among his earliest inventions was a type-setter, which he manufactured in Rochester, previous to 1875. This he followed with an automatic distributor, the first attempt to distribute movable type. In this connection he invented the notching of type. It was placed in a publishing house in Albany about 1876, but was discountenanced by the printers who feared a restriction in the demand for their services. The theory of this machine was utilized by a manufacturer of such machines, and a tedious lawsuit for infringement resulted. It was finally compromised. A direct steel and wrought-iron process occupied his attention for some twenty years, which led to an experimental furnace, erected in the early spring of 1903, which was the first to nodulize fine ores in a revolving cylindrical furnace, which ores had hitherto been of value only when briquetted. This process, the furnaces now enlarged to over a hundred feet, is in general use throughout the country for nodulizing fine flue dust and magnetically separated ores.

His two sons reside in Albany, making the fourth generation there. Both of them were reared at 98 Columbia St., Albany, N. Y.

2166-b. GENERAL JOHN ALFRED REYNOLDS: (Alfred[7]; 2 Gilberts; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Oct. 4, 1830, New York City; d. Fairport, Monroe Co., N. Y., April 30, 1921. In 1839 his father removed from New York City to Webster, Monroe Co., and farmed there for ten years. In 1849 the family removed to Rochester. His father became a grocer until 1861 and John was associated with him. General Reynolds m. Marietta Pardee of Rochester, Oct. 17, 1865, but they had no children. She d. in 1904. They are buried in the Reynolds Plot, Mt. Hope Cem., Rochester.

"From boyhood he was interested in things military, and before the Civil War was a member of the Union Grays of the N. Y. Militia. When the War came he was Captain commanding the famous Grays, and he immediately tendered his own and the Battery's services to the Union. In August, 1861, he and his brother Gilbert Reynolds recruited a company of 155 men, of which John became Captain and Gilbert Lieutenant. This company became Battery L, First N. Y. Light Artillery under Colonel Bailey. It was mustered in Sept. 17, 1861.

"In the spring of 1862 (see the account of his brother which immediately follows this) Battery L was attached to General Banks' command in the Shenandoah Valley and there took part in a series of notable battles. He was commissioned Major and served with the First Corps until after Gettysburg. In the thick of this fight he found himself in command of the regiment because of the death or disability of his superior officers.

"He was next assigned Chief of Artillery, 12th Corps, and went to Chattanooga to the relief of General Thomas. He was Chief of Artillery at Lookout Mountain; then with General Sherman as Chief of Artillery, 20th Corps on the March to the Sea. He was then at the surrender of Johnston at Janesboro; then at Richmond before the surrender of Lee. He was brevetted Lieut. Colonel for gallant and meritorious service; and subsequently Colonel. He was mustered out in June, 1865. He saw more service and went through greater dangers and responsibilities than any other soldier from Rochester; his record has been a matter of pride to Rochester men.

"He was among the organizers of the first G. A. R. Post in N. Y. State. He organized the George H. Thomas Post named after the General of the Army of the Potomac. General Reynolds was elected and re-elected year after year until he died Commander of the Thomas Post, one of the most remarkable records of the G. A. R.

"Shortly after the War, he went into the shoe manufacturing business in Rochester, and retired only in 1889. He became Postmaster at Rochester, March 20, 1890, for four years. He was of retiring, modest disposition and sought no honors or public position, but his ability and solid character made many friends. He was an indefatigable fighter for any cause he believed to be right, and he supported his friends with a loyalty that knew no weakening at critical times. During their terms of office, he entertained two Presidents of the United States at his beautiful home in Rochester."

His Official record at Albany is incomplete, but reads: "At age 30, enrolled Sept. 17, 1861, at Rochester; mustered in as Captain, Battery L, Nov. 17, 1861, to serve three years; promoted Major March 6, 1863. Mustered out June 21, 1865, at Elmira, N. Y." There were numerous soldiers of the name of Reynolds in the First Light Artillery of N. Y., during the War.

2166-c. CAPTAIN GILBERT HENRY REYNOLDS: (Alfred[7]; 2 Gilberts; Gideon[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. New York, Dec. 18, 1832; d. after a long illness in Rochester, N. Y., April 6, 1913; buried family plot, Mt. Hope Cemetery, Rochester, N. Y. He m. Sarah Parker, Rochester, 1861. He came to Rochester in 1849 with his parents.

