company was engaged at the fight of Gainesville, just preceding the battle of second Bull Run. As they were going to the front, Marion said to a comrade, "This is going to be a hard fight." He was shortly after seen to fall by this same comrade. In the retreat which followed, he was seen lying on his face by Capt. Wilson, who turned him over and questioned him as to how bad he was hurt. To this he made not reply but asked "How is the battle likely to go?"
These were, as far as is known the last words he ever uttered.
Alexander Stewart, a son of John Stewart, who was a cousin of Marion, went back to the field to look for Marion's body. He could not find it and was captured by the Confederates while looking for it. The papers at the time gave an account of the battle and a list of the killed and wounded, among which was one reading, "James M.
Stewart wounded in the breast severely." There was also an account of a man, name not given dying in an ambulance on the way from the battlefield to the hospital and being buried by the roadside. As his body was never seen among the dead on the field by anyone who knew him and as his father could find nothing of him in the hospitals to which the wounded from the battle were taken, all of which he visited, it has been supposed that he was mortally wounded and died in the ambulance and was buried by the roadside, as the man spoken of 28 Aug 1862, aged 20 years and 6 days.

HENRY REYNOLDS STEWART 1845 IN Reynolds, Drusilla*
Henry Reynolds Stewart, 9th child of James and Drusilla Reynolds Stewart, was born 20 Nov 1843, three miles east of Daleville IN. Married Jemima Ann Moffett, daughter of Isaac Lambert and George Irvin and Maria McCray Moffett, seven miles southwest of Muncie IN 18 Sep 1867. Died at Soldiers' Home at Monte Vista CO at 10 o'clock p.m. 9 Dec 1896, aged 52 years and 10 days. They have 8 children, viz: Maria Maude Drusilla; Myra [Myna?] Mabel Marcella Madge; Mildred Elizabeth Miriam Lellegarde Lar; Marion Verner Ney; Corydon Earl Chatham; Daisy Starr; Carl Bruce; and Claude Rome.

After the commencement of the civil War and after his brother, Marion had been killed, during the Morgan Raid in July 1863, they were cutting wheat at Jonas' Shoemakers. Henry was binding and his father was driving the reaper. Uncle Jonas came and took his place and told him they had sent for him to go in the service. He went past where his father was who gave him five dollars. He had enlisted at Middletown and went from there to Indianapolis under Capt. Fred Tykle, got as far as Cincinnati, was ordered back and mustered out, being gone only a week. On 1 Aug 1863, he enlisted on Co. G, 7th Ind. Cavalry, Capt. Walter K. Scott, who resigned in 1864. After that his Captain was William A. Ryan. [The following is not clear in the copy used for this transcription. There appear to be periods after the dates as well as the states, so it is not clear which dates belong to which event.] Letters from him show that he was at Columbus, KY, 8 Dec 1863. At Memphis TN 27 Feb and 14 Mar 1864. Camp Douglas, Chicago IL. On Feb 10th and 22d, April 7th and Jun 17, 1865. He was wounded in a skirmish at Oakolona MS, 22 Feb 1864. In a letter to his sister Jane, dated at Memphis TN 27 Feb 1864, he thus describes it: "I left Hickman KY, and have been marching and fighting nearly all the time since I left there. We started on the march about two weeks ago, it was said at the time, for Mobile AL. We marched for about a week when, we began to hear fighting occasionally and shortly afterward we started on the retreat. We retreated one day and night when we came into a small town the same time the Rebs came in on another road. Our skirmishers kept firing occasionally but we soon fell back and retreated. We had not gone far until they were after us. We formed again and gave them a volley or two and then fell back. Our company lost one man named Jacob Miller in the skirmish. We formed again in the evening and gave them a charge. We went into it right but lost six or eight men. There I got a slight pop in the shoulder and my horse was shot four times. He carried me about 40 rods from the field before he fell. Alf was with me when he fell. He dismounted and let me take his horse. I rode all night and until noon the next day when I got in an ambulance and rode the rest of the way here. None of the boys of your acquaintance were hurt except me. Alf captured a rebel horse and marched the rest of the way. The ball that struck me entered down in my back and came out on the top of my shoulder without breaking any bones. I am at the Adams General Hospital, have a good bed and good grub here and I think I will soon be able to join my Regt." The "Alf" he speaks of Alfred CCulbertson who had made his home at the home of James Stewart. The giving up of his horse to Henry when the latter was wounded, was an act of self-sacrifice for which he is always given praise when spoken of by an relative of Henry. It is fitting to note tha the came through the war unharmed, and now (1896) lives at Anderson, IN.

After being wounded, Henry was transferred to Company F, 15th Veteran Reserve Corps at Chicago, IL, and did duty as guard of prisoners. A letter from him dated at Camp Douglas, Chicago IL, 22 Nov 1865, says: "I have been transferred to the Veteran Reserve Corps on account of my shoulder. I took a piece of bone from my shoulder yesterday. It is doing very well but I don't think I will ever have the right use of my shoulder." He closes by saying: "Direct to Co. F, Veteran Reserve Corps."

