NICHOLAS HENRY LARZELERE. - When Louis XIV., for political reasons, October 22, 1685, revoked the Edict of Nantes, France lost by the Huguenot expulsion a half-million of her best citizens. The brothers Nicholas and John Larzelere emigrated to America and settled upon Long Island. Nicholas afterwards removed to Staten Island, where he raised a family of four children. The eldest son was likewise named Nicholas, who, in 1741, moved into Bucks County, this State, and settled in Lower Makefield. He raised it family of eight children, died at the age of eighty-four and was buried in the Episcopal graveyard at Bristol. His eldest son, also Nicholas, was born on Staten Island in 1734, married Hannah Britton, of Bristol, and moved into Bensalem, where he owned a large estate and raised ten children. He fought in the Revolution and died at the age of eighty-four. The eldest son of the last Nicholas was Benjamin, who married Sarah Brown, of Bristol, and moved into that township, had eight children and died at the age of eighty-four, on the old homestead the present borough of Bristol is partly built. Britton, the youngest son of the third Nicholas and brother of Benjamin, fought in the war of 1812, and in 1878 died in Philadelphia at the advanced age of ninety-six.

PICTURE OF NICHOLAS HENRY LARZELERE, APPEARS HERE.

The eldest son of Benjamin was Nicholas, who came into Montgomery County about the year 1825 and settled in Abington. He married Esther, daughter of Colonel Jeremiah Berrell, of Abington, had twelve children, died at the age of sixty-seven and was buried in the burial ground of the Presbyterian Church at Abington. His widow still survives at the age of eighty-two. Of his twelve children, eleven are still living. The second eldest son was Benjamin, the father of the present Nicholas, who was born on the 7th of March 1851, in Warminster Township, Bucks Co.

The genealogy on the maternal side is not so clearly traceable. His mother was Mary Maxwell, eldest daughter of Henry Maxwell, of Moreland, who married Ann Buskirk, eldest daughter of Jacob Buskirk, whose father came from Holland in the latter part of seventeenth century and married Elizabeth Lawrence, eldest daughter of Jonathan Lawrence, who was the eldest son of John and Mary Lawrence, who emigrated from England to America in the year 1713 and settled in Massachusetts Colony. Mary Lawrence was the daughter of Charles Townley, of Lancashire, England, and the genealogies of the Townleys of Lancashire run back to the reign of Henry VIII.

"Samuel Reynolds (Joseph, Joseph, James) was born in (North) Kingstown --- 7, 1714 and died in North Kingstown Sept. 1739. He married in East Greenwich Dec. 31, 1732 Ann Gardiner born in East Greenwich June 8, 1712, daughter of Samuel and Ann (Briggs) Gardiner. She married again after Samuel's death, on Apr. 19, 17-- in North Kingstown, John Aylesworth of Warwick.

"In his will dated Sep. 9, 1739, proved Sep. 18, 1739 he mentions: Son Thomas Reynolds to have homestead at age, or marriage of my wife, his mother. Two daughters, Freelove and Abigail Reynolds. Ann Reynolds, my true and loving wife, to have whole profits and produce of the above farm as long as she shall appropriate. Father-in-law and brother, George Reynolds to be guardian to my son and two daughters. Brother John Reynolds, to be executor.

"Children born in North Kingstown:

Thomas b. Mar. 16, 1733; m. W. Greenwich Sep. 22, 1749 Elizabeth Hopkins. (Thomas' family line is followed in the book Descendants of Christopher and Charissa Reynolds]

Freelove b. Oct. 21, 1735; m. Exeter June 8, 1755 John Kenyon

"Samuel Reynolds; born:...1714...Samuel's will was dated 09 September 1739, and proved on 18 September. In his will, he left the homestead to son Thomas when he reached 21 years of age or at marriage. it would seem that this was the share of land that Samuel received from his father's estate and apparently was the northwest corner of the original 727 acre Reynolds purchase which Thomas Reynolds later sold to John Reynolds on 11 February 1755. Ann received produce and profits from the above mentioned farm. Samuel named his brother, John, as executor of his will and named his father-in-law as well as his brother, George, to be the guardians of his three children. Samuel's will was partially burnt, and page 16 of the book, 'The Gardiners of Narragansett', 1919, by Caroline Robinson, makes the statement that he may have been an additional child based on the partial name 'olas' referred to in the will as a daughter."

NICHOLAS LARZELERE of Maxfield [Makefield] Township in the County of Bucks bequeathed one-ninth of his estate to HESTHER MITCHELL, one of his daughters. The will was dated 2 August 1791 and was proved in 1799. The will does not mention the name of her husband. General Index to Estates - Bucks County, Pennsylvania; Year 1799; File Number 2899; Larzelere, Nicholas; Will Book No. 6; Page 198; #2899

MITCHELL MAHLON , B, 1769 PA, HUSBAND m. MARGERUM LETITIA, WIFE [However, I do not think that the birth date of Mahlon is correct if he is a child of this couple. They were not married until 1771.]

Notes for Abraham Larzelere:
[keimar30reynolds.FTW]

Abraham does not appear in his father's (Nicholas) will. No deed or other documents have been found linking the two together, but no record of another family Abraham might belo Larzelere of County of Ulster,N.Y., widow, conveyed property.ng to has been found either. Probably the second son of Nicholas and named for his maternal grandfather. Abraham was named as a carpenter in N.Y.C. Sarah Larzelere of County of Ulster in State of N.Y., widow, conveyed property. This Sarah is reported as deceased by 1780, But probably much earlier(see Abraham's second marriage bond date). It is presumed he was a widower, but that part of the record is missing. A mid-nineteenth century Bible record lists 3 persons whose names and birth dates suggest they were children of the first marriage and also support the link between Abraham and Nicholas via photographs. Source of all of above- NYG&BR, Vol. 123, No.1 Jan. 1992. If, as suggested by some, Abraham married his first wife by 1744, it is unusual that Nicholas, named for his father's father, and presumably the first son, would not have been born until 1754.

Nicholas, son of Jacques and Marie, married Francoise Billiou, daughter of Pierre Billiou and Francoise DuBois. Nicholas' birth date or place of birth are unknown. The Billious arrived in New Amsterdam May 9, 1661. (See - Pierre Billiou, the Walloon, Staten Island Pioneer, by Elmer Garfield VanName, Rev. 1958). It is alleged that Francoise was born in Leiden in 1655, and there is no date for her marriage to Nicholas recorded. He died before 1699 and Francoise then married John Morgan. Nicholas and Francoise had two children - Nicholas and Marie, as below (See Pierre Billiou's will, proved Richmond County, 1701). (See also note on Francoise at bottom of page 3 of these comments) Children of Nicholas and Francoise: (See Family Group Chart #2) Marya (Marie) The only mention of this child is in the Stillwell Genealogy, with no birth date shown. She was probably born 1698/99, just before or near the time of her father's death. She is not named in Pierre Billiou's will as was Nicholas, her brother. She is probably the Marie who married Abraham DuBois in New Paltz, New York, October 12, 1717. Not included in the 1706 Staten Island Census.
