WHEN DUES ARE DUE.....	OUTSIDE COVER

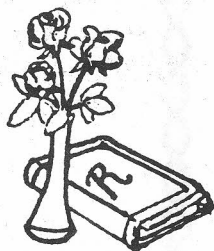

FROM THE EDITOR: The transition from putting out your newsletter by season to putting it out every other month hasn't quite caught up with the calendar yet, but it is well on the way and will be there before the annual meeting. When you are relying on the membership and officers for your input, time has to be allowed for them to make the adjustment also. BUT, it looks like all of us have about made the move to bi-monthly....well, almost all of us. It would be interesting to see the results of a survey put to the membership on a number of categories concerning the RFA and it's future.....what does the membership want of the RFA?...what do you expect from line and area coordinators or your officers...or your editor?.....Of course, a committee would have to put together the questions for a survey, but it would be interesting to see the results of such a survey, wouldn't it?

I would like to thank all of the members who have contributed data for the newsletter, and all who have written their comments on the newsletters that have been printed. It means a lot to me to know that the membership is responding positively to my editorship. If I fail to respond to your correspondence, prod me with a reminder that I haven't answered your questions or printed your query or whatever it is I've failed to do for you. Same goes for all the officers & coordinators. Remind them if they still owe you a response. All of us have a lot of irons in the fire outside the RFA, especially the membership. Let's just try to keep all the irons warm and working instead of just a few hot and the rest cold! Enjoy your summer, & plan to attend the RFA meeting in Wethersfield, CT if it is at all possible. We need you there.

NEW BEGINNINGS: Mr. and Mrs. Norman (Betty Jane) Cole were presented with their newest grandchild September 30, 1987. Alisha Mai Lim was born in Tucson, Arizona, the daughter of Ben and Laura Cole Lim. Alisha's father is Chinese (Born in Tucson) so now there are even Reynolds desc. with lovely oriental features! Laura married her track coach (She was in the 1984 Olympic trials (110 hurdles) in Los Angeles. Congratulations on behalf of the RFA.

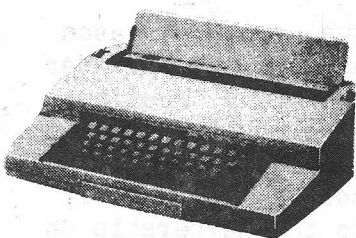

(Betty's chart drew queries which she has responded to, and she now has another confirmed cousin =4th cousin= which she didn't know about until after her chart was published in our newsletter...IT WORKS but you have to participate to make it work for YOU.)

NOT UP TO PAR: Thelma Moon Goodlet (Mrs. James H) has been ill with leukemia for the past couple of years and has occasionally been hospitalized for treatment, which has caused her to be less active than she was in the past, particularly in the area of correspondence. She enjoys reading the RFA newsletter and is sorry she is unable to be active in correspondence. Her address is 951 E. 37 Street, Hialeah, FL 33013 for those of us who have known Thelma personally or via the mail and would like to send her a card or note. When I was just beginning to get serious about researching my family history, one of the first people I wrote to for assistance was Thelma. Not only did she respond to my inquiry, she sent me her charts and put me in touch with another lady that might be (and was) able to help me. Thank you, Thelma.

DEEP REGRETS: Grace A. Reynolds died as a result of congestive heart failure on Friday, 29 April 1988 at the Steuben County Infirmary in Bath, New York. She was born 30 March 1893 in Woodhull, New York, the daughter of Frank and Martha Miller Harder. She was preceded in death by her husband, Otis C. Reynolds who died 11 July 1974. Grace and Otis were married 24 August 1915 in Steuben Co., New York. She was the mother of Reginald O. Reynolds of Corning, New York and the grandmother of Linda Reynolds Stangel of Schenectady, New York, former secretary of RFA.

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE:....Susan Clement....Since my plea for missing member charts, a few of you have responded for which I thank you. According to our membership list, there are MANY of you still procrastinating. Our goal is to computerize & index all member records in order to better reply time to those needing assistance. Inputting the info -- much of which has not been compiled previously or previously published -- is quite exciting and I will give you a more detailed progress report in the next issue of our newsletter.