"At the outbreak of the Civil War, he and his brother John Alfred Reynolds (later General Reynolds), organized the Reynolds Battery of Artillery of about 150 young men of Rochester and vicinity. John Reynolds became Captain and Gilbert Reynolds a Lieutenant. The Battery left Rochester shortly after its organization, and went to Elmira where it was designated Battery L, First N. Y. Light Artillery. Then it went to Washington and spent the winter of 1861-62 there in training for the campaign that followed. Early in 1862 it was detailed to Harper's Ferry to re-inforce Gen. M. P. Pike who was handicapped by lack of men and supplies. Then it returned to Washington and was attached to McDowell's Corps, detailed to guard the federal capital. Its first real engagement was at South Mountain, Va., June, 1862.

"During the spring and summer of 1862 it was in action at White Sulphur Springs, Groveton, Second Bull Run and Chantilly, Va. In September, 1862, it was in action at the Battle of Antietam and in December did gallant service at Fredericksburg, Va.

"The winter of 1862-63 Battery L spent at Belle Plain on the Potomac. In the spring of 1863, it joined the Army of the Potomac under General Hooker. At the Battle of Chancellorsville several members were lost, and then came the terrific Battle of Gettysburg, one of the fifteen decisive Battles of the World, in July, 1863. Before this battle, Captain John A. Reynolds was promoted to Major, and Lieut. Gilbert Reynolds became Captain in command of Battery L. In the first day of fighting at Gettysburg Captain Gilbert had his eye shot out, and he was taken to the village and confined in one of the Confederate hospitals.

"When the Confederates abandoned Gettysburg they took only well prisoners and so Captain Reynolds was placed in a Federal hospital. He rejoined his Battery a few months later, again as its commander. In the spring of 1864 the old Battery was in the Campaign of the Wilderness and participated in the Battles of Laurel Hill, Spottsylvania and North Anna River. Before the completion of these engagements, Captain Gilbert Reynolds suffered injury to his remaining eye, and he was forced to retire.

"He returned to Rochester and at the close of the War resumed his ordinary duties. He became actively interested in politics and was elected school commissioner and later superintendent of streets. He was a member of the George H. Thomas Post of G. A. R. and Sherman Command of U. V. U."

His official record at Albany reads: "At age 28, enrolled Sept. 17, 1861, at Rochester. Mustered in as Second Lieut., Battery L, First N. Y. Light Artillery, Nov. 12, 1861, to serve three years; as First Lieutenant, Dec. 21, 1862; as Captain, March 9, 1863; resigned May 3, 1864, on account of wounds received at Gettysburg, Pa., July 1, 1863."

father and resultant restlessness of his mother, George Beekman Sheppard seldom lived long in one place during his childhood and his education was sadly interrupted, but it was started in the Mt. Washington Collegiate School (Mr. George W. Clark's) at MacDougal & Fourth Sts., N. Y. City. Having through his mother a long line of professional ancestors he had an unusual retentive brain and being a constant reader his knowledge was beyond that of many men of even better schooling. He had to begin business life early, doing clerical work in Directory compilations and later in railroad offices and in a bank until 1891 when he established himself as a law stenographer in New York City and so continued until he went to Albany for one year (1905) as Executive Stenographer of the State for Gov. Higgins. In 1906 he went to the Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. at 1 Madison Ave., New York, as Secretary to the President of that company. Other duties were added later, and he remained with that company until his death. For a few years, 1883-1891, he lived in Omaha, Neb., but apart from that his life was mostly spent in or near New York, and for twenty-four years he was a capable secretary for the West End Association of New York, resigning because of ill health.

Cuyler Reynolds was educated Albany Academy and a boarding-school in Catskill, N. Y. His early education particularly developed his faculties as a writer, and he established in 1885 the school paper of which he was editor-in-chief. He engaged in newspaper work and followed it fifteen years, at the same time contributing to more than a score of the better magazines. He was a special correspondent for the Sun and Leslie's Weekly. Turning his attention then to the writing of books, novels and reference works, he produced a full score, the most valuable of which were his Classified Quotations, Putnam, 1905; Albany Chronicles, 1907. The latter is a volume so comprehensive and copiously illustrated that it is likely to endure and be cited as one of the best authorities of State history. Later he became editor-in-chief of the Hudson-Mohawk Genealogical & Family Memoirs in four octavo volumes. In 1915, he wrote a two-volume history of New York State. In New York City, on Jan. 6, 1913, he opened the comprehensive historical 500th anniversary Joan Arc exhibition which he prepared as Director, for the Society of France, to provide funds for the statue by Miss Anna Vaughn Hyatt since erected on Riverside Drive.

In March, 1907, he received the appointment of director of the N. Y. State History Exhibit for the Jamestown Exposition; collected and installed it in systematic order, the features of which he set forth in an elaborately illustrated Catalogue of Exhibit, with the Exposition's Gold Medal as the result. Afterwards he wrote the State's Report, a handsome volume, copiously illustrated, and of about 500 pages, published in 1910.

