Dorothy's Corner

Greetings to RFA Members from your Historian, Dorothy C. Jellinghaus
(Past re-organizing Exec. Sec'y and Treasurer)

As you all know, our annual RFA reunion is scheduled for Saturday, October 6, 1984, at the Ramada Inn, East in beautiful, historic Williamsburg, Virginia. We hope you have already made your reservations. Harry Reynolds and his wife, Joan, of Virginia Beach (of the John of Watertown line), are lining up an interesting program on Colonial Williamsburg and its Restoration. If your reservation is not already in the mail, please send your reservation luncheon check of $ 15 per person to our Treasurer, Howard I. Reynolds of 2177 Herblew Rd., Warrington, PA 18976. Remember the continued success of the RFA is dependent on you.

Ramada Inn, East, is holding a number of rooms and if you are interested, please call them and reserve one NOW. There are other hotels and motels in the area if you may prefer to stay elsewhere. If you call or write, please let them know you are part of the RFA group. The Ramada Inn, East will be the RFA headquarters for the meeting (Check the latest AAA Travel Book).

A special salute to these wonderful people, Linda Stangel, our Exec. Sec'y and Milly Reynolds, the Corresponding Sec'y who have helped Lin and Marcy Smith in getting the Recollections out this past season. As you know we met the Smith's three years ago at the very good meeting in Mystic, Conn. They delighted all of us by suggesting they would like to put the Reynolds' family records on their computer, so we would have a permanent record. Later came their further offer for them to send out a newsletter to members seeking hard to find information on their genealogies, giving information, welcoming inquiries from members and hoping for an exchange of such information. This they have done for the past two years as "Reynolds Recollections" coming out quarterly. The response from members has been good and has brought into the RFA many new members. Please make a note of the Smith's new address in Houston, as they have moved because of a job transfer for Lin.

Our Treasurer, Howard Reynolds, tells me he has twenty copies of the 1982 Annual still unsold and these will be on sale at the meeting for $10.00 per copy. You can place an order for one later when we hope to re-publish so as to supply those libraries around the country who have a collection of Reynolds books and/or annuals; some have already requested copies.

Hope to see you in Williamsburg on October 6th at the Ramada Inn, East. The Staff will be staying there, I believe, and some of us will be arriving Friday.

Most cordially yours,
Dorothy C. Jellinghaus

?MISSING REYNOLDS?

Mrs. Selmer E. Uhr, Swea City, Iowa 50590, needs the address of a past member: Mrs. Marjorie Seward Avery of Rochester, NY. The last known address was 72 Turkey Creek Dr., Palm Bay, FL 32905 and is no longer valid.

YOUR HELP IS HELPED

Your valuable Reynolds records need to be protected and preserved. The RFA's plan to computerize its member's records will safeguard our family's heritage for our children and their children's children.

The RFA is made up of people who are proud of their Reynolds heritage, both genealogists and non-genealogists. Many of our members have asked what a FAMILY GROUP SHEET or CHART is. It is a genealogical form used to record vital data of one family unit - husband, wife, children, and children's spouses.

There are as many different forms as there are different societies that publish them. Everton Publishing Company, New England Historical and Genealogical Society, National Genealogical Society (Marcy's favorite) or your local State, County and City Societies all seem to have forms available. Any of these forms may be used, the only thing we ask is that they be 8 1/2" x 11". Anyone having difficulty in getting these forms, please write Marcy Smith or Linda Stangel, our RFA secretary.

We would like to thank each of you that have sent your Family Group Sheets. Space in this issue does not permit us to print your names and lineage, but data from these family pages will be used in this publication in the future.

These forms will be filed and indexed and eventually bound as previously stated. The only thing needed to make this project go is more input from the membership. This is something where we can all help and contribute.

Line coordinators: we need your input and help!