If you have been procrastinating, why not send your member charts right away? If your family line is left out of our Master File, you'll have no one to blame but yourself.

MEMBERSHIP CHAIRMAN'S REPORT....Dr. Wayne Merrick, 146 Linda Lane
Meadville, PA 16335

This has been an extremely hectic year for me, but a lot of thought has been given to the RFA membership, followed up by action whenever possible. Several publications have been contacted in an effort to promote the RFA; with the assistance of our editor, letters have been sent to 79 former members requesting their attendance at our meeting, assuring them that they will be welcome. BUT I NEED YOUR IDEAS on how to reach new prospective members. PLEASE CONTACT ME WITH ANY THOUGHTS YOU MAY HAVE IN REGARDS TO INCREASING OUR MEMBERSHIP!!!

MEMBER CHARTS: This has turned out to be a popular feature of our newsletter. As a result of this feature, some members have corresponded with each other and more information has been received as update on a couple of other charts. Below are charts we have space for this issue:

WHAT: ANNUAL R F A MEETINGWHERE: RAMADA INN, 1330 Silas Deane Pkwy; Wethersfield CT 06109*WHEN: October 8, 1988 -- Commences 10:00 A M

There still hasn't been a final report received about the annual meeting; However; we do know that arrangements are being made to finalize the program as to schedule and menu, which is DEFINITELY being held at the Ramada Inn which has reserved a block of rooms for us ...details on pg 5; including a reservation form:

Member mail indicates that several of the members living in the Hartford area will be present at the meeting: Hopefully all RFA officers will be in attendance this year and perhaps your editor will be able to attend. The more members who attend, the more rewarding the experience will be for the membership. Last year in the "workshop" time, there was a lot of family history information exchanged among those present and all in attendance considered it to be a positive experience. This year's meeting should meet all your expectations; so please plan on being there.

As stated in the last issue; the preliminary report was excellent and well presented to the officers. Distance between officers has caused a delay in putting out the final report; as has vacation and scheduling conflicts.

The important thing is to make plans to attend, reserving Saturday the 8th of October for our annual meeting. There are numerous motels/hotels in the area --many much lower, some much higher than the Ramada Inn. In the next issue I will list several alternate places to stay, together with the reservation form as our president has assured me I should have the final report very soon:

HISTORIAN'S REPORT....Dorothy Jellinghaus....Re-print of an interesting experience.

The writer and a friend represented the RFA at the annual Bean-Hole-Bean picnic dinner at the Dean Reynolds Home and Mill in Etna, Maine, on Aug. 7, 1977. It was a unique and interesting experience to meet sixty one members of Reynolds' families ranging in age from 96 to 6 months, most of whom were descendants of Silas Dunbar Reynolds, as recorded in the former Marion Reynolds' book "The Robert Reynolds of Boston - 1630". Their Secretary, Merton Reynolds is a first cousin of the author. Their President, Miss Olive Reynolds, who long was a member of our RFA when she was a school administrator in Elkton, Maryland, is now living in Fort Fairfield, Me., & gave an interesting talk on "Reynolds' Roots in Maine". The writer was asked to tell them about our reorganization and plans and then asked many questions.

REYNOLDS FAMILY REUNION: The Reynolds family above is holding their 15th reunion Aug. 14th at Camp NEOFA located in Liberty, Maine. If planning to attend, bring your picnic lunch for dinner at 12:00. A little program is being planned, followed by a business meeting.

REYNOLDS-HARMON REUNION: On Aug. 28th this Reynolds family will hold it's 8th annual reunion. It will again be held at Krodel Park in Point Pleasant, W.VA. If planning to attend, bring your favorite covered dish. Business meeting at Noon followed by the meal. The Club House has once again been reserved the "SHOWBOAT" Reynolds family desc. of Thomas Jefferson Reynolds