In 1914 he edited the Genealogical and Family History of Southern N. Y. and the Hudson River Valley, Lewis Historical Society, 1914. An excellent steel engraving portrait of him appears therein. In 1917, he produced Annals of American Families, a 3-volume set which sold for $750.

By a scientific study and enumeration of the letters of the alphabet as they occurred in books, magazines, and newspapers, he arranged a table of the recurrence of letters, which results he set forth in a monograph entitled The Recurrence of Letters, read before the Albany Institute in 1894, then published in Paper and Press in 1895. While it served as a key for the solution of ciphers or secret writing, its more practical use was in its application to the keyboards of typesetting machines, and in this form is universally used.

Much interested in historical research, especially as it concerned his home city, he was made director of the Albany Institute and Historical and Art Society at its annual meeting in 1899, and continued as such for ten years. He made for this society several of its noteworthy collections, numbering a dozen or more, at the same time filling the office of librarian. As librarian, he gathered nearly 1,000 books written by Albanians, which list composed a biographical catalogue of 114 pages in 1902. The opening of this institution's new building, May 12, 1908, gave him opportunity to originate the novel system of indexing and the method of keeping the various record books.

He was elected to honorary membership in the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society in 1908, and in the New York State Historical Assn., 1909. Member: National Geographic Society, National Historical Assn.; American Copyright League, etc. Appointed City Historian of Albany, 1923. He has resided always in Albany, where the one child was born.

Address: 197 Western Ave., Albany, N. Y.

3124. MARCUS TULLIUS REYNOLDS: (Dexter[8]; Marcus Tullius[7]; Stephen[6]; Stephen[5]; Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. Great Barrington, Mass., Aug. 20, 1869. Prepared for college at Albany Academy and St. Paul's Concord, N. H., 1882-86; entered Williams College, 1886. Sigma Phi Fraternity. Graduated July 2, 1890. Studied architecture in the School of Mines, Columbia University, and graduated 1893, with the degree of Ph.B. Author: Housing of the Poor in American Cities, the prize essay of the American Economic Society for 1893, and received therefor the degree of M.A., Williams College, '93. He studied architecture in Paris, Rome, Athens, etc., and returned to America in October, 1895. He at once began the practice of architecture in Albany, N. Y., and has there continued.

In 1912 he conceived the idea of demolishing all that portion of Albany which lay south of State Street and between Broadway and the Hudson River. This was the oldest portion of the city, and, by reason of the narrow tortuous streets and its low-lying site, which subjected it to annual submersion during the spring freshets, had fallen into decrepitude.

After two years of discouraging effort, involving surveys, plot plans and perspective drawings, the project finally met with public approval. The property was acquired at the cost of more than two million dollars and an equal amount was expended in the construction of the monumental group of buildings which now encloses the Plaza, of which he was the architect. The first of these for the Delaware & Hudson Co., erected in the Flemish Gothic style, was completed in 1915. So this was continued in 1916 by an additional to the Delaware & Hudson office-building and a building for the Albany Journal. These buildings have a facade fronting on the Plaza of 660 feet and a perimeter of 2310 feet.

Marcus T. Reynolds has purchased and presented to the City of Albany a full-length portrait of Peter Schuyler, the first Mayor of Albany, who served from July 22, 1686, to October 13, 1694. This portrait, measuring seven feet by four, was painted by Sir Godfrey Kneller at the command of Queen Anne, when Schuyler visited England in 1710. It remained in the possession of the Schuyler family until 1920, when Stephen Schuyler, the last male of his line, removing from Quidor Knoll, the Schuyler homestead in Watervliet, disposed of it. Mr. Stephen Schuyler died May 7, 1923, on the very day that the portrait was presented to the City.

In 1918, the State purchased two blocks of property immediately behind the Capitol, and caused plans to be prepared for lofty office-building to be erected thereon. Mr. Reynolds, realizing that this would forever prevent the carrying out of any scheme of architectural development, prepared in 1919 a drawing suggesting a formal grouping of buildings around the plot already acquired by the State with the result that this site has been developed as a park, and the office-building will be erected elsewhere. In 1912 he urged the creation of a municipal Bureau of Buildings, and drew the first building code which he later, for the edition now in use, revised.

The Editors of this present history of the descendants of John Reynolds of Watertown, are under deep obligation to Mr. Reynolds for his genealogical collections. In 1898 he printed a twelve-page brochure on the Reynolds History. He collected and compiled the earlier and collated data presented in The Genealogy and Family History of So. N. Y. and Hudson River Valley, 1914, in Hudson-Mohawk Families, Genealogical Memoirs, edited by Cuyler Reynolds, 1911, both works published by the Lewis Historical Society, New York. These collections, originally begun by his father, have been the principal foundation upon which this 1923 history has been built. His residence is 98 Columbia St., Albany, N. Y.

