MINUTES OF THE WILLIAMSBURG REUNION

The 52nd annual meeting of the Reynolds Family Association began at noon on October 6, 1984, at the Ramada Inn East, Williamsburg, VA. President Stewart Essex led the gathering in the Pledge of Allegiance and the invocation.

Following a buffet luncheon, Joan Reynolds extended greetings and introduced the speaker, Marian Abbot, a representative of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation.

Mrs. Abbot was dressed in the manner of a wife of a well-to-do gentleman of the mid-eighteenth century. Her slide presentation included historical background on the settlement of Williamsburg, explanation of customs of the time, examples of architectural styles, and description of the restoration project. Mrs. Abbot's lively and informative narration provided a deeper understanding of the lives of our Virginia ancestors.

After a brief recess, the formal meeting began with the introduction of several of those present by our Historian/Consultant Dorothy Jellinghaus.

Dr. Edgar Reynolds of Portland, Oregon, who is currently spending the fall quarter in New York City with 22 students from Lewis and Clark College, reflected that his father, RFA author Marion Reynolds, would have been most interested in the growth of the RFA and the progress of research in the various lines.

Mrs. Esther Daniels, sister of Marion Reynolds, told of her role as "chief proofreader" when her brother was preparing his Reynolds genealogies. She reminded us that the RFA crest was originally discovered by Maion Reynolds on the tombstone of Joseph Reynolds in Bristol, RI. The tombstone still exists.

Mrs. Dorothy Smtih of Vero Beach, FL, announced that a book is being prepared for publication on Reynoldses who settled on the sea islands off the coast of Charlestown, SC, before 1700. New and authenticated material is available on this line.

Eight members on the Henry of Chichester, PA, line were recognized. Also, members of the John of Weymouth, John of Watertown, and the Electious of Middleboro, MA, lines were introduced. Mrs. Marian Peplau of Wisconsin shared some of her experiences in her research on the line.

Stewart Essex extended thanks to Harry and Joan Reynolds, who arranged the program. Thanks went also to Col. Jack Reynolds, who was responsible for publicity in the New England area but was unable to attend due to ill health. Milly Reynolds and Joan and Harry Reynolds worked on publicity in other areas.

Stewart Essex described the dedicationn of the house of Joseph Reynolds in Bristol, RI, as an historical site. The house, which was built in 1698, is being restored by the Andersons, who now occupy it and offer bed-and-board. Some descendants of Joseph Reynolds still reside in Bristol.

The treasurer, Howard Reynolds, reported a current balance of $3700 after expenditures of $1100 during the year. Increases were attributed primarily to the sale of the Annuals. Dues for 1985 are payable as of this date. The treasurer's report was accepted as presented.

Executive secretary, Linda Reynolds Stangel, noted that after one year in office she has a deeper appreciation of the job that Dorothy Jellinghaus did during her years as secretary-treasurer. She indicated that she has accepted fifteen new members, and Dorothy may have accepted others as well. All applications available today were given out, and others may request them through Linda. Two highlights of last year's meeting were mentioned: the formal recognition of the "Reynolds Recollection" as the official RFA newsletter and a warning against genealogies advertised by people like Beatrice Bailey. We regret that Louis J. Reynolds, who attended last year, died on August 28, 1984.

Marcia Smith, editor of the newsletter with her husband, Linwood, indicated that they are out of information at present and requested input from the membership. Updates on families (annoucements of births, marriages, etc.) are welcome as are queries and new research. They would like to include a column on each line, written by a line coordinator or someone who is actively researching.

Marcy showed an example of a family group sheet and explained how it is to be used in our indexing project. Linwood explained further that we seek information only on families with the Reynolds name. Using this index, we will be able to find names even though no direct descendant is a member of the RFA. A sample family group sheet will be printed in the newsletter.

A discussion followed regarding the desire of members to know the names and addresses of others on their line. Although this information has been printed in installments in the newsletter, many members felt that they would like a complete list. A motion was passed to publish in the next "Reynolds Recollections" a complete membership list with addresses by line.

A hardbound copy of the 1982 Annual was presented to Dorothy Jellinghaus by the Smiths in appreciation for her contributions and dedication to the RFA. Dorothy accepted with gratitude. She complimented the current officers for their efforts this year.

A motion was approved that the next meeting be held during the summer of 1985 in the Philadelphia area. The organizers are Mr. and Mrs. Willard M. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Reynolds, and Mr. Howard Reynolds.

The current officers were re-elected by acclamation.

A motion was approved to print an additional 100 copies of the 1982 Annual. Copies are to be sent to each of the 62 libraries on our list with a letter requesting a contribution for the book if it is possible to do so.

A motion was passed to offer Volume 1 of "Reynolds Recollections" for sale at a price of $2.00 each.

Publicity for the next meeting will appear in the newsletter, newspapers, and publications of genealogical organizations. Efforts will be made to provide more lead time.

The final portion of the meeting was a taped narration by Col. Jack Reynolds on the history of Christopher Reynolds's settlement in Virginia.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Reynolds Stangel, Executive Secretary

BOOKS NEEDED

Past and Present officers and RFA members please check your libraries for duplicate issues of old annuals. Marcy and Lin Smith need a copy of the following RFA annuals: 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1920, 1923, 1925, 1928, & 1929. Does anyone know where you can buy the 1959 Tillman Reynolds Book and how much is it?
