MESSAGE FROM RFA PRESIDENT BILL KING

While researching my Reynolds family, and living in the area, I have become reasonably knowledgeable of other early Reynolds' families along the Rappahannock River in VA. These families, with the exception of my line [#35], have never been adequately researched and thus have not been published. Part of the reason behind this is that Tillman has placed a number of them in the wrong families and also in the wrong family combinations. During the last six years, I have attempted to help those RFA mem-bers whom I thought might belong to these Rappahannock families by providing them with family summaries [as I know them to be]. Otherwise, no writings of these early families exist to my knowledge. In the year 2001, I plan on presenting, through a series of articles for RR, about what I believe the records show concerning these early Rappahannock River Reynolds families.

APOLOGY TO RFA MEMBERS

Dear Cousins,

I deeply regret that I have been unable to do my job for RFA over the past year causing, among other things, delays in getting items for the newsletters to the editor, causing the news-letters to be late. Hopefully things will be better in 2001! Happy New Year to each of you!

THE 2000 RFA REUNION

A reunion in Salt Lake City is always a success. Members get to bury themselves in the LDS Family History Center Library, with the reunion ending in a RFA meeting for an update on RFA activities. Some highlights of the 2000 reunion:

The guest speaker at the luncheon was William

Dollarhide of Heritage Quest, who made a great presentation on "The Search for Philip Reynolds: Using Deeds to Trace the Trail of an Ancestor." All enjoyed the presentation and took home some new ideas for searching for our elusive Reynolds ancestors.

Jean and Wilton Whisler donated a booklet containing a collection of Chester Co. PA documents extracted by Wilton. RFA is extremely grateful to those who share their research work with RFA.

RFA Business Meeting

Election of RFA Officers: There were no nominees for candidates for office. Fortunately, the incumbent officers were reelected for 2001.

A report on the 1850 census project will be made in the Mar-Apr RR. RFA does still need members to read census schedules. The counties and States still needed will be identified in the next issue.

Variety in the newsletter: We need members to submit items about Reynolds families to the Editor. Any news item, family tradition, anything that tells about members of our Reynolds Families. An example is a report of your own family reunions. These reunions are the very best way to get others of your family interested in finding your ancestors.

Three new members joined at the reunion: Leslie Robison, and Parker & Frieda Hall.

Attendees at the reunion were:

Louise R. Beck, Sandy, UT
 Vera Bunkoff, Niskayuna, NY
 Susan R. Clement, Swansea, MA
 Parker & Frieda Hall, Citrus Heights, CA
 John & Jane Harris, Tallahassee, FL
 William & Helen King, Montross, VA
 Radine Hoag, Los Angeles, CA
 Marie Hoffman, Poestenkill, NY
 Richard A. Hogg, Battle Ground, WA
 Watson & Sarah Lundie, Holland, MI
 Rosemary Markham, Provo, UT
 Patricia McPherson, Topeka, KS
 Barbara A. Moore, Falls Church, VA
 June Mullen, Shawnee, KS
 Marilyn Newton, Winterset, IA
 Joyce Page, Springfield, VA
 Mil & Sarah Pribble, Palo Alto, CA
 Glenn G. Reynolds, M.D., Gig Harbor, WA
 Leslie Robison, Brigham City, UT

Alton & Betty Sorensen, Salt Lake City, UT
 Wilton & Jean Whisler, Burien, WA

RFA appreciates the attendees, and gives special appreciation to Rosemary Markham who hosted the reunion in 2000.

THINGS OUR RFA MEMBERS NEED TO KNOW

The RFA Web Site Address:

<http://www.narnet.com/rfc/rfa.htm>

If you do not have your access code, please send name and RFA member number by e-mail to Lee Taylor at: rfalee@aol.com. Appreciation for this site goes to Joe Reynolds of Pittsburg TX.

Your Member Number

Your member number is the four-digit number found on the first line of your address label of your newsletter, e.g. pd01 1111 25. "pd01" is the most recent year you membership is paid for; the 25 is the temporary line number assigned to you by RFA.

Reunion Hosts Needed

For many years, the reunions have been hosted by the officers of RFA, over and over and over. If you would like the reunion to be in your town and you will be the host we will happily bring it to you. One of the experienced officers will be your backup and tell you what has to be done and when. The basic needs are nearness to airport, parking at hotel, a good genealogy library near the hotel. Most counties and cities now have genealogical societies with good libraries even if within the local public library.

Please let Bill King, the President of RFA, know that you are interested. His address is on the back cover of this newsletter.

About the RFA Archives

Because of sheer volume, the archives have now been divided between Lee Taylor (South) and Sue Phaneuf. (North). For the same reason, many are not yet in the computer. The computers are at different locations, so the computer cannot be accessed by users. The officers of RFA use them to match a new member to others, if there is a match. Additionally, the Line Coordinators should contact a new member when records are published in RR indicate that the member may belong in their line.