While in Chicago, he was visited by his father. He served until the close of the war. He came home and married and moved to Missouri 4 Sep 1871. Stayed there until Nov 1873, when they returned to IN, where they lived until 19 Mar 1881, when he went to Colorado. On 2[0 or 6] Mar 1881, a letter was received from him by Linden B. Moffett that he had been and was working in a smelter in Leadville CO. March 6, 1892, July 4, 1892, Sep 9, 1892, Dec 7, 1892 and April 30, 1893, letters were dated by him to the same person stating that he was stil at the same work. From that time on until 1897, hw eas in that part of the country part of the time on a ranch and at other times at other employment. He wne to Crestone CO, 23 Jun 1897, and began work on theranch of George H. Adams, which was southwest of Crestone about seven miles. He worked at haying and teaming. He bought a horse, cart and harness of Peter Welsh for $15.00. He attended the "Carnival of Mountain and Plain", Oct 1897. On Sunday, 21 Nov 1897, he intended to go to Moffat CO, a railroad town about seven miles northwest of the ranch to send an order to Montgomery Ward and Company for some article of wearing apparel. He hitched his horse to his cart but forgot to buckle the belly band and when he got on the cart to start, the shafts flew up causing the horse to kick. He jumped out and in alighting broke his right leg and sprained his left ankle. He managed to drag himself close enough to the house to be heard and in doing so, filled the wound with dirt and manure from the carral and when one of his fellow workment came to him the bone of the leg was protruding through the flesh and also through a heavy pair of corduroy pants. He was conveyed to the house and John Kinney, foreman under whom Henry was working, telephoned a doctor at Sagwache CO, a distance of 25 miles, who gave him instructions to keep the leg bathed in hot water until he came which was three hours. He did so and when the doctor arrived the leg had not swollen any and he got it set about eight o'clock p.m. Monday, 22 Nov 1897. Adams took him to the Soldiers' Home at Monta Vista CO, Wednesday, the 24th. The doctor at the home at Monta Vista called in Dr. Gale for consultation and they decided to cut it off and it was done Thanksgiving Day, 25 Nov 1896, leaving about four inches of bone below the knee. He seemed to get along very nicely but the wound did not heal. He did not think but what he would soon be up and around again. He talked but little but was cheerful, smoked his pipe and read the papers. On 4

Dec 1897, he wrote a letter to Landen B. Moffett at Muncie IN, which was the last he wrote so far as is known. It reads as follows:

Monta Vista, Colorado, December 4, 1897, Mr. L.B. Moffett, Dear Nephew: I will write you a few lines. I have met with bad luck and lost my right leg below the knee. It got broke the 21st of Nov, had it set that night. Next morning Mr. Adams brought me here to the Soldiers' Home. After examination here they found they could not save the leg and it was cut off 25th November.

I have been flat on my back for two weeks and I don't know how much longer until I can get up. I have the best attention four nurses put on on my account, one for every six hours out of the 24. They stay right at my bed. I don't feel much like writing. Yours, Address Soldiers' Home, Monta Vista, Colorado, H.R. Stewart.

He got along very well but the wound would not heal and on 7 Dec 1897, lock-jaw set in, when he became insensible and continued in this state until he died at 10 o'clock p.m., Thursday, 9 Dec 1897, aged 52 years and 19 days.

Died in Lawrenceville OH, 27 Sep 1912. Their children are Edgar Lamar and Julia Anna. CLIPPING from Sprignfield OH paper on death of John Henry Reynolds: "Death Claims Well Known Physician. In the death of J.H. Reynolds, who died Thursday morning at his home in Lawrenceville, of paralysis, that community loses one of its best known and highly respected citizens. Dr. John H. Reynolds was born in Green Township, this county, on 8 Aug 1848, and was 64 years, one month, and 19 days old at the time of his death. A sad feature in connection with the death of Dr. Reynolds is that he would have celebrated the 36th wedding anniversary Saturday. Dr. Reynolds was stricken with paralysis three weeks ago while attending a reunion of the Reynolds family. he had but a short time before expressed his pleasure at being present at the gathering and had signified his intentions of being with his relatives next year, when the stroke came which resulted in his death. He was a graduate of the Cincinnati College of Medicine and began the practice in 1876. During the same year he was married to Miss Sarah Ballentine, who still survives him. To this union two children were born in the persons of Edgar L. Reynolds of Lawrenceville and Julia Ann Reynolds. Dr. Reynolds began the practice of medicine in Lawrenceville and later spent a short time in Osborn and Springfield, where he practiced with Dr. J.M. Austin. In 1800 he returned to Lawrenceville to resume his residence and has practiced constantly there since Dr. Reynolds was township clerk for many years and held that office at the time of his death. He was a member of the Odd Fellows Order, was connected with Springfield Lodge for 33 years. Besides his wife and children he is survived by one brother and three sisters. They are William Reynolds of near Springfield and Mrs. Olive Hill of Cunningham KS, Miss Elizabeth Reynolds of Springfield Township and Mrs. Rachel Titus of Harmony. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lawrenceville Reformed Church. Burial will be at Lawrenceville cemetery."
