FROM THE EDITOR: As time approaches for the meeting in Annapolis, it seems to speed by at a greater rate of speed than in previous years. It couldn't be because everyone is getting older, so it must be because of preparation for the annual RFA meeting. We have heard that Col. Jack Reynolds, RFA Vice President will attend the meeting if it is at all possible. I will be looking forward to meeting him as he hasn't been able to attend the last few meetings. Another of our RFA Vice Presidents, Dr. Glenn Reynolds has said he also plans to attend this meeting. Nary a word has been heard from our President, Brian Reynolds or our Executive Vice President, Robert Reynolds on whether they will attend. Our Executive Secretary will be in attendance and tells us she has talked to Dorothy Jellinhaus who is doing very well in her recovery, but it is not known at this time if Dorothy will be up to the trip. No word has been received from our corresponding secretary, Millicent Reynolds. Let's hope that in this case NO NEWS IS GOOD NEWS!! IN REFERENCE TO THOSE WE HAVE NOT HEARD FROM TO DATE.

Since it was decided to have the meeting at Annapolis, I have been trying to accumulate as much information as possible for our Reynolds found in Maryland, and have continued to get as much Reynolds data excerpted in both new and old books as I can. For this issue, there will be quite a bit more of this random info. on page 4 under "Reynolds in Maryland". If you think there is any merit to this type of input in the newsletter, let me know.

In VOL.VII, No.3, under "Reynolds Rummaging", I used a new print wheel which allows me to put 90 letters in the same space that 60 letters were in before. With the extra white space the type is very clear and distinct and should be easily read by most of the members.

IMPORTANT Bertha Reynolds Wilson has been an RFA member for about 10 years and has sent me 2 photocopies from RFA annual(s) she is trying to identify. The 1st page is the first page of a general index and begins with "The General Index to this Book is divided into two sections: I Persons, including Reynolds names

.....273 (page #) The page ends with "Allen, Virginia (miss) The largest page no. on this page is 423 (for Abram Ackerman) so it must be a thick book!

The 2nd page looks like a title page from a book, "The History and Descendants of John and Sarah Reynolds (1630?-1923) of Watertown, MA, & Wethersfield, Stamford and Greenwich,CT" by Marion H. Reynolds and was printed in 1924. If you can help me help Bertha, it would be greatly appreciated by both. Bertha's quest is to discover if there is ANY connection with the Aldens and the Reynolds. ((Aldens were shown on the index page.))

For all of those that I owe letters, please keep having patience. It is very difficult to borrow the time for correspondence, but replies will be forthcoming.

REYNOLDS IN MARYLAND: If you have looked for your Reynolds and allied families in other states, such as Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia, then perhaps your records will be found in Maryland's extensive collection of records going back more than 300 years. I will list the book, author, year and publisher if known, no. of pages and if indexed or not followed by all Reynolds info found in the book mentioned. All of the books were used at the Burton Collection of the Detroit Public Library. Hopefully SOMEONE may be looking for something in this miscellany.

ANNUAL RFA MEETING to be held at the

MARYLAND INN, 16 CHURCH CIRCLE, ANNAPOLIS, MD 21401

Phone - 1-800-847-8882 (outside MD)

10:00 A.M. - MEETING CALLED TO ORDER

WILL YOU BE THERE?

LAST CHANCE! If you don't have your reservations in by now, you may miss out on being part of this year's meeting.

By having our meeting at the Maryland Inn, part of the Historic Inns of Annapolis, we are told we have all of Annapolis at our feet--the U.S. Naval Academy, St. John's College and Campus, great mansions of the Revolutionary period, the finest in restaurants and taverns, Chesapeake Bay, with old Annapolis harbor, restored homes, unique shops, historical inns, churches and other buildings, including Maryland's state capitol, and on and on.

For those of you attending, please bring any memorabilia, books, or family history data that you would like to share with the others present. Exchanging ideas and sharing those memories are great ways to get to know each other.

Hopefully, this will be a very productive meeting; what's with the election of officers to fill the vacant positions, follow-up on the computer project, membership drive suggestions, publicity ideas to be expanded on for future growth of the RFA, plus all the different ideas brought up during open discussion.....that's what it's all about. All of the points that have been mentioned here add up to one thing.....the future of the RFA.

All aspects of the upcoming meeting have been covered in past issues. All that is needed now is for all of us to show up at the meeting and have a GREAT time.

Some of the topics which have been mentioned for discussion by members are:

LINE AND AREA CO-ORDINATORS

Electing productive officers

Regional meetings

GETTING ALL THE RFA RECORDS COMPUTERIZED

Organizing a membership drive

Constitutional convention - committee

PUBLISHING ANOTHER ANNUAL WITH NEW MATERIAL - committee

Reprinting some of the old annuals

Acquiring books for the RFA's library

Actively soliciting donations/endowments/grants - committee

Having someone responsible for publicity for meetings
(and maintaining publicity records)

If your pet project or problem hasn't been mentioned, then bring it along for discussion. Also think about where and when you would like to have the next annual meeting of the RFA.