His business address is 100 State Street, Albany, N. Y.

3126. WILLIAM BAYARD VAN RENSSELAER: (Laura[8]; Marcus Tullius[7]; 2 Stephens; Nathaniel[4]; James[3]; John[2]; John[1]) b. at 98 Columbia St., Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1856; d. In autumn, 1913, entered School of Architecture at Columbia University, where he remained until April, 1917. Upon war being declared, he immediately volunteered and was sent to the Officers' Training Camp at Madison Barracks, N. Y. On the completion of his course in August, 1917, he was offered the choice of a Captaincy in the National Army or a Second Lieutenancy in the Regulars. On the advice of General Wotherspoon, ex-Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, he chose the latter, hoping that he might the sooner be sent over-seas.

Commissioned Second Lieut., 48th Infantry, U.S.A., and ordered to Newport News. Unfortunately, it was for the most part the national army regiments which saw active service. While he was promoted to a First Lieutenancy before the order was issued which placed the National Army on an equal footing with the Regulars, he never went over-seas. After receiving his discharge, he returned to Columbia University, winter of 1918-19, and completed the architectural course which had been interrupted by the War.

In the summer of that year he went abroad and spent the autumn and winter in Rome and the spring and autumn of the next year studying architecture in Paris. In the late autumn he returned to Albany and entered the office of his uncle, Marcus T. Reynolds, with whom he is now associated in the practice of architecture, in Albany, N. Y. He is engaged (1923) to his second cousin Lydia Marcia Hun (who is 4973 in this Book.)

VIII.

SUTTON REYNOLDS

of Billings (Beekman Township), Dutchess Co., N. Y., was b. 1765; d. there in 1832, "an old man." We do not know the name of his father, but we believe that Sutton was a grandson of John[4] Reynolds (No. 42) who m. Hannah Sutton. John had a son (No. 147) and another grandson named Sutton (No. 359) who lived at Chappaqua, Westchester Co., N. Y.; and the old record published under the biographical sketch of John[4] speaks of his son John[5] (b. 1734) who lived in Fishkill, Dutchess Co., not so many miles from Billings. John[4] also had, among other sons, Joseph and James of whom he knew little. Sutton, we are inclined to believe from the 1790 Census of Beekman Township, was possibly son of Joseph. The four Reynoldses then in Beekman were:

SUTTON: himself, 1 male under 16; 4 females of which one was probably his wife.
JOSEPH: himself, 1 male over 16; 1 under 16; 4 females; 1 slave.
GRIFFIN: himself, 1 male over 16; 4 under 16; 3 females; 1 Indian; 1 slave.

Griffin Reynolds was of entirely different descent, as he came of the JAMES OF NORTH KINGSTOWN, R. I., Line; James was probably his brother or father, though he could have been the James (No. 146) in this book. But Joseph and Sutton, we think, were father and son, most probably of the John of Watertown Line.

Now, Sutton's father, and later Sutton himself, owned a large farm containing "Reynolds Mountain" and a fulling mill at Billings. It is said that the countryside took its woollen blankets there to be shrunken and laundered. A Sutton Reynolds served in the Revolution as a private in the N. Y. Troops, though this Sutton would have been only 17 in 1782.

Sutton m. Miss Phoebe Seaman, around or before 1790, who was b. about 1766, daughter of Samuel Seaman. Capt. John Seaman received from Charles I a Colonial grant in 1637 at Hempstead Plains, L. I. His descendants were prominent in the Indian and Revolutionary Wars—twenty-two were in a single L. I. Company in the Revolution. This Captain John Seaman, d. 1694, m. 1: Hannah, dau. Saml. Strickland; m. 2: Martha Moore, descendant of Rev. Christopher Young; had eleven children. Samuel[2] Seaman, son of John, m. Phebe Hicks (dau. of Thomas) who was b. 1640, and had Samuel[3] who had Samuel[4], b. Westchester Co., N. Y.; d. Dutchess Co.; buried Hyde Park in Quaker Cemetery. He m. Freelove —— and had Phebe, b. about 1766, who m. Sutton Reynolds.

