James Henry Reynolds became an E.U.B. (Evangelical United Brethren) preacher. He married Mary Ann Fishel, and they apparently had several children. After she died, he married Betsy Baker. James Henry Reynolds stayed in the Baker, West Virginia area and is buried at the cemetery behind the Baker United Methodist Church.

Stephen Reynolds may also be a brother of John William, George Washington, and James Henry Reynolds.

The Reynolds family may have come to Hardy County from the Winchester, Virginia area. Prior to their move to Missouri, John and "Wash" Reynolds settled on the east side of Lost River near Baker, West Virginia. James Henry Reynolds settled on the west side.

John William Reynolds and his family came to Missouri some time around 1860. He does not show up either on the 1860 Hardy County Census or the Lafayette County, Missouri, Census in 1860.

The Hardy County Census in 1860 lists four Reynolds households, as follows:

The following are listings found in the 1850 Hardy County, Virginia, Census:

	Age	Occupation	Birthplace
John William Reynolds	25	Laborer	VA
Sarah Jane Reynolds	21		VA
George W. Reynolds	28	Laborer	VA
Elizabeth J. Reynolds	12		VA
Ambrose Dellinger	16	Laborer	VA

Note that George Washington Reynolds was staying with John William and Sarah. As their first child was born June 7, 1850, the Census was evidently completed prior to that time.

	Age	Occupation	Birthplace
Henry Reynolds	61	Toll gate-keeper	VA
Elizabeth Reynolds	50		VA
Jemima Reynolds	18		VA
Thomas Reynolds	16	Laborer	VA
Eviline C. Reynolds	14		VA
Elizabeth J. Reynolds	12		VA
Louisa J. Reynolds	10		VA
Clarinda R. Reynolds	6		VA
Isaac N. Reynolds	2		VA

An Elizabeth J. Reynolds, age 12, shows up in both the households of John William Reynolds and Henry Reynolds. It is possible that this is the same girl and she was counted in both households.

	Age	Occupation	Birthplace
James Reynolds	23	Cooper	VA
Mary Ann Reynolds	22		VA
Margaret Cath. Reynolds	2		VA
Amanda Reynolds	10 mos.		VA

The James Reynolds shown is James Henry Reynolds, a younger brother of George Washington and John William Reynolds.

JOHN WILLIAM REYNOLDS

John William Reynolds was born October 24, 1824, in Hardy County, (West) Virginia. He died October 5, 1904, in Lafayette County, Missouri, and is buried beside his second wife, Rachael, in Mt. Hebron Cemetery, located northeast of Odessa, Missouri.

His first wife, Sarah Jane Bumgarner, was born in Hampshire County, (West) Virginia. She died July 22, 1869, and is buried at Greenton Cemetery, located north of Odessa, Missouri. John's second wife, Rachael Frances Bumgarner, apparently a half-sister of Sarah's, was also from Hampshire County, (West) Virginia.

John William Reynolds had at least one older brother, George Washington "Wash" Reynolds. George, who was born in 1823 and died August 22, 1868, also came to Missouri.

Their father may have been Henry Reynolds. Prior to the 1850 Census, only the "Head of the Household" was identified in the Census records. The 1840 Census lists only one Reynolds in Hardy County, Virginia, and that is listed in the index for that Census as follows:

Head of Household	County	page # on microfilm	Census Division
Henry Reynolds	Hardy	105	NO TWP L

The 1850 Census started identifying individuals in the households. In 1850, there were three Reynolds households listed for Hardy County, Virginia, and there was another household which listed a Reynolds as a household member.

Note that the head of the household is listed first. The spouse, if living, is shown second. Children were listed according to age and, finally, any other household members were listed. Note also the occupations and birthplaces are shown.

RECEIVED SEP 09 1996

This 1870 Census for Lafayette County, Missouri, shows John William Reynolds and family. At this point, the family had been in Missouri a few years, especially if the birthplaces shown in the Census are accurate. They may not be, however, as Mary Virginia Reynolds told her family she was born January 6, 1862, in (West) Virginia, and that she came to Missouri in a covered wagon.

In an undated letter to J.S. Reynolds, Stanley Reynolds of Baker, West Virginia, wrote that John and Washington Reynolds left Hardy County before the "War broke out between States".

1870--Lafayette Co., MO	Age	Occupation	Birthplace
John William Reynolds	45	Farmer	VA
Rachel F. Reynolds	20	Keeping house	VA
Edward F. Reynolds	20	At home	VA
Samuel L. Reynolds	17	At home	VA
Sarah E. Reynolds	15		VA
William H. Reynolds	12	At home	MO
Mary V. Reynolds	8		MO
Benjamin A. Reynolds	5		MO

In the "Birthplace" section of the Census, the Census taker started to write "Virginia" for the birthplace of William H. Reynolds; however, the state "Missouri" was written over it.

The October 6, 1904, edition of The Odessa Democrat notes the death of John William Reynolds on its front page as follows:

John William Reynolds, one of the pioneers of Lafayette county, died at his home near Mayview on Wednesday morning October 5, 1904, aged 79 years. Deceased had resided in this county for 45 years. Burial takes place today in the Mt. Hebron cemetery.

If the information in the obituary and the birthplace state for William H. Reynolds are correct, then John William Reynolds was in Missouri prior to 1860.

The following pages include listings and information about the "Family of John William Reynolds". After that, the different sections deal with the families of each of his children.

The numbering system used in the following pages relates to the relationship between the person to whom the number is assigned and the subject of the section, and the numbers are read from right to left. For example, in the section on the "Family of James Reynolds", James Smith "J.S." Reynolds, as the first child of James Reynolds, has been assigned the number 1. Terry Lee Reynolds has been assigned the number 12, as the second child of the first child of James Reynolds.

An asterisk () reflects that the spouse is the second spouse of the listed individual. Children from their marriage will have an asterisk () behind their assigned number.