An Eliza or Elijah Reynolds of Verbank, Dutchess Co., around 1828, was niece or nephew to Sutton Reynolds, and "cousin to Mary Reynolds Johnson." Egbert B. Johnson, grandson of Sutton, remembered Sutton who d. when Egbert was about eleven. This Sutton Reynolds who m. Phoebe Seaman has often been confused with Sutton Reynolds (No. 147) who m. Anna Carpenter. The latter's record is well known; but of the former we know but little. Sutton and Phoebe had:

1. SUSANNA.
2. ELIZABETH, (Eliza?)
3. CATHERINE, m. James Johnson, about 1818, as first wife. She d. before 1820.
4. MARY, b. Dec. 26, 1793, at Billings, Dutchess Co.; d. Aug. 1867; m. James Johnson, as his second wife, March 13, 1820. He was son of Samuel & Sarah Johnson, probably of Monmouth, N. J. James' father d. when he was quite young, leaving him and twin sister Mary and older brother Jeremiah, who m. Catherine Lake. Lived Dutchess Co. James enlisted in War of 1812. CALEB REYNOLDS, who died not long before November, 1773; m. Jane McKinney, banns Nov. 12, 1767, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City; banns June 15, 1768, June 19, 1768. Jane Reynolds, his widow, m. Nov. 12, 1773, Jesse Hawxhurst "of Westchester Co.," a cooper, at the First Presbyterian Church, N. Y. City. Jesse really was of Huntington, L. I. Jesse and Jane had Caleb, Anne, Jacob, Thomas and Daniel Hawxhurst. See Hawxhurst Genealogy; N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Rec. xii, 33; viii, 75; xxxiii, 24. We know of only one child which Caleb and Jane had before Caleb's early death. That child was Sarah Reynolds, b. June 23, 1770, baptized First Presbyterian Church, N. Y. City, July 12, 1770. The EDITORS believe that this Caleb is the same as the Caleb next following this paragraph. Also see pages 413-414 herein. Sarah Reynolds of the N. Y. C. Presbyterian Church was his sister, b. 1770.

CALEB REYNOLDS who lived in Oyster Bay, Long Island. Wife's name not known. He died when his son James was aged about five. It has been said that Caleb was of the Dutchess Co., N. Y., family, on account of mention of a Caleb in the Militia there. The Editors believe he was of the Greenwich, Conn., family; especially as John (No. 42) came over to Hempstead to marry Hannah Sutton; and David (No. 37) of Greenwich m. Penelope Wright of Oyster Bay about 1708. Information concerning Caleb is wanted by Mrs. Myron A. Lockman, Southdown Ave., Huntington, L. I., N. Y.

Years ago there was on Long Island a "——ardson Reynolds," probably Richardson possibly the son or grandson of John & Hannah (Sutton) Reynolds, just mentioned.

This Caleb Reynolds is surely the same Caleb, just discussed, who m. Jane McKinney and died shortly afterwards—see records of First Presbyterian Church of N. Y. City, as printed in the N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Rec. Caleb had a son James who m. Elizabeth Weeks. James and Elizabeth had two daughers: Mary and Phoebe. Elizabeth Weeks was the daughter of Jesse & Kate (Featherby) Weeks.

Phoebe m. Samuel Youngs of Oyster Bay, and had a son, David Jones Youngs, who m. Cornelia Townsend; and a daughter Hannah who m. Roger Auketell of Delafield, Wis., and had a number of children. See the Youngs Genealogy by Daniel K. Youngs.

Mary Reynolds, the other daughter of James, m. 1: Captain John Selleck, about 1815, and had only Margaretta who m. John Fleet of Oyster Bay. Mary m. 2: Charles Selleck, brother of Captain John, and they had only Juliet Louise who d. unmarried. Mary d. Jany. 23, 1866.

Margaretta Selleck, b. July 15, 1817, m. Nov. 20, 1839, John Fleet of Oyster Bay and had four children. John was b. April 12, 1818; d. Sept. 29, 1852.

1. MARY KATE FLEET, b. 1840; m. Dec. 17, 1857, Whitehead H. Van Wyck and had eight children.
   - ZERUAH, b. Oct. 1858, died young. Also Harry died young; and another infant son died young.
   - HELEN VAN WYCK, m. Oct. 15, 1901; Myron A. Lockman. She supplies this information.
   - FRANK, died in 1890, unmarried.
   - ALBERT, b. Nov. 10, 1867; m. Nov. 25, 1915, Grace Clyde Ebbets and has one child, Zeruah Van Wyck, b. March 2, 1917. Grace, b. 1877, is daughter of Edward A. & Mary Jane (Clyde) Ebbets.
   - EDWARD W., b. Sept 20, 1871.
   - MARY KATHARINE, b. Sept. 27, 1876; m. April 2, 1913, Howell James Lomax of Hereford, England, and has two children: Mary Van Wyck, b. Jany. 12, 1914. Anne Van Wyck Lomax, b. Decoration Day, 1915.
2. CAPTAIN HARRY FLEET, d. unmarried. Served in Civil War as non-commissioned officer in U. S. Navy.

GENERAL JOSEPH REYNOLDS: formerly a well-to-do resident of Cortland, Cortland Co., N. Y. As a youth of 24, he came to Cortland County in 1809, his sole possessions being two cows which he drove through the woods from Saratoga Co. He bought a small farm in Virgil, N. Y., and soon paid for it through his sturdy perseverance. Judge of Common Pleas, five years first judge (that is, County Judge). Presidential elector, Congressman, member of State Assembly, and wealthy man.

He was b. in Easton, Washington Co., N. Y., Sept. 14, 1785; removed some years later with his parents to Galway, Saratoga Co.; and to Virgil, Cortland Co., 1809. Commander of Company of Riflemen, War of 1812, not called to the front, but reserve against expected British invasion from Canada. Appointed Militia Major 1817; Colonel, 1818; Brigadier-General, 1823. Justice of Peace, 1815-1838. In State Legislature, 1818. Appointed judge 1821-1839. From 1825-1835 county supervisor. In 1832 he was a presidential elector and voted for Andrew Jackson. In 1834 elected to Congress from 22nd District (Tioga, Tompkins and Cortland Counties). One of founders and President of Board of Trustees of Cortland Academy. President Cortland Rural Cemetery Association. First president of the Cortland Bank.

Judge Reynolds was three times married, but all children were by second wife: Lyman, a planter in Costa Rica in 1876; Catherine, who m. May 24, 1849, Augustus L. Ballard, and she d. Aug. 2, 1853; Josephine, m. Arthur Holmes, May 10, 1865, but both (1910) are dead, though a daughter and a son, Bayard Paul Holmes were living. More detailed information can be found in The History of Virgil, N. Y., p. 41; History of Cortland Co., 1885; Historical Atlas of Cortland Co., N. Y.

ENOS REYNOLDS of Poundridge and Hawthorne, Westchester Co., group.

Q-1. ENOS REYNOLDS: (Whose son was he?) Born July 19, 1784; d. Unionville (Hawthorne), Westchester Co., N. Y., June 16, 1863, aged 78-10-28. Cemetery record says d. June 16, 1863, aged 78-10 mos.; buried Hawthorne Cemetery. He is almost surely of the Watertown line, but without the names of his parents; we cannot fit him into the genealogy.

He m. 1: Miss Mahala Miller of Bedford Village, who d. Jany. 18, 1848, daughter of Solomon and Deborah Miller of Bedford, N. Y. Solomon's will dated June 21, 1822, probated in 1827 at White Plains, mentions Enos and Mahala, showing that they were m. prior to 1822. Enos m. 2: Charlotte Vredenburgh, in Sing Sing (now called Ossinning by its embarrassed inhabitants). Charlotte was b. Feby. 23, 1797; d. Hawthorne, N. Y., April 5, 1871, aged 74-1-13. Eardeley incorrectly states that Mahala was dau. of Henry and Polly Miller.

"Enos owned the Harvey Barrett farm near Poundridge, N. Y., across the street from Sarah Green's father's farm. Enos bought a farm in 1830 in Hawthorne then called Unionville and moved there. You might find names of his parents in some cemetery in Poundridge district." The Editors are deeply indebted to Mrs. A. Leola Dixon, 74 No. Washington St., Tarrytown, N. Y.; and to Mrs. Francis A. Reynolds of Bedford Hills, N. Y., for all this information. Enos and his family were Quakers; descendants Methodists. Mrs. Dixon has an old portrait of him.

First two children b. Poundridge, N. Y.; third to ninth in Bedford Village; tenth and rest in Hawthorne, N. Y. Enos has, probably all by Mahala, his first wife:

ALFRED, b. Nov. 6, 1810; d. Ossining, March 23, 1878; m. Eliza - - -. Buried in Hawthorne Cemetery.

*SOLOMON, b. Feby. 10, 1812; d. Aug. 20, 1886, aged 74-6-10 "father"; buried with wife in Buxton Cem., Bedford, N. Y.; he m. Catherine Green. See below.

DEBORAH, d. Jany. 22, 1872, aged 58, Hawthorne; m. Berlin Ackerman. Buried Hawthorne, N. Y.

MARY, b. Dec. 17, 1816; d. Aug. 8, 1876, Hawthorne; m. Thomas Lyon, Hawthorne. Hawthorne Cemetery.

*ENOS, JR., b. Aug. 3, 1819; d. Brooklyn, Feby. 19, 1890, aet. 70-6-16; m. Ann E. Yerks, 1841. See following.

MAHALA, b. ——, d. White Plains; m. Ephraim Lane. Buried Pleasantville, N. Y.

JASON, b. ——, d. Kensico, N. Y.; m. Fanny - - -. Buried Kensico or Valhalla.

MORRIS, b. 1820; d. Jany. 22, 1857, Ossining, aged 36; m. Sarah Delancey, or Delancy. Buried Hawthorne Cemetery.

ISRAEL, b. ——, d. Greenwich, Conn.; m. Ann Shelley. Buried Greenwich.

SARAH, b. ——, d. Yorktown, N. Y.; m. Clark Mead. Buried Yorktown.

MATILDA, b. ——; d. Brooklyn; buried Pleasantville; m. Enoch Shelley.

LEWIS, b. Dec. 19, 1830; d. Hawthorne, Aug. 3, 1845; aged 14-7-25; buried Hawthorne Cemetery.

Q-2. ENOS REYNOLDS: Son of Enos, Sr., was b. Aug. 3, 1819, Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y.; d. Feby. 19, 1890, Brooklyn; buried Hawthorne, Westchester Co., N. Y. He m. 1: Miss Ann Eliza Yerks at Unionville (now Hawthorne) Dec. 2, 1841; who was b. Dec. 23, 1820, there; d. N. Y. City, Aug. 16, 1859, dau. Henry and Martha (Smith) Yerks of Hawthorne. He m. 2: Mrs. Fanny Maria (Wicks) Briggs, who had two children by first (Briggs) husband. Enos' children were all by first wife. Enos was reared in Hawthorne; but was in trucking business in N. Y. City with office at 26 Water St., there. Methodist; Republican. Lived at 90 Grove St., N. Y. City; also 350 Bergen St., Brooklyn. Mrs. Dixon has a portrait of him.

AMELIA JANE, b. Hawthorne, March 28, 1846; m. Olin J. Bird, April 29, 1868. He was son of Curtis and Patience (Newman) Bird, and was b. Sept. 26, 1846; Tarrytown. Father was b. 1806; had four brothers, Elisha, William, John and Robert. Elisha went to Wisconsin; John and William to Pennsylvania; Robert lived in this town. There are several different families of Reynoldses in this County, but I do not know that they are related me, of whom W. S. Reynolds is a member. James had children and grandchildren. One son was:

JAMES D. REYNOLDS (80 years old in 1915), with sister Betsey Ann Bryant (then 82) related their father's name was Daniel, their grandfather was Daniel Reynolds also. Daniel had brothers Stephen, John and Silas—as far back as they can remember. James D. has son Wm. Hastings Reynolds (the Hastings for his grandmother). Information by Mrs. Wm. H. Reynolds, Box 106, Andes, N. Y.

PHILETUS REYNOLDS: b. Old Stockbridge, Mass., April 25, 1776; m. Dremania Saxton, 1803. He removed to Windham, Greene Co., N. Y., where his children were born. He and James O. Gates bought the Carpenter farm, on which were a grist-mill and saw-mill. Mr. Stephen Spencer was his miller, and, as the machinery creaked somewhat discordantly, he christened the grist-mill the "old fiddle," a name it bore during many years. He also dealt in horses which he bought, fitted for the market, and then took in droves to market at a place called Bangall, Dutchess Co., N. Y. He was also builder of a hotel on the Cornell property, which he purchased in 1812. He removed from the County in 1816. Of his children, only Luther is living (1884). See History of Greene Co., N. Y., p. 395; pub. 1884. N Y. C.

Colonial and Revolutionary Records

Most of the following information was collected in 1897 by Marcus T. Reynolds and independently later by Spencer P. Mead, from the Greenwich Town Books; the Common-Place Book; and the Books of Deeds. These volumes are filled with the records of the family, increasing in numbers and importance with the years. The following Town Meeting Election at Horseneck, Dec. 24, 1739, is an example:

Captain James Reynolds appointed Moderator; also appointed Tax-Collector.

James Reynolds, Jr., appointed Constable, Commsnr. of Highways, Collector of Town Rate.

Nathaniel Reynolds, Commsnr. of Highways.

Daniel Reynolds, Jr., appointed Surveyor.

Reuben Reynolds, appointed Fence-Viewer.

David Reynolds, appointed Pound-Master.

Joseph Reynolds, appointed School Commissioner.

The property list of Greenwich for 1739 affords a sort of cross-section of the Reynolds heads of families, all descendants of John and Sarah who moved to that district only 98 years before:

East or First (Sound Beach) Society:		Believed to be:
Ebenezer[4]	£ 88	Son of Ebenezer[3]
Josiah[4]	44	Son of Jonathan[3]
David[3]	10	Son of John[2]
David, Jr.[4]	1	Son of David[3]
West or Second (Horseneck) Society:
Nathaniel[4]	£ 54	Son of Ebenezer[3]
James	86	Son of John[2]
Justus	77	Son of James[3]: John[2]
David[4] Sr.	102	Son of John[3] the Cooper
Jonathan[4] ye 3rd	58	Son of Jonathan[3]; Jonathan[2]
Joseph[4]	107	Son of Jonathan[3]; Jonathan[2]
Joshua	126	Son of John[2]
Peter	68	Son of John[3] the Cooper
Jonathan	87
Gideon[4]	52	Son of James[3]
Nathaniel[4]	72	Son of James[3]
James[4]	76	Son of James Sr.[3]
Jonathan	25
Hezekiah[4]	61	Son of Jonathan[3]; John[2]
Ruben[4]	59	Son of John[3] (Cooper)
Ebenezer[3]	34	Son of Jonathan[2]
Nathan[4]	21	Son of Jonathan, Jr.[3]
Stephen	21	Son of - - - - - - - -

Property ownership would imply that each of the above was in 1739 at least 21 years of age.

The family has given a considerable number of its sons to the various wars in which the Colonies and the United States have participated. The following lists include all Reynoldses of Connecticut and New York, so far discovered, who are on the old muster rolls up to and including the Revolution. Various militia commissions are elsewhere noted under the biographies of those commissioned. We have marked with a star those names believed to belong to our John of Watertown family; some of the names below certainly belong to the New London, Wethersfield, or Hartford Reynoldses of various other families. For greater detail and official records, see the REYNOLDS FAMILY ANNUAL, 1916, Revolutionary Soldiers Number.

I. King George's War, 1744-48

Joseph and John Reynolds appear in the Connecticut Muster Rolls for 1746-47.

§ However the following, copied from the N. Y. Geneal. & Biog. Record, xxxix: 190, "Loyalists of New Brunswick during the Revolution," probably indicates members of the Rhode Island or Watertown Line: Jesse Reynolds, who settled in St. John, N. B.; William Reynolds.

Joshua Reynolds, who, with Elizabeth and Pine Reynolds, possibly his wife and son, were in the muster of passengers on the transport Cyrus, Aug. 21, 1783, upon her trip from New York to St. John's River. Somehow, Joshua, Elizabeth and Pine seem to suggest a former residence in Dutchess Co., N. Y.—M. H. R., Editor.

General Index

The General Index to this Book is divided into two sections:

I. PERSONS, including Reynolds names.

II. PLACES, subjects, colleges, etc.

The second section contains some topics of interest in the study of heredity and eugenics, such as "consanguineous marriages," "twinning," "large families," etc. We hope that some one, using the material in this Book, will make a statistical study of average length of life, rate of increase for each generation, infant mortality, etc. The geographical index is included in the second section because place of residence is often essential in establishing relationship.

The same family name is often spelled in several ways: Randle-Rundell, Roe-Rowe, Husted-Heusted, etc. After such common names as John or Mary Reynolds a date in parentheses, or "Miss" or "Mrs." is sometimes added as an aid in identification. The identification numbers used throughout the Book do not appear in this index. All references are to pages in this Book.

Women are generally indexed under their maiden names; otherwise under married names.

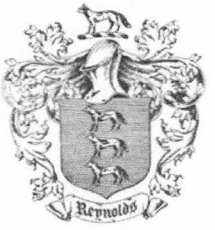
ANNOUNCEMENTS

The authentic Reynolds crest for framing, printed in appropriate permanent colors by a lithographic artist, is attractive and may be purchased from the Secretary for $3.50. It is about 10″ x 12″ square.



The watch fobs are gold plated on bronze, which will retain an old Roman gold color. Upon it the family crest is engraved by an expert; complete with a heavy grosgrain ribbon for $4.

Gold-plated pins, bearing the family crest as above printed, $1.50.

Note-paper and other stationery, twenty-four sheets of paper and envelopes, with the above crest engraved upon each sheet, $1.00 and $1.25 a box; engraved correspondence cards, excellent quality, $1.00 a box.

Beginning with 1899, the Association has published each year an annual book such as this. While a few early numbers are now out of print, the Secretary can furnish nearly a complete file of them over these twenty-five years to members who desire sets. Previous to this year they have been called Reports.

The following Annuals can now be purchased of the Secretary: 1904, 1905, 1906, 1909-1823 inclusive. The Report of 1914 is worth 75c; 1915, 1916, and 1921 are $1 each; 1922 is $2.50 a copy; and 1923 $2 to Association Members. This also covers membership in the Association for the year of the Annual. Annuals of other years than these can be had for 50c each. Some description of their contents is printed in the section following the after-dinner speeches.

The Secretary should be notified promptly of births, marriages, deaths and changes of address.

The Secretary is especially anxious to receive family records from all who are descended from the early Pennsylvania Reynoldses. If you are of this strain please write in, giving complete details of your own and your parents' and grandparents' genealogical history. Genealogical charts and forms for this purpose will be mailed by the Secretary upon request.

ANNA C. RIPPIER, Secretary, 413 Third Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.
